

Chapter 101 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

I walked back into my office and sat down at my desk. I recorded the whole conversation that the guys in Russia had with Fantasia. I went back over it and listened to everything again. I wanted to see if there was anything that we missed the first time. I also had a pen and notepad out, so that I could jot down notes. I wanted to check into some of the things that she told us.

After rewatching it, I checked into a few of the things she told us and verified that it was the truth. I was also working on hacking the cameras that were close to their family home. I had even hacked the ones at the house and took screenshots of the guys that came in and out of the house. I had pictures of about twenty different guys to whom I was trying to put names. I had a program that I was using to run their faces through. Hopefully, I'll know soon who they all are. I'm also hoping that I'll find out soon who the ring leader is.

I also zoomed in on the screen that had my loves on it and took a screenshot of them. River was looking so beautiful with that pregnant glow to her. I have to get this shit figured out so that we can get her back home. I want to be able to be part of this pregnancy with her. I've started reading through the books that Aries picked up for all of us. I've even got the bedroom next to ours cleared out so that it can be used as a nursery.

I wanted to start getting it ready, but I also wanted to wait so that River could tell me what she wanted it to be done in. We were all excited about this baby and couldn't wait for the little taco to get here. Now we just needed to get this shit all taken care of and these people out of our lives so that we can bring her back here.

I went over the cameras for the past few days and found the day that Anthony, Anthony Jr, Derrick, and Mac all left the house. I used the cameras to follow them through town. They went through town, circling around a few times to make sure that they were not being followed. They finally headed out of town and went towards what we all call drug row. It's a neighborhood in a bad part of town. It's made up of buildings that are falling down. It's also where the gangs hang out and make and sell their drugs from.

We had cameras out that way and I watched them drive out there and then park out at one of the very few trailers that's out there. It's one of the nicer buildings that's still mostly standing and that's saying something. It had a garage that was attached to it and Anthony parked his car inside of it and then closed the door.

I watched the cameras for the next few days and other than people that stopped by there, there wasn't any movement, and they didn't leave. So it looks like I have finally found their hiding place. Aries and Stone were still talking about what to say to that whore Beckie. I yelled out at Aries and said "Hey Aries, I found them, I know where they are hiding out at."

He walked into my office and said “Who did you find babe?” “I found Anthony and his kids. They are hiding out in drug row. They are staying in one of the nicer trailers there and, other than when people show up, there’s not been anyone in or out of there. As far as I can tell, they are still there. If they left, they would be snuck out of there in someone’s truck. I’ve not seen them leave on the cameras at all, and they’ve not been hacked either. I checked to see if anyone hacked the cameras and fixed them. I’ve also checked for hidden entrances and exits as well,” I told him.

“OK, well keep an eye on them. Set up a laptop and have a prospect keep an eye on it. I just got a text that we are needed, we have to go help Colt. When he pulled up to get the nanny and the kid, there were already a couple of guys there beating on her door, threatening to kick it down. They are after the kid. He needs us to come help get them out of there safely. They’d already dealt with the guys there who were banging on the door. But they said that others were on the way so we need to ride,” Aries said.

“OK, I’ll get a laptop ready for a prospect to watch when we get back. In the meantime, I’ll have my sister come and watch this one for me. Zara’s pretty good with computers and knows what to watch for. I’ll just text her real fast and have her come in here and sit while we’re gone.” I texted my sister and waited for her to show up. When she got here I told her what to watch for and showed her how to switch through the videos. When she knew what to do, I grabbed my helmet and followed Aries and Stone out the door.

Aries walked through the common area with us behind him. He whistled and motioned with his hand to the guys. “Let’s ride. Colt needs us as backup, so let’s go,” he yelled out. The guys all fell into step behind all of us. And we went out of the door. I put my helmet on and then got onto my bike and started it up. There was nothing better than the sound of our bikes all rumbling at once. I loved when we went on rides and the feeling of freedom that you got from it.

Soon, every bike started, and you could feel the vibration of them on the ground under your feet. Aries held up his hand and made a fist, then revved it up, and took off. We all did the same and then followed behind him. We rode in formation with Aries leading the way. It didn’t take us too long to get to the next town over.

When we got there, we headed straight for the nanny’s house. When we got to it, we surrounded the house. Colt and the guys that he took with him were standing on the porch. Aries and I got off of our bikes and walked up to the porch. “What’s going on Colt? Are they ready to go yet?” Aries asked him.

Colt shook his head no and said “No, she refuses to leave his house. I tried to tell her that she and the kid were both in danger, but she wouldn’t believe me. Said she wouldn’t go anywhere until she heard from Fantasia or River. She said that Fantasia told her that if something happened to her to trust no one but River.”

“OK, I’ll call Dom and have him get Fantasia on the phone,” Aries said. He stepped off to the side to make the call. Colt looked at me and asked “Just what the hell is going on? All that I was told was to come get this nanny and the kid. But I wasn't told why I needed to get them or why I needed to protect them."

"The kid needs to be protected. His piece of shit dad is trying to sell him. This kid is our woman, River's nephew. It's a long story that we'll explain when we get back to the clubhouse. But basically, they're under our protection until we get a hold of a few people. We're going to protect him, the nanny, and his mom. We need to get them back to the compound before more of those people show up here looking for him," I told him.

Aries walked up to the door and knocked on it. When the nanny opened the door, he said "Mam, my name is Aries, I have Fantasia on video call. She wants to speak to you." He handed his phone over to her and Fantasia explained what was going on and why she needed to come with us. Once she talked to Fantasia and found out what was going on, she went in to pack bags for the both of them.

It didn't take her long to get their stuff all packed up, and she even packed up toys and stuff for the kid. We carried the bags out to the SUV and loaded up everything that she was taking with her. Since she wouldn't be here for a while, she cleaned out the fridge and the guys set the trash out to be picked up. When she was ready to go, she and the boy came outside, and she locked up the house.

The kid's eyes got huge when he saw all of us guys and all the bikes. "Wow, that's a lot of bikes. They are so cool looking. I can't wait until I'm big and can ride a bike one day" he said. "If you're lucky buddy, maybe one of us can ride you around the compound. But you have to be good and listen to your nanny, OK? And only if your mom says that it's OK if you go for a ride," I told him. "Wow really," he asked me.

"Yeah, buddy, now let's go. We need to get you both back to the compound," I said. We got him and the nanny in the SUV and Colt and one of the others got in with them. We all got back onto our bikes and surrounded them as we started up and headed back. As we started to go back to the compound, my sister texted my phone. My Bluetooth kicked in and read the text to me. "Hey, there is movement at the house. Two guys are leaving from there, an older man and a younger version of him. It looks like they are in a hurry. I'm trying to follow them on the other cameras, but they are driving pretty fast."

"Fuck," I yelled out. I revved my bike up and pulled up beside Aries. "Hey," I yelled out to him. When he looked over at me, I said "Keep your eyes open, we may have trouble coming our way. Anthony and Jr both left the house, and they're driving fast." He nodded at me and as I backed off another text came in. "Hey, they are headed in your direction, and they have three more vehicles that have joined them. Be careful."

I pulled back up to Aries and said "They are headed our way and there are four vehicles all together." "OK, pack it in tighter and keep a watch-out. Make sure that your gun is within reach" he said. I stayed beside him this time. We all carry small CB radios on our bikes so that we can talk to each other in an emergency. When we leave, we always turn them on and set them on the same channel. The SUVs all have one as well. Aries grabbed his CB and said “Tighten it up guys and keep a lookout. We may have trouble coming our way.”

We were about halfway back to our town, on a stretch of road that was just woods on each side of it. Everything was fine at first and then four cars pulled into the middle of the road and stopped. Anthony got out, and after we stopped he yelled out “Give me the boy, and we won’t have any problems. If you don’t give him to me, then the rest of my guys will come out and start shooting you up. I have you all surrounded. So give him up now.”

I sent a text to my sister asking if she could see us and, if so, if there was anyone else with this stupid fuck. She texted right back saying that she could see us and the only people with him were the ones in the cars behind him. I looked over at Aries and said in a low voice “He’s lying. The only ones that are with him are the guys in the cars behind him. He doesn’t have us surrounded like he’s saying that he does. Can I shoot this mother fucker now?” I asked him.

He shook his head no at me and then yelled back at Anthony and said “Yeah, that’s not happening. I happen to know that the only guys with you are the pussy’s that are sitting in the vehicles that are behind you. So no, we’re not giving you the boy. If you want him, you’re more than welcome to come and try to take him from me. But I’ll be damned if I let you take this innocent kid, my nephew in fact, and sell him. If you want to sell a boy, sell Anthony Jr, he’s old enough to take care of himself.”

“That boy is not related to you, he’s my grandson and what I do with him is my business, not yours” Anthony yelled out. “He actually is my nephew, River is my old lady. And we all know that the boy is not your grandson, he’s your son because you rapped your daughter. A simple DNA test will prove it as well. Now get your ass out of our way before I shoot you and be done with it,” Aries said.

I knew that, like me, Aries wanted nothing more than to take Anthony down and be done with it. But we had the nanny and the kid with us and that was not something that either of them needed to see. If shooting did occur, Colt would make sure that they were both down in the seats so that they couldn’t see anything, but we were trying to keep that from happening. Anthony’s not very smart though, so I wonder which way he’ll go with it.

When we were heading back to the clubhouse with Cynthia the nanny and Levi, Fantasia’s son, we ran into some trouble. Zain pulled up beside me to let me know that Zara had texted him and told him that fuckwit Anthony was trying to set a trap for us. I say trying because they only had four cars, and they were all in front of us. If they wanted to try to set a trap for us, they should’ve had more people surrounding us. But these stupid fucks thought that just because they were in front of us that we’d just hand Levi over to them. Not going to fucking happen.

After Anthony yelled and said that Levi wasn't my nephew and that he was his grandson, I let him know just who I was to the boy. I then grabbed the CB and, without moving it, said "Colt, turn the stereo up as loud as it will go and have them duck down on the seat. I gotta feeling shits about to get ugly, and they don't need to see or hear it."

"Ten-four, we'll see to it. Be careful" he said back. Anthony reached into his car and when he turned back around he had a gun in his hand, but every one of us was already pointing right at him. This mother fucker had balls of steal though, when he yelled out "Give me the fucking boy, or I will start shooting every one of you. I'll get ahold of him eventually."

"Are you stupid or something? You have about forty bikers pointing guns at your stupid ass, and you think that we're afraid of you? No, not at fucking all, mother fucker. You have two choices: one to put the gun down, and get in your car and leave. Or two, you can get your ass shot and take a trip out to our shed. You have got about ten seconds to decide, or I decide for you", I yelled out at him. And then I started to count down from ten.

By the time that I got to one, Zeus was on the CB telling the guys to hold fire. Anthony raised his gun up to shoot, and I shot his hand and he dropped the gun. The guys in the cars started to take off, and I gave the signal for my guys to give chase. Anthony was too busy screaming his head off to head his son yelling for him to get into the car.

I got back on the CB and told the prospects that were in the second car "Go pick his ass up and take him to the shed. We'll be there to deal with him soon. I want him at the backup shed, not the one on the compound." They came up from the back of the line and pulled up beside Anthony and tossed his ass in the trunk after tying his ass up.

When Anthony Jr saw the car coming, he took off as fast as he could. It's okay though, we know where they are staying, and we'll get him soon enough. For now, we had Anthony Sr and that's what mattered the most to me. I'll deal with this bastard, and then we'll find Jr and deal with him as well. One more down, four more left to go.

After the prospects have Anthony loaded up in the back of the SUV, they take off for the shed. I picked up the CB and told Colt "All clear, they can sit up, and you can turn the radio down now Colt. Let's ride." We started our bikes back up and took off for the clubhouse. When we make it to the gate, the prospects open it up and we drive through.

I grabbed the CB again and said "Thank you boys, you can park up front. I'm going with Colt to make sure that they are settled in. Dad, will you ask Mom and Ivy to make a store run for food? I never thought of it before we left. They are going to need groceries and shit." "It's already done, I asked her when Colt left to pick them up. They should be back by now. I don't see your mom's grocery getter" he said.

"OK, thanks, Dad." "No problem, let me know if they're not at the house, and I'll call and check on her." "Will do." We drove up to the house and Zeus was right beside me. The safe house that we use here sits right in the center of the compound. That way, they are surrounded by brothers and very well protected. No one can get to them where they are at.

When we got to the house, I saw my mom's car sitting in the driveway. There were a couple of prospects unloading all the groceries out of it. We pulled up to the side and shut our bikes down. Colt pulled the SUV up into the driveway and shut it off. I walked up to Cynthia's door and opened it up.

I held out my hand to her to help her down. "Hey Cynthia, my name is Aries. I'm the president of the MC, and I'm also one of Rivers's ole men. This is Zeus, he's another one of River's' ole men. There are two more but they are not here. I'm sure that you'll meet them eventually. I know you're probably wondering why you're here, and we'll explain all of that to you. But first, let's get you and the little man inside. My mom and Zeus' mom went and got groceries to stock the house up for you," I told her.

I helped her out of the SUV and Zeus helped the little man down. Colt had already grabbed some of the bags from the back and I grabbed the rest. We got them both inside the house and gave them a tour. This house has five bedrooms and six bathrooms. It's got a master bedroom downstairs and then four bedrooms upstairs. It also has a game room and a theater room in the basement. Most of the houses on the compound do.

Once we did the tour and put their bags in the rooms that they wanted, we sat down in the living room and explained what was going on to Cynthia. Colt took Levi downstairs to check out the game room so that he didn't hear. The last thing that little boy needed to hear was that the bastard that was responsible for him being there was trying to sell him.

I waited until Mom and Ivy were done putting the groceries away and then introduced them. "Mom, Ivy, this is Cynthia, she was River's nanny as a baby, and now she's Levi's. Cynthia, this is my mom Sunny and Zeus' mom Ivy." "It's so nice to meet you, Cynthia. After the two of you get settled in, you'll have to come down to the clubhouse. We'll introduce you to everyone. I know that my son needs to talk to you, so I won't keep you all. I left all of our numbers on the counter as well as a burner phone. If you need anything, call me. I mean it, if there's something that you want to fix and don't have it, let me know. Or if there's anything for the house that you need, get ahold of me, and I'll get it for you. It was nice to meet you," Mom said.

"It was nice to meet you as well, thank you," Cynthia said. Mom and Ivy left and Zeus and I sat down with Cynthia and explained what was going on. At least as much of it as we could. He filled her in on some of what Fantasia told us. And why we have to put them in a safe house to protect them? In return, she verified that what Fantasia told us was the truth. That she did mostly take care of River. Cynthia said that she was always there taking care of River, but when Fantasia was around she wanted to take care of her.

She explained that Fantasia felt bad when she had to start treating River badly to protect her and often cried herself to sleep because of it. "There was a time that I wasn't around. Loretta got really jealous because she saw Anthony flirting with me. I always ignored his advances and told him that I wasn't interested and to leave me alone. I even told her what he was doing, but she didn't believe me. Until she saw it for herself, and then she flipped her lid. She accused me of trying to get with him and fired me. It only took about three months before she called me to come back and take care of River. The other kids' nanny was an older woman and couldn't deal with taking care of a toddler. The only reason that I went back was for River. I loved that little girl. I spent some time with the other kids, but it was mostly River and Fantasia. What the girls did to her on the last day there I didn't agree with at all. And after Rosa took River out of there, I was fired again. I moved on with my life and hadn't heard from any of them for six years. Fantasia showed up at my door as a scared sixteen-year-old. She was pregnant and had been abused by multiple people. She stayed with me until after the baby was born. When she came to me, she was four months pregnant, and she stayed until Levi was about six months old. She didn't want to go back, but Anthony threatened to kill her twin sister, Mac. I told her that I'd keep that sweet baby of hers for as long as she needed me to. She comes to see him when she can, but it's not often. She didn't want them to get their hands on him. With as evil as Anthony was, she was afraid of what he'd do to him. And I can see that she was right to feel that way now."

When she got done talking, we now knew for sure that everything that Fantasia told us was true. I plan to call Dom later and tell him to bring her with him when he comes back. And to bring her straight here, it's time that she got to be with her son. And that's what I told Cynthia. We finished up with our talk and then yelled for Colt so that we could head out.

We let her know that if she needed anything to get ahold of us, and that I'd be around to check on her in a few days. We then left and headed for the clubhouse. We pulled our bikes around to the front, parked, and headed inside. Venom wasn't here to have some fun since he was with Dom in Russia. So I had to grab Red to go with us. He's just as good as Venom and usually helped Venom when he was in his fun house, as he called it.

"Yo, Red, grab your shit. You get to go with us to the backup shed to have some fun. I've got a worthless mother fucker sitting on ice ready to be tortured. You game?" I asked him. "Fucking right I am. Venom being gone really sucks, so I need an outlet. Let me run out back for a minute, and I'll be right back" he said as he ran to the back of the clubhouse.

I walked over to the bar and grabbed a bottle of soda. Since I was heading back out, I wouldn't be drinking. I don't drink and drive. I then walked over and sat down with my dads. "If you're going to torture that mother fucker, I'm coming with you. The shit that he put my daughter-in-law through, I most definitely want in," my dad Ripper said.

Same here, was heard from Dad Legal, as well as Zeus' dads Dexter and Maverick. Everybody wanted a piece of this mother fucker. I had to leave enough of him for Rodion because he wants his piece of him as well. I decided to send a text to Dom and Rodion, and I texted them in a group text. I also had to text Sal and Zain as well. I knew that they'd want a piece of him as well.

Me to Dom, Rodion- Hey, we got ahold of Anthony Sr today. About to go pay him a visit now. Hurry back, and we'll save a conversation with him for you.

Me to Sal, Zain- Hey, we got a package out at our special spot if you want to join us. We're getting ready to head there now. Should be there in twenty if you want to come.

It didn't take Red long to come back, and then we were heading out to our bikes to ride. When I started for the door, I looked back and at least half of the club was behind me. Everyone that was behind me was people that River had become close to in her time here. It made me happy to see so many brothers wanting to help to avenge my ole lady. Let's go have some fun, shall we?

My time on the island has been wonderful. I love getting to lie on the beach and go swimming. I've got an excellent tan going on, and it's all over my body for once. Before, I used to wear a one-piece that had an open back, but it covered up my stomach. Now I can wear two-piece suits, and I've finally got a really good tan on my body.

After I worked on my plans for the center, I went down to the beach and laid out on a beach chair until Marcello could join me. I was never alone, I always had a guard following me around while I was outside. I also learned that Dad had cameras all over the island so that he could keep an eye on it when he wasn't there. But even though I always had a guard with me, I wasn't allowed to swim alone.

Marcello didn't want me in the water unless he was with me. And it didn't matter if the guard that was with me went swimming as well. I still had to wait for him. He was worried about something happening to me and our Baby Taco. So, while it annoyed me, it was sweet as well. I couldn't fault him for wanting to keep the baby and me safe.

So, I lay on the beach and read a book on my phone. I had the Dreame app on there and was reading a really good book. I had so many favorites on there, but I was currently reading My Mate and Brother's Betrayal by TheNIch29. She is one of my many favorite authors on there. Tatienne Richard, JM Snap, Joanna J, E.T. Watson, Clavet, Veronica Fox, and so many others that I have read. They are all amazing authors and I just love all of their books.

I was so into the book that I didn't hear Marcello walk up to me. Not that I really would have anyway, because sand, enough said. It doesn't exactly make noise when you walk on it barefoot. So when he snuck up on me, I was all into my book, unable to put it down. I had just gotten to a really good part when he covered up my eyes.

"Guess who" he said in a high-pitched voice. "A dead man walking if you don't remove your hands this instant. I was at a good part, and you interrupted me" I said. He jerked his hands back real fast and said "Sorry baby, I didn't realize that you were reading. When I talked to Dom earlier he said that he was going to text you and check on you. I figured that you were probably talking to him” he said, as he kissed my forehead upside down and then sat in the chair beside me.

“He texted earlier, and I texted him back, I think. No wait, yeah, I texted him back. Give me five, ten minutes to finish this part, and then I’m all yours,” I told him. “OK baby, take your time,” he said. I went back to what I was reading and finished the chapter that I was on and then read the next one. If you’re like me, you can’t put the book down when there is a really good part to it. You just have to read it.

It didn’t take me long to get through the chapter, and I was able to stop at a good place. When I was done, I exited out of the app, turned the screen on my phone off, and laid my phone down. “OK bello, I’m all yours now. Are you ready to go swimming with me?” I asked him. “Yes ma’am, I’m done with what I needed to do for today. I grabbed the snorkels and figured we could swim around and look at the fish and the coral reef. I know how much you liked that the other day.”

“Hell yeah, I did! That was awesome. It’s so pretty down there and the fish are amazing. Let’s go” I said as I got up and grabbed Marcello’s hand. I loved going snorkeling and seeing all the beautiful animal life. It’s just amazing to me and I love fish. I looked at Marcello as we walked down to the water and said “Just so you know, and I’m sure that you’ll pass this tidbit of information along to the other guys. I want a giant fish tank full of beautiful fish. I really want some of the panda telescope goldfish. They are so cute. I’d be good with others as well, but I’d like a few of those.”

“I’ll see what I can do baby. Dom’s never been big on pets, but I’m sure that he’s settled on a fish tank for you. And I know that Aries and Zeus would get a big tank put in. Zeus has been talking about putting one in for a while now,” he said. “We’ll, Dom better get used to the idea of dogs as well if he wants me back. I’m thinking of getting myself an emotional support dog. It’s something that I’ve thought about for a while now but was never sure of. I also plan to get a few dogs for the center to help the patients,” I told him.

“Well, he’ll get over it, or I’ll be moving in with Aries and Zeus then. Because I will not lose you again. You and this baby, as well as the guys, are my life. But I’d lose them before I took the chance of losing the two of you” he said as he put his hands on my belly. He bent down and kissed my belly and then stood up and said “Let’s go swimming.” And that’s what we did for about two hours.

We swam around and looked at the different corals and fish. I even had an ornery jellyfish attach itself to me and ride around on my leg for a while. It was a small one and so cute. Right before we got out of the water, we swam back to the place where he got on me. With Marcello’s help, I was able to get him off of me and I promised the little guy that I’d come see him again. We managed to swim back to shore without Hank. I named him after the octopus on Finding Dory.

When we got back to shore, we grabbed our towels and dried off. After gathering our stuff, we headed back up to the house. I was ready for a shower and food, I was starving. When we got up to the house, Mom was in the kitchen fixing dinner, and it smelled wonderful. "You should've yelled for me, Mom. I would've come and helped you out," I told her. "It's OK, I made your brothers help me. You need to relax for a while. Go get a shower by the time you're done, dinner will be done" she said.

I felt bad because she cooked dinner, but I went up to shower with the plans to make dessert when I was done. We had everything that we needed to make a cheesecake and brownies. So I was going to make a brownie cheesecake and drizzle Carmel and hot chocolate on the top of it. Mmm, that sounded so damn good.

When Marcello and I got to our room, I put my stuff on the table and then headed into the bathroom. I started the shower and took my towel and bikini off. I stepped into the warm shower spray and leaned my head back. I had my eyes closed, but I felt Marcello get in the shower and then wrap his arms around me. When I stepped out of the water, I wrung the water out of my hair. And before I had the chance to grab my shampoo, Marcello already had it. He put some in his hands and then ran it through my hair.

"I can do that, you know?" I told him. "I know, but I want to do it for you baby." Who was I to argue with that? There was nothing better than feeling someone wash your hair. After the shampoo was rinsed out, he conditioned it and then washed my body. When I was done and rinsed off, he had me sit on the bench while he showered really quickly. When he was done, he shut the water off and then stepped out to get a towel.

He wrapped one around his waist and then brought one to me and wrapped me in it. He then picked me up, and I wrapped my legs around his waist as I kissed him. As we were kissing, he carried me out and sat me down on the counter. When we stopped kissing, he grabbed another towel and wrapped it around my hair. Then he started to kiss down my chest, stopping to suck on each of my breasts.

He then made his way lower until he was on his knees in front of me. He parted my legs more and then bent his head and ran his tongue from my asshole up to my clit. He bit down on my clit and eased one of his fingers inside of me. I threw my back and moaned, it felt so good. I took my right hand and grabbed his hair and pushed his face closer to me. He rotated between sucking on my clit to biting it. All the while, he was working more of his fingers inside of me.

It didn't take long, and I was cumming all over his face, but he didn't stop. He did pull his fingers out of me though and started to ease one of them into my ass. He started with just one, and it was tight and stung when he first eased it in. I had clenched down on him until he got me to relax, and then he was able to get it all the way in.

He worked it in and with his other hand, he was using them on my pussy. He had three fingers in me and when he was able to, he pushed a second finger into my ass. He kept this up until he had three fingers in both of my holes. It didn't take long, and I was shouting out from another orgasm. As I was coming back down, I felt him push something into my ass. I was kind of slumped back against the mirror and I sat up and looked at him.

“Don’t worry baby, it’s just a butt plug. I put one of the smaller ones in. I figured we could start with it. You wear it for three days, and then we’ll switch to the next size up. And no, you won’t have it in for all of that time. You’ll wear it for five or six hours a day. We need to get you loose so that you can take us two at a time. If three days isn’t long enough, then we’ll give each one extra time. We don’t want to hurt you when it comes time for us to all be together,” he told me.

I could understand that, so I said “OK, that’s fine, but it feels weird. Now it’s my turn, help me down so that I can have my treat.” “How about we wait until after dinner? I know that you’re hungry, I can hear your stomach growling” he teased me. “I was planning on eating, but you won’t let me have it,” I said with a pout.

“You can suck me off anytime, but you won’t be swallowing that shit. I don’t want my kid to taste my cum.” “The baby wouldn’t be tasting it, you’re being ridiculous. Fine, then let’s get dressed so that I can go get food.” I went to the closet and put a bra and thong on. Then I grabbed leggings and one of Marcello’s shirts. Marcello got dressed as well and after grabbing our phones, we headed downstairs.

When we got downstairs, Mom and the boys were setting the food on the table. It smelt wonderful. Mom had made meatloaf, mashed potatoes, corn, and broccoli and cheese. It was so good that I ate two plates. When we were done with dinner, I made a cheesecake and put it in the fridge to set up for an hour. We decided to watch a movie together and when it was done we all ate a piece of the cheesecake and then went to bed.

When I got Marcello up to our room, though, I had other plans. He got to have his fun and I didn’t earlier. So I locked the door and told him “Strip your clothes off and get on the bed.” He actually listened to me, took his clothes off, and laid down. He was so sexy with his eight-pack abs and his muscular thighs. I slowly took my shirt, pants, bra, and thong off. Then I crawled up the bed.

I put my hands on his thighs and then licked up his dick, from his balls to his tip. He was instantly hard. I wrapped my right hand around the base of his dick and wrapped my mouth over the head. I started out slowly, taking him as far down my mouth as I could. Then I picked up speed. I was working him with my right hand as well and using my left hand to play with his balls.

I’d stop long enough to suck on his balls and then go right back to sucking his dick. I had him so close to cumming when I stopped. I crawled up his body and kissed him as I positioned myself over his dick. Then I eased him inside of me until I was sitting on his lap. He felt like he was so fucking deep inside of me. I moaned out when we broke apart from kissing. Then I started to ride him.

When we left from what Rodion jokingly calls the “Motel” we headed back to his place. He had some of his guys take Fantasia and Caleb to a safe house until we left. He didn’t trust them enough yet to let them into his house, and I didn’t blame them. The house that he was sending them to had listening devices all throughout it so he’d hear if they were just playing us.

When we got to his house, he led us into the dining room. He introduced us to his chef and made who were putting food onto the table. I was glad because I was starving and was ready for a hot meal. The food that you eat on a jet is never as good as a hot home-cooked meal. We all sat down and ate the food that had been prepared for us. It was delicious.

While we ate, Rodion told us about River’s first night that she stayed with them. How she was craving tacos and the staff went out and got the stuff to make them for her. He also told us about how everyone fell in love with her. She just has that air about her that makes almost everyone fall in love with her.

I knew that she had been painting as soon as I stepped foot in the house. I saw the picture that she painted when we first walked in. I knew that she did it just by looking at it, I’d know her work anywhere. She painted Rodion, his wife and sons, and herself in the picture. It was amazing and so life-like. Rodion told us that she painted that picture for his wife Alena, who she now claims as her mom. She also painted a few other paintings that she left behind as well.

When we were done with dinner, Rodion showed us to our rooms and told us to get some rest. We’d go back to the “Motel” tomorrow and see what information Venom had been able to get from the guy. He had his boys show the others to their rooms, and he took me to mine. “This is Rivers’ room for when she’s here. Marcello stayed with her in here, and I figured that you’d like to stay in here as well. I know that when Alena and I were separated, I always felt better sleeping in our room. It was never the same when she was gone, but I still felt closer to her. I know that you guys did what you thought was best to protect my daughter. I know that you were trying to save her and I understand why you did it. As a dad, I don’t like that my daughter was hurt. But as a husband, I would’ve done the same thing to save the woman that I love. River will come around to the rest of you guys in time. Just give her time to understand why you did what you did. In the meantime, catch the ones that are after her and eliminate them” he said.

“I plan on doing just that, we all do. While I’m here dealing with this situation, Aries and Zeus are working on finding Anthony and Anthony Jr. As well as the guy that they are working for and the two others as well. We’ll find them all and eliminate every last one of them. I will make sure that River and my child are safe,” I said.

After our little talk in the hallway, I went into River’s room. My bags were already sitting on the end of the bed. I opened it up and got my toiletry bag and a pair of boxers out and then went to get a shower. After a quick shower, I dried off, put my boxers on, brushed my teeth, and then went to bed. Laying down I could tell what side my River slept on. It still smelled like her.

It didn't take me long to fall asleep and, for the first time in a few weeks, I was able to get some sleep. When my alarm went off the next morning, I rolled over and turned it off. I got up and went to the bathroom. After I used the bathroom, I brushed my teeth and then went and got dressed. After I had my suit on, I put my dress shoes on and sprayed my cologne on. Then I was good to go.

When I grabbed my phone I saw that I had a couple of missed texts from Aries. I decided to call him back instead of texting him. The phone rang a few times before Aries picked it up. "Hey Dom, I figured that I'd hear right back from ya. I texted you a few hours ago" he said. "Hey, sorry I was asleep. I didn't get your messages until this morning. What the fuck is that noise? Where are you at?" I asked him. It sounded like a squealing pig in the background.

"That would be the sound of a bastard squealing. We got our hands on Anthony last night. He had the balls to try to stop us with just a few people with him to try to take the kid. He didn't get him, of course. Instead, we got our hands on him and Jr ran like a scared little boy. We have got eyes on him, and I'll have him later today, maybe. Right now, Red's trying to get answers out of Anthony. We want all the information on the guy after River first. But we're also taking our time with him. I figured that you and Rodion would love your pound of flesh from him as well. Sal's already getting his" he told me.

"Your fucking right, I want ahold of him. I know Rodion will as well after what those fucking people did to his daughter. I'm pretty sure that he wanted to snatch Loretta up as well. The only reason that he didn't is because Sal wants her brought home so that he can deal with her," I told him. "I know, so when are you guys coming home? I'd like to know how long we have to play" he asked me. "Let me talk to Rodion, and I'll let you know when we'll be home. I've not been downstairs yet. I got up and got dressed and saw that you had texted a few times. I wanted to make sure that you and Zeus were both OK. Have you heard from Marcello? He's pissed at me and won't answer my calls, and his texts back to me are one-word answers" I said.

"I talked to him yesterday, but I've not talked to him yet today. I've been a little busy. I do know that he's still doing as much work for your company as he can. He's still keeping your schedule and sending emails and whatnot. I think that he's even helping the guys go through the video footage to try to find the coffee shop guy and the club whore. We have a plan to get her here though. Stone is going to call her and try to get her to come back here. I'll let you know how that goes. In the meantime, I have to go. I have a vulture to play with. Let me know when you guys are all coming back. I love you" he said.

"I'll call you later and let you know. Keep me updated on the vulture and I'll do the same. I love you too." I hung up with Aries and put my phone in my pocket. Then I headed downstairs to talk to Rodion. I found everyone in the dining room eating breakfast.

“Sorry that I’m late. Aries texted me during the night and I had to call him back. There’s a situation back home that I need to talk to you about after breakfast, Rodion,” I told him. He nodded, and I filled up my plate to eat. The maid that I learned was named Maria, brought me out a hot cup of coffee. “Thank you so much, Maria,” I said. “You’re welcome.”

As we ate breakfast and drank coffee, Rodion filled us in on how Fantasia and Caleb were overnight. “They talked about how happy they were to finally be free of Anthony and Loretta and that they needed to get their sister and brother away from Anthony now. Fantasia talked about how much weight was off of her shoulders, knowing that her son was finally safe. Sounds like they are really on our side,” Rodion said.

“I’m glad that they weren’t just playing us. Her son is safe, but there were issues when getting him back to the compound. I’ll fill you in after we’re done in here,” I told them. We finished up with breakfast and then headed into Rodion’s office. I filled them in on everything that Aries told me. Rodion and Nicco both wanted to get back to Texas and take care of Anthony. He had every one of us wanting to get ahold of him. At the rate that he pisses people off, there won’t be much left of him when we are done with him.

After we finished talking about what all Aries filled me in on. We made plans to get back home as soon as we could. We wanted to take our turns with Anthony and then find the rest of the pieces of the puzzle. And then we’ll eliminate them all. When we were done talking, we left and headed to the motel.

When we got there, Venom was in the kitchen eating breakfast. He was in nothing but a pair of jeans. He didn’t even have shoes on. From what Aries told me, he usually strips down when he’s working alone because it can get very bloody. If he’s not wearing a lot of clothes, then there’s less evidence to get rid of.

“Hey Venom, how’s it going?” I asked him as I took a seat at the table. He swallowed the food in his mouth and then said “It’s been better. He’s been tight-lipped, but then I got creative, and he started singing like a bird. His boss is originally from Russia, the lower part from what I gathered. And I’m guessing that it’s a small town that he’s from. He’s been in the sex trading business for about twenty-three years. Possibly longer, but I can’t be for sure. Right now, he’s not in the States, and the jackass downstairs doesn’t know where he’s at. He’s known to disappear for long periods of time. He was pissed off that he wasn’t able to get his hands on River as a child. From what jackass says, the whole reason that Loretta hooked up with you was to get pregnant with your kid. This guy knew that there was a chance for a boy, but he was hoping she’d have a girl. He wanted to use the girl to get to you. But while she was pregnant, they were told that it was a boy. He was pissed off and disappeared for years. When he finally came back around it was to see that Loretta had a little girl. He put two and two together and figured out that River was yours. He wanted her but wasn’t able to take her. Now that she’s over eighteen, though he’s once again after her to get to you. He wants to be the head of the Russian Mafia. And in order to do that, he’s planning on using River to get you to hand everything over. He thinks that she’s the key to being the head honcho. Said something about a will stating the firstborn daughter would be the one in charge.”

“That fucking will again, there is no will. That’s just a damn rumor that got started years ago when my father was a kid. But it was never put into a will. I bet I know who this guy is, but I’ll have to check my records. I’ll find out for sure, then we’ll hunt him down, and I’ll chop his dick and balls off. Do you think that this guy has any other information?” Rodion asked Venom.

“I don’t know, I took a break to eat, but I plan to go back down in a minute and see if I can get anything else from him,” he told us. “I want to come down with you, we need this finished today so that we can get back home. Aries called this morning. They have Anthony Sr and Red’s having fun with him. They’re going to keep him alive so that we can have fun with him before he’s pig food,” I told him.

He smiled when I said that Red was having fun, he knows how his man is. When he finished eating, we headed downstairs. When we stepped into the room, Loretta was tied to a chair in the corner and her eyes were squeezed closed. Apparently, she didn’t like Venom’s work. I don’t blame her though, Venom didn’t leave much left of this guy.

He’d cut his fingers and toes off and stripped big sections of skin off of his body. He was also missing his teeth. Venom had cut him from his neck down his stomach and to the top of his pants. Both sides of his face had been cut, and one of his eyes was missing. Venom had busted his knees and his ribs with a sledgehammer and had even used a blow torch on all of his tattoos. There really wasn’t much left of this guy.

After we got everything that we could from him, Rodion put a gun to his head and pulled the trigger. He then had his guys take him through an underground tunnel system to the back of the property where he had a big pig farm. They stayed and made sure that the pigs ate every bit of him. Then they came back to clean up. Venom went up to clean up and then went outside and burnt his pants.

We grabbed Loretta and one of the guards stood over her while she took a shower. We had her bag of clothes there, and it was searched before she was able to get ahold of it. Rodion called to have the jet readied, and we went back to his house to pack our bags. The guards would be bringing Loretta to the jet and the other guards would be bringing Fantasia and Caleb.

It didn’t take long to pack up and make our way to the jet. Once everyone was on the jet, Rodion made sure that Loretta was secure, and that we wouldn’t have to worry about her. Fantasia and Caleb had made it as well. Caleb even called and told their pilot to head back and that they would be staying for a few weeks. That they’d call when they needed him. Once all of our ducks were in a row, we were off and on our way back home. One step closer to getting my woman and my man back home. I can’t wait until this shit is over with.

After Zeus and I stopped by the clubhouse, we left and had half the fucking club behind us. Not long after leaving the club, Sal and Zain joined us in their SUV and the guys surrounded them. It didn't take us long to get to the shed that I had the prospects take Anthony to. It was out in the middle of nowhere and up a dirt road that we own. It's got a huge fucking fence around the whole property and usually has a prospect and a brother watching it.

Nine times out of ten, it's two prospects who sit and watch the property. Unless we have a brother who's in trouble for something, and then we put him out here. Today, there are just two prospects out here. After they let us in at the gate, we rode about three miles back to the shed. It's surrounded by trees, so you can't see it from any part of the gate.

We parked all around the shed and then revved up our bikes to let Anthony know that hell was here. And that the devil would be looking for him soon. But not too soon. I have to save some fun for Dom, Rodion, and River's brothers. Sal and Zain parked right in front of the door and Zeus and I parked on either side of them.

We all got off our bikes as they climbed out of their car. Sal stepped up to me and shook my hand as he said "Well, I didn't expect the whole club to show up for this. There won't be much left of this mother fucker when we're all done with him. And I'm kind of hoping for that." "We have to save some of him for Dom and Rodion. I'm sure that Nicco and Rodion's boys will want to get a hit or two in as well. So we need to keep him alive for a few days at least" I said.

I'd been trying to get ahold of Dom but hadn't heard from him yet. I sent him one more text before we headed inside and then put my phone away. When we got inside the shed, the prospects had Anthony hanging from the rafters by his wrists just like I said. His feet were barely touching the floor.

Somehow he was sleeping and didn't wake up when we came in. So I went over to the sink in the room and filled up a bucket with cold water. When it was full, I turned the water off and walked over to him. I threw the bucket of water on him, and he woke up with a scream. I honestly don't know how anyone is afraid of him after hearing that. It sounded like a little girl screaming.

Most of the guys started to laugh at him over it and were calling him a sissy. That really pissed him off and had he not had a gag in his mouth, I'm sure that he would've been running his mouth. "Let's get this shit started shall we," I said. "Here's how this is going to go, Anthony. You answer our questions and tell us what we want to know. Or you'll start losing body parts. We wouldn't want you to lose too many before your wife gets here to join you. So you had better answer us and tell us everything that we want to know. Or when she gets here, she'll be seeing less of the man that she married."

Red rubbed his hands together and looked at me. I nodded to him, and he stepped up to Anthony and ripped the tape that was holding the gag in his mouth off. He screamed even worse than he did when he was hit by the water. Once Red yanked the tape off, he set about getting his tools ready. He had an array of shit just like Venom did.

He set out a blowtorch, sledgehammer, knives, brass knuckles, cat o' nine tails, dental tools, choke pear, rubber rings for castration, a melon baller, and so much more. The more shit that Red pulled out of his bag of tricks and laid on the table in front of Anthony, the paler that he got. It was funny to watch, and when Red had everything set out, I stepped up in front of Anthony.

"So now that we're ready to start, we're going to handle business before pleasure. I want to know who the hell you're working for. I want an actual name for the guy, not just the boss. I want to know who the fuck is after my ole lady. Start talking, now" I said. He kept his mouth shut and wouldn't answer me.

Finally, he said, "You guys won't really hurt me, you're just putting on a show to scare me. I've done nothing wrong, and I know that you don't hurt innocent people." I can't believe he had the nerve to say that he's innocent. If he's innocent, then I'm a fucking angel. I chuckled and walked up to the table. I slowly looked over the tools that were lying on the table before I picked up the brass knuckles.

I put the knuckles on and walked up to Anthony. Then I swung with my full weight behind it and punched him in the mouth. I hit him so hard that he spit out four of his teeth. "Damn boss man, leave me some teeth to pull out, yeah. If you don't, then I got my dentist kit out for nothing," Red joked. I just smirked at him as I said "I'll try to leave you a few teeth to pull. But I'm not promising anything. You got some pliers in that bag? You can pull out all of his nails, both fingers and toes."

When Anthony refused to answer my questions, I hit him again and knocked out three more teeth. I then turned him over to Red to play with. Maybe he could get some answers out of him for me. He was being a stubborn bastard and not wanting to tell us anything about his boss. When Red got started with him, he grabbed his pliers and pulled out all of Anthony's fingernails and toenails.

Then he moved on to breaking every bone in his body. Anthony still wouldn't talk though, and we were all getting frustrated as fuck. We stepped outside for a minute to regroup and figure out another way to make him talk. I normally don't smoke unless I'm stressed out, and right now I am. So I pulled a cigarette out of my pocket, lit it, and took a drag off of it. This shit was starting to get to me. We needed to find this mother fucker and end him and his disgusting business.

Not only does he need to be stopped and all of his victims found and brought back to their families. But I'm worried about what all of this stress will do to River and the baby. I don't want her to lose our baby because she's constantly looking over her shoulder and worrying all the time. I stood off to the side smoking my cig and trying to come up with a way to break him. The only thing that I could think of that would get him to talk, would be to bring Anthony Jr in.

That seems to be the only kid that he cares about. Or, I guess he does care about his other daughter. The only one that is biologically his is Immaculate. We wouldn't actually hurt her, but he doesn't have to know that. We could make him think that we were going to hurt her if he didn't talk. I'll have them grab Derrick as well, and then we can make sure that they are finally safe as well. I'm hoping that they will work with us and help us get information out of Anthony.

I walked over to where the guys were and said "I have a plan, and I'm hoping that it works. I want a few of you to go pick up Immaculate and Derrick and bring them back here. I think that if we pretend to use Immaculate he'll talk to us. Especially if we say that we'll torture her if he doesn't answer our questions. He's not let anything happen to her yet, that we know of anyway. She's the only one that I could think of that he cares enough about that he'd actually protect."

Everyone stood there thinking for a few minutes before my Dad Ripper said "That may work, but we need to come up with a plan if it doesn't." "I know I'll figure something out. In the meantime, I need to look up a couple of places. River sent me some properties to check out for her. Places that her center can go. I need to make appointments to go check them out for her and let her know what I think about them," I said.

"You go do that and I'll handle this. I'll get the guys over to pick up those two or three if Jr is there. And then I'll figure out the rest" Dad said. "Thanks dad, Zeus can give you the coordinates to where they are staying at. He's been keeping an eye on the place. He even had his sister helping him with it today. That's how we knew that they were coming. I'm going to walk over here and make the appointments, and I'll be right back."

While Dad handled that for me, I stepped off to the side and called the realtor about the places that River sent me. Thankfully, I only had to deal with one person to see the places that she sent. I'm really hoping that at least one of them is big enough for her to do everything that she wants to do. We set up a meeting for the following day, and then I walked back to the shed.

Most of the guys had left to go grab Anthony's kids, the others walked back inside. I went inside to see that Red had started taking his fingers off, and then he cauterized them. It looked like he only had his pointer fingers and thumbs left on both hands. As we were listening to Anthony scream, my phone rang, it was Dom.

After filling him in on what's happening here, and the fact that we had Anthony. He was ready to come home. He wanted his piece of him as well. He asked me about Marcello, and although he answers my calls he never stays on the phone long with me. He's pissed at all of us for making him stay away from River. I can't blame him for it either, we should've let him stay with her to protect her.

He wasn't sure when he'd be home yet, but if I had to guess, it would be tomorrow. Now that he knows that we have Anthony, he'll want to be here as soon as possible. We finished talking and then, after telling him I loved him, we hung up. Usually, we don't say that shit in front of others. But with him across the world, I'll tell him, I'll always tell them.

I let the guys know that we needed to keep the squealing pig alive for a few days. We played with Anthony for a few more hours before we stopped for the night. As we were getting on our bikes to leave, I got a text from Dom.

Dom- Be home soon, we're getting on Rodion's jet in about an hour. I sent my jet on ahead but with layovers so that anyone tracking it doesn't realize what's going on. I'll call you when we land. Love you and Zeus.

Me- Be careful, and we'll see you tomorrow. Just come to the clubhouse when you land. Then we'll take a ride for playtime. We love you too.

After texting him back, I let the guys know that he was on his way home. Then we got on our bikes and headed for home. When we pulled into the clubhouse, we parked and went inside. My beautiful, wonderful, amazing mother, as well as Zeus' mom, had dinner ready. They went all out. They made meatloaf, mashed potatoes, corn, green beans, rice, salad, and dessert. It smelled so good and I was staring.

I made a quick trip to the bathroom to take a piss and wash my hands. When I was done, I went and fixed a plate and grabbed a beer. Then I walked over to my table and sat down. While we were eating, I had a few texts come in that were pictures of River. She looked so beautiful lying on the beach in her bikini. It even looked like she had a little baby bump. I can't wait until we can all be together again.

After we made it back to the clubhouse, we had dinner with everyone, and then I went into my office to do some work. My sister had been keeping track of the cameras for me for a few hours now. When I got into my office, I closed all the doors and got busy. I went over all the cameras for the area that Anthony had been staying in. So I saw when our guys took his kids out of the trailer that they had been staying in.

Immaculate, or Mac, I learned that she preferred to be called, and Derrick walked out of the trailer with their suitcases. They looked like they were happy to be getting out of there. Anthony Jr, on the other hand, had to be practically carried out of there. I made sure that no one but me had access to the cameras that were around there. That way, no one saw him being carried out with his mouth and hands duck-tapped and thrown into the trunk of the SUV.

If I had to hazard a guess, he didn't want to come willingly. I sent a text to the guys to drop him off at one of the other sheds on the property where Anthony Sr is being held. We have five different sheds on the property, and they're all spread out. We wanted to make sure that we had extras for days like this. I also told the guys to bring Mac and Derrick back here to the club after they dropped the package off.

I sent a text to Aries to have a couple of the girls get two of our extra rooms ready for them. That Mac and Derrick would be here soon, and they'd need somewhere to stay. He let me know that he'd have it done and wanted to know how much longer I would be. I really didn't have much left to do. I was running in circles trying to figure out who this boss guy was. So I let him know that.

I knew that he was about ready to head home, but he'd wait until the guys got back. He'd want to make sure that Mac and Derrick were settled into their rooms before we left. Even though I knew what they had been through, I still didn't trust them, especially not where River was concerned. After what they all did to her as a child, even though they said it was to protect her. I still didn't want them around her, especially with her pregnant with my kid. The last thing that I wanted was for something to happen to our baby because of them.

I had Anthony's phone, and I went through it with a fine toothcomb. I searched through every little thing that he had on his phone. I was hoping to find something that would help me find this guy. I found a few numbers and started to run searches on them. But so far nothing has been coming up. He even had pictures on his phone and I ran them through my facial recognition program. I wanted to see who all of these people were. The good thing about my program is that it worked even with my computers shut down. I went through everything that I could on the phone and decided to take a break from it and go back over it tomorrow when I wasn't so tired.

I finished up what I was doing and then after I sent notifications to my phone, I shut down my computers. When I had everything shut down, I turned the lights off, and then made sure that Aries' door was locked. Then I locked my door as I was leaving the room. I had an alarm for our offices that I set as well before I left. It wasn't that I didn't trust the brothers, but the prospects and club whores I didn't trust. No one but Aries, myself, and our dads know the codes to get in.

I walked into the main room and went and sat down beside Aries. He was talking to our dads about this shit that's been going on. "Did you have any luck finding anything on this guy yet?" Aries asked me. "Not yet, I went through Anthony's phone. I found some numbers to run as well as pictures. I've got the pictures going through my facial recognition program. And the numbers I have running as well. Hopefully, I'll know something soon. Other than that, I've not found anything. I went through the phone a few times but decided to take a break and look at it again in the morning. Maybe after some sleep, I'll be able to look at it with fresh eyes, and find something useful" I said.

"Let me know if you find anything. Hopefully, we'll be able to get something out of Anthony tomorrow as well. If not him, then maybe Jr will know something useful. We also have our special guests to play with as well. He's been on ice for a while, and it's about time that we had fun with him," Aries said. "I've wanted to have fun with him for weeks now, but you wouldn't let me," Ripped said, and my dad Dexter agreed with him.

I know how long that both of them have wanted to really play with our special guest. They've toyed with him for weeks, but Aries has wanted to hold off on really playing with him and having fun. I got a notification on my phone letting me know that shed three now had a great in it. It was soon followed by a text from my brother Dagger. He was letting me know that him and Gearhead would be doing protection detail on Jr tonight.

I texted him back, thanked him for staying there, and let him know that we'd be there in the morning. And that if they needed anything to let me know. He let me know that the guys were on the way back here. So I decided that was my cue to leave. I knew that it wouldn't take long for them to get here, and I wasn't ready to be around them yet.

So I told Aries "Dagger just texted me, they dropped Anthony Jr off at shed three. And he also said that him and Gearhead are going to stay there on protection detail tonight. We're running low on prospects, and they want to make sure that he's being watched. I told them to let me know if they needed anything. We should have a prospect run them over some food and shit to drink since they'll be there all night."

"I'll have Ivy fix them up some to-go plates and drinks, and I'll run them over to them. Probably should drop something off to the prospects that have been there all day as well. I could do with a drive, but it won't be on my bike. But it's a nice night for one. I'll go see if she'll fix me up some plates. I'll see you guys later" my dad, Maverick, said.

He walked off to find Mom and I said "I'm going to head on home. I need a shower and my bed, I'm exhausted. I'll see you at home Aries, goodnight Dad, goodnight Ripper, Legal. I'll see you all tomorrow." "You're not going to stick around to wait for River's sister and brother to get here?" Aries asked me. "Nope, they should be here soon. I'm not ready to meet them just yet, not after the shit they did to River. I know it was supposedly to protect her, but I don't trust them yet. So I'll leave you to it and I'll see you at home."

After saying goodnight to my mom, Sunny, and my sisters, I headed out. I got on my bike and rode around to the back to my house. When I got home, I went inside and after seeing how full the laundry basket was, I decided to wash some clothes. I put the first load in the washer and then tidied up around the house. It wasn't too messy, but there were some dishes in the sink that I put into the dishwasher.

I did a few other things around the house until the first load of clothes was done. When they were finished, I tossed them into the dryer and started another load. I hate doing laundry, it was never ending and a pain in the ass. I always waited until I was about out of clean clothes to wash up more. So, after the second load was started in the washing machine, I headed upstairs.

I emptied out my pockets, and put my shit on the nightstand. Then I laid my cut on the chair in our room. I went into the bathroom and started the shower. Once it was nice and hot, I stripped down and stepped into the shower. When I got in there, I stood under the water with my hands on the wall. I just let the water beat down on my back to loosen up my muscles. After a few minutes, I stood up and washed my hair and body.

I was just rinsing off when I felt arms come around me. I knew that it was Aries, so I leaned back into him. He started to kiss down my neck and I leaned my head back onto his shoulder to give him better access. He had his hands on my hips, and he brought one down and wrapped it around my dick. He started moving his hand up and down my dick to get me hard. With his other hand, he ran it down my ass and inserted one of his fingers in my ass.

He kept working his fingers into me until he had four in me. Then he pushed me forward and rammed his dick into my ass. I moaned loudly, it felt so good. I loved it when he was in the mood to have it ruff. My hair was starting to get long again, and he reached up, grabbed it, and jerked my head back. And then he was kissing me again. He kept pounding me hard and working his hand up and down my dick. I was so close to cumming and I could tell that he was as well.

He kept pounding me harder and harder and working his hand faster and faster. It didn't take long, and we were both cumming pretty hard. My cum shot out of my dick and covered the shower wall. When Aries was finally done, we were both breathing hard. "Damn, baby, I really needed that. Thank you" he said.

"You're welcome, anytime babe. I have to ask though, what brought this on? You usually don't get really rough unless something is going on" I said. "It's all of this shit that's piling on top of us. All of these guys are trying to come for our woman. And our woman being pregnant and away from us right now. It's all just starting to pile up on me. I want answers and I want this shit to be done, like yesterday."

"I know what you mean, I want this shit done as well. I want to have River at home and watch her grow round with our child. We'll get answers tomorrow, one way or another. For now, let's shower and get to bed" I said. I washed off again and stepped out while Aries finished showering. I dried off, put a pair of boxers on and went downstairs to switch the clothes around.

After taking the clean clothes out of the drier, I put the ones from the washer in the drier and started it. I left the basket of clothes sitting on the dryer for now. I made sure that the doors were locked, and the alarm was set. When that was done, I went up to bed. Aries was already in bed, so I turned out the light and joined him in bed.

I laid down and wrapped my arm around him, and it didn't take me long to go to sleep. I hope that we get the answers that we need tomorrow. As much as I like to cuddle with Aries, I really want our woman here to cuddle with as well. Soon, soon, we'll have her here with us.

Being stuck on this island is both a good thing and a bad thing. It's good because I get to spend time with my love River. It's bad because I'm stuck here and not back at home, helping to eliminate the threat. I want nothing more than to get these people all unalived so that we can get back home and concentrate on our baby.

We should be going to doctors' appointments, planning the nursery, and arguing over baby names. But with all of these bastards after River, I have to hide with her to keep her safe. Don't get me wrong, I'd gladly hide out with her anyway. But we are also missing our men. I know that she feels the same way. It's not even been a week yet, and we want to go home.

Don't get me wrong, we both love being on the island. It's warm here, and it's a very beautiful spot to spend time at. But we've both been away from home for too long if you count the weeks that River spent in Russia and the week that I joined her. She's never been away from her Nonna for this long, and she just got her Nonno back, so she's really missing them.

What time that I'm not working is spent on the beach or taking walks with River. Even though I'm not in the office, I'm still doing what I can remotely. I have a work phone that I transfer calls that go to my desk during the day. So I'm still able to take calls, messages, and transfer calls. I go through the emails and delegate anything that I'm not able to do remotely. That way, the temp doesn't have to try to do everything in my absence. All he has to do is the work that I send to him.

I even send Dom's messages that I can't send by email to him to pass along. It might be petty of me, but I'm not yet ready to speak to him. Don't get me wrong, I still love him and want to be with him. But I'm pissed off at him as well and probably will be for a while yet. When we get back home, I'll go back to speaking to him, but for now, it's not happening. I text Aries and Zeus at least once a day to let them know that we're OK. I usually text with Zeus more often. I'm not pissed off at him.

It's another day of doing office work. I don't plan to spend the whole day working though. My woman wants to go for a walk around the island, so that's what we're going to do. I spend most of the morning answering calls and transferring them to where they need to go. Since Dom is currently in Russia, his Dad, Luciano, and my Dad, Mario, are working in the office.

So most of the calls and emails that were important and needed to be seen to right now, I sent to Luciano. Most of the stuff was easy to do, but we had a contract for a piece of land that we had been in negotiations for. It was for a new building that we were working on. Dom wanted to build an apartment-like building for our people. We have been in the process of buying this land for a few months now. The plans that we have been working on would put it at thirty stories high. It would be big enough to have five apartments with five bedrooms each, on eighteen floors.

The top two floors would be our penthouse and have ten bedrooms and thirteen bathrooms. We also had plans for a game room, a theater, a big office, a huge kitchen, and a living room, and he even changed things around to add an art studio. The first five floors, he planned to make shopping areas.

We talked to different people in the area, and have a grocery store, restaurants, fast food places, a movie theater, an arcade, and even a bar or two. He wanted a place for our employees to call home and feel safe in it. We had a few employees who were living in bad areas, and he wanted them protected. We all did.

So when a new email came in about this property came in I was pissed and had to call Dom. When he didn't answer, I called Luciano about it. When I called him, the phone rang a few times before he picked it up. "Hey Marcello, what's going on?" "Hey Luciano, sorry to bother you, but I couldn't reach Dom. We have a problem. He's been working on a contract for a piece of property for a while now. We were almost done with the contract and set to sign it soon. He wants this land to build a thirty-story apartment building for our people. At our last meeting with this guy, we had a few things that had to be worked out. We talked over it and agreed on the price and shit. Now this asshole is wanting more money and won't say why. I'm going to forward the email to you that he sent to me," I said as I sent him the email.

"I also sent this to our lawyer because he was there when we talked out the price and shit. This guy is not going through his lawyer now, and it makes me suspicious as hell about it," I told him. He was quiet for a few minutes before he said "OK, I got the email, let me read through it. Can you send me the last contract that you went over and the prices that you all agreed upon?" He asked me. "Yeah, I'll send those through now."

I went through my files and found copies of the last meeting that we had. I even had a video of the meeting as well. I sent everything that I had to Luciano and waited for him to look through it all. While he was looking through it, I stepped over to the window to check on River. She and her Mom were both lying outside by the pool. The guards are both sitting close and keeping a watch out. Rodion also has cameras all over the island that the boys have access to as well. So if someone shows up or even gets close to the island, we'll know.

I had the phone up to my ear as I watched out the window. When Luciano came back on the phone he said "Don't worry, I'll deal with this for you guys. Some things not adding up with this. It makes me really suspicious, especially since he says that he won't meet face-to-face about it. To me, that says that someone else is pulling the strings. If there is, I'll find out. I have your dad tapping this guy's phone line. And we're also trying to get access to the cameras that are close to this guy's house. And the ones that are close to the land that you're trying to buy. We may have to call Zeus and see if he can access them for us. I think this guy is being used by someone to get more money. And we're going to find out by who and why. I know that Dom's on his way back here. That may be why you can't get ahold of him. But don't worry, I'll take care of this for you. I'll get ahold of you once I know something. I was getting a little bored sitting in the office, so this should be fun."

"Thank you, Luciano. If I was there, I'd take care of it myself. But since I can't, I figured that you and Dad could take care of it for me. I didn't trust anyone else to look into this for me,” I told him. “Don’t worry, your dad and I can handle this. You’re where you need to be. You keep watching after our daughter-in-law and our grandbaby. How is River doing, by the way?” He asked me. “She’s doing well, she’s still dealing with the morning sickness. And we’re both ready to be back home” I said.

“Soon, you’ll both be back home soon. And then we can start preparing for our grandbaby. Of course, all the women are already planning for the baby. I know my wife already has a nursery started. As much as she can, anyway.” “Your mom does as well” I heard my dad yell in the background. “We’ll let you go Marcello, and we’ll take care of this. I’ll get ahold of you in a little bit and let you know what’s going on with it. Give River hugs from us and tell her we miss her.”

“I will, and she misses you guys as well. Be careful, love you, Dad,” I yelled out at him. “Love you, son” he yelled back. I got off the phone with them and then finished up what I was doing and then logged out of my email and shut the laptop down. I locked it up in a drawer and then went to our room to change.

I changed into a pair of shorts and then headed out to get River for our walk. I tucked my phone in my pocket on my way so that I’d have it in case Dad or Luciano tried to call me. He said that Dom was on his way back to Texas. I’m really hoping that is a good thing. I’m hoping and praying that they have answers to shit and can finish all of this.

When I got outside, River was eating a bowl of mixed fruit and drinking a cup of tea. I kissed her forehead and then sat down beside her. “You get done eating baby, we’ll take our walk. I’m done for the day. Dad and Luciano said to give you hugs and let you know that they miss you. My mom and Angela are already making nurseries in their respective houses. They can’t wait to be grandmas. Or to have you back home to fuss over,” I told her.

“Next time you talk to them, tell them that I miss them all as well. And that I can’t wait to be home either. I’m ready to get home and start figuring shit out. I can’t keep staying with Nonna and Nonno now that I have a baby on the way. I need to find an apartment or something” she said. “Wherever you go to stay, whether it’s with all of us or it’s in your own place, I’ll be with you. I’m not leaving your side ever again. You’re my woman and I won’t let you down again. We’ll figure out where we’re going to stay and go apartment hunting when we get back home if that’s what you decide. It’s up to you where we live, but I’ll be paying for it. Now finish eating so we can go for a walk.”

River finished up her bowl of fruit and drank her tea, and then we set off for a walk. After, I took her dishes inside and put them in the dishwasher. We walked along the shore, and River filled up my pockets with seashells and hag stones. We walked for a good way around the island until we were out of sight of the house. I sent a text to Leo and had him turn off the cameras for this area. We already had this planned. I wanted a little bit of alone time with my girl without anyone watching us.

When he texted back that the cameras were off, I emptied my pockets of seashells and hag stones. I even laid our phones down with them. River was watching me with a curious look, so I said “Come on, I want to go swimming. I had Leo turn the cameras off for this area so we could be alone for a while. There are guards close by but not close enough to see us. They can hear me though if I yell.”

“Let’s go then,” she said as she grabbed my hand and led me into the water. We walked as far as we could and then started to swim. We swam around for about an hour or so before we made our way back to the shore. When we got close enough that I could touch the bottom, River swam up to me as I stood up. She wrapped her arms and legs around me and started to kiss me.

As she deepened the kiss she took her hand and ran it down my chest. When she got to my shorts, she pulled the zipper down and pulled my dick out. She started to stroke me as she said “This has always been a fantasy of mine, ya know. To have sex in the ocean with the man that I love. So how about we mark that off of my bucket list.” Then she moved her bikini bottoms to the side and lined my dick up with her entrance.

When she sank down on me, I moaned out so loud that I was amazed that the guards didn’t come to see what was happening. She moved up and down my dick slowly at first and the longer we went, the faster she moved. I had ahold of her hips, helping to move her faster. I was close to cumming and I could feel that she was close as well. When she was very close to cumming I reached down and pinched her clit.

That sent her over the edge, and she squeezed me hard while she was cumming. And that’s what sent me over the edge. Cum just kept shooting out of my dick and when I finally stopped I was painting for air. I just stood and held her for a few minutes before I pulled out and fixed her bikini bottoms. And then I tucked myself back into my shorts. I finally walked us back out of the water.

I sat River down just long enough to pick our stuff back up and put it into my pockets. Except for our phones and I kept those in my hand. I didn’t want them to get wet. Then I picked River back up bridal style and carried her back to the house. I could really get used to this, but I’d love to have our men with us. I just have to keep telling myself soon, soon we’ll all be together. And the bad guys will be in hell with the devil where they belong.

Chapter 108 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

The next day, we spent most of the day at the clubhouse. For now, we have the prospects keeping an eye on our prisoners. Dom, Rodion, and the rest of the guys should be here soon. They should’ve already been here but had to stop in California because of engine trouble. I finally heard from him a little bit ago, and they should be here soon.

Once they finally get here, then we can go have some fun. Hopefully, we’ll finally get some answers out of these people. If not, we’ll keep them here until we do. I have no problem torturing them for months on end until we get the answers that we need. We have to get a fucking lead eventually.

Hell, Stone's not even having any luck with Beckie either. To make things look legit, and to look like him and Blondie spit up. She packed her bags and moved back into her apartment. She hadn't completely moved in with him yet and that came in handy. He uses a burner phone to call and check on her just in case his calls are somehow monitored. Not only that, but a brother from another club that Beckie doesn't know is staying in the apartment across from Blondie. That way, Blondie is protected in case Beckie tries something with her.

He still drives a bike, but he's not currently wearing his colors. That way, it doesn't look like he's connected to the club in any way. We're trying to make it all look legit to get her back here, but so far it's not working. I don't think it's because she doesn't want to come back either. I think it's because they won't let her come back here. They are being really cautious right now because Anthony and his kids have all disappeared.

We're not giving up though. One way or another, we'll get her back here. And then we'll be able to find out where that gang is hiding out at and take the mother fuckers down. We thought that we'd found them once, but they have moved and are not staying there now. And the place where Anthony and his kids were hiding is now like a ghost town. We've not seen anyone around there.

Zeus has been on his computers nonstop trying to find anything that he can to help us. We all just want to get these people dealt with and out of our lives. Hopefully, as soon as possible. We want to be able to get River and Marcello back here soon. We don't want to miss any more of this pregnancy than we already have. But I have a feeling that we will.

I was sitting at my table in the main common room with my Dads when Stone came stomping inside. He looked pretty pissed off. "What's up, brother? What's got you looking like you're ready to kill someone?" I asked him. "I feel like killing someone, preferably Spider. He's got his grubby fucking hands on my woman, and he's about to lose them. He's taken an interest in Blondie and has been spending time with her at her apartment. They even went to dinner together. When I asked her about it, she said that it was my fault for putting him across the hall from her. He's about to lose his hands. I know that you want that bitch back here to get ahold of her for information. But I may not be able to continue on with this shit. I won't lose my woman for it" he said.

"From what I heard, she's not the only one that he wants though. Word on the grapevine is that he wants you as well. Guess he took this job because he was thinking about switching chapters. He likes the way that we are here. Where we have more than just the traditional man and woman in a relationship. He's bi and has kept it to himself for a long time because his chapter doesn't believe in that type of thing. Of course, they'd never say that shit to us, because they know that I'd disband them for it. It's a newer chapter of the club though, and right now it's nothing but a bunch of single men. And none of them are in the process of settling down. Their opinions will change though, once they do," my dad, Ripper, said.

That made Stone sit and think about shit. I know that he's bi as well, but he's never thought about being in a relationship with another guy before. When he was about to say something, the door to the clubhouse opened up and Dom walked through it. Stone just nodded at us to let us know he'd think about it. I nodded back and then got up and walked over to Dom.

"Welcome home," I said to him as I gave him a hug. "It's good to be back home. Sorry it took a while, they had to figure out what the problem with the jet was. I ended up calling for mine to come and get us. Rodion's is still there being worked on. When they get it fixed, it will be sent here. I'm glad that we finally made it here. I was about ready to kill that bitch. She doesn't know how to keep her damn mouth shut" he said.

Rodion and then his boys stepped inside and after shaking hands with him, I introduced him to my family. Dom also had Fantasia and Caleb with him and when they stepped through the doors, Mac and Derrick were just coming out of the kitchen. They ran up to each other and were hugging, and saying how worried they were about each other.

The last to come through the door was Dom's brother Renzo, with Venom, Nicco, Enzo, and Pie, who was dragging Loretta behind him. Pie threw her down on an empty couch and if looks could kill, then she'd be dead already. All of her kids gave her disgusted looks when she yelled at them. "My babies, you have to help me, you have to save me from these people, please."

Caleb looked at her and said "You mean like how you've saved us from Anthony and Anthony Jr? Or how about how you saved River from them? Oh, wait, you never did save her. No, you tried to sell her off as if she wasn't your child, your own blood. So, fuck no, we won't save you. If anything, I want to be right there when the three of you die. No one is going to save your ass you bitch, so just sit there and shut the fuck up. You should be used to that because lord knows that you've never spoken out when Anthony did any wrong."

She sat there with a stunned look on her face like she couldn't believe that he spoke to her like that. Nicco looked at her and said "Just keep your fucking mouth shut before I find some duct tape and tape your mouth shut. No one wants to hear your mouth and no one is going to save your abusive ass. So shut the fuck up." "You won't do shit to me Nicco, because if you do Mom will be pissed at you for hurting me" She yelled at him. "You think so, Mom hates your guys, Loretta. Especially after what happened to River. Rivers her daughter now, not you. So she wouldn't say shit to me for hurting you. As a matter of fact, I'm pretty sure that I once heard her and Dad say that you were a load that should've been swallowed or shot down the shower drain. And I have to agree with that. The only good thing that came from you was River, that's it," he told her and had everyone in the club roaring in laughter.

I have to agree with that. River is the only good thing that came from her. I don't care why her other kids say that they did what they did to protect River. They still hurt her and I can't ever forgive that. Once this is all said and done, they need to move far away and stay far away from my girl.

Loretta started to run her mouth to Nicco, and he just turned his back to her and ignored her. Of course, that pissed her off even more. Everyone went back to what they were doing, and I walked Dom and Rodion over to my table to sit down. I sent a text to Zain to let him know that Dom and them were finally here. He texted back that they were already on their way. Nicco called Sal when they landed. Now we just had to wait for them to get here, and then we could go visit our guests in the sheds.

We sat around bullshitting for about twenty minutes when the clubhouse door opened up again and Zain stepped through first. As soon as Loretta saw him she started screaming at him to help her. And she even tried the Nicco's being mean to me, you have to help me spiel. It didn't do her any good though. He just told her to shut the fuck up. Rosa stepped through the door and completely ignored Loretta. She walked up to us and gave us all hugs.

Next to come through the door was Sal. When Loretta saw him she went extremely pale and kept saying "It's not possible, you're dead." Over and over again. He stopped and looked at her and when he finally spoke to her, it wasn't nice. "Yeah, I am alive, no thanks to you. You tried to have me killed when you lied and said that I killed your son that you didn't even have. But while everyone thought that I was dead, I was actually kidnapped and held hostage for years. All because of a make-believe baby boy when you actually had a girl and lied about it. If you weren't too busy running your mouth a few nights ago and were paying attention you would've seen me on the live video that Enzo had us on. We all saw everything that happened that night, the night that your daughter admitted to a lot of shit that's been happening. I will not save you today or any day, for that matter, after you tried to have me killed. I know why you did it, you didn't want anything to happen to your precious husband. And you thought that you'd be in my will and get money out of me. That won't ever happen. You and your family have been disowned by all of us. Rosa even had you all removed from the family register after I was supposedly killed. You are no longer family, and I'll take great joy in watching you suffer as your husband and oldest son are killed in front of you."

With that said, he walked over to our table, and after shaking hands with everyone, said "Are we ready to get this shit done? I want my daughter back home before, well you know what. I don't want to say it out loud because I don't trust certain present company." "We were just waiting for all of you to get here. Let's load up and we'll take you to the sheds. Prospect throw the bitch in the trunk and follow us" I yelled.

A month later

Over the next month, we all took turns trying to get information out of these guys. We even used Mac, and put her in another room and made it sound like we were beating on her to get information out of them. But still, yet, they wouldn't talk. Hell, we even went as fast as having one of the club girls who is good with makeup make it look like Mac was bruised and bleeding, but still nothing. Although I think that Anthony is close to talking, he hates to see her look like that.

Fantasia was reunited with her son and Cynthia the night that she came back to the States. He was one happy little boy, to finally get to be with his mom for good. He was also happy because he also got to finally meet his aunt and uncles as well. They are all staying in the safe house that we put Cynthia and Levi in. We also have a new guest at my house as well. Renzo has been staying with us so that he's close to Fantasia.

He's been spending time with her and with her son. Levi was a little leery of being around so many men at first, but now he loves being here. Not only does he have other kids to play with, but there is plenty of space for them to run and play. Some of the guys have also been teaching him about bikes as well.

It took a while, but Stone finally got Beckie to start coming to see him. He had to meet her out in the open the first few times he saw her, though. He's trying to get her to trust him enough that she comes here to see him. Once he can get her here, we can get information out of her and finally find that gang. Once we find and get rid of them, we can bring River and Marcello home.

Today I'm in my office working on paperwork for all of our businesses. I'm a little behind on it since I've been helping the guys try to get information out of our guests. I'll need to go to all of our businesses soon and check in on how they are all doing. My guys sent me the paperwork for all of them, but I still like to do the drop-ins.

I've been in my office for about two hours now, and I'm so close to finally being done with the paperwork. Zeus has been in his office working on his computers as well, trying to find something. He had the divider closed so that he didn't disturb me when I heard him yell out "Fucking finally."

I just shook my head and went back to what I was doing. He'd been yelling all morning, so I figured if it was something important then he'd come and tell me. I know that he was keeping an eye out on the area where Stone meets with Beckie. So far, he's not been able to follow her on the cameras. He always loses her. Stone said that he mentioned the last time that he met her that Zeus was going out of town for a few days.

Since Zeus doesn't leave the office very often unless he's going home. It wasn't hard to convince her that he wouldn't be around. Hopefully, she takes the hint that he won't be able to track her and leads him back to where she's been staying at. One can only hope, anyway.

I was on the phone with the manager of one of my bars when the door to my office opened up and Dom walked in. I was getting pissed off at the manager, and she was about to lose her job. Money was being stolen from me, and she couldn't tell me where the hell it was going. It wasn't a small amount either. In just a few days, a couple of grand had come up missing.

“Ginger, if you don’t find my fucking money right fucking now, you’re fired from your job. You let a couple of grand come up missing, and I want to know where the fuck it’s at. I’ll be having Zeus check the cameras as well. So you had better hope that you weren’t fucking stealing from me. Because when I find out who it was that stole the money, heads will roll. Just because I don’t hurt women doesn’t mean that you’ll get free and clear. I have a couple of sisters, not to mention my mom and every ole lady of the club who will kick another girl’s ass. I’ll be there soon, and you’d better have it” I said as I hung up.

“Rough day at the office?” Dom asked me. “You could say that. I got to the last of the paperwork and while all the other paperwork was fine, our bars were not. They are a couple of grand short on it and I let the manager, Ginger, know that she’d better be finding it or else. It pisses me off that someone would steal money from us. Everyone knows that if you need help or need money, chances are we’ll help you. Someone stole it, and I’m going to find out who. I’ll have Zeus look into it before I go down there though. Enough of that though. What up? You’re not usually here this early. What’s going on?” I asked him.

“I finished shit up at the office and decided to leave early. I hate being there right now. It’s not the same without Marcello there. He is finally texting me back, but he still won’t answer my calls. It’s frustrating as fuck and the next time I see him, I’m taking him to the playroom. His ass will be so red that he can’t sit on it for a month” he growled.

I just shook my head at him as I said “You know why he’s pissed at you. Hell he doesn’t answer my calls either, just my texts. He will answer Zeus though, both calls and texts. He sounds like he’s OK, more than OK really. Lucky bastard has had River to himself for over a month now. I walked into the bedroom the other day to catch the end of a video call between the three of them. I was so hard from watching it that I wouldn’t let Zeus cum when they did. I made him wait and then pounded him for two hours straight. Edging him the whole time, every time he’d get close to cumming I’d back off. He was so pissed at me but not as pissed as I was when I walked into the bedroom. He was telling the two of them what to do, and he was jacking off while watching them.”

“He needs time in the playroom as well then. Give them both matching red asses so that neither one of them will be sittin’ pretty for a month. I want to play with River as well, but not that way. I want my dick buried in her pussy with you in her ass while we make them watch. And then not let either of them cum” Dom said.

“That’s just evil, and I love it. We have to make plans for when we finally have them home. Are you going out to the shed today?” I asked him. “Yeah, that’s partly why I stopped by here. I wanted to see if you wanted to go with me. If you have to go to your bar, I can wait though. I’ve not been sleeping well, so maybe I’ll go up to your house and take a nap first. I brought some clothes so that I can stay with you guys” he said.

“Let me finish this up, and then I’ll follow you up to the house. I need a break for a few, and then I’ll go to the bar and figure this shit out,” I told him. I know that he’s been stressed out and missing Marcello. I plan to help him out with that. I finish up the last of the paperwork that I have and then make sure that my computer and shit are shut down. After I put everything away, I step over to Zeus' office.

After knocking on the door, I crack it open and say "Hey, I'm taking Dom up to the house and then I gotta run to the bar. I need you to check the cameras there for me if you can. Someone is stealing money from there. Ginger says that she doesn't know who it is, but I don't believe that." "OK, I'll check real quick and see what I can find and then text you. What's going on with Dom? Is he OK?" He asked me.

"Yeah, but he's going to be staying with us now. He's not been sleeping without Marcello and needs a nap. I'm going to go put him to sleep and then go check on the bar. I'll text you before I leave to see if you find anything." "Seriously, you're going to put him to sleep. That means that you're going to fuck him, and you're not even going to invite me?" He said with a pissed-off look on his face.

"Should've thought about that before you were a bad boy. If you're good though and find the information that I need, then maybe we'll take care of you tonight. I might even let you cum. I'll text you soon, love you" I said as I turned around to go back to my office. "Yeah, yeah, I love you too, you bastard," he grumbled as I left. I just smirked at him, and Dom was smirking when I looked at him. I know he heard what I said.

We left the office and headed up to my house. His guys followed with Dom behind my bike. When we got to the house, I just parked in front of the garage. After Dom's guards let him out, they parked on the side like they usually do. We went into the house and I took my cut off and hung it up on the hook by the door. Dom locked the door and, after taking our shoes off, we headed upstairs.

He was walking in front of me on the stairs, so I smacked his ass and said "Hurry up." He just glared at me over his shoulder, and after I smacked him again, he started to walk faster. When we got to the bedroom, I reached back behind my head and yanked my shirt off and over my head.

In no time at all, we were both naked and I had yanked him up against me. I had one hand on his hard ass and the other hand on the back of his neck. I started to kiss him, and I wasn't easy about it either. When we came up for air, he started to kiss down my neck to my chest. From there, he worked his way down my stomach and then wrapped his mouth around my dick. I moaned loudly because of how good it felt. He was using one of his hands to play with my balls while the other was wrapped around the bottom of my dick.

I was harder than a rock in no time and when he finally pulled back to stand up, I could see that he was as well. I walked over to the nightstand and got the bottle of lube out. When I walked back over to Dom, he was sitting on the end of the bed. I pushed him backward, and he put his legs up on the bed but had them bent. I put the lube on my fingers of one hand and worked them in his ass. With my other hand, I worked it up and down on his dick.

When he was ready, I put more lube on his ass and rubbed some on my dick as well. I put my legs on either side of him on the bed so that I was close to him and then eased my dick into his ass. Once I was all the way in, I sat still for a minute. It was long enough to make him squirm, and finally say “Please baby, please move.”

So I let him have it. I pulled out slowly at first and back in. After a few slow strokes, I started to pound him harder and harder. His legs were wrapped around my waist and I bent forward, bracing my left arm on the bed. I started kissing him while using my right hand to work his dick faster and faster. I could tell when he was close to cumming. “Not yet baby, not yet, hold it a little longer” I said. I wasn’t close enough just yet. But it didn’t take me long, and I was right there with him.

When I was ready to cum, I growled out “Now baby, cum right fucking now.” His cum shot out of the head of his dick and across his abs, at the same time that I shot my cum deep inside of him. While I caught my breath, I had both hands braced on either side of him on the bed. When my dick was soft enough, I eased out of him and then flopped down beside Dom on the bed.

“Catch your breath, and then we’ll go get a shower. I know that you need to go check the bar. I’ll take a quick nap while you’re gone so that I can be ready for later. And I’m not just talking about our visit with our friends. I’m also talking about us playing with Zeus” he said as he smacked me on the ass. I just grunted back at him.

When I was finally able to move, we got up and went to take a shower. After another round of hard fucking, I was dressed and headed out the door. While Dom was sound asleep in our bed, I texted Zeus and got the information that I needed about the bar. And when he texted me back I was pissed the fuck off. Heads were about to roll and people were about to be fired. I decided that I couldn’t go alone, so I texted my Dad, Ripper, and Venom to go with me. Hell was going to rain down on some people. Let the fun begin.

I’m trying everything that I can to find him and where he’s hiding at though. I’m ready to have my woman and my man back home. River is now around thirteen weeks pregnant and we’re missing it because of this shit. It won’t be much longer and she’ll be able to feel the baby move and learn what the sex is. I want to experience all of that with her.

I’ve video chatted with them as often as I can. I even got into trouble with Aries for the call that he walked in on. I was giving Marcello directions and telling them both what to do. While they were having sex I was jacking off while watching them. Aries walked in and caught me and I wasn’t allowed to cum for a long time. I’m pretty sure that I’m still in trouble for that. It’ll be fun though when I get my punishment, it always is.

He's a sneaky bastard so I won't know where or where he decides my punishment. I'm sure that he has something planned though. And since Dom will be staying with us now it'll involve him as well.

Right now though I'm going through the latest information that we received. We finally learned that this guy is Russian and has had beef with Rodion for a long time. He has his underlings call him Big Boss but he also goes by Mr X.

From what I can find, he's from the bottom part of Russia. He was a leader of a small section back when Rodion's dad was still alive and in control of the Mafia. But when Rodion took over, he became the Russian Godfather and changed how things were done. He completely eliminated the sex trade and trafficking of young girls and boys. Anyone that was caught trafficking was in a lot of trouble.

Quite a few of the bosses didn't agree with this and they ended up being taken out. He put new bosses for each section into place but a couple of the ones who didn't agree with him ran. This Mr X was one of them.

That was the only thing that he changed about it all. He let them keep running guns and drugs. He just didn't agree with selling kids. Which, any sane man who has morals wouldn't agree with.

I knew that Aries was taking Dom to the house and then going to check on a problem at one of our bars. I used another laptop and pulled up the cameras that I had hidden above the register as well as in the office. I went back through them until I found out who was stealing from us. Once I had that information, I did a deep dive and found some other interesting information.

So I called Aries, and when it went to voicemail I left him a message to call me. I didn't know if he was on his way there yet or not. But I had everything ready to send to him when he got back to me.

In the meantime I went back to looking through information. I had a wall of monitors set up to keep an eye on different cameras as well. Anyplace that this guy may show up at had a camera and a special alarm that let me know that someone was there.

I was deep diving the internet trying to find an actual name for this Mr X when one of my alarms started to go off. I looked up and seen that it was the alarm that I had set for Anthony's house.

I could see a couple of SUVs parked out front and someone knocking on the door. I knew that my Dad Maverick was in the area. He was working with the construction guys on a house over there. So I sent him a text.

Me- Hey, is there anyway that you can get to Anthony's place real quick. Someone just pulled up to his place and is knocking on the door. There are three SUVs in front of his house.

Dad M – Were on our way to check it out. Let you know in a minute.

I kept watching the cameras to make sure that they didn't leave. I know that dad has a dull crew of guys with him and would probably take them to try and catch this guy. As I was watching the cameras my phone rang. When I looked down at it I seen that it was Aries calling me back.

"Hey, I have information for you, I'll send it all to your phone. Ginger is the one thats been stealing money from the bar. When I did a deep dive into her background i found out some interesting information. Turns out that the creepy coffee shop guy is her old man. Shes been dating this guy for about three months from what I can tell. And it looks like he's the reason she's been stealing the money. I seen him with her on the cameras a few times" I told him.

"Fuck, out of everyone here shes the last fucking person that that I suspected. I figured that it was one of the new employees that just started. Send me everything that you have please" he said.

"Sure thing. And just to let you know, I had to send my dad Maverick over to Anthony's place. My cameras started to go off and when I checked them, there was three SUVs parked in front. One guy was knocking on the door. I don't think it's our guy though. This guy is kind of short. From everything that we've found out about this Mr X he's tall and skinny-ish. Dads going to call me when he gets there and figures shit out. I'll text you when I know something."

"Keep me in the loop and let me know what's going on. I'm going inside to deal with this bullshit. Hopefully she's still here and didn't try to run."

I laughed at that and said "Oh she's still there alright. She doesn't think that we have anything on her. She turned the main cameras off. No one but me knows how to access the back up cameras that I secretly installed. So I have her dead to rights on them taking our money."

"God I love you and your genius little mind. I'll text you when I'm on my way back. Keep me updated on what's going on with the other situation, I love ya" he said. " I will and I love you to."

I hung up with him and went back to watching my cameras for now. I'll wait to see what's going on at Anthony's before going back to researching. I watched as Dad and his guys pulled up and surrounded the SUVs. The guy on the porch tried to run but one of my brothers tackled him to the ground.

They searched the SUVs and I seen dad shaking his head. And I just knew that the guy we are after wasn't in there. I was really starting to get pissed off. How this guy was able to hid so well and stay one step above us was beyond me.

They loaded they guys all up into one vehicle and my Dad got in the driver's seat and took off. All of the guys that were with him surrounded the SUV and went with him. I knew where he was taking them. To the same place the rest of them were at, the shed. It's a good thing we built a couple more, we're going to need them.

I sent off a text to Aries to let him know what happened and then got back to work. It felt like I took one step forward and ten steps back. Every fucking time I got close to finding this guy, he slipped out of my fingers again. I swear he's as slippery as an eel.

I had been digging through some information that I was hoping was promising when Aries sent me a text. Ginger wouldn't give up her boyfriend at first so he threatened to have her arrested for theft. When he explained what would happen to her in jail she started to squeal like a pig. She told him everything that she knew. So he was sending her back here to be locked down at the clubhouse. And he was staying behind to wait on the boyfriend.
