

Chapter 1527 Is He Too Scared To Act

The moment the countdown finished, the match between Liam and Hilliard kicked off.

Hilliard grinned maliciously, his voice dripping with mockery as he said, "You really think you can take me on? You'll regret thinking I'm an easy target!"

As he spoke, an intense wave of gold law power surged from his body, crackling with mystical force.

Hilliard pulled out his long sword, channeling the law power into its edge.

In an instant, the blade blazed with a brilliant golden glow.

A cold, mocking laugh escaped Hilliard, as though he already pictured Liam losing to him. "From this moment, all your points and free training time are mine!"

Liam observed the blade's movement, feeling the intense energy radiating from it. His face showed no sign of emotion.

The force behind Hilliard's strike nearly reached the level of a first-tier Primogem King.

In his mind, Liam quietly recognized that anyone handpicked by Caden for the task of retrieving Nocturne's law power was far from ordinary.

The team was made up of exceptional talents, so Hilliard's abilities hadn't really stood out among them.

Liam couldn't deny that, despite Hilliard's short fuse, the man did possess some skill.

But the truth was, Hilliard had chosen the wrong person to offend.

While Liam remained unfazed, the crowd was struck with awe by Hilliard's strike.

A few whispered among themselves, "This guy might actually have the right to boast! To pull off a move that rivals a first-tier Primogem King when he is at the peak of a ninth-tier Primogem Expert is pretty impressive!"

"Why isn't that guy making a move? Is he too scared to act?"

"This duel seems like it's going to wrap up fast!"

The crowd buzzed with chatter about the duel.

Cataleya and her group heard these discussions as well.

Cataleya's eyes shifted toward Caden and Winfred.

Both Caden and Winfred remained composed.

It almost seemed as though they were completely sure that Liam wouldn't be defeated by Hilliard.

Cataleya couldn't hide her surprise.

If it had been only Winfred displaying such confidence, she would have understood.

After all, Winfred had accompanied Liam in the past and was familiar with his abilities.

What puzzled her was Caden, the Lord of Rosefinch, remaining equally composed. It only fueled her curiosity.

Caden appeared to have a clear understanding of Liam's true strength.

It felt as though Caden had witnessed Liam's journey to reach his current level of power.

Cataleya quickly shook her head, brushing aside the ridiculous thought.

How could the Lord of Rosefinch possibly dedicate all his focus to Liam?

Such an idea seemed completely unrealistic!

Meanwhile, in the Human Sovereign Arena, Liam stood still, not reacting to Hilliard's oncoming strike, his gaze fixed on the blade's energy as it neared.

To the majority of the audience, it appeared as though Liam was frozen in fear, unable to react to Hilliard's strike.

The blade's energy continued its advance, but Liam stayed perfectly still.

Then, in the very instant the energy on the blade erupted, Liam made his move!

