

Chapter 1410 It's The Same Person

As Annabella spoke, Ameer carefully watched her expressions.

Noticing her admiring look, he realized she had feelings for the man she mentioned.

Inwardly sighing, Ameer muttered, "What a pity! Liam is such a fine young man, but it seems he won't be my grandson-in-law."

Ameer's comment was simply an exclamation, yet it caught Annabella completely by surprise. "Grandpa, whose name did you just mention?" she asked.

Ameer was momentarily startled but didn't think much of it. He casually replied, "I was talking about Liam Hoffman, the genius I've been recommending to you."

The shock on Annabella's face grew. "Grandpa, is this Liam about my age, tall, and slender?"

Annabella proceeded to describe many of Liam's traits to confirm if the genius her grandfather had mentioned was indeed the Liam she knew.

Ameer, frowning as he compared the descriptions, soon realized they were talking about the same person.

"Annabella, how do you know what Liam looks like? Have you met him before?" Ameer asked in surprise.

Chuckling, Annabella replied, "Grandpa, the man I was just telling you about is Liam. I never realized he was the same person you've mentioned all along. If you had mentioned his name sooner, I would have known."

Annabella hadn't expected such a twist. She marveled at the coincidence that Liam was the rare genius her grandfather had talked about.

As she remembered Liam's remarkable abilities at the Titan Bugs' stronghold and how he had surpassed other cultivators at his level, Annabella became convinced of his extraordinary talent.

Upon hearing Annabella's words, Ameer laughed heartily and clapped his hands. "What a coincidence! It turns out that you two have already met each other. Annabella, even though Liam has a wife and kid, in the Cosmic realm, it's common for men to have more than one wife. You could try to get close to Liam. What do you think?"

Caught off guard by the shift in conversation, Annabella blushed.

Normally, she would have instantly declined such a proposal and might have even gotten angry with her grandfather for suggesting it.

However, after realizing that Liam was the same genius from the Titan Bugs' stronghold, she found herself hesitating to dismiss the idea outright.

Her cheeks turned a deep red while she thought about Liam in her mind.

Annabella didn't understand why she was feeling this way, but she didn't deny that she was indeed attracted to Liam.
