

Chapter 1585 An Incredible Opportunity

Liam felt more and more pressure bearing down on him, as though he were trapped inside a violent storm. The sensation made him very uncomfortable.

The pressure was so intense that he was having trouble breathing.

Liam assessed the situation, a serious expression on his face. He hadn't expected the law power tree to impose such a test on him.

Liam's sharp perception made it clear to him that the crushing pressure he was under was a test orchestrated by the law power tree.

If he could hold his ground against this, it would prove that he was worthy of cultivating beneath the law power tree.

At that moment, Christos, who was presumed to have departed already, unexpectedly came back.

As Christos observed Liam struggling, sweat trickling down his face due to exertion, he smiled.

"Well done, young man! You're capable of withstanding the maximum pressure the law power tree can impose!" he muttered.

It turned out that the intense pressure Liam had been enduring had been intentionally summoned by Christos.

To put it simply, the greater the pressure from the law power tree, the more significant the benefits upon entering its inner realm.

The inner realm of the law power tree provided a treasure trove of advantages and rewards to those who could enter it. In fact, if fortune favored Liam, he might even experience the rare and powerful "surge of law power”.

Observing that Liam was not in any immediate danger, Christos let out a sigh of relief before turning and departing the scene.

As Christos walked away, Liam, still beneath the towering law power tree, began to acclimate to the overwhelming pressure.

As soon as Liam acclimated to the once-crushing force, his awareness of the law power radiating from the law power tree became acute.

Out of nowhere, a wave of dizziness overcame Liam's spiritual senses. The world around him seemed to spiral out of control. Before he could fully grasp what was happening, he was transported to an entirely new realm.

Upon entering this new world, he felt that all the oppressive pressure that had been bearing down on his body vanished completely.

He suddenly felt hopeful, his face lighting up in excitement.

He realized that this new world was brimming with law power.

All around him, numerous law powers flowed freely, and he was moving forward with the flow.

For Liam, this was the perfect chance to overcome his limits. The moment his awareness reached here, he swiftly focused, determined to attain a breakthrough.

True to his expectations, as soon as his awareness stabilized, a tremendous amount of law power surged into him.

At the same time, Liam's physical body started to glow softly.

The faint light gradually intensified, growing brighter with every passing moment.

Soon, Liam's entire form shone brightly, his powerful aura fully on display.

If there were someone nearby, they would have discovered that the law power within Liam was churning furiously.

This phenomenon was recognized by many cultivators as a "law power surge".

When a cultivator faced a law power surge, their law power could undergo a significant transformation. After this, their law power would be exponentially stronger, almost double the power of original law power.

For cultivators, this was truly an incredible opportunity!

Yet, Liam, with his awareness in the new space, was completely unaware of this.

