

Chapter 112 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After our round of rough sex we snuggled for an hour before we got up to take a shower. When we were done and dressed we went downstairs and got dinner started. I heated up the oven and when it was ready I put the lasagna in. Dom made the salad and Zeus got the garlic bread ready. When the lasagna was done we'd just need to toss the garlic bread in the oven for a few minutes.

While we were waiting on dinner Dom's phone rang with a video call. When he picked his phone up I could see the surprise on his face. So I figured that it was Marcello finally calling him. "Hey I'm surprised that your calling me, is everything ok?" Dom asked him. "Yeah, everything is fine, its quiet. I'm calling about work. I know that Luciano has been in the office since you went to Russia and has been doing the work. Have you talked to him since you came back to Texas?" He asked Dom.

"I've touched base with him a couple times a week, but he's told me that he's got the offices all handled. Why whats going on?" Dom asked Marcello. "I called I'm about a month ago. As I was going through the emails like I do everyday and sending the important shit to your dad. The temp doesn't really do anything except of an evening and that's just to take calls. During the day I have the calls set up to come to my cell phone. While I was going through the emails I seen one about the contract on the piece of land that we've been trying to get. When I seen the email, I tried to call you first but got no answer so I called your dad. I filled him in on the contract and the agreement that we had all come to for the land. I filled him in on the last meeting that we had with the guy and the price that we had set. Well the guy sent an email stating that he wanted more money for the land or he wouldn't sell it and wouldnt say why. Everything was going through the lawyers but this email didn't go through his lawyer, he sent it himself straight to me. It made me suspicious as hell, so I sent it and the notes from the last meeting with the guy to your dad. Everything that I had about the land and the meetings I sent to Luciano. He went over it all and said that he'd take care of it. He let me know that you were coming back to Texas and that's why I couldn't get ahold of you. He said that he'd take care of it and get ahold of me once he knew something but I've not heard from him or my dad since. My dad doesn't even answer his phone when I call. Thats why I asked if you'd talked to your dad, its had me worried."

When Marcello got done talking Dom was pissed off. "Damn it, something has to fucking be going on. That old man was set on the price and assured us that he wouldn't raise it. Everything was a done deal the paper work just had to be rewritten and then we would all sign it. Something or someone made him change his mind. Dads not said anything to me about this but I'll call him about it. When I find out something I'll let you know."

"Thanks, make sure that you tell my dad to answer his fucking phone when you get ahold of them. Its pissing me off that I can't get ahold of him. It worries me and I hate that I can't just go and fucking check on him. Don't get me wrong, I love being here with River, but we are both ready to be home" Marcello said.

“How is she doing? Hows the baby?” I asked him. “They are both doing good, shes going to be due for a doctors appointment soon though. So well have to figure that out before to much longer. She’s got a cute little baby bump and I love to sit and talk to the baby when we go to bed at night. Rodion also bought her a Doppler thing and we get to listen to the babys heart beat. That’s so fucking magical and I love to listen to it. She craves tacos all the time, but shes also got some really weird cravings already. I woke up the other night and she wasn’t in bed, so I go to look for her. She’s in the kitchen eating ice cream with pickles and banana peppers. Her mom says that its normal, but its gross as hell.”

“I cant wait until your both back home and I get to spoil her rotten. I hate that we’re missing it all. I also cant wait until we find out what we’re having, I’m ready to start planning the nursery. I already have the bedroom cleaned out for it. Just need to know how to decorate it, what colors and theme” Zeus said. You could tell how happy he was to be a dad. He’s had the room next to ours cleaned out for awhile now.

“Yea I know Zeus, you tell us everyday. It makes River laugh at how excited you are to be having this baby. But trust me, we can’t wait to find out what Baby Taco is either. We’re ready for all of this shit to be done so that we can be back home. Any idea as to how much longer it’ll be?” He asked us.

“We’re making dinner now and when we get done eating we’re heading out to talk to the ones that we have in the sheds. We got a few new guests today as well. We’re getting closer and closer. We just need to get the gang and then grab that fucking Russian and then we’ll get you both back here” I told him.

As he was about to say something River walked up behind him with nothing but a tiny bikini on. My dick went instantly hard at the sight of her. She was so fucking beautiful, and even more so with the glow of pregnancy radiating out of her. She walked up and plopped down in Marcello’s lap. She looked at the video call and looked at all three of us squeezed into the phone.

She ignored Dom and I at first and looked at Zeus. “Oh, its my Spencer, how are you doing today Spencer? I really miss you, so doesn’t Marcello and Baby Taco” she said with a huge smile. “I miss you all as well Ursula. You know the longer you go on calling me by my first name the longer that I call you by yours” he told her. “Yes but see, I can get away with it. Because when I finally get to come home, if you continue to call me that name, I can just with hold sex from you. Or tie you to a chair and make you watch Marcello and I while your not able to get off. That actually sounds like a lot of fun. Can you just image, me riding Marcello’s huge cock while facing you in a reverse cowgirl. You strapped to the chain and unable to do anything except to watch my tits bounce and watch Marcello’s huge cock go in and out of me. Mmm sounds like such a fun time to me. You need to hurry up and finish your call, I’m horney as hell” she moaned out.

She looked right at the three of us and smirked at us before she straddled Marcello and started to kiss him. She started to grind her hips against his dick and I could see him getting hard from here. When they finally came up for air she turned back around and smirked at us. “While I am still pissed at both of you Aries and Dom, when we get back home we have to have a sit down and talk. Your both still on my shit list but you are still our men. And we do have a baby on they way so we need to work shit out. I will tell you right now though. If you ever and I mean EVER pull the shit that you did to me again. The breaking up with me to protect me for my own good bullshit, I will castrate the both of you. I will make sure that you are never able to have sex again in your life. That was utter bullshit, you should have talked to me and told me what the fuck was going on. We could've come up with a plan together. So your both still in the doghouse but I will start to talk to you again. Now finish your conversation so you can eat and get to work and so that Marcello can come take care of me. I love you all" she said as she stood up and walked out of the room, swaying her luscious ass all the way.

Dom let Marcello know that he'd get ahold of his dad and then call him to let him know what was going on. When we got off the phone with him, Zeus and I finished up diner and Dom sat down at the island to call his dad. The phone was on speaker and when he finally answered his phone Dom said "Hey I just talked to Marcello and he filled me in. What is going on with the piece of land that I was trying to buy and the guy wanting more money?"

"We're still trying to find that out. The guy is never home when we go out there. I had Enzo and your brother go out there and put cameras up. We've been keeping an eye on the place and Mario is undercover right now trying to find shit out. Someone is trying to get more money out of you. I don't think its the old man selling it though. I think that it's someone that's trying to take advantage of the old man. Where just dont know who though. The emails are coming to me now instead of to Marcello. I have someone trying to figure out where the emails are coming from, but there being routed around and he's having trouble with it. I may have Zeus come in and check it out for me. I'll let you know if I need him. I gotta go though because I have another issue that I'm dealing with at the moment. I'll call you later" Dad said and then hung up.

We talked about what his dad said and we ate and then Dom texted Marcello and let him know what his Dad said. He tried to call him but didn't get an answer, lucky bastard was probably taking care of our woman. When we were done eating we loaded up and headed to the property with the sheds on them. It was time to get down to business and find out some information to finally help us, one way or another.
