

The Ugly Lady Strikes Back Novel

Chapter 26

Tom Sullivan seemed annoyed as he murmured to himself, "What a b*tch!"

After that, Tom hurriedly steered the car in the opposite direction and tried to leave.

Emily Quest immediately moved in the same direction and extended her hands around the front of the car. "Tom Sullivan! I'm pregnant! You can't leave me here!"

She was shouting so loudly that her face seemed deformed. The veins on her neck and the back of her hands were apparent.

Meanwhile, the Sullivan family heard every word clearly.

Tom was dumbfounded. He immediately got out of the car and grabbed Emily by her wrist. "What did you say? Are you pregnant?" He asked coldly.

For the sake of pleasure, Tom had never worn condoms when they had sex. Therefore, it was not exactly impossible for her to become pregnant.

However, why did it have to happen right now?

Tony Sullivan and Bailey Ronson were both shocked as they looked at Emily in disbelief.

Although they did not like Emily, the child she was bearing belonged to the Sullivan family. They could not dislike the child!

Meanwhile, Xyla Quest and Jeremy Quest both appeared horrified.

On the other hand, May Conner was overjoyed. Indeed, every cloud has a silver lining!

Why did Emily not mention this earlier? If she had, May would not have agreed to the wedding being called off no matter what. However, it was not too late to say it now. 7

Stanley Batton was the only person who observed the entire scene from the perspective of an outsider.

Right then, Tom's grip around Emily's wrist tightened. "Is that true? Don't lie to me?" He glared at her face.

Tom had only just witnessed how evil Emily could be. Therefore, he did not want to believe what she said immediately even though it might be true.

As soon as he asked the question, Tony and Bailey began walking to him and Emily.

Tony looked at Emily, hopefully. “Is it true, Emily?”

His attitude had changed completely.

Similarly, Bailey did too.

“Of course, it’s true. If you don’t believe me, we can get it checked at the hospital right away...”
Emily said confidently.

Although it was wrong to lie, this was necessary. If Emily did not lie, she would be killed by her Dad. Moreover, she could forget about ever getting back together with Tom. 2

Emily was adamant about not losing the man she fought so hard to steal away from Xyla.

Although Emily loved Tom as a person, she loved the attention which surrounded him and, in turn, herself!

Ever since she started dating Tom, her friends all appeared envious of her. Enjoying the attention and being admired by others, Emily wished she could always be better than everyone else!

Although Xyla insisted that she no longer liked Tom, Emily did not believe her. What if Xyla was only treating Tom coldly so that he would become desperate?

As long as Emily lived, she would not let Xyla have her way. Emily hated the look of satisfaction on Xyla's face!

"Let's go to the municipal hospital. It's the closest one around," Bailey said eagerly.

Hearing this, the confidence in Emily's eyes widened. "Alright," Emily answered almost instantly.

Earlier, she already felt quite certain that they would choose the municipal hospital. Firstly, they were very well acquainted with the head of this hospital. Secondly, it was also the closest hospital to home. Therefore, the municipal hospital was the best option.

Emily was thinking that she might suggest going to the municipal hospital if they did not mention it. However, they already did it on their own.

As such, things would be much easier for Emily because she used to date the director of the obstetrics and gynecology department. 2

After that, Tom helped Emily into the passenger seat of his car.