

Chapter 1382 The City Lord's Shock

With Chad and Everett standing guard, the night passed without incident.

As the dawn broke on the second day, there was a faint stir from Liam's direction.

"It looks like Liam's breakthrough is nearly finished. His power is almost at the level of an eighth-stage Primogem Expert!" exclaimed Chad, barely containing his excitement.

In the stronghold of the Titan Bugs, although being an eighth-stage Primogem Expert wasn't decisive, it was sufficient to ensure Liam's safety.

Chad felt a genuine happiness for Liam.

Soon, Liam made the smooth transition from the seventh stage to the eighth stage as a Primogem Expert.

Just when everyone was ready to set off, thinking Liam would awaken, they noticed his eyes remained shut.

Liam was clearly still in seclusion!

Chad's brow creased. After a careful check, he realized Liam was still trying to understand the Death Power.

To Chad's surprise, Liam had advanced his mastery of the Death Power from 8% to 9%.

"Let's wait for a while. Liam's still breaking through!" Chad said to everyone.

Wanting to provide Liam with the ideal conditions for his seclusion, Chad quickly signaled everyone to keep waiting.

Upon hearing Chad's words, Lindy and the others were stunned.

They had not expected Liam to possess such an extraordinary talent for cultivation, especially his profound compatibility with the Death Power.

To continuously grasp such a complex law power was difficult, often requiring an epiphany or an innate alignment with the law power itself.

Grasping the formidable Death Power, which was nearly impossible for the average person, was remarkable.

Yet, Liam was comprehending the Death Power with startling ease. This made everyone shocked.

Chad guessed that Liam had likely achieved 100% compatibility with the Death Power.

Both Chad and Everett exchanged looks of astonishment.

In low voices, they agreed that Liam's remarkable abilities should be reported to the Lord of Rosefinch. Through his influence, the City Lord would take notice of Liam's talents.

What they did not realize was that the City Lord, from his place in the Celestial Palace, had been observing Liam's progress through the Network of Human Sovereign.

City Lord was leisurely sipping his coffee when he abruptly stopped, the cup still pressed to his lips.

He was stunned to witness Liam swiftly mastering the Death Power.

Even the City Lord, known for his vast knowledge and usual calm, found himself deeply shocked by such a display of talent.

Caught up in his excitement, the City Lord stood up so quickly that he forgot to set down his cup. Coffee drenched his clothes in an instant.

