

Chapter 921 Fight Began

Patty didn't know what was in the water. But when she heard Liam planned to give the water to her and her brother, she felt scared.

Lenny, on the other hand, knew there was drug in that water.

Following Liam's plan would ruin his reputation in Salem.

Getting involved in a scandal with his sister would make him notorious.

Understanding the risks, Lenny got scared, and his eyes showed it.

He took a deep breath and chose to tell the truth.

"Fine. I'll talk! The water had an aphrodisiac in it! Baxter and Newell set up this whole thing. They told me to pretend to be in touch with the top people at Joy International Media to trick Julie into going to a meeting. They planned to give Julie the drugged water. Then, since they had paid off the driver, they planned to take Julie to a club after that and rape her! I was pushed into doing this. I was going to tell Julie, but you caught me first!"

Lenny tried to save himself by pointing fingers at Baxter and Newell for their evil plan.

Everyone in the office was stunned by this news.

Yesenia was seething with anger and shouted, "Baxter! You and Newell are just disgusting! I can't believe you!"

Julie, reflecting back, felt so relieved. She realized how lucky she was that Liam had stepped in just in time.

Baxter, caught off guard by these accusations, frantically tried to defend himself, shouting, "That's nonsense! Lenny, it's you who's been eyeing Julie. Stop trying to pin this on me!"

In response, Lenny angrily retorted, "Bullshit! That's a lie! Baxter, you're the one who brought that glass of water!"

Baxter, realizing he had no solid defense, remained silent.

Liam watched with a sneer. He always knew Baxter and his father were trouble, but he never thought they would be exposed so quickly.

The thought of Baxter having bad intentions towards Julie infuriated Liam. In a fit of rage, he grabbed Baxter, who was trying to hide in a corner, and threw him to the floor with a loud thud.

Baxter lay there, looking embarrassed.

Liam, with a stern look, said, "Call Newell. Tell him everything's on track, and we're just waiting for him to show up."

Baxter felt a shiver down his spine.

He was filled with fear about the unknown outcomes.

He gave a hesitant nod of agreement.

Seeing Baxter's consent, Liam said coldly, "Show us the way to the club!"

After that, Liam, with Carsen restraining Lenny, decided to bring Lenny with them.

Yesenia and Julie, witnessing this, quickly decided to follow.

Liam told Carsen to take the cup of water with them. He then directed Baxter to lead them to the club.

In the innermost room of Inferno Club, VIP room 8.

Newell was there, impatiently waiting, having taken off all his clothes.

He was looking forward to seeing Julie, a wicked grin on his face.

The room was littered with various sex toys, all part of his twisted form of entertainment.

Newell couldn't remember how many married women he had tricked.

"Julie, you bitch! You'll soon be on your knees, pleading for mercy."

As Newell was lost in his thoughts, the doorbell rang unexpectedly.

The sound of the bell only heightened Newell's anticipation.

It seemed the guests he had been awaiting were finally here.

The sex toys in the room would soon find their use.
