

The Ugly Lady Strikes Back Novel

Chapter 29

There were innate qualities of nobility and elegance about the tall man who walked away.

Xyla could not help but think that people would perceive him as a high-class man from an ultra-rich family if they did not know his identity.

With such good-looking physical appearances and noble qualities, he would outshine most people in the upper-class.

After staring at him from behind for a few seconds longer, Xyla began driving home...

Once Stanley arrived by the roadside, he gave Zack Cassidy a call. "Zack Cassidy... Buy a car just like the one I drove home last night.

"Also, I think the property in Imperial Prime is decent."

"Imperial Prime? Doesn't that belong to the Quest family? It's a luxurious little neighborhood. I think it's pretty good. Would you like to purchase a unit?" Zack Cassidy asked.

"An entire building," Stanley said. ²

“Okay.”

“Buy it one week later.”

“Yes.”

“I’m in front of the Quest family’s house. Send someone to pick me up.” Before Zack could respond, Stanley hung up.

Closely after that, he opened the WeChat group named ‘Gentleman's Club’ with four people in it.

As soon as he opened it, he could see that Henry and Sebastian shared pictures of beautiful women while discussing the women’s physique and exchanged contact information.

Since these two usually behaved like this, and Stanley was always annoyed when he read these things, he had always kept this group on mute. If the others did not tag him in the chat, he would not see any of their messages.

Stanley sent a straightforward text. “Ten o’clock tonight at the Unconscious Bar’s Sky Garden. I’ll host.”

Right after sending the text, Stanley looked at the annoying group name and could not help but frown in disgust.

Regardless of how many times he saw it, he felt that it was too old-fashioned.

Back when they created his group, Henry insisted on using this name. Whenever someone else changed the name, Henry would change it back. After the others realized how determined he was, they gave up trying to change it.

“Hey, hey, hey. Has the sun risen from the west? You actually invited us out!” Henry replied.

“D*mn! I thought my eyes were playing tricks on me. Got it,” Sebastian replied.

“Got it,” Gary Lakes wrote.

Stanley did not reply to them. Instead, he exited WeChat and opened the page for news related to economics.

After the Sullivan family and Emily Quest arrived at the municipal hospital, they headed directly over to the obstetrics and gynecology department to register for Emily’s blood-check.

Once Emily’s blood had been extracted, the group sat and waited outside. 2

At this crucial moment, Tom Sullivan was naturally repelled by the idea that Emily Quest might be pregnant. If it were true, that meant there was no way he could be separated from Emily.

Tom knew how badly his parents wanted grandchildren . When they heard that Emily was pregnant, he could see how excited they were.

While everyone in the Sullivan family seemed nervous, Emily sat patiently next to them and observed their foolish behavior.

After approximately half an hour, a nurse personally handed the medical report over to Tom Sullivan.

The results clearly indicated that Emily was pregnant.

Tom immediately plopped himself down in the chair while an unhappy expression appeared on his face.

However, his parents were both extremely excited. Tom's father took the medical report away from him and looked at Emily. "From today on, you only have to focus on looking after your body. We can forget about what happened in the past as long as you don't do anything terrible from now on..."

"That's right. We will speak to your dad right now and tell him to forget about calling the wedding off," Bailey Ronson added.

Emily smiled satisfactorily as she held Bailey's hand. "Thank you, Uncle and Aunty."

After that, Emily turned around to look at Tom. When she saw how unhappy he seemed, the smile on her face instantly disappeared. "Brother Sullivan, aren't you happy?"
