

Chapter 16 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

When i turned back to the laptop and seen that they had it all set up, they were already watching me. After i unmuted it i said “Im sorry Nonna just got home and was checking on me. She wanted to make sure that i knew that she was home now if i needed anything.”

“Its ok Amore, we figured that you were talking to someone. Now we can all see you and don’t have to squeeze around the laptop while sitting on each others laps just to see you. How is your face and foot feeling ” Dom said.

I started giggling and said “That would be funny to see though. A bunch of big men sitting on each others laps just to talk to me. And it still hurts but im ok.”

“Don’t let him fool you, Amore he likes it when i sit on his lap. They all do though. Hopefully it heals up soon” Marcello said with a cheese smile.

“Now let me introduce you to our other two men. This is Aries, he’s the President of Reaper’s Worriers MC. And this stuf is Zeus, he’s the Sargent at arms and the hacker for the club. Guys this beautiful girl is River Russo” Marcello said.

“Aww, this is the little spit fire that’s had Dom all worked up for a few days now. You know it’s funny, I’ve never seen him so worked up over a girl before. But he came home the night that he meet you, telling us about this tiny little slip of a girl cussing him out and then rolling the window up on him” Aries said in a deep voice.

Zeus fallowed it up with “Yea he said that he helped you out with the jerk not giving your coffee to you, too walk outside to you cussing his guys out. Marcello included, for not moving your, what did he call it. Oh yea, a matchbox car. Said that it wasn’t very big and he was afraid that someone would run you over in it. So he had them fallow you to where you were going. And then got pissed when you were hugging a bunch of guys and had your arm around one. He was in a pissy mood all day that day.”

Aries had a voice with a deep texas drawl in it and Zeus’ voice reminded me of Sam Elliotts. They were both voices i could listen to all day.

I giggled and said “Ok i know i was kinda rude myself that day, but dude making fun oh my car is not cool at all. It’s not a matchbox car, it’s a VW beatle, and its awesome. I love my car and saved up to get it. I even got it in my favorite color orange and decked out the inside in camo orange. And i know i thought it was funny to get out of my car and see this giant assed tree giving me dirty looks for hugging my friends.”

“Hey i didn’t know that it was just your friends. For all i knew it was a boyfriend or boyfriends. And your going to end up having someone run you over, that car is so small. You need a bigger car” Dom said.

“Nope, sorry i don’t. I love my car and its just fine. I plan to drive it as long as i can. Hell i could drive it tomorrow if i wanted to. Id just drive with my left foot instead of my right. I’ve done it before so i know that i can.”

“Yea that’s not happening. We’ll be there to take you to work and if we’re not able to pick you up these guys said that they would. That way your not taking a cab. Do you know how many crazy people drive cabs!” Dom exclaimed.

“I’ve done it before and im just fine. Besides the school has a safe ride share app that helps females get home safely. Every driver has been properly vetted and females drive females only. Now Subject change Aries, when is your next ride? I know that you have one coming up in September and again in october to raise money for toy for tots. Do you have any others coming up?” I asked him.

“We do, we have one coming up July 3rd. Its a charity ride plus forth of July party all in one. Do you ride or do you ride with someone in the rides?”

“I usually ride my bike in them. My brother slash uncle Nicco usually go together. If im not able to ride my bike for some reason then i ride with him. Im hoping that my foots better and i can ride by then.”

“Your brother slash uncle? Im confused as hell on that one” Zeus said.

I started laughing and then explained the situation to them. Aries said “Ok i understand that better now myself. And what did you do to your foot?”

“When we were having the family dinner with Dom’s family on Saturday my sperm and egg donors showed up starting shit. My dad was running his mouth wanting money because their broke. When i told him no and that he wasn’t my dad i had two great dads. He got pissed off and backhanded me really hard. It busted my face open and swelled it up and i fractured my ankle falling from the hit. I had pretty big high heels on. So now im in a boot for awhile.”

“What the hell happened to him? I hope like hell someone knocked his ass out for putting hands on her!” Zeus exclaimed.

He was really pissed off and only calmed down when Marcello said “Oh, he got knocked out all right. She did it herself. When River got back up she hit him with one punch and kneed him in the balls and down and out he went. Then the next day her mom attacked Rosa, her Nonna slash mom. And River hit her with one punch and knocked her clear across the room. Like she hit her and then the bitch slid across the floor. She’s a little badass.”

“I would’ve liked to see that. I bet it was funny. But he needs to be dealt with if this is how he treats his own kid” Aries said.

“It’s all good, as far as I’m concerned I’m not his kid. I have a mom and I have two dads so I’m good.”

“I know that your Nonna raised you and that your Nonno passed away. So who are your two dads?” Zeus asked me while giving Dom a weird look.

“Christian and Ren are my pseudo dad’s. They’ve been there for me since I was ten. They come to all of my school functions and games. If I need them they come running.”

“Chris and Ren have always talked about the daughter that they have but I’d never met her. I finally met her with them on Saturday for the family dinner. At that time she was still the tiny little hummingbird that pissed me off at a coffee shop” Dom said.

“It’s still funny she told you off and got away with it. Well when we have the ride if you’re not able to ride then on your own bike then you can ride with one of us. We’ll make sure that you get to go with us” Aries said.

“Awesome, I love to be on the back of a bike just as much. And Nonna and I will be back by then” I said.

“Where are the two of you going to Amore?” Marcello asked me. “We have a girls trip planned for June. We’re going to Italy, just the two of us. And then the whole family is going to the Bahamas at the end of July. I can’t wait, I’ve never been to Italy before. Nicco got to go over and stay for a year with our grandparents. But I’ve never been there. My great grandparents have always traveled over here to see us” I said.

“It’s a beautiful place to live and to visit. Does your uncle know that you’re going to Italy?” Dom asked me.

“Yea he knows. He was a little worried about us going alone but he finally agreed with it after Nonna talked to him about it. Why?” I asked him.

“Just making sure, I know that he worries about you guys a lot.”

“Yea he does and I’d say before it’s over he’s going to end up going with us or sending a truck load of bodyguards with us. It can get irritating with how over protective that he is.”

“He just worries, your Nonno’s not here to protect you right now so he’s making sure that he protects you both for him” Dom said.

“What do you mean he’s not here right now to protect us? It’s hard to come back from the dead” I said completely confused.

“Slip of the tongue, I just meant that since he’s not here anymore to protect you, your uncle will. He wants to make sure that you are both safe.”

I wasn’t sure that, that is what he meant. It didn’t sound that way at all. He talked like my Nonno was still alive and that was impossible. Because if he was alive wouldn’t my Nonna know.

He was her soul mate and the love of her life. I was here and watched her suffer when he passed away when i was ten. It was hard on all of us but especially her.

When Nonna took me out of my parents house when i was five, Nonno was out of town. He had to go to Italy because one of his parents was sick. Nonna couldn’t go because of Nicco being in school.

So she had my uncle and aunt go with her. Nonno was the closest thing to a dad i had at the time. He loved me and was always doing stuff with me. He seen that i had a love of art and we’d go to different art shows.

I use to paint in the house, until he passed away. And then i stopped. Nonna had my art studio built after i started painting again so id have my own space. It was something that he wanted to do for me and she wanted me to keep painting like he wanted me to.

It was about eight months after he passed away that i met Christ and Ren. I still miss him everyday.

I kept talking to the guys about different things. Just getting to know each other better. They were all different in everyway.

We were on the subject of food when Marcello asked me “Ok so are you going to explain how you made the food to us? It was delishish, i bet it took a long time and alot of shit to do it.”

“Not really, it didn’t” i said and then i explained how i made everything. By the time i was done telling them their jaws were hanging open.

“There is no way that you made that food with that stuff. How did you really do it?” Marcello asked me.

“I just told you and its the truth. A good chief or cook can take any food and turn it into a fancy meal. The teacher gave my box of food to me and i turned it in an awesome meal. I do it all the time. I love the tyson chicken tender and fix then alot” I said.

We continued to talk for a little while until i had to go so that i could get some sleep for school tomorrow. I told Marcello and Dom to give my number to Aries and Zeus and then i said goodnight and logged off.

Chapter 17 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

Over the rest of the week Dom and Marcello would come in the morning and pick me up. After i was done for the day Marcello would pick me up from school and take me back home.

Enzo said that he could drop me off at home but Marcello wanted to do it. He even scheduled time in Dom's schedule so that he would be able to come and get me and drop me off at home.

They wanted to see me as much as possible before they left for the next two weeks. They had to go out of town to check on some of Dom's new hotels that are being built.

They were worried about me driving myself to school next week but i told them that i would be fine. I have used my left foot to drive before and ill manage just fine.

They wanted to introduce me to Aries and Zeus face to face before they left. But they had to go out of town to check on one of their construction sites. They wont be back until after Dom and Marcello have left.

My classes this week were much the same as friday. I would either have a final exam and then be done with the class. Or id have a pretest to get us ready for exam day.

I only have a few more exams to take and then once those are done im done for the summer. I cant wait either.

I only have four test's next week. But i have five classes to go to. Since the others are done we don't have to go to them. All of our final grades for the year will be sent to us.

The only class that's not done yet though is art. We have already done our written exam and our sketch. But she wanted us to do a painting also.

We had to pick a family member or members to paint and i picked a picture of Nonna and Nonna on their wedding day. It was Nonna's favorite picture of the two of them and she had a big portrait of it hanging in the living room.

She also had smaller copies and i snuck around and took one and scanned it into my laptop and printed off an eight by ten of it. I needed a bigger picture to go by so that i could paint it and get all of the details.

My Nonno was six foot five and Nonna was five foot eight. With her heals on she came up to his shoulder. He was wearing a tux and she had on a beautiful mermaid style wedding dress with beautiful beading and designs on it.

Her flowers were roses and sunflowers with babys breathe in it. There were so many details that it was taking a little while to finish it.

We were told that after we finished our other classes we could come into the art room to work on our paintings. The only people that would be in the room were the ones working on their painting.

The written tests were all given this week. Next week when i go to school im going to try to finish it up. Im hoping to have it done in the begining on the week. Then ill have to bring it home after its graded and dry. I also have a few others to bring home as well.

Today is friday though and i have all weekend to do nothing. Today Dom and Marcello both dropped me off. They had to head straight to the airport afterwards.

I was going to miss them but we were still going to video chat, call and text. When their not working that is.

The house was empty when i got home. Nicco was still at work and Nonna was working at the dinner today. I took a nap and when i got up i was hungry and didn't want to cook.

I decided to go to the dinner and get food. I couldn't just sit in this house, id go crazy. So after grabbing my purse and locking up, i headed out to my car.

In the garage i managed to put my knee scooter into the back seat and get in the drivers seat. Once i was situated so that i could drive, I hit the button to put the garage door up.

Once it was up i started up the car and put my seatbelt on. I then backed out of the garage and turned around. I made sure that the garage door shut back and then headed down the driveway.

After reassuring the guards that i could drive myself i headed out. It didn't take long to get to Nonna's dinner and when i pulled up i parked as close as i could to the doors.

After i shut the car off, i took the keys out and took my seatbelt off. I grabbed my purse and managed to get out. I shut the drivers door and hopped to the back door and got my scooter out.

Once i had it up and was steady on it, i shut the door and locked my car. When i got close to the dinner doors the hostess seen me coming and opened the doors up.

"Hey River, its good to see you. We have all missed you around here. How are you feeling?" She asked me.

"Hey i've missed you all too. And im ok, the swellings come down in my face and its going to end up with a scar. My ankle still hurts like a bitch but it'll get better soom. Thanks for asking. Is Nonna still here?" I asked her.

“Yes she sure is. She’s back in her office going over paper work.” “Ok thank you” i said and rolled away.

I finally made it back to Nonna’s office after stopping to talk to everyone. It seems that they all missed me. Employees and our customers stopped me to check on me.

I knocked on Nonna’s door and waited to be told to enter. After she told me i could come in, i opened up the door and rolled into her office.

We both have separate offices here. I have mine so that i can set the menu and run the kitchen and Nonna has hers because she owns the place and runs it.

She looked up when i entered the office. “Hey Amorina, what are you doing here? Did Dom and Marcello drop you off here?” she asked me.

“Hey Nonna i came to get feed i don’t feel like cooking and im starving. And no, they dropped me off at home, and i took a nap. When i got up i was hungry and bored. Im sick of being stuck in the house. So i figured id come check things out here and eat while i was at it” i said.

“Well the special today is lasagna, salad and garlic bread. They all said that even though its your recipe it doesn’t taste the same as yours does. I’ve not ate yet or tried it so i don’t know.”

“That sounds good, but i also want a burger. That’s a hard decision to make. But i think im going with a burger today. I managed to make it to the cafeteria today at school to get lunch. It was spaghetti today and it didn’t sit right in my stomach. I don’t know what they did but it tasted weird. Do you want to take a break and eat with me?” I asked her.

“Sure just give me a minute to finish this and then ill go eat with you.”

“Ok” i said. While i waited for Nonna to finish up so that we could go eat, i checked my phone. I had a few new texts.

Dom- Miss you already Amore. We’re in the jet and all loaded up. I’ll let you know when we land. We’re about to take off.

Marcello- Hey Amore, Im ready to turn around already. I’d rather stay at home and spend time with you. I don’t like you driving yourself right now. Please be careful when you do. We’re about to take off. I miss you and i’ll text you when we land.

I messaged these two back before i check my others.

Me to Dom- I miss you already, sorry i just now got your text. I took a nap when i got home. And then headed to the dinner for food. Be careful and i’ll see you when you get back. Ciao Bello.

Me to Marcello- Hey Bello, I miss you to and don't worry i will be safe. I drove to the dinner tonight without any problems. And i'd rather that you were here as well but you have to protect Dom and work. Be careful and i'll see you when you get back. Ciao.

After i texted them back i checked the other texts. I had one from Aries and Zeus. Both of them telling me if i needed anything to let them know. That they're a couple hours away on a job, but they can have a member of the club help me or a prospect help me.

I thanked them both and told them i'd let them know if i did. The only other texts was a text ground chat between the guys and i. I've deleted myself out of it many times and they put me right back into it.

All it is, is them talking about what girl is the next hook up. Or how good the last one was.

Tonight's is them talking about what clubs that their going to hit up. And how much they want to get wasted because it's been a long week. I messaged back.

Me in group chat- You're all a bunch of morons. Stop putting me in this chat. I don't want to hear about how many sluts you all bang. If you go out tonight make sure that you either A, have a driver for the night. A DD or a personal driver. B, If you don't have a driver call a cab or uber. And C, glove up, the last thing that we need is a bunch more of you little pricks running around here making my like more miserable. Remember, No glove then no love. Be prepared or be be prepared to use your own hand. NO BABIES. But have fun.

After i messaged them, I looked up because Nonna was moving around. Once she was finished, she locked up her office and we headed to the front to eat.

I got my burger with the works. And onion rings, broccoli cheese bits, cheese sticks, and fries. Nonna got the lasagna special.

We sat and chatted about our day and how our week has went. I told her everything except the painting. She knows that im painting something but she doesn't know what yet. I told her that is a surprise for her.

We even talked about our trip. She wanted to post pone it but i told her that id be fine to go by then. That was one trip i was going on. i didn't care if i had to be on my scooter all the time. I wanted to go see my ancestral roots.

We talked about what all places that we wanted to go and see while we were over there. She definitely wanted to go and see her parents while we're there. As well as my Nonno's parents. We had the whole tripped mapped out already and i couldn't wait to go.

There is so much beauty to see and i couldn't wait to see it all. My family even owns a vineyard over there and while it is cool to see how the wine is made. I don't drink it. I think that it's grose and i don't drink it ever.

Chapter 18 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After i had diner with Nonna, she went back to work and i headed back home. On the way i stopped by the gas station and filled my car up.

Then i went a little ways down the road and stopped at the dollar store. I managed to make it into the store. I was even able to push a buggy while using my scooter.

I went through the store and stocked up on snacks for the weekend. I made sure to get plenty because i knew that Nicco would most likely be home later. And the others would probably be there at some point.

After i got snacks of chips, candy, cookies and pop. I went to the frozen section and grabbed a couple bags of fries and chicken tenders.

I loved the chicken tenders, i could eat a whole bag of them and ranch by myself. I also grabbed a few other snacky things and then grabbed some ice cream.

As i was wheeling my way through the store i seen a section of movies. They had the new Mario movie so i grabbed it and a few other movies that looked good.

I was going to have a lazy weekend at home. After the weekend that i had i think i deserved it. I picked up a few other things that i needed and then headed to check out.

As i was heading to get checked out i had that feeling of being watched again. So i moved out of the way and texted Aries. Maybe he could send me help because the creep from the coffee shop is here. And i have a feeling that its him watching me.

Me- Hey Aries, it's River. Im at the dollar store close to home and i feel like im being watched. I actually think i know who it is. The creep from the coffee shop is here and keeps watching me. He's also not alone. He's got a couple of big guys with him and its freaking me out.

While i was waiting for him to text me one of the girls working there seen me watching them and walked up to me. "Hey hon are you ok? You look a little scared." she said.

"Not really, those guys over there. I think that their fallowing me. I've been having a feeling of being watched and then i seen them. The one guy i've had problems with before. I texted my boyfriend im just waiting for him to message back. Im hoping he's got someone he can send to help me out."

"Why wouldn't he come himself, if you don't mind me asking." "He's out of town working right now. So he said if i needed help to let him know and he'd send someone to help me."

“Oh, ok, well if you want to get checked out i can help you with that. And im about to get off work and my boyfriend will be here to get me soon. He’s part of the local MC so he’ll have no problem keeping those guys away.”

“Is he apart of The Reapers Worriers MC?” I asked her. “Yea he is, do you know of them well or just in passing?” She asked.

“The guy that i mentioned isn’t quite my boyfriend yet. But said to tell anyone that i had trouble with that he was. He’s actually the President of the club Aries.”

“Oh my gosh, your River. Yea, he mentioned you to the guys. Told them to be on the lookout and that if you needed help that he’d get hold of them to help ya. My old man will really be glade to help ya now. He’s the Vice President of the club. He sould be pulling in any minute and he always walks in. Come on well get you checked out and ready to go. Oh by the way my name is Piper but i go by Blondie in the club. My old man is Stone.”

“It’s nice to meet you and thank you.” She helped me with my buggy up to the register so i could wheel my scooter. I looked down and seen that i had a text from Aries.

Aries- Hey babe my V.P.’s old lady works there and he’ll be pulling in any minute. Plus Ripper and Dexter will be there as well. That’s my dad and Zeus’ dad. When i called my dad to send help he said he was close and would make sure my girl made it home ok. Text me when you make it home babe. Don’t worry my guys have your back.

I was so relieved that i had help. Those guys were really freaking me out with the way that they were watching me. Piper helped me get my stuff on the counter and i checked out and paid.

As we were finishing up a big guy came in the door wearing a cut. And he was soon followed by two others. they headed strait for Piper.

“Hey babe, are you about ready to go?” he asked her. “Yea just about let me just finish up here and count my till then ill be good to clock out” she said.

“Ok, in the mean time we gotta find someone. Boss man got ahold of us. His girl is here and needs some help. We have a description of her but that’s it” he said.

“Hi, Im the girl your looking for, i think. If by boss man you mean Aries then its me. Hi im River” i said.

“Well hello there darlin, Im Ripper. Im Aries’ dad but you can call me Rip. You ok? He said that you were having some trouble” Rip said.

“Yea i am, i was fine when i first came in. But then i started feeling like i was being watched. Those guys over by the candy isle have been fallowing me and watching me. I don’t know who two of them are, but the one is a creep who was harassing me in a coffee shop a few weeks ago. With the way that they are watching me i don't trust them to not try something" i said.

"Don't worry we have your back. We'll follow you home and make sure that you make it ok. Aries explained who you are. I knew your Nonno and i know your Nonna. I still see her about once a week when i go to the dinner to eat. She's a good woman" Rip said.

"Come on if your done checking out we'll help you out to your car and then we'll get you home safe and sound. Im Dexter or Dex by the way, im Zeus' dad" Dexter said.

"Its nice to meet you both. And i presume that you are Stone. Piper was telling me about you when she first asked if i needed help. I then explained who i was once she said that you were part of the club."

Ripper and Dexter helped me out to my car. One pushed my buggy while the other helped me. Stone stayed inside with Piper to make sure that she would be ok.

It didn't matter though because those guys followed us outside and was watching us. "My boy told me what happened to your ankle and face. While i've known your Nonno and Nonna for years and even both of your uncles, i've never met your mom. We would have charity rides and parties for different things with the club and not only did your family, but Dom's as well would come. But your mom never would. She was always to busy with her nose stuck up Anthony's ass" Rip said.

"Yea she's still the same way. She follows him around like a lost dog or something. Neither of them work and never have. My grandparents gave him a huge sum of money when he turned eighteen and then stopped having anything to do with them. My aunt is the one running the family's company. They tried to get him to go to college so he could become CEO but he was to lazy to do it. Now they are broke and since my grandparents and aunt wont speak to them they have no way of getting more money. They all refuse to work, my incubator and sperm giver and the their kids who should've been swallowed or shot down the drain. And because they wont work they think i should give them money. When i refused he said that i had to because they were my parents. I then corrected him on that. When i told him that Nonna was my mom and i had two dads that were way better than he ever would be, he got pissed. He hit me and knocked me down. His ring cut my face and i fractured my ankle when i feel because of the heals that i was wearing. He got his though, when i stood back up i hit him hard and kneed him in the balls. He went down hard. Marcello and a few of Dom's other security guys seen it."

They were both laughing about it and Dex said "I would have loved to have seen that. I know our boys, and im sure Dom and Marcello to, want to go after him. I told Zeus that id provide him an alibi. I don't go for putting hands on a woman, ever."

While we were talking about it the guys loaded my stuff up. And when they were done Dex took the buggy back in and Rip helped me into the car and put my scooter into the back.

“How are you managing to drive with your foot in a boot?” Rip asked me. “I turn sideways a little bit and drive with my left foot. Today is the first day that i’ve drove that way. I was sick of being in the house and didn’t want to cook. So i went to the dinner to have diner with Nonna. I was on my way back home. I stopped to get gas and then i figured id stop to get snacks for the weekend since ill be stuck home. When i was done here i was heading for home. They had to have followed me from the dinner. They cant trace my car, even if they put a tracker on it” i said.

“That’s alot of snacks for a tiny thing like you for a couple of days. And i don’t blame you, i hate being stuck at home.Why could they trace your car if they have a tracker on it?” he asked me.

“My cousin is a tech genius and he came up with a device that will allow him to track me but the instant someone else tries to put a tracker on my car he knows. It sends a signal to him, and it wont let them trace me. I think that they were trying to follow me home. Probably thinking that they could get me there. They would be wrong, the house is surrounded by guards. They’d never get in” i said.

While we were talking Dex came back and had Stone and Piper with him. “Hey we were talking, i don’t like that these guys are following you around. Why don’t you come to the clubhouse for awhile and then when we know that their all gone well follow you home. You can even let you Nonna know” Stone said.

“I’ve got ice cream and chicken that i need to put in the freezer.” “You can put it in the club house freezer. Know one will mess with it, i promise” Piper said.

While we were talking Rip had stepped aside to answer his phone. When he came back he said. “Aries and Zeus are almost back. They’ll be at the club house in about twenty minutes. They decided earlier to come back for the weekend.”

“Awesome, see another reason to come with us. You’ll finally get to meet them face to face.” Stone said.

Dex looked at Rip and said “We’re trying to get her to come with us back to the club house for awhile. Just until we get these guys gone.”

“That’s a good idea. Just for a couple of hours. Then we’ll get you back home, whenever your ready to go.”

“Ill even ride with her so she doesn’t have to ride alone” Piper said.

After finally agreeing to go with them, Piper got in with me. They guys all loaded up on their bikes and when i pulled out they surrounded my car. I had one in front and two behind me.

Chapter 19 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After i sent Nonna the text, we all pulled out. I'd never been to the club house before so i was a little nervous to be going to one now.

Piper must have picked up on it because she said "Don't worry everyone at the clubs pretty cool. Friday nights usually don't get to crazy either. Its usually just the older guys there. The younger ones tend to go to one of the bars or clubs that that the club owns. Most of the ones with family's tend to stay home friday nights with them. Sometimes they show up but its never too rowdy there."

"I've never been to the club house or even herd about it. I mean i've read mc romance books. I have quit a few that i read with an author called Bink that has books that i love. But i've never really been around bikers much. My Uncle Nicco an i go to the charity rides and ride in them but i tend to stick close to him or my bike. And to top that off, i've only ever talked to the guys over video chat or phone calls and texts. I was supposed to get to meet them face to face and then they had to go out of town. Im really nervous."

"I understand that, trust me. The first time that i went to a club get together i was terrified to be around a bunch of big scary bikers. But after getting there and meeting them, they we're all supper nice. My brother was a prospect at the time. I had went with him, he's now a member."

"How did you and Stone end up together? If you don't mind me asking."

"I don't mind and honestly, when i first met him, i hated him. I thought that he was such an arrogant ass. He thought that i was there to be a club whore. He found out differently when he tried to make me suck his dick in front of everyone."

"What happened?" i asked her. "I put him on his ass. He ended up having to put ice on his dick because i grabbed it and squeezed really hard. I told him that i wasn't no whore and i was ever sucking his dick. But that id gladly rip it from his body. My brother stepped in and saved him. He told him who i was and he apologized profusely. I didn't go back around to the club because of that. It was about a month later he showed up on my door step and asked me out. I said no many times but i finally gave in. I had never had a guy try so hard to get me to go out with him. And my brother telling me that he hadn't been with the club whores helped to. We've been together for a little over a year now. I couldn't be happier either."

I was laughing at what she had done to him. "That's awesome, Im glade that he makes you happy. And i would've done the same thing if it was me. I've been in boxing and mma since i was young though so i don't take shit. And i also know what you mean about a guy trying so hard. I never had that before either. If i guy asked me out and i said no he moved on to the next guy. Until now that is." I said while bitting my lip.

I wasn't sure if i could talk to her about my situation or not. I knew that Dom's family didn't know that he was bi and i knew that they didn't know about him and the guys. I didn't want anyone that didn't know to find out. And i wasn't sure who all knew. Until Piper answered an unasked question. She must've seen it on my face.

"We all know about Aries, Zeus, Dom and Marcello. You don't have to worry. The whole club knows, its the one place that they can be themselves. No one judges at the club because we except it all. We have straight, gay, bi, two people couples, even three and four. You will be excepted in their relationship from us."

"Thanks, i knew that Dom's family didn't know yet. I just wasn't sure who did. They are the first guys to really show me attention. And i thought that Dom hated me at first. But they all text me all the time, or when they can. We video chat alot. Heck Dom and Marcello drove me back and forth all week because they didn't want me to drive over my ankle. Marcello picked me up from school and took me back home. They've been attentive and worried. I didn't know what that was like from a man that actually wanted you. Its a nice feeling to have a guy tell you that your beautiful and he loves the size and shape of you. Instead of ones telling you that your to short and fat."

"Some men really suck. You are very beautiful and i just love your curves. The guys will treat you well. The only one id say you would have to worry about would be Dom. I don't know what happened in the past but i've herd that he's a little leary of women because of one hurting him. I know that Aries and Zeus really like you though because they are always looking at each other then down to their phones and smiling. They didn't do that before. I think it may take some time and trials and tribulations but you all will be very happy one day. And if things don't work out, I get custody of you because i need a new best friend" Piper said with a laugh.

"Agreed, I do as well. I've actually never had a girl best friend before. Girls only ever tried to be my friend to get close to Nicco. So i stopped letting them use me. The only friends that i've had has been my uncle, cousins and their friends. And they all treat me like im one of the guys. I keep deleting myself from their group text because the last thing that I want to hear about is their conquests. It's super gross when it's your family."

"I totally agree with that, I couldn't imagine having to hear that shit. My brothers start talking about their one night stands and I give them hell for it. My brother that's part of the Mc, Worms his name, He knows that if he's at the club house and I'm around he best take his whore of choice to his room for the night. Im not watching that shit, I don't want to see my brothers dong that's just fucking gross."

"Yeah I agree with you on that. Men have no problems with what nastyness that they stick their dicks in and then want to brag about it. Like for real dude, I wouldn't brag about the trash that's going to cause my weiner to fall off. Nicco and the rest of the guys have been with some really nasty women. They added me back to their group chat and were bagging about the chicks that they were going to pick up tonight. So I messaged then back and gave to big spiel about no glove no love. And to make sure to wrap it because they didn't need any kids running around yet. I've not looked at the chat group but I'm sure that I pissed them all off and its funny as hell."

Piper and I talked all the way to the club house. I really liked talking to her. She was a down to earth girl and someone that I could be good friends with.

The guys stayed around my car all the way to their clubhouse. We managed to loose tht guys following us right after we left the dollar store.

Come to find out they had a few more guys close by and some of them got around my car while other kept the guys from following me.

Piper told me not to worry that it was just extra protection. So I just stayed calm and just followed behind Rip and the guy who joined him. Finally we pulled up to the club house gates.

Right as we pulled through two more bikes joined us. I didn't realize who it was at first, because I was pulling into the spot that Piper was telling me to.

After I parked and shut my car off my door was opened up. I undid my seat belt and then turned to look up as I took my key out of the ignition.

I was surprised to see that it was Aries that opened up my door. He squatted down beside me and said "Hey beautiful, I've been wanting to meet you face to face but not like this. I hated that we didn't get to meet before Dom and Marcello left town. But I'm glade to finally see your beautiful face. Are you ok? Those guys didn't hurt you did they?"

"Hey handsome, I'm glade to get to finally meet you face to face as well. I've been waiting for the chance to meet you and Zeus as well. And no they didn't hurt me, just scared me with the way that they was watching me. Normally I wouldn't worry about it but Because I can take care of myself but there was three of them and I'm currently hurt. The last thing that I want is to hurt myself worse. I have to get better before the end of next month" I said.

"Zeus cant wait to meet you either, he'll be out here in a minute. We didn't stop especially after you texted me, and he needed the John. And I know that you can take care of yourself Dom got me video footage of you hitting your dad back. But I'm glade that you texted me for help. We're here for you anytime baby. Now why do you have to be healed up by next month?" he asked me.

I had turned sideways and had my legs out of the car. I said "Well Nonna and I are planning a girls trip to Italy. We're going to go for two week and then when we get back were taking a family vacation with everyone else for two weeks. I've never been to Italy and she wants to take me to her mother country and to see my great grandparents on both sides. Plus do a lot of touring, I cant wait. But I'll miss you all while I'm gone."

“Same here baby, but I’m sure that after spending all year studying and working that you could use the break. Where are you going with the rest of the family?”

“We’re going to the Bahamas. I can’t wait to go there either. I’m hoping that my tattoo will be done by then. I gotta go next weekend for another session with my Papa.”

“Hey beautiful, I am so glad to see your beautiful self in person. Damn you even more gorgeous in person. Sorry I didn’t come right to you I couldn’t wait, I needed the John badly. We had just stopped for a break when we got your text and we didn’t even get off our bikes. We just wanted to get back here to you and make sure that you were ok.”

Chapter 20 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

Aries and Zeus helped me get out of the car. After getting hugs from both of them, they helped me with my scooter.

Thankfully their parking lot was payment so I could use the scooter. Zeus got it out of the back and fixed it for me and Aries helped me get settled on it.

After I had my purse over my shoulder and my phone in my pocket I had my keys still in my hand. I looked at Zeus and said “Hey I hate to ask but can you get into my trunk and grab the ice cream and chicken for me. Piper said that we could put it in your freezer until I left so it doesn’t go bad.”

“I can do that babe, pop the trunk.” I hit the trunk button and he went to get my stuff out. “Damn babe what all did you get?” he asked me.

“Just enough snacks for the weekend. I always grab extras because I never know when Nicco will be home or our cousins and our friends will be there. If I don’t get them snacks then they tend to eat mine. I usually always cook something to but this week it’s been take out or easy foods. It’s hard to cook at the moment.”

“That’s understandable babe. You’re a damn fine cook. That food that you made and sent for us with Marcello was amazing. I was so surprised by how it was made. Usually it’s just easy shit for us or else we eat whatever the old lady’s make us here before going home. When we go to Dom’s either he has food ready for us all or else one of us pick shit up on the way there” Aries said.

Zeus had got the stuff out of my car and I locked it and then put my keys into my purse. We headed to the porch so that we could head in.

Thankfully they had a wheelchair ramp so it was easier to get onto the porch. We were still talking about the food I made as we made our way in. Everyone else had went in ahead of us to give us privacy for a minute.

As we were going through the door Zeus was saying “Oh man that food was fucking awesome. Like Aries said, I cant believe how you managed to take that kind of ingredients and make such a meal. My favorite was the brownie cheesecake with the strawberry’s on top. I ate so much of it that I had to spend extra time in the gym.”

“What are you guys talking about?” Rip asked us. “How good Rivers food was last week. She made chicken wraps, a broccoli and cheese, rice and chicken bake and a brownie cheesecake with strawberry’s on it and it was amazing.”

“That sounds really good, but its not something that’s served at the dinner is it. I’d remember if it was. I think by now we have the menu memorized” I beautiful woman that was standing between Rip and another man said.

“No mam, it wasn’t. Im in my second year of college and Im finishing up with exams. Last week for my cooking class, we had a written exam and then had to cook a meal. The teacher put a bunch of different ingredients into box’s, like pantry items and cold items. She then handed them out randomly.”

I then went on to explain how I made what all I made with it. Aries managed to get everyone to move over to a table so that I could sit down. Piper was right, there wasn’t many people here right now.

“Ohh that does sound pretty good. I bet it was amazing. We eat at the dinner once a week because of these two” she said pointing to Rip and the other guy. “And i’ve tried a lot of your foods. You really are an amazing cook.”

“Thank you and years Rip told me that you eat there a lot. Im not working there right now. I gotta take it easy so that my ankle and face heal but I miss being there. And I’m River by the way since no ones going to formally introduce us” I said while side eyeing Aries and Zeus.

Aries had the good sense to look ashamed. “Sorry baby this is my mom Clara but here she’s called Sunny, You met my dad Ripper, his actual name is Adam. And this is my Poppa, my other dad, Legal his real name is Mason. Mom and dads this is our girl River. Or were hoping she’ll end up being our girl. We’re all still getting to know each other.”

“It’s nice to meet you sweetheart. My son is a little slow, he gets it from his dads. I really hope that things work out between the four of you. I’d love to have another daughter. And I know that Ivy, Zeus’ mom will agree with me. Although where I only have one girl she’s got two. But we have so many boys that we need more female’s.”

“I understand that. At home its Nonna and I and then Nicco. But im the only girl in the family. Nicco doesn’t have kids yet and Uncle Zain has two boys. It can be very annoying and gross sometimes” I said.

“You think we boys are gross huh. How are you eventually going to handle living with four of us?” Zeus joked with me.

“That’s easy, who said that I was going to be living with you?” I said with a saucy wink. “No really. I have Nicco who is more like a brother than an uncle, my two cousins and all of our guys friends. They keep putting me in a group chat with them and then talking about their conquests for the night, every weekend. It’s nasty to hear of your family talking about what pole hopper that they were banging this night or that.”

“I see nothing wrong with that” Stone said. “Well let me ask you this. Do you have a sister?” When most of the guys shook their heads yes I asked them “Would you like to hear about what guy she was fucking and what her favorite position that they did it in was?”

Sunny and Blondy (as everyone kept calling Piper) were laughing their asses off. They both new the answer to my question. No they wouldn’t like to hear it.

“Ok, u concede you have a point I wouldn’t want to hear that either. That’s just fucking nasty” Aries said.

“And yet the daughters of the club have watched many of the brother get their willey’s wet from the whores by just walking inside the club” Sunny said.

“Most of us, when we use to do that shit would take it to our rooms. Or wait until the lady had all left. But I get your point. Maybe we need to talk about no sex in the common rooms anymore” Aries said.

“Anyways subject change” Sunny said. “Your about done with college for the year right? What are your plans for the summer break?” Legal asked me.

“My Nonna and I have a trip planned for next month. We’re taking a girls trip to Italy. Then when we get back the whole family, minus Loretta’s family because they’re not ours anymore. Are going to Bahamas for a couple of weeks. I can’t wait to lay on the beach and soak up some sun. This year has been so busy that I’m ready to relax for awhile.”

“Ohh Italy we went one time it’s a very beautiful place with lots to see” Sunny said.

As we were talking a couple of guys came in the door and called the guys away from us. So I sat and talked with Sunny and Piper.

Sunny was such a nice woman and I couldn’t wait to get to know her more. “I know, Nonna and I have both made list of things we want to see. She also wants to go and visit with her parents and my Nonno’s parents while we’re over there. I’ve not seen them in person for a few years so I’m excited to do that as well. But I’m going to miss the guys while I’m on both trips. I know that we just met but I feel close to them all already” I said.

“That’s understandable even with new relationships. I met Aries’ dads and a week later was living with them. I’ve been with them since then. When you find your soulmate or soulmates as it may be you just know when its right. How did you meet the guys anyways. Aries hasn’t really told me much. He’s told his dads because he tells them everything but me not so much.”

“I actually met Dom a couple of weeks ago. I stopped by Sips to get more coffee and muffins before going to school. The girl at the counter rang me up and after giving her my money she gave me the muffins. I had moved down to get my coffee and one of the creeps that was following me today, he was working. He asked me out, I said no and he just kept bugging me but wouldn’t give me my coffee. I was getting pissed and was about to walk out without it until Dom stepped in. After I went outside I went to get in my car to leave but was blocked in. I asked Marcello, who at the time I was calling meet head to move nicely and he refused. So I asked not so nicely. When Dom came out he was being an ass an I told the giant walking fucking tree, that’s what I called him, to move. From there he followed me to school and then the next day I seen him at my Poppa and Pop’s tattoo shop. I had went in so that Poppa could start a tattoo on me and when I went to leave he was there giving me dirty looks. That night I had to go to family diner and low and behold he showed up at it. If been talking to him and Marcello since then. Aries and Zeus I started talking to on Monday.”

By the time I was done Sunny and Piper were laughing their asses off over me calling Marcello a meet head and Dom a walking fucking tree.

A new woman had joined us and was laughing as well. “River id like you to meet your other future mother-in-law. This is Ivy, Ivy this is River. The girl that our boys are absolutely smitten with.”

“Ohh I’ve been waiting to meet you. Im so glade that your finally here, even if the reason that you are sucks. Oh shes just so beautiful Sunny. Can you imagine the grandbabies? They will be so beautiful. Oh I cant wait, when can we expect them?” Ivy rattled off.

Im sure that I looked like a deer in headlights. I managed to stammer out “Not for a long time. I have two year of school to finish and I’m not doing that with a kid on my hip. And not only that but I just met the guys, I’d like to get to know the four of the better first.”

She kind of stuck her lip out and said “Oh well I tried. Still one day well have beautiful babys to spoil and love on.”

The guys all came back over and I spent time getting to know them all. I learned that Ivy’s actual name is Lily and that Dexter’s is Kaleb. Zeus also has another dad but he was at work. His name is Maverick but his actual name is Zachary.

I had such a fun time hanging out with them all. I promised to come back again next weekend. I had some studying to do this weekend for my final exams. But I definitely wanted to go back.

When it was time to go Zeus ran in to grab my freezer stuff. As we were heading outside a bunch of bikes were pulling in.

Aries had me wait for them to stop before leading me to my car. After they helped me get in and put my stuff and scooter in, they went to get on their bikes.

Not only was Aries and Zeus following me home. But so wasn't their dads and Stone. Aries had stopped to talk to the guys before getting on his bike.

I put my seatbelt on after getting situated and then started my car and backed up. Then I pulled up where Aries told me to. When he started his bike he pulled up on the drives side to talk to me.
