

Chapter 945 The Real General

Julie was furious after hearing the rumors and scolded, "This is slander! Withdraw your comments immediately, or I will sue you! And Lenny, you never helped me! You've been taking Liam's credit all along. You're shameless!"

Liam quietly stood next to Julie, condemning Lenny and the others in his heart.

How dare they slander Julie? They were definitely seeking trouble!

At that moment, Bowen suddenly appeared, his expression changing dramatically as he quickly scolded, "Shut up! All of you! Your behavior has crossed the line, even that of the law! You have slandered someone's character. If it weren't for the banquet tonight, I would have arrested you on the spot!"

Upon hearing Bowen speak on behalf of Julie, Lenny and the others refrained from saying anything further. However, they remained unconvinced.

Bowen's significant assistance to Julie indicated a special relationship between them.

As time flew by, it was already six o'clock in the evening, and the general's banquet had begun.

All eyes were on the central station as people eagerly awaited the arrival of the mysterious General Carsen.

Many had prepared gifts and were ready to present them to Carsen as soon as he appeared, hoping to leave a favorable impression and potentially gain more benefits.

At the station, the spotlight suddenly illuminated a strong figure in the center.

It was Carsen.

The crowd erupted in cheers and praise for Carsen.

Carsen, realizing the crowd had mistaken him for the general, grabbed the microphone and called for silence.

"Quiet, now. I have something to say," he announced.

Everyone fell silent and watched Carsen, hoping to gain his favor.

However, Carsen remained silent and turned to look at Liam, who was seated next to Julie. Finally, he spoke up.

"My name is Carsen, but I'm not the five-star general. I'm just one of his subordinates."

The news shocked everyone, and they looked at each other in surprise.

It turned out that none of them knew who the real five-star general was.

Anxiously, one of the powerful men asked, "General Carsen, where is the real general?"

This was their main concern.

Since it was the general's banquet, the mysterious general was naturally the main character of the event.

Carsen smiled upon hearing this, and then he looked directly at Liam.

Everyone present followed Carsen's gaze and saw Liam sitting calmly in his seat with his hands on Julie's waist.

Lenny and his friends also noticed this. Lenny exclaimed, "What's happening? Does Liam know General Carsen? Why is General Carsen looking at Liam?"

"Could it be that General Carsen is looking at Julie?"

Maybe he has a crush on her."

Before they could receive any answers, they heard Carsen's words. Holding the microphone, Carsen said respectfully, "Let's all welcome General Liam!"

Everyone was shocked.

Liam was the five-star general?

Liam stood and slowly walked to the stage.

Carsen quickly moved aside and said, "This is the real general. I have been here for so long, only under the instruction of General Liam. I was only a stand-in!"
