

Chapter 1398 The Guidance Of The Sword Of Darkness

Liam gazed at the sword of darkness in his hand, feeling it vibrate. He realized it was signaling that it could shatter the magical circle.

With that realization, Liam steeled himself, tightened his grip on the sword of darkness, and edged closer to the magical circle.

Lewis and Everett, watching him, realized Liam also wanted to try to destroy the magical circle. They quickly warned him about the magical circle's power to repel attacks.

"Liam, you shouldn't do this. This magical circle is peculiar, and it's too powerful for us to destroy."

Liam offered a slight smile and replied, "I know what I'm doing. Don't worry."

Since Liam was determined, Lewis and Everett did not persist. They nodded and moved closer to Liam, prepared to save him if anything went wrong.

Their willingness to help was not because Liam held a special status but stemmed from their deep respect for Liam's character. They acknowledged Liam as a friend.

In fact, Liam's innate charisma had a subtle influence on everyone present.

Liam was oblivious to this, concentrating solely on the magical circle in front of him.

In an instant, Liam drew the sword of darkness.

As the sword of darkness met the air, it unleashed a strange pulling force.

Everyone was confused, unable to grasp the situation.

Only Liam understood that the sword of darkness had detected the negative substances within the magical circle.

Thinking of this, Liam advanced towards the magical circle with the sword of darkness in hand.

He then laid the sword of darkness on top of the magical circle.

As expected, dark substances quickly rose from the magical circle and were completely absorbed by the sword of darkness.

Seeing this, everyone understood the situation.

The magical circle held a lot of dark substances. The dark substances shielded and empowered the magical circle, enabling it to dodge and reflect the attacks from Lewis and the others.

Without the sword of darkness, no one would have discovered this.

One member of the team, a master of magical circles, said, "The dark substances come from the souls of the Titan Bugs who endured suffering and death at the hands of their ruler. Before their deaths, they endured extreme torture by the King of the Titan Bugs, filling them with deep resentment, which created the dark substances. The King of the Titan Bugs did that to keep the magical circle alive and strong. From my analysis, the King of the Titan Bugs tortured nearly one hundred thousand of his own to sustain the magical circle."

The group was stunned by this information.

Liam was also shocked. He had never imagined the King of the Titan Bugs could be so brutal, sacrificing nearly one hundred thousand Titan Bugs just to construct this magical circle.

This kind of action had never crossed Liam's mind before. He had once thought that these dark substances came from his fellow members of the Human Clan.

Now, it looked like the King of the Titan Bugs really deserved to die.
