

Chapter 11 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After we got upstairs i led him to my room. When we got to my room he sat down on my computer chair while i propped up on my bed.

“This way we can talk without anyone being able to hear us. My cousin built a devise that keeps anyone from being able to put butts out to listen in. If somehow their is a bug in here they couldn’t hear us. But it’s not possible anyways because my room is always locked.” I said.

“Ok, that’s good and I believe that you wouldn’t say anything to anyone. And i wouldn’t say anything but Don says that he’s got a good feeling that your important to us. And honestly i feel the same way. Were not gay but we are bi. We’ve been in a relationship for years now. His parents don’t know yet and i think he’s afraid to tell them. I’ve tried for years to get him to tell them but he just says that it’s not the right time. Im starting to think there wont ever be a right time. And im not the only one. Its not just the two of us. We are in a relationship with two other guys as well and they feel the same way that i do. It’s honestly caused a riff between the four of us. We all live in different house’s and the three of us are ready to settle down. Find one woman for us to love and get married and have kids. The only problem with that is Dom. He’s says that he’s not ready, but we all call bullshit. I think that he is ready he’s just afraid to for two reasons. The first is that he’s afraid to tell his parents and his family about being bi. He’s afraid that they’ll be disappointed in his because of the line of business his families in. The second reason is that when he was younger he fell in love with a girl and was set to propose to her. He came home to his condo that he had at the time and found her in bed with some other guy. Turns out she was put on him by the cops to try to get info on him. he through her out and sued the cops. Since then he’s not gotten close to any woman. I think he’s afraid that no woman would ever want to be with all of us together either” he said.

I sat there for a minute processing what all he told me. “Wow, im not sure what to say to all of that. Except, holy hotness that’s fucking hot” I said out loud. I don’t know if he herd me or not but i whispered to myself “I think my panties are wet now.”

“What woman wouldn’t want four sexy, and im guessing the other two are as sexy as you two, guys at once. Im mean come on, to have four men be in love with you and want to be with you forever. To share you and each other, that’s hot. Most woman cant even get one man, it would be awesome to have four actually want you. That woman that did that to him was fucking stupid. Were you and him together at that time to? He deserves better than someone like that, and he’s got that with you four im sure. And im sure that he know’s that. But you all need to sit down and actually talk about how you feel and what you want. I know that’s not something that men tend to do but if you want things to improve then your going to have to grab him by the ear and make him sit and talk with you all. As far as his family goes, they would never judge him for being bi. they would love him and you and your guys. Look how they all are with Chris and Ren, they love them and don't treat them any different. They wouldn't with him. And if anyone has a problem with your guys' relationship send them to me and ill kick their asses for you" i said.

By the time i got done talking he was looking at me like he wanted to eat me. "Your right, they wouldn't judge him. They would still love him just the same. Chris and Ren have told him the same thing. Their the only to that know about us in their family. And even then they guessed it. They've seen the way the four of us are together and guessed that we were all dating. And no at that time i was still crushing on him. We were all friends and all liked each other but to afraid to say something to the others for fear of rejection. It wasn't until he kicked her out and bought another condo as well as a mansion out past here that we figured out our feelings. Right after he bought the mansion we went out to it to get away for a week to unwind. The first night there we got really drunk and told each other how we felt. By the end of the night we were in bed together and we've been together since then. Now i have to address a comment that you made that i don't think i was supposed to hear. Is your panties really wet from thinking of us together? I don't know of any woman who would willing get into a relationship with the four of us because we can be hard work. But now i think i just found out perfect woman" he said

I was mortified that he herd me whisper that. "Oh my gosh, you heard that? Kill me now" I said as i fell backwards on the bed and put a pillow on my face.

The bed dipped down beside me and then the pillow was moved off of my face. Marcello had his face right above mine.

"Yes i heard you and there's nothing to be ashamed of. I think its sexy as fuck that the thought of us together and fucking each other has your panties wet. I bet they're just soaked from you laying here thinking about it. And thinking about what it would be like to be in the middle of it. Damn i know it gets me hard just thinking about it" he said as he reached down to adjust himself in his suit pants.

Good gravy he was fucking huge and it didn't look all the way hard either. When i looked up again he was watching me and i knew that my face had to be bright red.

"If you had the chance to be in a relationship with the four of us would you? Would you honestly give it a shot? To try and make a relationship with the four of us work" he asked me.

"I would in a heart beat. I mean from what i've seen so far you and Dom are good guys and i imagine the other two are as well. We'd have to get to know each other better though, after all we did just meet. But yea id give it an honest shot. Its not like it would ever happen though" i said.

"Why the hell wouldn't it ever happen? You are single right? And your a very beautiful and sexy woman, it could happen."

"Yea right, guys like you who are sexy as hell don't go for girls like me" i said.

“What the hell does that mean, girls like you? What kind of girl do you think we go for?” he asked me.

“Um the tall, skinny, leggy blonde and beautiful type. Not the short, chubby, stubby, and fat type” i said while looking at me lap.

When i didn’t look up he put his finger under my chin and lifted my head up so he could see my eyes. When i looked into his eyes he was mad and it was scary looking.

“First of all, i’ve never dated the tall, skinny, fake, and full of plastic girls. None of us have. We like a girl that has a little something to grip when where drilling into her so we don’t break her in half. And secondly, your not fucking fat, stubby or chubby. Your short yes but i like that. It means that you’ll be easier to carry around and hold. And if you need something from the top shelf you’ll come to me to help you. But your not fucking fat you are perfect. You have curves and Dom and i were both telling Aries and Zeus about how much we wanted to grab onto those curves while we had you in-between us. With one of us fucking your pussy while the other is fucking your ass. That’s only part of my fantasy. And it would be a dream come true to have it happen. Your sexy and we want you. Please stop talking bad about yourself. I don’t like it and the guys wouldn’t either. Hell don’t let Dom hear you or you’ll be over he’s knee getting your ass spanked.”

“Really, you all want to be with me?” I asked him. “We do, but like i said before Dom’s scared to. But im working on him. I was hoping to talk him into it while we were away for work the next couple of weeks.”

“Ok, if you can talk him into it, then we can start by getting to know each other. Going on dates together and separate so that i can get to know you all one on one and together. But if we do this we have to set time aside to be together. Im always busy and im sure you all are to. So we have to make time for each other for it to work.”

“We will, trust me. Aries and Zeus and i all want this and well make it happen. Dom will have to figure his shit out so we can be together. Maybe when we get back we can take the yacht out for the day. Make a day of it go swimming and have a picnic.”

“That sounds like a plan and id love to.” i said. We sat and talk for a while longer when i got a text from Nonna asking where we were at.

Nonna- Hey Amorina, everyone’s starting to show up. Was just wondering where you and Marcello were at. Nicco went down to the theater and said you weren’t down there.

Me- Hey sorry we lost track of time. We came up to my room to talk after we got stuff set up. We’ll be down in a minute.

“Looks like everyone is starting to show up downstairs. Are you ready to head down?” i asked him.

“I am if you are.” “I just need to use the bathroom and put a pair of stretchy short on, and then ill be ready. I don’t want to sit in these blue jeans short for the movie. Especially after eating. Lets see if you can handle watching me eat like a four hundred pound man and then see if you still want me” I said with a laugh as i wheeled into the bathroom.

He just laughed and said that they’d still want me. After i used the bathroom and washed my hands. I went into my walk-in closet and changed into a clean thong, because my was drenched, and a pair of stretchy pajama shorts. I also grabbed the spaghetti strapped shirt that went with the shorts to put on and a new crop top hoodie.

After i changed all of my clothes i wheeled back out into my bedroom and Marcello was waiting by the door. He was carrying both of our cups so i didn’t have to worry about mine.

Chapter 12 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

When we finally got downstairs Marcello got me situated on a stool at the island. So far Nicco, Uncle Zain, Aunt Bella, Dante, and Enzo were all here.

Not long after we come down Chris, Ren, Francesco, Anna, Luciano, and Angela all came in. They were all carrying food and they were all in comfy clothes.

Anna came over and hugged me. “I hope you don’t mind us being here. Rosa told Angela about you all getting together for pizza and a movie and invited us. We helped Chris get the pizza and all of your favorite sides. After the past couple of days that you have had we just want you to relax and be surrounded by family.”

“Its fine with me, the more the marrier” i said. “Marcello, would you be a dear and help get the rest of the stuff out of the car please. I went and piked up more chips and candy and stuff. I know my crue will eat pizza until their stuffed. But you add a movie night to it and the candy, cookies, chips, popcorn and soda will all disappear really fast” Angel said.

Marcello kissed me on the forehead and then followed the guys out to get the rest of the stuff. “We’re the same way. Nicco and i can both put the food away. I got the popcorn maker downstairs ready, just gotta start it. And probably add more to it. And i also turned on the other slushy machines and they are ready now. Marcello and i also got the table set up with what candy and stuff that you got today to Nonna. And there should be room for everything else to, if not we have another table we can set up. The theater room is huge” i said.

“Yes it is, we should have enough room to put another table up. Ill have Nicco go down and set it up and start the popcorn when he comes back in” Nonna said.

When they guys all came back in there was even more people with them. Dom came in and had his siblings with him as well as Chris’ brother Daniel.

After everyone that was coming was here we moved into the formal dining room. We made plates and when i made mine Dom was behind me and took it to carry for me. I got three pieces of pizza, broccoli cheese bits, mushroom poppers, cheese sticks, fries, and onion rings.

I ended up sitting between him and Marcello at the table. It was hard to hear over everyone talking but i managed to thank him for the stuff that him and Marcello got for my knee scooter.

He even commented on how good it looked and that he was glade that he got the right color. Nicco herd him and told him that just by seeing my car one he nailed it because orange and cameo orange were my favorite colors.

It became a running joke in the family that because my car and myself were so tiny i had to like a bright color to keep from getting run over. Either from driving or from walking. My family is full of comedians.

One of Dom's brothers made a comment about how much food that i could put away for someone so tiny. "Dude i usually eat like this, but because of the screaming banshee and her demon spawn. I didn't get breakfast this moring. All i've had to eat today was some chicken nuggets after we left the hospital. I could eat more than this but im saving room for popcorn and the nonparrels and the zero bars and whoppers that Nonna got for me. I gotta have my snacks for movie night" i said.

"Did you decide on a movie to watch tonight" Chris asked me. "I picked two sets and figured everyone could vote on what to watch. Both movies have a first and second movie. And there both funny movies. We have Grown Ups or Grumpy old Men" I said.

After taking a vote we decided to watch Grumpy old men because some people hadn't seen it. And i don't know how because they were awesome movies.

After everyone was done eating we cleaned up the mess and put the left overs in the fridge. Then we headed downstairs.

While everyone headed in the direction of the stairs i headed for the the elevator so i could take it down. Dom and Marcello went with me so i wasn't alone.

At least that's what they said in from of everyone. Once we were alone it was another story.

After we got into the elevator and the door shut Dom hit the stop button.

"Marcello filled me in on your conversation from today. I gotta know from you how you really feel about the situation" he said.

“Like i told him, i find it sexy that they four of you are together. Hell i had to change my panties because they were drenched just thinking about it. And thinking about being the female in that all male sandwich really made me wet. I told him id love to get to know you all more and see where it goes. But i want one on one time and time all of us together to so we can all get to know each other. But before that happens you need to have a conversation with your parents. You need to tell them that your bi. Hell id bet you a thousand dollars that they already know and are just waiting on you to come out to them. They wont judge you. They love you and will except you for who you are. Look at Chris and Ren, they don’t treat them any different. Hell from what i’ve seen of your family so far, none of them do. Im all for it, but the ball is in your quart” i said.

Marcello was leaning against the wall with his arms crossed and smirking. Dom must’ve brought him clothes to change into because he had a pair of jeans and a tshirt on now, they both did.

Marcello looked at him and said “See i told you so. Now lets go before they wonder what happened to us.”

Dom hit the stop button and the elevator started back up. Right before we got to the theater he told us “After we come back from our business trip ill talk to them and tell them. And then well go out on the Yacht like Marcello said we would. I want to try this.”

We both said ok and then headed inside. Everyone left three recliners in the back for us to sit in. It was my favorite spot and my movie blanket was already in my seat.

After putting my zeros, milk duds, nonparrels, and popcorn in my basket, i grabbed a large cup and filled it up with orange cream sickle slushy. I put the lid on my cup and the straw in the lid and then wheeled to my chair.

I went around to the back of my chair and leaned over it and put my drink in the cup holder and then stuck my candy in the cubby that was in the arm.

I grabbed my popcorn and was going to hop around into my spot when i was picked up. Dom picked me up and carried me to my seat and sat me down.

I waited until everyone was in their seats and then heat the button on the remote to dim the lights. I popped out the footstool part of my chair and then pressed play on the movie.

After the previews played everyone got really quiet when the movie started. I loved the old guys in this but Pop had to be my favorite. Some of the shit he came out with was funny.

Like calling his son and Max kids. Hell they had to be in their sixties or seventies. Pop was in his nineties. I hope im still getting around that good when im his age. Guess i need to eat alot of bacon everyday.

Everyone laughed their asses off at the movie and when the first one was done they wanted to watch the second one so i started it.

It was just as funny my two favorite lines from the movie were probably “I’ve been to Hawaii.” “Really what island.” “Come on i wanna lay ya.” I laugh so hard at that part.

And then Max telling John “You couldn’t catch a ten dollar hooker.” While i always laugh i also cry. Especially when Pop passes away. I hate that he died on it. He was the funniest part.

After the movies were both done. Everyone helped clean everything up. We turned off the extra flavors on the slushy machine so that it would be about empty when everyone left.

Once everything was cleaned up the woman helped Nonna clean stuff up. And we all headed back up stairs.

Once stuff was clean and tidy again everyone started to leave. We decided to do this once a week at different houses each week. Everyone loved being able to get together and hang out.

I hugged everyone that was leaving. And i hugged Chris and Ren extra tight when they left. They sat close to me all night and spent as much time with me as they could.

When i get better ill have to go spend the day with them and make them their favorite foods as a thank you for this.

When Dom and Marcello left they both hugged me and said that they’d see me in the morning. They decided that they would drive me to school this week.

They have to leave next weekend for a couple of weeks for work. So this way they’ll get to spend some time with me before they go.

It’ll be nice to be able to get to know each other better. I know that we didn’t start off the greatest but i have a feeling that things will end up perfect for us.

I just have to meet their other men first and hope that they like me. No pressure at all right.

Once everyone was gone we locked up and then headed to bed. After i made it up stairs in the elevator i wheeled down to my room.

When i got into my room, i went and put my drink and the rest of my snacks on my nightstand. Then i went to the bathroom.

When i was done i wheeled out to the bed. When i went to pull my blankets down i seen a note on my pillow.

I picked it up and then pulled my blankets down. After i sat down in bed i pulled my hoodie off and took the boot off so that i could sleep.

The doctor said i could take it off at night just to be careful not to get up and walk on it. So i took it off and sat it by the bed.

After i was settled i opened up the letter. It was from Marcello.

Hey beautiful,

I had fun spending time with you today. I cant wait to get to know you better and the other guys cant either. You already have Dom's number so im going to put the rest of ours on the bottom of the paper so that you have them. Text me so i have your number please. I want to be able to talk to you more. Dom and i will be by in the morning to take you to school. Try to get some rest and don't forget to take a pain pill. Sweet dream Tesora.

Marcello

At the bottom of the paper he included his number as well as Aries and Zeus' numbers. I added them all to my phone and then texted him to tell them good night and id see them in the morning.

Chapter 13 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

The next morning i got up and was goin to put my boot back on. But figured that id wait since i need a shower. Then i got up and used my knee scooter to get to the bathroom.

After i used the bathroom i got undressed. I wheeled over to the shower and started my water. I had a walk in shower and it had a bench seat on one side so i was able to sit down.

I managed to hop into the shower. Trying to take a shower on one leg was hard. After i got wet, i washed my hair and then rinsed it. Then i put conditioner in it.

I grabbed my scrubby, my soap and my raiser sat down on the bench seat to wash up. After i poured some soap on my scrubby i washed my body. Then i shaved my pits and my legs, then washed up again.

When i was done i stood up and rinsed off and washed out the conditioner. I rinsed out my puffy and raiser and put them up. When i was done i shut the water off and rang the water out of my hair.

Trying to hope out of the shower was hard. Thankfully Nonna knocked on the door to see if i needed help. "Good morning Amorina, i figured that you might need some help with a shower this morning."

“Good morning Nonna, i managed to shower just fine. I used the bench seat and sat down most of the time. Now getting out is another problem. I cant reach my towel and if i hope out like i did getting in, im going to bust my ass on this wet floor” i said.

“Ok, ill help you.” Nonna came in and handed me my towel and after i wrapped it around me she helped me out of the shower.

I managed to dry off and then i headed into my closet to get dressed. Nonna headed downstairs after helping me get out of the shower. She was going to start breakfast.

Once in my closet i went to pick out my clothes for the day. It was going to be warm so i decided to wear a pair of blue jean shorts that had butterflies on the butt of them. I also found a tshirt that had a butterfly on the front of it that covered all of me. It said broke out of my cocoon on the front of it.

The shirt was black on the back and on the front around the words and the butterfly it was white. It kind of looked like it was making the blackness go away. I picked out a white bra and thong and then got dressed.

I then went over to my shoes and found a cute pair of flats and grabbed the left one. I then wheeled back in to my bed and sat down to put my boot on. After i got it on and my left shoe on i went over to my vanity and sat down to dry my hair.

Once it was dry, i pulled it up in a ponytail and then braided it down. I grabbed an extra hair thing and then i was done. I couldn't wear makeup because of my face being busted open and swelled up. I did put some chap stick on though.

When i was done getting ready, i grabbed my key and put into my purse. Then i put my bookbag on my back, my laptop bag and purse over my shoulder and stuck my phone in my back pocket. Then headed out of my room and down to the elevator.

When i got downstairs i could hear many voice's in the kitchen. More than just Nonna and Nicco. When i got in there i found out why. Not only were Nonna and Nicco in there but so were Uncle Z and Aunt Bella, Dante and Enzo. Dom and Marcello were also in there when i rolled in.

“Good morning everyone” I said with a yawn. I wasn't quiet yet awake, even with a shower. I needed lots of coffee to be human. I put all of my stuff down on the back of a stool and then wheeler over to get me coffee.

I grabbed my huge coffee cup and then put my cinnamon bun creamer in it and filled it up. I took a big sip of it and then sighed. It was so good.

“Good morning Amorina, sit down and ill fix you a plate so that you can eat before you head to school. Dom and Marcello came to pick you up and drop you off at school” Nonna said.

“Yea they said yesterday that they’d pick me up and take me” i said as i wheeled over to sit down. Everyone was at the table and it was full so i sat my coffee down on the island and then managed to get my ass up on the stool.

They are so tall and with me being so short i usually have to jump but i made it. After i got situated i turned around so i could talk to everyone.

“How is everyone this morning” I asked on a yawn. “We’re all good Tesoruccia, how are you feeling?” Uncle Z asked me.

“Im good but a little tired. It was hard to sleep last night. Everytime i moved id bump my ankle and wake up or id roll over onto my face and wake up. For someone who is use to sleeping on their stomach with a leg pulled to my chest, trying to sleep on my back is hard.”

“Just think if you ever get pregnant you’ll have to get use to sleeping on your back. You can’t sleep on your stomach” Aunt Bella said.

“Aunt Bella, hush your mouth. That’s a long, long ways off. I plan to finish college before that ever happens.”

“Really mom, the last thing any of us want to think about is River ever having sex. I mean come on” Dante said.

“Oh shut up Dante. You may not want to think about me ever possibly having sex but yet you talk about ever girl that you “bang” right in front of me. And that’s what’s gross. No one wants to know how many positions your blow up dolls can bend into” i said.

Uncle Z was getting a drink of his coffee when i said that and spit it across the table onto Nicco. He was laughing so hard and coughing to now. “Damn, River try to kill me why don’t you. That’s funny shit though because every girl that we’ve ever met has been a stick figure with no brains in her head.”

“Fuck, thanks for spitting on me bro now i gotta go change clothes before going to work” Nicco said. “Your welcome” Uncle Z told him with a laugh.

Dom was laughing at everyone as him and Marcello walked over to me. They both gave me a hug good morning and a kiss on the forehead. “Good morning Cara” they both said.

Nonna had sat a plate of scrambled eggs, bacon and pancakes down in front of me so i was eating. They just stood close to me while i ate breakfast and listened to everyone talking.

When i was done eating breakfast and drinking my coffee, Marcello took my plate and cup and rinsed them both and put them in the dishwasher for me.

Right after i got done it was time for everyone to head out to work and school. Marcello grabbed all of my bags, including my purse, and Dome helped me down.

After i got down i got my leg situated on my knee scooter and then headed out through the garage after hugging everyone. It was decided that this week Dom and Marcello would drive me to school and Enzo would bring me home.

The garage doors were opened up from where Nicco and Nonna were getting ready to leave. So i wheeled through there and out to Dom's vehicle.

He opened up the back door and then lifted me up and into the middle then fastened my seatbelt onto me. When he was down he took my knee scooter and put it into the back on the car.

After they both loaded up with Dom on my right and Marcello on my left, we pulled out and headed for school.

"Do you guys have a busy day today?" i asked them. "Its not to bad of a day today i don't think. I have a few meetings. And a phone call about the trip that i have to go on next week. I have to check on one of the new hotels that im building and see how its going. We were having some trouble with it. What all do you have to do today?" Dom asked me.

"I have my business class today, an art class, a cooking class, accounting and a book keeping class. I've got my final tests in a couple of them. It shouldn't be to bad though. Since i don't have to work right now because of my ankle then im going to go home after school and study some more and work on one of my final projects for my art class."

"So you have a busy day today as well then. I've got a meeting when you get out of school today but text one of us and let us know when you get home. I've got some friends coming over tonight" Dom said while looking at me then glancing at the men in the front and then to Marcello and then back to me. I understood what he was trying to say, their other guys were coming over.

"Ill call you so that we can all talk to you. We told them about you and they can't wait to meet you. I know Marcello filled you in on everything. Our friends are part of the Reapers Worriers Mc. They're actually the President and Sargent at arms. They were both in the military but now they run the club. They've got businesses through the club as well as their own businesses."

"Yea, I've heard of them Nicco and i went on one of their rides last year. The other that they did to raise money for the childrens hospital. I rode with Nicco because my bike was down. They do alot of good for the town. I cant wait to meet them."

We stopped at sips and Marcello went in to get us coffee. It didn't take long and he was back. He handed me my iced mocha coffee and a bag with chocolate and banana muffins in it.

We talked all the way to the school. I couldn't wait to keep getting to know them better. And i couldn't wait until i got to meet the other guys.

When we got to school Marcello unfastened my seatbelt and after Dom got out i slid across to his side to wait on my scooter. He grabbed it and Marcello grabbed my bags.

When i got out i put my coffee in my basket and then put my bookbag on and the straps for my other bags over my shoulder.

"Have a good day and ill talk to you tonight. Don't forget to text when you get home" Marcello said as he kissed my forehead.

"Who are they guys that are yelling your name? You were with them last week also" Dom asked me.

"They're just friends of mine. We're all on the baseball team together. We also grew up together, so they're pretty much like extra brothers" i said.

"Ok then, have a good day Amore. Don't forget to text us when Enzo drops you off at home. And when we get home ill call you so that we can all talk to you" Dom said as he kissed me on the forehead.

Chapter 14 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After Dom and Marcello dropped me off at school the rest of the day by very slowly. And i was ready for it to be over with.

In my business class we had a pop quiz. In art class we had our test and then we had to do a sketch of a picture. The test for art was three parts, the written, a sketch and next class we had to do a painting.

My book keeping class and my accounting class both were pretty easy today. We had a pretest in each just to go over what we've learned so far.

In my cooking class we had a written test and then once it was over we were givin a station and a box of food and had to come up with a recipie out of it. Each cooking station had a taped up box with your ingredients in it. And the teacher gave you a second box with the cold foods in it.

I did my writter test and recieved my station and box of food so that i could start cooking. I wheeled back to my station and put on my apron and got ready to get started.

I opened up my box of food and started to take it all out. The first box had my dry and canned food in it. I had packs of broccoli cheese flavored rice, cans of chicken, tortilla wraps, avocado ranch. I also had two boxes of brownie cheesecake mix and a hershey bar.

The other box had chicken tenders, lettuce, tomatoes, broccoli, shredded cheese, milk, butter, two blocks of cream cheese, strawberries and eggs. The goal was to take prepackaged food and make it taste like a five star meal.

I started off with the brownie cheesecake and made them first. I mixed up the brownie mix and put in the bottom of a tinfoil pan and then mixed up the cheesecake and added it to the top. I saved some brownie mix and swirled it on the top. Then put it in the oven.

When that was done i started by getting a kittle and getting water boiling. Then i started the rice in another kittle. I followed the directions on the back and added water, butter milk and the packs of rice and got it going.

I got a skillet out and put a little bit of butter in it and put it on the stove. I added in the cans of chicken and seasoned it. When my water started boiling i added in my chopped up broccoli.

While all of that was going on i took my cheese cake out of the oven. Then i put the chicken tender on a pan and stuck it in the oven. Then i chopped up the lettuce and tomatoes.

I kept stirring everything and when my broccoli was done i took it off the stove. I drained it and put it in a bowl than made a rue with cheese and added it back in.

I grabbed one of the ten foil pans that the teacher keeps so that we can take our food home and put my broccoli and cheese in the bottom of it.

When my rice was done i added it to the top of the pan and then topped it with my fried chicken and put more cheese on it. When my chicken tenders were done i put my broccoli rice bake in the over to melt the cheese.

I used the chicken tenders and made chicken wraps with them. I put the wrap down then the chicken tender with cheese, lettuce and tomato with avocado ranch on it then rolled them up. I grabbed a smaller pan to put them in.

At each station we have a small refrigerator so i was able at one point to put my cheesecake in it so it would get cold. I even cut up strawberries to put on it.

It didn't take long for my broccoli rice bake to be done and i pulled it out of the oven. And i was done. I had made broccoli rice bake, chicken tenders and brownie cheesecake with strawberries on top.

When we were done we had to plate up three plates. The teacher had two other teachers come in to help her grade on taste and presentation.

So i plated up three plates of food and made it look really pretty and then i took the hershey bar and a grater and grated it over three plates. I then cut three pieces of cheesecake and put one on each plate.

When i was done i sat them on the end of the counter and then looked up at the teacher. When they were done with where they were at they came over to my station.

They all tried both plates and were writing things down on a clip board. They had a list of what each of us were given so that they could compare it to the meals that we fixed.

From the sounds that they were making i would say that i did pretty good. After they were done tasting and writing down what they thought i was told that i was good to clean up but to leave their plates.

I noticed that the ones that were good and edible they wanted left on the end of the stations.

I didn't have much to clean up because i always clean as i cook. So once i was done i let the teacher know and she said that i was good to leave. She also explained that they were going to box up their leftovers for later because they're were some good ones.

I covered up my three pans with tinfoil and stacked them up. Then i got my bookbag, and laptop bag from my desk. I had my purse with me because i don't leave it laying around. I always put it at my station.

After i had all of my bags on me i stood at my station to text Enzo but i already had a text from him.

Enzo- Hey River, im sorry im class is going to be running late today. The professor had to leave for an appointment so he pushed the class back an hour. I didn't know until now. You can wait for me or i can find you a ride with someone else.

Me- Hey no worries ill find a ride. Ill talk to you later love ya.

Me to Marcello- Hey bello, are you busy?

While i waited on him i put my phone in my pocket and picked up my food in my left arm so i could use my right to steer my scooter.

I made it to the door and the teacher opened it for me and told me to have a good day. Once outside i made it to a bench seat right out front and sat down.

I pulled my phone out while looking around because i felt like i was being watched again. I had a message back from Marcello.

Marcello- Hey Amore, im not at the moment. What's going on?

Me – Nothing just got out of class. It was my last one of the day. Enos' class got pushed back an hour so i either have to wait for him or call a cab. I think im going to call a cab i don't want to sit here for an hour.

Marcello- Don't call a cab, ill come get you and take you home.

Me- You don't have to do that i can ride in a cab. I've done it before.

Marcello- It's not a problem, i need to run out and grab food for dinner anyways. We're going to be here a little late and wont be able to fix dinner tonight.

Me- In that case i've got you covered. I had to cook in class today. I made chicken wraps, broccoli rice bake and brownie cheesecake.

Marcello- Damn that sounds good. Im on my way i let Don know that im coming to get you. Where are you at?

Me- In from of the culinary building. Go past where you dropped me off at this morning and its the second building. Im right out front you can't miss me.

Marcello- Ok sit tight ill be right there.

Me- Ok.

While i sat and waited for Marcello to come pick me up, i made it look like i was playing on my phone. But i was really looking around. I could feel someone looking at me but couldn't figure out who.

I didn't know who would be following me and watching me. But it was creeping me the fuck out.

When i seen Dom's escalade pull up with Marcello driving it i was so friggin happy. He pulled up in front of me and hopped out. He rounded the hood of the car and came right to me.

I was sitting down with my foot propped up on my scooter and he swooped down and kissed my forehead and gave me a hug.

"I've miss you today. That smells really good Amore. Come on let me put this in the car and then get you loaded up."

I giggled at him and said "Well hello to you to Marcello. I've miss you as well. And yes please, i feel like im being watched and its creeping me out."

He stood up and looked around. "I don't see anyone but lets get out of here just in case. Ill put the food in the car then grab your bags and help you into the front. Dom wants to see you but he's in a meeting. He said to tell you that we'll talk to you tonight and he'll see you in the morning. He was almost pouting because i got to come see you and he didn't. It was funny and of course it was only in front of me. No one else was around."

"That's funny, tell him that he can make it until morning to see me" i said. Marcello grabbed the food and put into the backseat and then grabbed my bags from me.

He helped me up and to the car and while i was getting in the car he put my bags in the back seat. Once i was in he grabbed my scooter and put it in the back of the car.

After all of my stuff was loaded up we set off for home. He asked me about my day and i explained what all i had to do today.

I told him that id wait until after he had tried the food to tell him how i made it. That he would be surprised by how i did it.

When we got to my house he helped me inside. And then brought the food in so that i could take a little bit out of it for my dinner. I was home alone tonight and i didn't want to cook again today.

I took two wraps and some of the broccoli rice bake and then wrapped it back up. Then i got another plate and put a piece of the cheesecake on it.

When i was getting the wraps out he grabbed one to eat. "Damn that's good. I cant wait to get home and eat the rest of it. I may not share it."

"You better share mister. And thank you. Ill eat in a few im gonna change into some comfy clothes and go watch a movie in the theater while i eat and rest for a little bit."

"Ok, we'll call you around seven if that works for you. We should all be at the house by then." "Ok, ill be waiting for your call. Be careful heading back to work."

"I will beautiful. If you need me call me. I gotta get back. Ill talk to you later."

With that he kissed me on the forehead and then picked the food back up and left. After he was gone i grabbed my bags and headed upstairs.

After i changed i headed back down and grabbed my food then went down to the theater room to curl up and watch a movie.

Chapter 15 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

I watched The Labyrinth and finished my food. When the movie was over i grabbed my plates and my cup. I wheeled over to the slushy machine and refilled my cup up. Then I put it in my basket.

I then headed back up stairs. When i got to the kitchen i put my plates in the dish washer. I had some time to kill before my video call with the guys so i decided to paint.

I headed out to my little art building that Nonna had built for me. It was at the edge of the property and had plenty of light in it.

When i got there i unlocked the door and went in. I set a timer on my phone so that i wasn't late getting into the house.

I had a picture that i was working on for art class that i had to have finished by the end of the week. It was almost done so i decided to work on something else.

I grabbed a big, blank canvas and started painting. I just let my mind wonder and completely zoned out while i was working on it. I didn't even realize what i had painted until my alarm went off and i came out of the trance.

I had painted a big house with the ocean behind it. In the driveway it had water features that were dolphins. What had surprised me the most though was that in front of the house there was four men and one woman standing. And there was four little kids all around them.

All you could see of them was their backs. Except for the woman and she was kind of sideways with her face towards the sky. You could tell that she was pregnant.

I was shocked when i looked at her face because it was me that i was looking at. I wasn't for sure on the men but i thought that two of them were Dom and Marcello. The other two had to be Aries and Zeus.

I haven't met them yet or seen them but Marcello did describe them to me. And he showed me a picture of them. That had to be how i was able to paint them.

The picture was beautiful and one that i would keep for just me. I didn't have to worry about anyone seeing it because no one came in here.

I cleaned up and left the painting sit so that it could dry. Then i locked the door and i wheeled back to the house. It was still empty when i got back inside.

So i grabbed a bottle of pop and headed upstairs to take a quick shower. After my shower i got dressed in a spaghetti strapped shirt and booty shorts.

I grabbed my laptop and got into bed. I took my boot off for the night and then turned on the tv. I turned on my laptop and while i was waiting on it, i flipped through the channels to find something to watch.

I finally settled on Independence Day with Will Smith in it. I love that movie. My favorite part was when he said something like “You got me out here in the desert dragging your big ass with your dreadlocks hanging out of the back of my parachute.”

That’s not the exact words but its close. I hadn’t watched it in awhile so i decided to watch it. When my laptop was finally on i got the video chat app going so i could be ready for the guys to call me.

I was hot and didn’t want to put another shirt on so i moved the screen so that all that you could see was my face. I was really into the movie when i got a text from Dom.

Dom- Good evening Amore, we just got home. My last meeting ran over. Give us fifteen minutes to get showers and then we’ll video call you.

Me- Good evening Bello, Ok. Whenever your all ready. I have my laptop open and video chat up, so just call.

I turned the tv down some but sat up and put the laptop back on my lap. I was just getting a drink of pop when my laptop started ringing.

I put the lid on my pop and swallowed what was in my mouth. Then i made sure that you couldn’t see my chest and hit the answer button.

When the call connected all i could see at first was abs lots of abs, up close. “Wow, talk about a show. I didn’t know that this was that kind of call” I said with a laugh.

“Yea not the kind of call im trying to make Amore. I just got out of the shower and was in a hurry to talk to you. I’ve missed you today. How was your day?” Dom asked me.

“My day was good. It was busy but good. How was your day?”

“Long and exhausting, im glade that its over. Im tired and starving and was ready to be home. Of course it would be better if you were here with us.”

“Is the other guys there as well or is it just you and Marcello?” i asked him. “Yea their here, they actually beat us here. They have a key so they were waiting in the living room when we got here. Marcello had them heat up the food that you made, while we got a shower. It looks amazing and smelled that way as well when Marcello brought it into my office today. I cant wait to try it.”

“I can’t wait to meet them. Marcello told me about them the day that he hung out here with me. And like i told him i’ll wait until you eat and then ill tell you how i made it. You’ll be surprised how i did it.”

“Im heading downstairs with you now so i can eat. Im going to take my laptop to my office and hook it up to the tv so that you can see all of us. I have a webcam that’s mounted to the tv so you see the whole room. That way we don't all have to squeeze around the laptop. Until then bare with me please while i carry you around with me."

I was laughing when i said "Ok, I think i can handle that. And sorry no full room view here all you get of me is my face. But if your all shirtless ill definitely take a full room view of all of you."

"I can make that happen, im still shirtless after all. Im sure that Marcello is as well. He hates clothes and when were home he wears as little as possible."

"I don't blame him for that, im the same way. I hate clothes but im always covered up unless its just Nonna, Nicco and i home. Then i usually have booty shorts and a spaghetti strapped shirt on."

"I noticed that you always have a hoodie on. If you don't mind me asking why is that?" he asked me.

"I have a big scar that goes from my collarbone down to the top of my pelvis bone. I've had it for most of my life and i don't like people to see it. So i keep it covered up. Im actually having Chris put a tattoo over it. The day i seen you at his shop was our first session. He got the outline done on it."

"What are you getting to cover it up with? He does very good work. He did most of my tattoos. He's a very good artist."

"I actually drew up what i wanted and hes putting my design on it for me. Its a phoenix holding a sword and down the sword it says. You can cut me but you'll never make me bleed. From these ashes i'll always rise. It's already looking good but when it's done it will look awesome" i said.

"I can't wait to see it when he gets it done. I bet it will be beautiful" he said.

As we were talking he was walking towards his kitchen. When he got there i heard Marcello say "You couldn't wait could you, fuck face. I know that she's on the video chat right now. You couldn't wait until you got downstairs so that the rest of us could see her beautiful face and talk to her you asshole."

I was giggling at the way that he was talking to Dom. It was funny as hell. He's always been quiet around Dom especially when he's working. And when he does talk its not like that.

Dom sat the laptop down and said "Of course i wasn't going to wait. Your just pissed that i thought of it and you didn't. Had you thought of it, you would've called her as soon as you got out of the shower. Hell you probably would've still had a towel wrapped around you. As it is she's going to see you in nothing but your boxers since you don't wear clothes when were home."

“Yea your probably right, i would’ve had i thought of it. But i was waiting on everyone so we could talk to her together. And i was starving and wanted a plate of her amazing food. Just wait until you try it, it’s so fucking good. And hey i don’t hear you complaining about my lack of clothes when were home. Im actually pretty sure at some point all of you have said how much you like it. Because its easy access, all you have to do is pull down my boxers and bend me over. So fuck off with that. Besides i bet she’ll like what she see’s. Good evening Amore, you look beautiful as always.” he said.

“Good evening bello, you look pretty sexy yourself. And yea i wouldn’t be complaining either about you walking around like that. That’s some sexy eye candy right there. Im just getting all kinds of views of abs tonight. I like it.”

“I bet that you do. You can always come over and enjoy the view in person” he said while wiggling his eyebrows.

“Your a goofball and im already in bed with my boot off. Im not going back out unless i have to. Im very comfortable at the moment, thank you very much.”

“Cant blame a guy for trying. Since Dom is fixing his plate, im going to carry you into his office and get you hooked up on the big tv so that you can see us all better. Then we’re not all trying to fit around a little screen. And then i need to introduce you to the two other men in my life” Marcello said.

After he carried the laptop into the office he sat it down and then started hooking stuff up so that i could see the whole room.

While he was doing that i could see the other guys coming into the room. They were all getting settled in to eat and talk to me.

While i was waiting there was a knock on my bedroom door. I muted my computer and then said “Come in.”

Nonna peeked in around the door and said “Good evening amorina, I just wanted to let you know that im home. Nicco wont be home tonight. He called and said something about staying with someone tonight, I don’t know i could barley hear him. But i thought that id check on you and make sure that you were ok.”

“Yea im good. It was a long day and Enzo ended up with his class being behind by an hour so Marcello came and picked me up and brought me home. I had to cook today so i gave him the food from it. I left you a plate in the fridge though. Im on video with them and then im heading to bed when im done.”

“Ok i wont keep you, i just wanted to let you know that i was home just incase you need something. I love you sleep tight.”
