

Chapter 1507 A Life-and-death Fight

---

Liam had always known he couldn't outpace the four-winged demon. Without effort, the four-winged demon blocked Liam's path, its wings beating with a calm rhythm.

A sneer played across its face as it stared down at Liam with scorn, sneering, "Human, did you entertain the thought that you could flee from my grasp? I presented you with an opportunity for a swift, merciful end. Since you disregarded it, I will send you to hell!"

No sooner had it finished speaking than a crushing aura enveloped Liam like a relentless tide, weighing down on him.

Yet, Liam refused to yield. As the four-winged demon lunged forward, Liam summoned his Death Power domain, diminishing the demon's strength and alleviating some of his own strain.

At the same time, Liam drew his sword of darkness. The long-suppressed World Power roared from within him, fusing with the sword.

This time, Liam's command wasn't limited to the World Power of the Blue Star.

He wielded three distinct World Powers.

One resided within him since his birth, another belonged to the Blue Star, and the last he had acquired from the World Lord during a mission within the Cosmic realm.

Fueled by these potent forces, an awe-inspiring wave of energy burst forth from the sword in an instant.

"Elemental giants!" Liam bellowed.

At his command, nine towering elemental giants materialized, swiftly forming a protective ring around him, standing guard with unyielding resolve.

The four-winged demon, witnessing the sword of darkness and the formidable World Powers Liam unleashed, was taken aback.

It had never before encountered such a regal force before.

What struck the demon most was that this overwhelming power was wielded by Liam, a still maturing member of the Human Clan.

For a brief moment, the demon fully realized the daunting magnitude of Liam's power and his potential.

Yet, this revelation brought not fear but a peculiar delight to the demon. Slaying a genius from the Human Clan promised substantial rewards once it returned to the Dremer race.

Furthermore, Liam was no ordinary genius; he was a super genius with three World Powers at his command.

The four-winged demon even indulged in fantasies about using Liam's head to elevate its status within the Dremer race. It imagined gaining entry to the forbidden lands, sprouting two additional wings, and ascending to lordship over its own fief.

As it entertained these thoughts, the demon's eyes shone with avarice as it gazed at Liam.

It seemed that the demon no longer saw Liam as a person but as a stepping stone to its brighter future.

"Human, who could have imagined that you would be the crowning achievement of my journey!" the demon said.

It swiftly launched its attack, bellowing, "Demon Power!"

Instantly, a vicious torrent of dark energy erupted from the four-winged demon.

This corrosive force was so potent that it crackled fiercely as it clashed with the air.

At the four-winged demon's behest, this formidable power struck the three elemental giants at the forefront.

The moment the dark energy enveloped them, the three elemental giants were obliterated, vanishing without a trace!
