

Chapter 1420 Heading To The White Zone

The City Lord's eyes sparkled with anticipation.

He had great expectations for Liam.

After all, a big opportunity was waiting for Liam in the No. 396 planetary system.

If Liam was strong enough, he could seize that opportunity successfully.

Meanwhile, deep within the gray zone of the No. 396 planetary system, Liam had completely mastered the Death Power.

Once Liam calmed down, he gazed into the distance.

He had uncovered the cause of the endless deathly aura in the gray zone.

It was because of the Death Power domain here.

With that puzzle solved, Liam had completed half of his special mission.

Now, he only needed to discover why the white zone brimmed with such powerful life energy. Once he figured that out, his mission would be done.

Leaving the gray zone, Liam headed for the white zone to investigate.

Although the gray zone was still barren, with Liam taking away the Death Power domain, the environment there would no longer worsen.

In time, nature would cleanse the area and bring it back to normal.

After two days of travel, Liam finally left the gray zone and arrived at the edge of the white zone.

In contrast to the gray zone, the white zone was bursting with life.

Even the weeds here were tall, reaching two meters.

The sheer amount of life force here left Liam amazed.

Liam could already feel the immense life force just standing at the edge of the white zone.

But soon, he furrowed his brow.

Before mastering the Death Power, Liam knew his ability to sense life force wasn't this keen.

Because of the natural clash between the Death Power and life force, Liam's ability to sense life force had grown much sharper.

The reason for his frown was the discovery that the life force in the white zone closely resembled that of the Heart of Life.

After a closer look, Liam was certain that the life force here was coming from a fragment of the Heart of Life.

Since Liam had once held a fragment of the Heart of Life, he recognized this life force right away.

The thought that there was a fragment of the Heart of Life here made Liam's heart race with excitement.

If the white zone truly held a fragment of the Heart of Life, it would be an amazing discovery for him.

Liam was confident in his speculation.

After all, the white zone was overflowing with life force, strongly hinting at the presence of a fragment of the Heart of Life.

Liam's face lit up with excitement.

He had worked tirelessly for this moment. He wanted to find a new fragment of the Heart of Life to activate the fragment inside him.

The Heart of Life had unmatched healing powers. As long as Liam didn't take a fatal blow, the Heart of Life could keep him alive in fights.

Chapter 1420 Heading To The White Zone

This was Liam's biggest source of confidence in bravely entering the interstellar battlefield.
