

Chapter 1397 The Special Magical Circle

---

Everett was the first one in the group who was unable to exercise restraint. While everyone was busy discussing how to destroy the magical circle, he made the first move.

He summoned all his energy and launched a powerful attack at the magical circle.

However, just as a sense of triumph descended over Everett and he felt certain he could easily destroy the magical circle, he suddenly noticed a very peculiar energy forming on the surface. The next moment, this energy directly repelled his attack.

If Everett hadn't scrambled out of the way in time, his own attack might have left him injured.

Seeing Everett's condition, Lewis, Everett's good friend, burst out laughing and said, "Everett, you're not strong enough. If we want to destroy the magical circle, I'm going to have to take matters into my hands. Move aside. I'll handle this."

Lewis was indeed the strongest person in the group. Everyone recognized him as the most capable choice to destroy this magical circle.

Lewis became the target of everyone's expectant gazes as he prepared himself, gathering all his strength to deliver his most powerful strike.

However, even though Lewis used up every ounce of his power, the magical circle still repelled his attack.

Lewis didn't move out of the way in time and was hurt by his own attack.

Looking for payback after being mocked by Lewis earlier, Everett naturally seized this opportunity to say, "Lewis, is that all you've got? I thought you would destroy the magical circle, but you ended up giving us all quite the surprise."

Lewis snorted, visibly displeased.

He felt embarrassed for his failure to destroy the magical circle. He glared at Everett but kept his mouth shut.

Liam said with a serious expression, "Everyone, let's stop fooling around. This magical circle belongs to the Titan Bugs. Our entire focus should be on destroying it."

Every member of the team had immense respect for Liam. So, once he spoke, they all became serious and started debating different ways to destroy the magical circle.

Soon, Chad suggested, "Our best option might be to use the Gilbson family's sword formation. If even Everett and Lewis couldn't damage the magical circle, the Gilbson family's sword formation is our best bet."

Both Lewis and Everett nodded in response to Chad's idea. At this point, the Gilbson family's sword formation was truly looking like their best hope.

If even that failed to destroy the magical circle, then they would surely be left with no way to do it.

So, Chad, Lewis, and Everett quickly set up the Gilbson family's sword formation and activated it. Working in tandem, they aimed a powerful sword beam at the magical circle.

However, what everyone thought would be a sure strike to eliminate the magical circle didn't go as planned.

The magical circle instantly repelled the sword beam's attack.

As Liam watched this unfold, his brows knitted.

He had just sensed an unusual reaction from the sword of darkness he carried.

It seemed that something had stimulated the sword of darkness.

Without dwelling on it, Liam drew the sword of darkness from the sheath on his waist and held it in his hand, carefully analyzing its aura.

Sure enough, the sword of darkness had indeed been stimulated.

Liam deduced that something within the magical circle was attracting the sword of darkness, causing it to react this way.
