

Chapter 21 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

Aries and Zeus and the rest of the guys followed me all the way home. When we made it to my house Aries and Zeus pulled back beside me and let me go up to the gate first.

When I got to the gate I let the guards know that the guys were all with me. I pulled up to the garage and hit the button to open the door.

When it opened up I pulled my car inside. Nonna wasn't home yet but Nicco was. I stopped my car and put it in park and then turned it off. After I took my seatbelt off I opened up the door. I grabbed my keys, phone and purse and was about to get out.

I had left the garage door up and Aries and Zeus parked outside of it and then came in to help me. The other guys were in the driveway waiting on them.

Zeus helped me get my scooter out of the car and then helped me out to it. While he was helping me Aries was getting my stuff out of the back.

After Zeus helped me get settled onto my scooter he went to help Aries. As they were getting my stuff out of my car the house door opened up and Nicco stepped out.

"Hey Riv, mom texted me and said that you'd be home late. She said that you were having trouble with someone following you. Are you good?" he asked me while looking at the guys.

"Hey Nic, I'm fine. This is Aries and Zeus I met them through Dom and Marcello. That creep from Sips and a couple of other guys followed me from the dinner to the dollar store. At least that's my theory. I don't know how else they would've been able to follow me. It kind of freaked me out because I can't take up for myself right now. These two let me know that if I needed them to call or text them and they'd get the guys from the club to help" I said.

"Especially considering the fact that Dom and Marcello left town today. She's spent a lot of time with them lately and you never know who's watching. But we were also out of town checking on a construction job. We were on our way home for the weekend and got the text that she needed help. Thankfully, not only does one of our club's brothers' ole lady work there, but she was about to get off work. And he was on his way to get her. The both of us have two dads and a mom. One of each of our dads was close and they went to help her as well. Stone's ole lady rode with her back to the club house and the guys surrounded her. I had guys that kept the three from following her to the club but they got away when my guys tried to grab them."

"Yeah I know who you all are. I've worked with you a few times in the past, on business. Just didn't know that you knew my sister. And that's got to be what happened River because with that piece that Enzo put on your car there's no way that they could've tracked you. I've tried to get ahold of Enzo about it but he must be busy still. Ill get ahold of him about it though. Here let me help you guys carry this stuff in" Nicco said.

I wheeled in ahead of them and the guys carried my stuff in for me. After the put the stuff on the counter, I put the chicken and ice cream in the freezer. I then went through the bags and separated my stuff from what I got for Nicco and the guys.

My stuff will go upstairs while there's stays in the kitchen. Or ends up in the theater like it usually does.

Nicco took my stuff up to my room for me so that I could say good night to the guys. We went back out to the garage and I gave them both big hugs.

"Thank you both for everything you did tonight. You don't know how much it meant to me. I've not had a lot of people stand up for me or even protect me. The only ones that have, have been Nonna, Nonno, when he was alive, my uncles, my adopted dads, and the very few friends that I have. So to have guys that i've not even been talking to for very long have people to race to protect me. It means everything to me" I said with a voice full of emotion.

"Hey babe, we might've only been talking for a week now but your ours. We feel the connection with you like we do with Dom and Marcello. And we protect what is ours. We know that we have to get to know each other better but we want this relationship with you. We are on the fence but only about Dom. He's had issues with dating woman for awhile now so none of us have been with a woman in quite a few years. We all want you its just going to take him time. But he agreed to start talking to someone so he doesn't lose us four. As in you, Marcello, Zeus and I. Because the three of us told him after our first video call. Either he excepts you and wants to be with you as well or we walk with you" Aries said.

"Yeah, because we all feel the connection that's between us. We don't want anyone else. I know I can picture settling down with you four and having a family one day. Im ready for that but not until your ready. This week getting to know you has been amazing and I cant wait to spend more time with you, neither of us can" Zeus said.

"I cant wait to spend more time with you either. And I feel the same way. I feel such a strong connection to all of you and have from the get go. We can text and call and video all week. After this week I'll have more time to spend with you. I told your moms that id be back next weekend to spend time with them as well. I got plans Saturday but I'm free the rest of the weekend."

"Oh right, you gotta go get the rest of your tattoo done. Where are you getting it and what are you getting?" Aries asked me.

“Tattoo, what tattoo? What are you talking about?” Zeus asked us. I explained to both of them about the tattoo and what it was and where it was. And that my Papa was the one doing it for me.

I told them that I would fill them in on why I needed to get it done later. The guys were waiting to get back home. And I told them to text me and let me know that they made it home.

After another round of hugs and waving at the guys who followed us here including Rip, Dexter and Stone. They got on their bikes and headed out.

I waved and blew kisses to my guys and then they took off. Once the guys at the gate had let me out and then closed the gate back after they were all gone, I shut the garage door.

I headed back into the house and Nicco was back in the kitchen. “I put your stuff in your room. I even put some of your pop into your mini fridge. You need more water in it so I was grabbing some of it and oj to take up and restock it for you.”

“Um thanks” I said with a a puzzled look. “What are you wanting? Or should I say what did you do that I have to fix?”

“I didn’t do anything smartass and I don’t want anything. You’ve had a hard and busy week and day today. You picked snacks up for the weekend without me asking. I figured that Id be nice and make sure that it was stocked. Is there anything else that you need took up. Im gonna grab a shower and get ready to go out with the guys. I got home from work right before you got here.”

“I don’t think I need anything else took up. But thank you. I think I’m going to go shower and then go hang out in the theater and binge watch Jurassic Park. I’ve not watched it in awhile and I need a break from school work for a night. Have fun with the boys and please for the love of duck stop adding me to the group chat if all your going to do is talk about your nasty hookups. Its very gross.”

“I didn’t add you this time one of the others did. And i’ve not been hooking up with anyone. I had my eye on a girl but shes playing hard to get. I really like her to so I’m waiting on her. Gonna prove that I’m worth it.”

“Well good, you need to find a good girl and settle down. But if you do get the love remember to use the glove. We don’t need your mini spawn running around causing havoc just yet” I joked.

“No chance of that, I’m not ready to have kids. I don’t want them tell I have a ring on it. And I’m waiting on Mrs Wright, not Mrs Wright Now. I don’t want kids with someone that I’m not going to spend the rest of my life with. Don’t wanna be stuck with someone who will cause me nothing but problems. And I don’t want to raise my kids in two parent homes.”

“I don’t blame you on that one. You also need to make sure that its with someone who will treat you kids right and no abuse them” I said while looking off to the side thinking about my own family problems.

“Don’t worry, I wont let anyone do to my kids what you went through. I wont let any kids that you have go through that either. I don’t think you have to worry about that though. Dom, Marcello, Aries, and Zeus are all great guys. They would never abuse you or your kids.”

“I know, its still a worry though after what I’ve been through. But I know that I don’t have any of that to worry about anymore. Now enough of this talk. Go take a shower smell cat so that you can go out with the guys. Im gonna go get ready for bed and them pick me some snacks for a movie night.”

“Yeah I’m going, I really don’t want to but the guys will give me hell if I don’t. Movie night sounds way much better. Ill drop this stuff in you room into your fridge and then head to mine. Ill let you know before I leave.”

“Ok, I’ll either be in my room or in the theater.”

Nicco headed up stairs and I followed behind him but I went to the elevator to go up. After getting to my room I got a pair of booty shorts and a tank top and went to shower. It didn’t take me long because I want going to wash my hair. When I was done I got dries off and dressed.

I went through my snacks that I got today and put most of them away in the cupboard that i keep them in. What I was taking down stairs with me I put into a tote bag.

I grabbed my phone and snacks and headed back down stairs. I knew it would take Nicco forever to get ready it always does.

Chapter 22 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

I decided to do a marathon of the Jurassic Park movies. I had all of them saved in my playlist on the tv. I started with the first one for tonight and figured that I could watch the rest tomorrow while I study.

The movie was just starting when I got a text from Aries and one from Zeus.

Aries- Hey baby just wanted to let you know that we are back at the club house. Gonna hang here for a little bit before we go home. But don’t worry our house is on the club property. Most of us have houses behind the club so that were safe behind the gate.

Me- Im glade that you made it back ok. Have fun, thank you for tonight. I really do appreciate you sending help for me. Im also so glade that I got to meet you in person. Gotta say I'm definitely feeling like a lucky girl.

Zeus- Hey babe we made it back to the club house. Gonna hang out with our parents for awhile before calling it a night. Miss you already.

Me- Hey, I'm glade that you made it back ok. I miss you both also. Thank you for tonight. Have fun, and tell your parents thank you again for the help.

Aries- Your welcome babe anytime. If you need to go somewhere this weekend let me know and we'll come take you. And I'm glade that we got to meet you as well. And babe, come-on have you seen yourself. We're the lucky ones. Im gonna play a game of pool with my dads. Ill text you back in a few and if I don't then know that I'm just hanging with mine and Zeus' parents and him. And Incase I don't text back goodnight baby sweet dreams and I'll text you in the morning.

Me- Im not planning on going anywhere but I'll text if I need to. I heard what you said tonight. I know that you've not been with a woman in awhile. I trust you both. Im gonna curl up in our home theater with my snacks and orange cream sickle slushy and watch Jurassic Park. Have fun playing pool and I'll talk to you tomorrow. Good night sexy man.

Zeus- Your welcome babe and our dads said the same thing. Our moms really liked you and cant wait to get to know you better. I just seen your text to Aries. How are you drinking orange cream sickle slushy? You didn't have one in your car. And you and I should have a movie date I love the Jurassic Park movies.

Me- Sounds like a plan to me, I do as well. Im gonna have a marathon of them. Im watching the first one tonight and the rest over the weekend while I study. I liked both of you moms as well and all of your dads. And I have an orange cream sickly slushy because we have a slushy machine in the theater room. It's turned off most of the time except for my orange its always on. Nonna keeps it stocked for me because its all I usually drink. I love it.

Zeus- So your saying that we need to invest in a slushy machine, gotcha. I think that we can handle that. Well get one for our house and make Dom get one for his house. Tat way no matter where were staying at you have it to drink. When we get to that point anyways.

Me- Awesome, keep me stocked in orange cream sickle slushy and my favorite snacks and you'll be my favorite person forever. lol. But you guys don't have to buy a slushy machine just for me. I can drink other stuff. And I'm sure that I'll be hanging out at your houses as we get to know each other.

Zeus- Id love to be your favorite. It's no problem at all honestly. We can afford it and you are well worth it. If it makes you happy then its worth it in my book. Ill set it up right in the kitchen on the counter and make sure no one but you uses it. And I'm ready for those days. Have you come over and hang out. We have a big Olympic sized swimming pool here at the compound. Plus we have a smaller pool for the little kids. We'll have to take you swimming one day.

Me- Definitely the favorite lol. Haha yeah after I get my tattoo finished and it heals up. I don't show my body off. Im always covered up just so you know. But I do love to go swimming. I just usually swim at home.

Zeus- So your saying that you wear a one piece. I can get down with that but I'd prefer to see you in a bikini. lol. Im just joking wear what your comfortable in but your sexy as fuck, just so you know. And if you don't want to swim here, we'll take you to Dom's. He's got a huge assed pool. I usually go over there and myself just to get piece. Weather he's there or not.

Me-Lol, perve, jk. I do own two piece bikinis and usually wear them at home. I use the one pieces that cover me when I swim elsewhere which isn't very often. I may go swimming tomorrow. Its supposed to be hot.

Zeus- Damn I may have to drop by. lol. And I'm not a perve your the only girl I want to see that way. I don't even notice other girls and haven't in a long time. It's the same for the guys as well. Damn, I gotta go. Aries just won his game now I'm up against him and his dad with one of my dads. Ill talk to you tomorrow babe. Aries said good night. Good night beautiful, sweet dreams. (Pic of Zeus and Aries)

Me- Aww your two are so fucking sexy. Im glade that it was me that got all of your attention. I've never wanted to date or even been interested in dating until now. I cant wait to see where this goes. Have fun both of you. Good night, stud. (Picture of me with my slushy)

I got back texts from both of them that were drooling faces. The pic that they sent me was of them beside the pool table with their one arms behind each other.

The one that I sent was of me curled up in my chair with my wet hair in a bun. I was wearing booty shorts and a tank top. And I had my slushy in my hand.

I missed part of my movie because I was texting with the guys and wasn't paying attention to it. So I restarted it over.

I missed my other guys but knew that Dom and Marcello wouldn't be texting me until morning because it was about a twelve hour flight. I couldn't wait to hear from them so that id know if they made it ok or not. I really hope that they do.

I was half way through my movie when Nonna came in. She fixed her a cup of Slushy and plopped down beside me. Her hair was wet and she was in her pajamas so I figured that shed been home for a little bit.

“Hey amorina, how was your evening. Did you have fun at the clubhouse and did they catch those guys?” shes asked me.

“Hey Nonna, yeah I had a blast. I got to meet all of Aries and Zeus’ parents.

They’re all really nice. I also got to meet the VP Stone and his ole lady Blondie her actual name is Piper. She works at the dollar store that’s close to hear. It was a good evening. They didn’t catch those guys though. When they went to grab them they got away from them. Their going to keep looking for them though” I said.

“Enzo put a more advanced camera system into the dinner recently. There are cameras that no one knows about. I checked them out and found the guys that were following you. I sent the screen shots to Zain. He’s looking into it and going to find out who they are. They stayed out of sight of the cameras for awhile. At first it was just one of them but after you pulled in he made a call and the others showed up. They waited until you left and then followed behind you. I’ve not been able to get ahold of Enzo to asked about the tracker thing.”

“Yeah Nicco said the same thing but said that Enzo was supposed to be at the club tonight so he’d asked him then. As for knowing who they are I know the one guy. He’s the creep from the coffee shop who wouldn’t leave me alone when I met Dom the first time. That wasn’t the first time that he’s harassed me either. I’ve been feeling like I was being watched but wasn’t able to see anyone. But with Dom and Marcello taking me to school and picking me up I kinda forgot about it.”

“Ill let your uncle know this information. He maybe able to find out who the other two guys are. Until they are found though and this is figured out, no gong out alone. If Nicco cant go with you then take one of the guards with you.”

“I will Nonna, I already told Aries and Zeus that id call them if I needed to go somewhere this weekend. I don’t plan on it yet. And I’m sure that once Dom and Marcello talk to Aries or Zeus they’ll send guards over to protect me also. Dom wanted guys on me while he was gone and I said not. So I’m sure I’ll get told I told you so from him” I said with a laugh.

“Those guys all worry about you. They are all such good friends and close to, very close” Nonna said while giving me the I know look.

So I tried to act innocent “What do you mean Nonna?” “You know what I mean. Dom hides it very well, and I mean very well. His parents and his family don’t know but I do. He’s been in a relationship with those three guys for a few years now. Hell the last woman I seen him with was that viper years ago. He came home to find her in bed with another guy. He also found out that she was put on him by the cops. He was so upset because he was ready to propose to her. I’ve seen the way that he looks at the three guys when no ones looking. He loves them but I can tell that he’s scared.”

“He is scared, he’s afraid to tell his parents. Which I don’t understand because they love him and they wouldn’t care. Hell, look at Chris and Ren, their gay and they don’t treat them any differently. I don’t think that they would with him either but I don’t know them that well yet. He’s also afraid to get close to women because of what that woman did to him. I guess he told Marcello that he wants to try with me because he feels like I’m different and important to them.”

“You know I think that you will all be good for each other. I mean you actually spent time out of the house tonight. I know its partly because of those guys following you. But its also because of those guys. I’ve seen you look down at you phone more than once this week and smile really big. I like seeing it. And if they make you happy I say go for it. You Nonno would’ve said the same thing.”

“Thanks Nonna, and I’m gonna try. The guys have all told me that if Dom cant find it to give this a try then they want me. They want to be with him as well but their all ready to settle down and get married and start a family. I know I’ll catch hell and be called names for being with four guys at once but I want this. They make me happy.”

“The go for it. Take the bull by the horns as they say. Just make sure that this is what you want and that you’ll be happy. But no grandbabies before you graduate” Nonna laughed.

“Haha, I’m already on top of that. I’ve told all of the guys and Aries and Zeus’ moms that I want having kids until after I graduate. Im good with getting married before then but no babies until after. I’ve worked to hard to get this far.”

“Yes you have and I’m so proud of you. Now I’m heading to bed. I have to go in to the dinner for a little bit tomorrow but will you be home Sunday?” shes asked.

“Yeah, I’ll be home all weekend. Im not going anywhere.”

Chapter 23 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After Nonna headed back upstairs I went back to watching my movie. I really hope that they find the guys who are following me.

I don’t want to be stuck in the house all summer or have to be followed around all the time. I like my freedom the way that it’s always been.

Having this boot on and having to be driven to school last week was hard in a way. Don’t get me wrong I loved getting to spend time with Dom and Marcello. But I’m use to my independence and like to drive myself.

But if I’m going to be dating four men soon then I better get use to not always driving myself. Or being alone most of the time.

Since Nonna took me in when I was five I have been little miss independent. And I'm still that way. I go most places alone and I usually spend most of my time alone.

So this will be a new experience for me. But one that I'm happy to make work. I can't wait to get to know the guys better.

I finished watching the first Jurassic Park movie. I didn't eat much of my snacks so when the movie was over, I put the bag of snacks on my scooter handle.

I cleaned up around me and put my cup in my basket. I threw what trash I had away and then refilled my cup. When I was done I turned the lights off and made sure that the tv was off. Then I headed up stairs.

When I got to my room I put my cup on my nightstand and put my snacks away. When I got into bed I took my boot off and put my phone on charge and then curled up for the night.

It had been a long day and I was exhausted. It didn't take long and I was out. I figured that I'd end up having nightmares all night but I actually slept really well.

The next morning I slept in until nine. When I got up I put my boot on and then went to the bathroom. After using the bathroom I washed my hands and then brushed my teeth and hair.

I pulled my hair up into a messy bun on my head and went back into my room. I wheeled over to get a hoodie and my phone, so that I could head downstairs.

I put my hoodie on and then put my phone in my hoodie pocket. I grabbed my cup from last night and put it in the basket. When I was ready I headed for the elevator to go downstairs.

Surprisingly when I got to the kitchen it was empty. There was food fixed though so I knew that Nonna had been up already. And she made breakfast recently because it was still warm.

I fixed me a plate and sat it down then fixed me a cup of coffee. After I had a cup of the nectar of the gods, I wheeled over and sat down to eat.

As I was eating I pulled my phone out to check my messages. I had new ones from all of the guys. And Dom and Marcello wasn't happy.

Dom- Hey Amore, we just landed in Italy. We got your messages. I also got messages from Aries and Zeus. Are you ok? I knew that I should've left a guard and driver with you while we were gone. I hear that you got to meet Aries and Zeus and some of the club brothers. Our guys were happy to meet you face to face finally just not under those circumstances.

They've not found the guys yet but I have my men looking as well. I miss you already. Text me when you get up.

Me- Good morning Bellissimo. I am alright I promise and NO I told you so's. I was just fine and I wouldn't have even texted for help if it wasn't for my ankle. I didn't want to fuck it up even more. Normally I can handle shit like that myself. But on the bright side I did get to meet Aries and Zeus and their parents. Why didn't you tell me they were so damn sexy in person? Im going to try to go hang out with them again next weekend. I gotta study for my exams that I have next week, this weekend. I miss you as well.

Marcello- Good morning Amore, I miss you like crazy. Wish I was still at home with you instead of with the grumpy ass. I heard about what happened. Don't worry our men will keep you safe. We all will, your ours now and we protect what's ours. The guys at the club are looking for them and so is our guys. We'll get them, don't worry. On the plus side the guys were happy that they finally got to meet you. Message me when you get up.

Me- Good morning Bello, I miss you to. I wish you were here also but the walking tree needs you lol. You'll be home in no time, two weeks isn't that long. Im not worried I know that I'm safe. Like I told Dom I wouldn't have even text for help if it wasn't for my ankle. I don't want to fuck it up anymore. Im happy that I finally met them as well. Im one lucky girl to have four sexy as fuck guys wanting to be with me.

Aries- Good morning my beautiful girl. How did you sleep last night? Are you ok today, do you need anything? We have some club business to take care of today. But if your not busy tonight, we'd love to take you out to diner. We want to spend more time with you beautiful. Let me know later, I hope you have a good day.

Me - Good morning my sexy man. I actually slept really well last night, thank you. I figured that id have nightmares but I didn't, thankfully. I don't need anything but thank you for asking. I plan to stay home and study today. But I would love to go out with you both tonight. Be careful doing whatever it is that your doing today. I hope you have a good day, text me later. Muah.

Zeus- Good morning my beautiful little pixie. How are you feeling today? Did you sleep ok? I hope so, you should've stayed with us last night so that i could've made sure that you didn't have any nightmares. I got some stuff to do with the club today but Aries an I want to take you out tonight if your not busy. Would you go on a dinner date with us? If your not to busy that is. I know that you have studying to do. Let me know later Pixie. Have a good day and think of me a lot because I'll be thinking of you.

Me- Good morning Stud, Im feeling just fine today. I even slept fine last night, no nightmares. Aries said you had club stuff to do today. I gotta get some studying done. But I will gladly go out with you tonight. Just let me know what time to be ready by. You have a good day also and be careful. And I've been thinking of all of you all the time.

By the time I finished texting the guys all back I was done with my breakfast. The only text that I got back was one from Aries that just said six. I guess that's what time that I gotta be ready tonight.

After I got done eating I got up and wheeled over to put my plate in the dish washer. As I grabbed my cup to get me another cup of coffee Nonna came into the kitchen.

"Good morning Nonna, thank you for breakfast it was delicious as always" I said.

"Good morning Amorina, how are you feeling this morning? And you are welcome, I didn't figure that you would want to cook and you need to eat real food."

"Your right I didn't want to cook this morning. I probably would've just had toast. I feel ok this morning, I'm still in pain but I did get some sleep. Thankfully without nightmares. I figured for sure that after yesterday I'd end up having them, but I didn't."

"That's good, I'm glade that you didn't as well. That had me worried. I figured for sure that you would have them. If your still in pain then you make sure that you are taking your pain meds. If you don't want the heavy stuff that the doctor gave you then take the morning that Dec had picked up for you. It will help better than not having anything at all. What are your plans for today? Are you going anywhere or just staying at home?"

"Just staying home until tonight. I've got studying to do so I'm going to grab my books and camp out in the theater room. At six tonight Aries and Zeus are picking me up for a date. And ill take some Motrin today. I don't want the heavy stuff until bed time. What are you doing today?"

"Ohh well have fun and let me know when you leave. Nicco will be home in a little bit and he's going to hang out here today for a little bit. I have to go check in at the dinner and then go meet Zain at the hotel at his office there. He may have to go out of town for a meeting and if he does then Nicco and I have to go with him. It has to do with your Nonno. Im not what its about yet though. That's all that Zain would tell me on the phone. If we do have to go then we'll need extra guards on you until we get back. I don't like the thought of leaving you alone."

"I wonder what its about, but if you do have to go I'll be fine. Ill start carrying my piece on me. I have that small Beretta Tomcat and I've got the holster where i can wear it at my lower back and no one will see it. With the hoodies that I always wear no one will know. Ill be fine if you have to go. And if it will make you feel better then ill ask Aries and Zeus if they'll drive me back and forth to school. I only really have a few days this week. But I gotta go most of is so that I can finish up my final painting for art class."

"You carrying your gun would work but I'd feel better with you having guards as well. Actually I'd really feel better if you stayed at the club with Aries and Zeus. I know that they would protect you and so would all of the guys at the club. Your Nonno trusted them and I do as well. Ill let you know for sure if we gotta go somewhere later."

“Ill talk to them and see what they say. Im sure that they’d be all for it though because Zeus wanted me with him last night.”

“Im sure he did after what you went through yesterday. Im sure that they both did. I can imagine how Dom and Marcello felt when they found out what happened. When a man, or men in this case, find the woman that they are meant to be with. They want to protect her from the start. When you find your soulmate, the other half or halves of your soul then you know when its right and want to be together always. That’s how your Nonno and I were from the very first moment we met. They look at you the way he looked at me, like you hung the sun, stars, moon and sky. Now I gotta head out. Ill let you know later what’s going on.”

Chapter 24 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After Nonna left I finished the cup of coffee that I had and put my cup into the dishwasher. There wasn’t much coffee left in the pot so I shut it off and dumped it out. After I washed the pot and basket up I headed upstairs.

When I got to my room I grabbed my bookbag and laptop bags and a bag of snacks. And then headed back downstairs. When I got to the theater room I put my bags down and got me a cup of my slushy.

Then I wheeled over to my seat and got comfortable. Once I was settled in I grabbed the remote and put Jurassic Park: The Lost World on. Once it was on I got my books out and started to study.

Before I got to busy studying I set an alarm on my phone for four o’clock so that I had plenty of time to get a shower and get ready. Then I sent a text to Aries really fast.

Me- Hey sexy man when you get a minute can you call me. I need to talk to you about something. No hurry, just when your not busy.

After I texted him I got back to studying. I had been studying for over two hours now. The credits for the movie were playing.

I heard a noise and looked up as Nicco came into the room. “What’s up, what you doing and what are you watching?” He asked me.

“Im studying and watching, well listening to the Jurassic Park movies. What are you doing?” I asked him back.

“Nothing I just came back home from the office. Mom asked me to come sit here with you for awhile. She said that she told you what was going on. At least what she knows. We may have to head out, her and Zane are trying to decide that now. I figured Id see what you were doing and then go pack a bag just in case.”

“Yeah Nonna told me before she left. I told her I’d talk to Aries and Zeus and see what they had to say about me maybe staying at the club or at their house with them. Their house is on club property so its just right behind the clubhouse. I texted Aries I’m just waiting to hear back from him now.”

“Ok, just let me know what he says and I’ll let you know what were doing as soon as I know. Im gonna go pack and I’ll be back down when I’m done.”

“Ok I’ll be here.” After Nicco left the room I put the next movie on and then went back to studying. I hadn’t been studying long when my phone rang.

“Hello” I said. “Hey baby its me. Sorry it took awhile to call ya, this is the first chance that I’ve had.”

“Its ok, I know that you said you had stuff to do today that why I said when you had the chance.”

“What’s going on, what did you need to talk to me about? Your not backing out of tonight are you?”

“No way in hell am I backing out of going tonight. No, my Nonna, Nicco and Uncle Zain all may have to leave town for a couple of days. Ill for sure later if they have to. Nonna wanted to see if you or Zane would either take me to school and pick me up. Or have me just stay with you so that she knows that I’m safe. Shes worried about leaving me here alone.”

“Yeah your not staying there alone. If they have to leave then pack a bag and when we pick you up for our date tonight, you’ll come back to our house. Id rather have you at our house where I know that your safe instead of at your house where your alone. We have an extra room that you can even have. Unless you’d rather share our bed, that’s up to you. How long will they be gone?” he asked me.

“I don’t know right now. All Nonna said this morning was that they may have to go out of town. Something came up and her and Uncle Zain are still trying to figure it all out I guess. Nicco came back here to keep me company but he went up to pack a bag just in case.”

“Ok well if they tell you before we are set to pick you up then go ahead and pack a bag. Make sure that you have everything that you need and after the date we’ll bring you back home. When you know what’s going on just shoot me a text and let me know.”

“Ok I will but I don’t know what the big deal is. I’ve stayed alone before by myself. I have my Beretta Tomcat and I’m going to keep it on me while there gone I should be fine.”

“Should be but may not be. Look I understand being independent but your injured right now and you have not only your dick headed dad and bitch of a mom on you. But now you have a stocker as well. Im not taking any chances. We just got you I'm not loosing you. You can carry your gun while your at school if you want to but I'm going to have a couple prospects watching over you as well. But your staying here if they leave, ok."

"Ok, Ill study some more and then pack up some shit just in case. Ill let you know for sure in a little while whats going on though."

"Ok baby just shoot me a text. I gotta get back to it, but I'll see you soon. Later baby."

"Ok I will. Bye my sexy man." After I hung up with Aries I went back to studying. At one point Nicco came back into the room but I was busy studying and he was on his phone texting.

I just kept my nose in my books. The third movie was almost done and my cup was empty and I had to pee really bad. We had a bathroom right beside the theater room, so I went to the bathroom.

When I was done I washed my hands and then wheeled back into the theater room. I grabbed my cup and filled it back up then went back to my seat. Nicco wasn't in the room so I figured he wondered off to do something else.

After I sat down I went back to studying and snaking on my chips that I had. I was getting hungry and knew that I would have to stop soon to go find lunch.

I figured it could wait a little while though. So I went back to the books. After the movie was done I started the next one and went back to studying.

I loved the Jurassic Park movies and would have to watch them again when I wasn't studying. I wasn't able to pay attention to them right now. They were just on as background noise. I seemed to study better when I had music or the tv playing in the background.

It was about fifteen minutes later when Nicco came back in the room. He yelled out "Break time, its time to stop and eat. I ordered pizza and shit while I was up stairs packing and just went to get it. I tried to tell you but you were way into your books there."

"Awesome, I'm starving, I was just thinking that id have to take a break and go get food soon. What all did you get? And I'm studying a lot because I have a date tonight. So I wont be able to study past four."

"Yeah I heard, mom told us that you had a date tonight. And I got two pizzas one for you and one for me. I also grabbed cheese stick, fries, broccoli cheese bits, onion rings, and mushroom bites. Im starving, I've not had much to eat since yesterday. Mom made us plates of food and brought to us for breakfast this morning but it wasn't enough. And if we have to leave later then I'm not going to get much chance to eat. The food on the planes not bad but I'm not crazy about it."

“Yeah that’s all microwaved food, not home cooked food. Your spoiled that’s why you don’t like it. Its not bad food, well most of its not bad food. This is good though thanks for picking it up. And yeah Aries and Zeus asked me this morning to go out with them tonight. After Nonna said that you all might have to go out of town, she told me to talk to the guys. She wanted them to drive me back and forth to work. But Aries is insisting that I stay with them while your all gone. He’s even going to put two prospects on me at school he said.”

“Good at least I know that they’ll protect you already. And that their worried about you safety like we are. I think all four of those guys like you.”

“Which one are you going to pick? And how the hell do you pick between them?” he asked me.

“Who said that I have to pick just one. What if I want them all?” I asked him.

He gave a look that said yeah fucking right. “Do you really think that four powerful, very powerful men will want to just share you? No they will fight over you and want you to themselves.”

“Yeah no they wont, there will be no fighting at all. And I do think that they will share me. Do you want to know why that is?” I asked him.

“Whys that?” “Stop and think about it for a minute. You’ve seen how Dom and Marcello are together. Im sure you’ve seen Aries and Zeus together. Have you seen them all together and how they are with each other?” I asked him.

He sat and thought about it for a few minutes and then his eyeballs got really huge. “No are you saying that their all together. Like together together.”

“Im not saying anything because its not my story to tell. But lets say that hypothetically speaking, they are together. And one of them is afraid of what his family would say because of who he is. But the others’ family’s know about them. And that same one that’s afraid to tell his family is also afraid of getting hurt by another woman again. But is willing to attempt to try. Then yeah they would be willing to share a woman and have a happy family.”

He thought about what I said for a few and then said “I wont say anything. My lips are sealed, but the one that’s afraid. He’s got no reason to. His family wouldn’t care, I mean look who’s in his family. They would love him just the same.”

“I agree but he’s got to figure that out on his own and soon. Because if this works I wont be a dirty secret and I will be able to be with all my men openly. I wont hid the relationship because that’s not a relationship at all. I want a forever not a right at this moment. I have a feeling that my forever is with them all” I said.

“If that’s what makes you happy then I say go for it. Hell come around soon. Just give him time. When he realizes what he’s got to loose hell talk to his family. Shit I gotta take this its Zain” Nicco said as his phone started ringing.

He walked out of the room to take his call and I finished eating my food. When I was done I cleaned my hands off and then went back to the books.

I had just started back to studying when Nicco came in and said “Looks like were leaving tonight. Moms on her way home to get packed up and the jets being prepared for take off. Im going to get this shit cleaned up and then go make sure im all packed up.”

“Ok I’ll get this stuff packed up and go pack my bags to stay with Aries and Zeus. Do you know how long you’ll be gone?”

Chapter 25 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After I had all of my books packed back up I went over to the slushy machine and got me another cup. I had turned it off earlier in case I ended up having to leave. I didn’t want to leave it on.

There wasn’t much left in it so I dug around in the cupboard and found one of my big cups and filled it up. There wasn’t much left so I texted Nicco and he said that he’d come get it when he was done.

I hated having to waste it and was glade that he was going to drink what was left. With that done I grabbed up all of my stuff and put my cups in my basket and headed for the elevators.

When I finally made it to my room I set a text to Aries.

Me-Hey just wanted to let you know that Nonna and the guys are leaving tonight. Im getting my stuff packed up now. So I’ll be ready when you come to pick my up. See you in a little while my sexy man.

With that done I put my book bag and laptop on my bed and made sure that I had everything that id need for school in them. With that done I set them by the door and then wheeled into the closet to get my clothes packed.

I got my big wheely suitcase out and wheeled it to my bed. After I got it opened up and situated I went back to my closet.

I made sure that I got enough pants, shorts, and leggings to last a week. As well as shirts, tank tops, spaghetti strapped shirts, and crop top hoodies.

I wheeled out to my bed and tossed those clothes down and then folded them up and put them in the suitcase. Once they were all in there I wheeled back into the closet go get bras and underwear. I grabbed enough for the week plus extra ones. I also got night clothes.

I folded it all up and put them in my bag and then tried to think of what else that I needed. I knew I'd need toiletries so I went to the bathroom and packed up what I would need from in there.

I always keep new bottles of everything in my linen closet that's is the bathroom. So I grabbed my smaller bag and got my shampoo, conditioner, body wash, a new puffy, toothbrush and paste, floss, lotion, and raisers.

I put it all in the bag and then got my makeup into my makeup bag and added it and my hairbrush with plenty of extra scrunchies.

Once I had It all zipped up I wheeled back out to the bedroom and put in on the bed. I tried to think of anything else that id need for the week.

I grabbed my charging cables for my phone and tablet plus my tablet. I also packed up my travel bag of drawing stuff.

Yes I have a travel bag of art shit. Its a small bookbag with drawing pads, colored pencils, crayons, makers, pencils and erasers in it.

When I had everything packed and by the door I made another loop through the room to make sure that I didn't forget anything.

When I was done I looked at the time. It was almost five. So I grabbed my clothes for tonight and went to shower.

The guys didn't say where we were going. And since I cant ride on their bikes yet I imagine that they'll bring a car to get me.

I grabbed a black dress that came down to my knees. The front of it came up and covered my chest and hooked around my neck. There was no back to it.

I paired it with a pair of flats and when I went to grab my shoe since I can only wear one. I remembered that I forgot to pack shoes. So I grabbed what I would need for the week and sat them by my bags.

After taking a shower I wrapped the towel around me and blow dried my hair and then took my curling iron and put some curls back into it. I added a little bit of make up and then got dressed.

When I was done I wheeled out to my room and grabbed my phone. I had a text from Zeus on there.

Zeus- Hey babe, Aries wanted me to let you know that we'll be there shortly. We had a meeting that ran over and we're heading back to the house to get showers and grab our truck and then we'll be headed your way. I'll send you a text when we get ready to head your way. We'll get you loaded up and then after our date we just go straight home. Do you have everything packed up yet?

Me- Hey Stud, ok just let me know when your coming, take your time. Yeah I think I have everything that I need packed up. I've got all of my clothes and stuff as well as my school stuff all packed up. Plus I got a shower and got ready to go on our date tonight. Im going to get Nicco to help me get everything downstairs and then I'll be ready to go with you guys.

Zeus- Ok babe, well we just got back to the house. Gonna grab a shower real quick and then well be headed your way. We let Dom and Marcello know what was going on but I guess that they already knew. They said to tell you that they'll call you tonight. Ill text back in a minute after I get a shower babe.

Me- Ok.

Me to Nicco- Hey when you get a minute can you help me take my stuff downstairs. I don't think that I can get it all down there by myself.

Nicco- Be right there.

I was sitting on the side of the bed while I was texting with Zeus. I got up and opened up my door to wait on Nicco and was looking around to make sure that I didn't miss anything.

Nicco came in while I was making another pass around the room making sure that I had everything. "Hey do you have everything that you need?" he asked me.

"I think so but I'm just double checking to make sure. I have my big suit case, my smaller one and my bags with my school stuff in it. Plus my purse I don't think that there's anything else that I need."

"Ok I'll take this stuff to the kitchen and sit it by the door. Mom just got home and shes getting her stuff packed up now."

"Ok I'll meet you downstairs. Im just gonna double check and then grab my school bags. If you'll take the two suit cases then I'll take them."

"I can do that, I'll meet you down there."

After Nicco went out of the room with my bags I double checked everything. I went to my closet to my hiding spot and got my Beretta Tomcat out and locked my safe back. I stuck it in my purse and stuck the clip in a side pocket.

Its never loaded especially when I'm carrying it in my purse. After I turn the closet light off and shut the door I double check that I have everything from the bathroom and then turn the lights off.

I went over to my snack cupboard and got out any snacks that wouldn't last long and put them in my tote bags. I checked my little refrigerator as well and did the same thing.

Once I was done I got all of the bags on my back and shut off my lights and then locked my door and headed for the elevator. When I got down stairs I headed to the kitchen.

Nicco was in there but Nonna wasn't yet. I went over to where my bags we at and sat the rest down. When I was done i went over to sit down at the island.

My phone beeped so I looked down and seen that it was Aries texting me to tell me that they were on their way.

"Hey I forgot to tell ya that you look pretty. Do you know where your going yet?" Nicco asked me.

"Not yet, they didn't say, but its probably either Nonna's dinner or that fancy restaurant over on the other side of town. Not really sure though. Do you know how long that you will be gone yet?" I asked him.

"Not yet but we'll be checking in on you. The girls at the dinner know that your in charge while I'm gone and to get ahold of you if something happens. If you need me just call or text but I know that you can handle it. I have all of the paper work for the week done but you may need to stop in on Wednesday to check things out and catch it up again. Heres a key to my office. I know you can handle it you have before. I called the household staff and gave them the next week off and the guards know that no one but you should be coming here. Lets see what else is there? Oh yeah you need to double check that your studio is locked up and everything's off."

"Ok Nonna I'll go check it and I'll stop into the dinner a couple times this week to make sure that everything is going ok. Ill even get all of the paperwork done. Everything here is good to go. I have it all handled. Now I'll go check out my studio. Everything in my room as well as in the theater room is shut off including the slushy machine" I said.

I grabbed my keys out of my purse and then wheeled out of the door. After I got out back I wheeled to my studio.

When I got there I unlocked the door and went in. I double checked that everything was good to go and made sure that there wasn't anything that I needed from there.

I checked the last picture that I did and made sure it was dry before I put it up. I was about done checking everything when there was a knock at the door.

I wheeled over to see who it was and seen that it was Zeus. I yelled out “Be right there” and then went back to making sure that everything was locked up tight.

Once everything was done I wheeled to the door and went out of it. “Hey Stud, when did you get here?” I asked him.

“Just now Nicco said that you were back here. So I said that id come get you. Him and Aries are loading up your stuff in out truck. What are you doing?”

“Just making sure that everything in my studio is shut off. Its all good so I just need to lock the door then we can head back to the house” I said.

“Ok babe.” I made sure that I had my keys in my hand and then locked up the door. We then headed back to the house so that we could get ready to go.

When we got to the house Aries and Nicco already had all of my stuff loaded up. They were standing in the kitchen talking to Nonna.

“Ok Amorina, do you have everything that you need? Did you let Chris and Ren know what was going on and where you’d be at Incase they tried to get ahold of you?”

“I think that I have everything and Chris and Ren are at a tattoo expo thing this weekend and said that they’d be unavailable. Ill call them later and leave a message so that they know what’s going on. Do you have everything that your going to need?” I asked her.

“Yes we have everything and if we don’t I’ll just buy whatever we need. Zane will be here in a few and then were heading to the airport. If you need us call me or text me. I love you” Nonna said.
