

Chapter 1376 We Will Kill You

As everyone listened to the heated exchange, they understood what was happening.

It appeared Julio and Jeremias had ulterior motives.

Suddenly, Julio stepped forward and turned to Lindy. "Lindy, my feelings for you are sincere. Why can't you see that? If we were together, I'd treat you well. Why not let me be your boyfriend?"

Lindy's face turned stern, her demeanor cold. She hadn't expected Julio to take advantage of the situation like this.

Yet, Lindy was no pushover. Confronting Julio's shady intentions, she responded sharply, "Treat me well? Do you think abandoning me when a crisis arises is treating me well? Julio, I have no interest in becoming your girlfriend. If you have any sense, you'll give up on that idea now!"

Julio's expression grew rigid at her blunt rejection. He hadn't expected such a firm rejection from Lindy.

Anger took over, and he lost his composure. "Lindy, I've been nice to you. I haven't forced myself on you! Who do you think you are, talking to me like that? You're a bitch! Since you are so ungrateful, don't blame me for forcing you now!"

Julio's presence became threatening as he readied himself to use his superior strength to control Lindy.

Nearby, Liam was on the ground, weak and furious.

He regretted his brief lapse in judgment that had led to Lindy's dangerous predicament.

Liam was filled with remorse now.

He now realized the harsh truth: only strength mattered.

crisis arises is treating me well? Julio, I have no interest in becoming your girlfriend. If you have any sense, you'll give up on that idea now!"

Julio's expression grew rigid at her blunt rejection. He hadn't expected such a firm rejection from Lindy.

Anger took over, and he lost his composure. "Lindy, I've been nice to you. I haven't forced myself on you! Who do you think you are, talking to me like that? You're a bitch! Since you are so ungrateful, don't blame me for forcing you now!"

Julio's presence became threatening as he readied himself to use his superior strength to control Lindy.

Nearby, Liam was on the ground, weak and furious.

He regretted his brief lapse in judgment that had led to Lindy's dangerous predicament.

Liam was filled with remorse now.

He now realized the harsh truth: only strength mattered.

Without enough power, one should not expect others to be kind.

Even in the Human Clan, there were opportunists.

Despite his new understanding, Liam felt helpless now. His weakness prevented him from confronting Julio and Jeremias, both at the peak of the ninth stage of Primogem Expert.

Seeing Julio's true nature, Annabella was angry, ready to intervene.

However, just then, Jeremias smirked, standing in her way. His voice cold, he taunted, "Don't think I haven't noticed you. Since my brother has chosen Lindy, I'll deal with you!"

Annabella was taken aback by Jeremias's blatant disrespect, but she knew she and Lindy were outmatched in strength now.

Trying to control her rising anger, Annabella cautioned, "Do you two understand the repercussions of your actions? What if our elders hear of this? Julio, Jeremias, it's best if you leave now. I assure you, no word of today's events will escape."

Jeremias responded with a scornful laugh, "Feeling frightened now, are you? Annabella, your sword formation has already been activated before. Liam and his companions are too weak to activate it again. You and Lindy don't stand a chance against my brother and me. You'll have no choice but to comply with our demands now. Once we're finished, we'll kill you to ensure your silence. Who will then find out about the truth of

Chapter 1376 We Will Kill You

+120 Points at most what happened here? To anyone else, it'll appear you two were killed by the Titan Bugs. After all, who's to contradict our story?"

Our ads aim to provide better support for authors.

 I want no ads >

100.0%

22:33 