

Chapter 1457 Meeting Cecil Again

Liam had spent a total of eighty days in the Sea of Laws.

During this time, he had tapped into every rare treasure he owned to help him understand law powers.

As a result, he had gained some valuable insights.

Through intense training, he had achieved 6% mastery of the four elemental law powers.

The goal of reaching 9% was now within sight.

If anyone learned of his learning speed, they would be amazed.

For most people, increasing their law power mastery by just 1% could take ages, let alone reaching 6% in just eighty days.

But Liam wasn't happy with his progress.

Even after using powerful treasures, he felt his advancement was slower than he had expected.

Liam couldn't help but feel frustrated as if all those rare treasures had gone to waste.

At this pace, reaching 9% mastery in the next twenty days seemed out of reach.

With a sigh, Liam realized that the fusion of the five elemental law powers would have to wait for a future attempt.

The next twenty days of training in the Sea of Laws passed quickly.

After Liam's time in the Sea of Laws ran out, his consciousness was pulled back to the real world.

After Liam checked his progress, a small, satisfied smile crossed his face.

During his hundred days of seclusion, Liam's mastery of the law powers all grew to 7%.

The only exception was his mastery of the earth law power, which had already reached 9%, as it was the first one he had mastered.

Liam stepped out of the cultivation chamber.

After his seclusion, his first plan was to visit Lindy at Heavenly Dragon College. But when he reached the mission hall, ready to head out, he found it crowded with people.

This didn't surprise him much, though.

It was common for the mission hall to be crowded, with tasks being handed out daily.

But Liam hadn't expected it to be this packed.

Amid the crowd, he noticed a familiar face.

"Cecil?"

The person Liam saw was his friend Cecil, whom he had met after completing the arena mission when he had first entered the Cosmic realm.

Cecil's family elder, Arthur, had saved his life before, so he naturally thought highly of Cecil.

But Cecil looked troubled, his face clouded with worry like something was bothering him.

Liam frowned, wondering if someone had bullied Cecil to cause such a look on his face.

With the bond they shared, there was no way Liam would let anyone mistreat Cecil.

When Liam noticed Cecil, Cecil also saw him from afar.

Cecil seemed surprised, and the worry on his face quickly faded, replaced by a joyful smile.

He hurried over to Liam. "Liam, it's been so long!"

Liam smiled back, chatted with him for a while, and then got to the point. "I saw you looking worried earlier. Is something bothering you?"

