

Chapter 113 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

When we were done eating, we got ready to head to the property with the sheds on it so that we could finally find out some information. After cleaning the kitchen from dinner, we put the dirty dishes in the dishwasher. We had it ready to run when we got back home. We don't like to run it when we're not here. We also put the leftovers in the fridge and after whipping off the table, we were good to go.

I had to stop at the clubhouse before we left to grab my laptop. I wanted to have it with me so that I would be able to look up any information that we were given. So I told the guys that I'd meet them at the gate and headed out to my bike. I rode down to the clubhouse, parked, and then went inside. It was pretty busy tonight, one of the brothers was celebrating his birthday early, so everyone seemed to be in the club.

I bypassed everyone and went to my office. I grabbed everything that I would need and put it into my laptop bag. I made sure that I had my regular laptop and a backup as well as my cords for both in my bag. I wanted to be prepared just in case we actually got anything out of these guys for a change. Once I knew that I had everything, I locked up my office and reset the alarm. I made my way back through the main room, stopping at our usual table.

My dads were sitting there, and I said "Hey, Aries, Dom and I are heading over to the sheds. We got a couple of extra guests today. We're going to see if we can get any information out of them. Hopefully, we finally get something that we can use. I'm ready for this shit to be done and over with." "Yeah, Ripper got a text from Aries, and he and I will be going with you guys while Legal and Maverick stay here. Someone has to keep an eye on all of these yahoos. We will get answers tonight one way or another," my Dad, Dexter, said.

"OK, I told them I'd meet them by the gate. I have my stuff that I need. Where is Ripper at?" I asked my dads. "He went to let Sunny know what was going on. He'll be here in a minute. The girls are all about us getting this shit done as well. They want River home so that we can celebrate us all finally having a grandbaby on the way. I hope that this kid takes after its mom, because you were, and still are, a rotten little shit" my Dad, Maverick, said.

"Thanks, Dad, I love you too," I said as I shook my head at him. While I was standing there talking to my Dads, Ripper walked up to us. "OK, I'm ready to head out now if you all are. Sunny and Ivy said that they would help to hold down the fort. If we need some extra hands though, we'll call you. Don't let things get out of hand here. Bear is using his birthday, which isn't for another two weeks, by the way. As a way to blow off some steam. He and Foxy got into a big fight, and she left him. Not sure what's going on with that but keep an eye on him, please. And for the love of all that's Holley, don't let him take a woman to his room. Foxy will cut his dick off if he cheats on her," Ripper said.

“That explains why he’s been such a dick head lately then. I just asked him a question yesterday, and he damn near bit my fucking head off. If he thinks being without his woman for a couple of days is bad, he should try it for a few months. And have her being pregnant on top of it,” I said. “Yeah, that would suck, but we’ll have your woman and baby back here soon. Let’s head out and get this done. If you guys need us, call us or text,” my dad, Dexter, told them.

We headed out and after securing my laptop bag in my locked saddlebag, I got onto my bike and started it up. I rode up to the gate with Ripper and my Dad, Dexter, behind me. Aries was riding with Dom in Dom’s SUV. They were already at the gate, so we followed behind them. It didn’t take us long to get to the property with the sheds on it.

With us having so many people being held here right now, we had more than just the prospects watching the place. We had my brothers and Aries’ brothers helping to keep watch on the place. Plus we had a few others as well. After we were let through the gate, we drove through to the back of the property. We followed Aries to the building that had Anthony in it. I guess that he wanted to start with him today.

I pulled up beside of Dom’s SUV and stopped my bike. After shutting it down, I climbed off it and then got my laptop bag out of my saddlebag. I walked up to the others as they stood by the doors. “So are we starting with this asshole again? Do you think that you’ll be able to get anything out of him?” I asked them. Aries smirked and said “Yeah, we may be able to get something from him today. I have Bacardi giving Mac a makeover. When they get here, we’ll use her and make him think that we’ve been beating on her for information. When he sees her, I think that he’ll spill his secrets to us. The last time that we had her here she was fine, and we didn’t really act like we’d touched her. This time Bacardi is going to come with her and not only does she have her looking like she’s been beaten to hell, but she’s also going to “rough” her up some as well. She’s going to make it look like she’s hitting her hard, but she won’t be. The two of them have been working on this to make it believable. And I talked to them before we headed here, and they’re both ready. Venom and Red will be bringing them with them. They’ll be here soon, so we’ll wait for them to get here before we go in. Zeus, I do want you to go in though, and get your laptop set up. I have a small desk in each of the sheds for you to use.”

I nodded at Aries and then headed into the shed. Anthony was strung up in the middle of the room. He had duct tape across his mouth and I could tell that he was yelling as I sat down. I just ignored the noise that he was making and started to set my main laptop up. As it was turning on, I got a notebook and a pencil out and sat beside my laptop with it open. I wanted to be able to jot down notes real fast if I needed to.

When I had everything ready, I sat and waited for the others to join us. It didn’t take long, and I could hear the sounds of a couple of vehicles pulling up outside. Just to piss Anthony off even more, I looked up at him and smirked. He narrowed his eyes at me, probably trying to figure out what game I was playing. He was getting pissed because he was mumbling behind the tape.

I knew that he couldn't hear what was going on outside because they weren't standing close enough to be able to hear. I knew that they were planning out how they were going to come in here though. They were trying to figure out how to best get a rise out of Anthony. Finally, after about ten minutes, the door opened up and Anthony came in, closely followed by Sal and Rodion. I wasn't expecting them to be here, but it explains why I could hear more than one vehicle pull in.

When Sal first showed up here after we had brought Loretta back here, her face was priceless. Even though he was on a FaceTime call when they were in Russia, she was too busy running her mouth to notice that he was on the call as well. So to see that her dad was actually alive when she tried to have him killed, shocked her. She was as white as a sheet at first, and then she was pissed off. She was expecting Rodion to kill her dad because she figured that she'd get some money when his will was read. She was in for a surprise when she didn't get a fucking cent from him. He left her a photo album of pictures that were all of her growing up and that was it.

Everything else was left to Rosa, Zain, Nicco, and River. His will even stated that he had disowned her so that she couldn't try to sue to get anything else from him. To say that she was pissed off would be an understatement. Zain had a video of how she acted, and we had all seen it. It really pissed her off when she tried to get her dad to save her, and he just ignored him. He did eventually tell her though that the world would've been better off if Rosa would've just swallowed the load that she was made from. Her face when he said that was fucking hilarious.

Anthony was pissed as well, but no one really cared what he thought. Now, though, for him to see Sal come walking in here looking back to his healthy self, you can tell that it bothers the fuck out of Anthony. Sal just smirked at him and came to stand beside my little desk. "Zeus, it's good to see you. How are you doing? I talked to River earlier, she is absolutely glowing. We can't wait until we finally have her back home" he said.

"Trust me, I can't wait until she's back at home either. We spoke to her and Marcello today, and I agree she is glowing. I can't wait until she's back, and we get to spoil her rotten. And I'm good, but I'll be better when we have this all taken care of and my girl and guy back at home," I told him. Rodion walked over to us and said "I agree with you on that. I'm ready to have her back here and my wife as well. I talk to them both every day, but I hate to be away from either of them. The only thing that helps is that I know that they are both safe where they are at."

"OK people, time to get this show on the road. Zeus, are you ready to look shit up if he actually answers us today?" Aries asked me. "I sure am, I have my laptop ready, and I've got a notepad and pencil out to take notes if need be," I told him. "OK, let's get started then" he said while rubbing his hands together.

He walked up to Anthony and ripped the tape off of his mouth. "Before you say anything, this is how today is going to go. You are going to answer our questions and give us the answers that we need. Or you're going to see how baldly your precious daughter is being treated while she has been in our custody. So are you going to play nice and answer our questions?" Aries asked Anthony.

Anthony just sneered at him and then said "You haven't hurt my daughter at all. Men like you don't raise their hands to women. I know your type, you think that you are too good to hit the bitches. And even if you did harm Immaculate, her husband would hunt you down and kill all of you. After he finds that little bitch River, and gets his hands on her finally."

"That's funny, when we were asking her questions, she never said that she was married. She did tell us that you promised her hand in marriage to some guy, but she refused. And you'll never get your hands on our River, because you'll never find her. And I didn't say that us men touched her. No, in fact, not one of us has laid a hand on her, but my sister is another matter. She has had no problem putting her hands on your daughter. She actually enjoyed it quite a bit, especially knowing what your daughters had done to River when she was nothing but a small innocent child."

"I don't believe you and even if your sister did put her hands on my daughter, I'm sure that there's not much that she could do to her. My daughter is probably just fine. I want to see her right now," Anthony yelled. Aries just shrugged his shoulders and looked at Ripper who was beside the door. Ripper opened up the door and yelled loudly "Hey Venom, Red, both of you, as well as my daughter, bring that little bitch in here. Her father needs to see what his staying quiet has done to her. And if he continues to stay quiet she'll get more of it."

Mac was a pretty good actress because she started to scream as they brought her closer to the shed. "No, please no. Don't do this to me anymore. I don't know anything, I promise. Please, I can't take anymore, I already hurt so badly and I can't even see out of my one eye, please just let me go." When she started to scream, Anthony's face started to lose some color. But when she was brought in and dumped on the floor in front of him, he went white. Especially after she looked up at him.

He looked up at all of us and screamed out "What the fuck did you do to my daughter? Oh, baby, I'm so sorry they did this to you. Your beautiful face is ruined now. You should've run when you had the chance. Jr would've protected you until he could've gotten to you. I will kill every one of you mother fuckers for what you have done to my daughter." He started yelling out and making threats to everyone.

Aries walked up and punched him in the mouth and said "Shut the fuck up. We're done playing games with you. Unless you want to see your precious daughter be beaten on right in front of you, then you'll start talking, now. I want to know who the hell is after my girl and I want to know right fucking now. Or Bacardi starts back in on your daughter."
