

Chapter 1540 Formidable Power

Liam was oblivious to the crowd's thoughts; even if he had been aware, he likely would have just shrugged it off with a smile.

To most onlookers, the idea that someone from the first-level Primogem Expert realm defeating a ninth-level adversary seemed absurd.

Yet, Liam was no ordinary person. Although his mastery over the Law Power of Five Elements might not be enough to defeat Chad, he still wielded the formidable Death Power and the sword of darkness.

For Liam, the outcome of this match—victory or defeat—wasn't his main concern. His true intent was to refine his mastery of the Law Power of Five Elements. He didn't care about the reward points.

Indeed, in his Network of Human Sovereign, Liam had accumulated at least 500, 000 special points. With such a reservoir, he was well-insulated against any potential point shortages, provided he managed them wisely.

At that moment, Liam had already positioned himself before Chad. With precise movements, he thrust his law power sword directly into Chad's chest.

The speed of his attack was so fast that Chad couldn't react in time. It was only when he felt the piercing cold of the blade that he snapped to attention.

Chad was quick to respond, though. His law power and primogem energy surged, forcefully repelling Liam's blade. An explosive burst of energy followed, sending a shockwave that hurled Liam backward with immense force.

only when he felt the piercing cold of the blade that he snapped to attention.

Chad was quick to respond, though. His law power and primogem energy surged, forcefully repelling Liam's blade. An explosive burst of energy followed, sending a shockwave that hurled Liam backward with immense force.

Even though Chad managed to fend off Liam, the impact of Liam's sword had left its mark. Chad's energy wavered, making it hard for him to remain steady on his feet.

Staring at Liam in utter disbelief, Chad was shocked.

He would never have thought such an attack from Liam possible if he hadn't felt the sting of the blade himself.

Shock overwhelmed Chad; he hadn't anticipated that Liam's control over the Law Power of Five Elements could unleash such devastating force.

Despite his serious injuries, Chad's resolve didn't waver. Given his status as a ninth-level Primogem Expert, the idea of losing to Liam was something he couldn't bear to consider.

Liam didn't know what Chad was thinking. Observing Chad grit his teeth against his injuries, Liam couldn't help but feel a rush of adrenaline and said, "Be careful!"

No sooner had he spoken than his law power sword trembled in his grasp, unleashing a fierce whirlwind infused with the power of the five elements.

This—the ability to weave all five elemental law powers into a single strike—significantly amplified the attack's destructive potential.

The power of even one elemental law could drastically boost an attack's force. The five law powers combined, the impact was staggering.

Liam's current attack mirrored the power of the attack from a first-level Primogem King.

The very air around the blade warped, contorting into strange angles, a testament to the overwhelming force of the attack.

Chad's skin prickled with goosebumps as the strike approached; his instincts screamed at him to dodge.

However, Liam's earth and water law powers gripped Chad like parasites, rendering him nearly immobile, leaving him no choice but to confront the impending strike.

Realizing this, Chad braced himself to meet Liam's attack directly.

Chad's expression hardened. His aura burst forth, and his law power melded onto him, bolstering his defenses.

Yet, uncertainty gnawed at him.

The sheer power of Liam's sword strike was daunting, leaving him filled with dread.

Chad's armor radiated a golden light, and a robust energy barrier enveloped him like an impenetrable fortress.

Unfazed, Liam advanced, his grip on the law power sword unwavering.

The blade, poised to cleave through anything in its path, radiated an oppressive force.

Chad amassed all his primogem energy before him, silently praying.

He wasn't praying for a victory over Liam but was hoping to avoid a humiliating defeat.

Facing Liam's formidable attack, he harbored no illusions about his chances of success.

 Limited-time offer: 30 minutes of free reading>>

Claim Now