

Chapter 1453 Liam's Victory

As Liam's words echoed, he gripped the sword of darkness and moved, his figure blurring into a series of ghostly afterimages that dazzled the onlookers.

In an instant, Liam materialized directly in front of Joseph.

With the gravity field and Death Power domain pressing down on him, Joseph found it nearly impossible to even lift his hand.

Helplessly, Joseph watched as the tip of the sword of darkness loomed gradually larger before his eyes, unleashing its devastating power.

The impact made Joseph feel as if he had plummeted from a height of ten thousand meters, his chest tightening.

His vision blurred, and suddenly, he was hurtled backward, crashing hard onto the floor outside the arena.

At the exact moment Joseph was kicked out of the arena by Liam, the Network of Human Sovereign's notification resonated in Liam's mind.

"The outcome of this duel has been decided. Challenger Joseph has lost, and the challenged, Liam, has emerged victorious. According to the judgment of the Network of Human Sovereign, there is no dispute over the result of this duel. Challenger Joseph will forfeit all his points to Liam, and for the next one hundred years, ten percent of all Joseph's point earnings will be transferred to Liam. The duel result is final, and neither party may seek conflict outside the arena through means other than the challenge token. If the Network of Human Sovereign discovers anyone violating the rules, the person will be severely punished."

As the announcement played, a faint smile crossed Liam's face.

The duel had concluded swiftly, a testament to his successful strategy of initially holding back his strength.

If he hadn't done that, he wouldn't have been able to defeat Joseph.

Liam then accessed his Network of Human Sovereign panel to review the points he had gained from the duel.

Expecting a robust tally from a strong Primogem King like Joseph, Liam was shocked to find that the sum of Joseph's special and mission points was barely over ten thousand after calculations.

Liam couldn't help but feel disappointed.

Nevertheless, Liam wasn't too disheartened. After all, ten thousand points were still a substantial sum, albeit not as impressive compared to his current total.

After collecting Joseph's points, Liam glanced over at Joseph, who had been ejected from the arena.

Joseph lay on the floor, his face ashen, eyes filled with despair, muttering in disbelief, "This can't be! This is impossible! How could I lose? This must be a dream."

Liam watched Joseph coldly, his face breaking into a sardonic smile. He felt no sympathy for Joseph.

Joseph had targeted him, and it was only fair that Joseph faced the consequences.

Sometimes, people must bear the consequences of their actions and words.

Approaching Joseph, Liam mockingly said, "Joseph, there's no need to be too upset about losing your points. After all, you can always earn more in the future. Oh, and by the way, for the next hundred years, 10% of your points will be transferred to me directly by the Network of Human Sovereign, so you won't have to worry about handling that."

Joseph's face turned dark. Liam's words really infuriated him.

But Joseph understood that a loss was a loss. Unless he found another challenge token, there was no way he could fight Liam again.

