

Chapter 26 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After we left from the house I wheeled out to the guys' truck. Zeus opened up the front passenger door and put my purse and my cup up in the truck. He then helped me in.

As he was getting me in the truck Aries grabbed my scooter to put it into the back. The had the console in the middle up so I scooted into the middle seat.

Once I was situated Zeus hopped up in the truck and then soon after Aries did as well. Aries started the truck up and turned it around to head down the driveway.

"You look so beautiful tonight baby" Aries said to me. "Thank you, you both look sexy as hell. Where are we going?" I asked him.

They were both wearing a nice pair of jeans and a t-shirt in different colors and cowboy boots. Aries was wearing a black shirt and Zeus had on a blue one. Plus their cuts. I was so damn lucky.

"Were taking you to that new Italian place that Dom opened up. We've been there a few times with him and the food is amazing. I called him earlier and he called the manager and made sure that we had reservations. All we ever have to do is show up but I prefer to call ahead" Aries said.

"Oh i've been wanting to go there but the wait list is super long. The chef there is supposed to be a really good one. I didn't know that was one of Dom's places though. I cant wait."

"Yeah he's really good and the food is amazing. You'll love it. And yeah Dom decided to venture out into the restaurant business a few years ago. This is the fifth or sixth one, he's opened I think."

"We had planned to take you to dinner and then a movie. But since your coming home with us, how about we do a movie at home. I looked it up earlier and there's not any good movies playing at the theater right now. Instead we can take you home and get you settled and then curl up and watch a movie" Zeus said.

"That sounds good to me, I don't really like watching movies at the theater. Id rather curl up in bed or on the couch to watch a movie. Although the theater we have at the house I use a lot. And my chair of choice is my recliner."

"Hey we can curl up in our big bed and watch movies if you want to" Zeus said with a saucy wink.

"Ignore him he's been dropped on the head way to many times. I mean our bed is huge and really comfortable but we have a big sectional couch that's just as comfy" Aries said.

I was laughing my ass off at them when I said “Either will work for me. But if we’re just going to hang out and watch movies then I’m out of this dress. Id rather be in shorts and a tank top.”

“We can do that, for sure” Zeus said. We laughed all the way to the restaurant. When we got there Aries pulled into a private parking spot and parked.

When they got out Zeus helped me and Aries got my scooter. After I was settled on it Zeus shut the door of the truck. Each one of the guys got on either side of me and put their hands on my back and helped me wheel to the door.

When we got inside the waitress was a snobby bitch. “You cant bring that thing in here. So you’ll need to leave I’m sure you couldn’t afford to eat here anyways. But you gentleman can stay” she said in a flirty voice.

“Yeah I don’t fucking think so. One, stop flirting with us right fucking now” Zeus growled.

“And two, unless you want to get fired, id change your attitude around real fucking quick. We, as in all three of us, have a reservation under the name of Kingsley, Gaven Kingsley. Our wife is included on that reservation. And you’ll find that when you check it because Mr. Lombardi called the manager and made the reservation for us himself” Aries growled.

That was sexy as hell. When he said what his name was and name dropped Dom’s name the bitch got really pale and then looked down at her book.

“I am so sorry, please follow me to your table. It’s right this way.”

We followed her to our table and once we were sitting Zeus looked at her and said “Id like to speak to the manager, now.”

“She squeaked out “Ok” and took off. I watched her scurry away from our table and towards the back of the restaurant.

When I looked back to the guys Aries had his phone out texting on it. His fingers was moving really fast.

“Who are you texting?” Zeus asked him. “Who the fuck do you think? Im letting Dom know what that bitch did. No one disrespects our girl and gets away with it, ever” Aries growls.

“Guys I’m use to it I’ve dealt with petty bitches like her before. I can deal with them. I wasn’t going to let her try to kick me out and was about to tell her off myself. But, your wife comment left me a little discombobulated. When did we get married? I seem to be missing those memories. There ones that I’d like to have. I bet that it was a beautiful wedding and that you both looked sexy as hell in the tuxedos that you wore” I said with an innocent face.

They both looked panicked at that. “Tuxedos” they both said at the same time. And I busted out laughing. They both looked much calmer after that.

“Don’t worry, I’d never make you wear a tux. Dress pants and a nice button up shirt maybe” I giggled. “Honestly though If I ever get married I could care less if the guy wore blue jeans and a t-shirt. I don’t plan to wear some big puffy dress. Its not my style.”

“Well I’m glade to hear that. Its nice to know that when we all get married I can wear blue jeans and my cut” Zain said and winked at me.

“No doubt, I couldn’t wear a tux. I mean if you really wanted it I would. But the instant our vows were done I’d be like Houdini and out of it, and back into my pants and cut” Aries said.

I was giggling like crazy when a man walked up to out table. He was bald and not very nice looking. He had a really mean look on his face, and was giving me dirty looks. I had a feeling something was going on because he looked back at the hostess as he walked up and winked at her and she smiled.

“Gentlemen, I heard that there was a problem at the door. Can I ask what that was?” he asked them. He didn’t even acknowledge that I was sitting there.

“First of all you don’t just ignore our wife like she’s not even right there. And secondly, that fucking hostess was rude and didn’t want to let her in here because she has to use a knee scooter for an injury” Aries said.

“Sir it is our policy not to let things like this in here. It doesn’t make the restaurant look very good and we loose business because of it. The owner himself would kick her out if he were here” he sneered.

“Ok, our wife is not a this you fuckwad. Shes an amazing person who just so happens to be hurt. And I happen to know that the owner himself fucking called and made our reservations for all three of us. So no he wouldn’t kick her the fuck out. He would be right here with us” Zeus said with a pissed off tone.

“Nice try, I’ve not spoken to the owner today and I happen to know that he’s out of town. Im sure that he doesn’t hang out with people like you” He said as he looked down his nose at all of us.

“Yeah he did call and make our reservation. I don’t know who he talked to but my fucking name was on the reservation book. He knows that we were coming here tonight. How about I call him and find out right now” Aries said.

He reached down and picked his phone up off of the table. By now both him and Zeus was standing and Zeus was in a protective stance in front of me.

As Aries started calling Dom I looked over to the door where the hostess was. She was looking down at her phone and I didn't have a good feeling from it.

She looked up with a big smile on her face and looked out the door. I looked from her to the door and my stomach dropped. There coming through the door was the perfect twins.

Apparently miss hoity toity was friends with them from the way that they were hugging. I took my hand and put it on Zeus' back and leaned forward some so that they couldn't see me.

Zeus looked down at me and I motioned to the door. He looked over at it and I whispered to him "That's my sisters the twin bitches."

He nodded so that I knew he heard me. He kept an eye on them while Aries got Dom on the phone.

The phone rang a few times before a Dom answered the phone. "Aries, sorry it took a minute to answer the phone I was in the shower. Im surprised to hear from you. I figured that you guys would be out with our beautiful River."

"Hey Dom, sorry to bother you. We actually are out with River but we got a problem. A couple of them actually. First is that your hostess here at the Italian restaurant is a bitch that didn't want to let our wife in. We thought that it was because of the scooter. Now seeing who just walked in the door I'm inclined to believe otherwise. When I asked to talk to the manager, he came out here and started to be a fucking asshole. Said that its your policy not to let things like this, he was talking about River, in here. And that if you were here you'd through her out yourself."

"He also said that you'd never hang out with the likes of us. And that he hadn't talked to you today and New that you were out of town. If he's treating us like this, and we've been coming here with you since you've opened this place. Then how is he treating your other customers and staff. I also think that he's having an affair with the bimbo hostess" Zain said.

The manager just kept getting paler the more that the guys spoke to Dom. Dom was quiet for a few minutes and when he finally spoke it was with a quiet furry. You could almost feel it from him over the phone.

"First are you ok Amore? And second, Mark, you are fired effective immediately. This is not the first time that I've had a report on your behavior since I left. And I've not been gone but a few days. Before that I had a few different reports on you and your inappropriate behavior with the staff and customers. I've already contacted Riley and shes on her way to cover you the rest of the night and to re-fix the schedule. Get Lacey over here so I can talk to her also. Who came through the door, Aries? You said that you were inclined to believe it was the scooter until you seen who came through the door."

“That is none other than the nasty whores that belong to Loretta and Anthony. The twin plastic disease ridden bitches” He said.

“I’m ok Bellissimo, I promise. The hostess kept looking this way and smirking and then looking down at her phone. Then she got really happy and looked at the door. When I looked at the door as well I saw that the perfect twins were coming through it. They were all hugging and then the hostess pointed this way. I ducked behind Zane so that they couldn’t see me. The last thing that I want is to start a fight in your restaurant Dom. Especially while I’m hurt. I couldn’t defend myself very well on one leg right now” I said to him.

Chapter 27 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

“MMM Mr Lombardi Sir,” Mark stutters out. “I don’t remember you saying that they were not allowed in here” he started to say.

“Are you fucking serious right now. I told every fucking one of you this in a meeting this week. You were there, I know that you were there because I talked to you and the rest of the managers in a separate meeting. Don’t try that bullshit with me. Now you get that fucking Lacy over to the phone now. Aries please switch me to video call I need to see Amore for myself. I need to see that she’s ok so that I can calm down” Dom said.

While Mark went to get the hostess Lacy. Aries put the phone to video and then turned it around so that Dom could see that I was ok.

“I’m ok, Bellissimo honestly. What these people say or do doesn’t hurt me. I’m used to it and I ignore it. How is your trip going? Are you and Marcello doing ok?” I asked him.

“You shouldn’t have to put up with that shit Amore. And as long as we’re around you won’t have to. And it’s going ok, but could be better. We’re getting ready to head to the office. And Marcello and I are both fine. We both miss you like crazy and are jealous that you get to spend so much time with Aries and Zeus. What else do you have planned for the evening?” he asked us.

I looked over to see that Mark was arguing with Lacy and the twins. I shook my head and looked back at the phone.

Aries was saying “If we ever get to eat, then we plan to go back to our house and watch a movie. Since Rosa, Zain and Nicco had to leave she’ll be staying at the house behind the club house with us until they get back. We want her protected and with those guys following her and her worthless assed bio family running around she’s safer with us.”

As Dom was about to reply to Aries, Mark came back over with Lacey behind him. And the twin bitches not far behind her.

Dom looked at her and then behind her and was instantly pissed again. He said “Lacey you are fired immediately. You don’t speak to River the way that you did. I have had many complaints about you not letting anyone in that you didn’t think should be in here. This is NOT your restaurant its MINE. Not only that but you were told that those bitches behind you and the rest of their family was not allowed in to ANY of my establishments EVER. River does not count as their family she was adopted by her Nonna and does not claim them. You were told what would happen if you let them in. Mark you and Lacey both get your things and get the hell out. My security guys will escort you off the premises with nothing but the things that are yours. Riley and Liz should be pulling in soon to cover both of you. I don’t want to see any of you four back on any of my property’s you wont like what happens if you try to step foot in any of them. Ill send your last pay checks to your house via currier so that you have to sign for it. You’ll get it in a couple of days. And remember that I have cameras and eyes and ears everywhere.”

As he was talking four really big guys showed up to escort them out of the restaurant. Two of them took the twins out the front door while the other two escorted the other two to the back to clock out an get their things.

“Now I have to get to work, I’ve got an important meeting and you need to get your date underway. Have fun and behave yourselves Aries and Zeus. You know what I mean. Amore, I hope that you have a good time. When we get back to the States you need to go out on a date with Marcello and I. Then we will all go out on a date together. Ill call you later on to say good night. Have fun on your date and the rest of your time at the restaurant should go ok. By the way the meal is on the house since you were treated so badly. By my loves” and with that he hung up the phone.

Aries and Zeus had sat back down and Aries looked at us and shook his head. “He knew that I wouldn’t let him cover our meal. That’s why he hung up on me. Im still going to pay for us.”

He was texting on his phone when the waitress finally showed up to take our order. “Hello and welcome to Angels Italians Restaurant. My name is Mindy and I’ll be your waitress tonight. I apologize for how your night started. Can I start you all off with a glass of wine?”

“None for me please I don’t drink wine. Ill have a glass of Dr. Pepper if you have it” I said. “Same for us as well” Zane replied.

“We’ll also start off with the antipasto platter and garlic knots please” Aries said.

After she wrote down what we wanted she left the table. I looked down at the menu to decide what I wanted to eat. The lasagna looked good but so didn’t the calzone.

“What do you want to eat baby?” Aries asked me. “I cant decide between the lasagna or the calzone. I may just get the calzone. I’ve not had one in awhile, and I hate to eat lasagna that my Nonna hasn't made. Her's is the best and no one's ever measures up to it. What about you guys what are you getting?"

"Im thinking about the lasagna, salad and garlic bread" Zeus said. "I think that I'm going to get the calzone as well. With a salad to go with it" Aries said.

"Yeah, I think that I'm going to get the farm house salad. Its got mixed greens, black olives, diced peppers, cucumbers, red onions, grape tomatoes and fresh mozzarella with balsamic vinaigrette. I think I'm going to get my calzone with pepperoni, ham, bacon, mozzarella, mushrooms, olives, red onions and bell peppers. With marinara on the side" I said.

When the waitress finally came back we gave her our orders. After she left we talked and ate the antipasto platter and the garlic knots. They were really good.

We were having a good time and I was glade that the night had changed around. The new manager that Dom called in came around to make sure that everything was going ok.

And I seen that the new hostess was also here as well. Just as we were getting our food Aries got a text from Dom.

"Dom said to keep an eye out for a few days. The manager and the hostess were both pissed over getting fired. The security guys said that they were both talking about getting even and they warned them off. He's going to make sure that you have security at the school and we'll take you this week and put a couple of prospects on you. I don't want anything happening to you. He also said that the security guys had to scare the twin bitches off. They were planning on trying to jump you when we left."

"That would've been fucking stupid of them to try. Especially with us with her, the stupid bitches" Zane growled.

"Lets not worry about them right now. We can save that for tomorrow. Lets worry about us and our date tonight. Now what movie are we going to watch when we get back to your house tonight?"

We spent the rest of the time at the restaurant feeding each other food off of our plates and debating the best movies ever.

By the time that we were done and ready to leave we had decided to watch Adam Sandler's movie The Longest Yard when we got to there house.

When Aries was ready to pay to manager came out to tell him that it was already taken care of. And that Dom refused to let him pay for their meals. But that he could leave their waitress a tip.

He just shook his head and both him and Zeus put twenty dollars a piece on the table and then helped me up. Aries helped me up and Zeus grabbed my scooter.

We had no problems going back out to the truck when we went to leave. But both of the guys kept looking around to make sure that the twin bitches and the other two were gone.

The security guards were outside walking around keeping an eye out so I'm sure that they were long gone.

When we got to the truck Aries unlocked the doors and then opened up the passenger side. He then lifted me up and kissed me on the forehead before lifting me into the truck.

After I was in, I scooted into the middle and once Zeus had my scooter into the back he got up in beside me. Aries came around and got into the drivers side.

After our seatbelts were on Zeus put his arm behind me. and after we had backed out and pulled onto the road Aries put his arm across my lap. His hand was resting on my right knee.

We laughed and had a good time all the way back to the compound. When we pulled up to the gate the prospect at the gate told Aries that his dad wanted to talk to him.

So we pulled up to the front of the clubhouse. The guys decided that we would all walk inside.

Aries said "If my dad is here then my moms here and I know that she'll want to see you. She really likes you."

"I really liked her as well. I liked both of your moms. I cant wait to get to know them better" I said.

The guys got out of the truck and helped me out. Zeus grabbed my scooter and helped me get settled onto it.

Then they both got on either side of me and walked with me up the ramp to the door. At the door Zeus held the door open while Aries helped me through it.

When we got inside I realized that the crowd was a lot younger than it was last night when I was here. Aries spotted his dad and steered us in that direction.

When we got to their table it was full of people. I seen both of Aries' dads as well as his mom. And both of Zeus' dads and his mom. Plus there were a few other guys and girls there also.

When the guys' moms seen me they both jumped up and came right for me. I felt so small compared to just about everyone in here. They were all tall, even the guys' moms were taller than me.

When they got to me the both grabbed me at the same time and gave me a big hug. "Oh sweet girl look how pretty you look. I just love all of that hair, its so long. I didn't realize how long it was last night because it was pulled up in a bun" Sunny said.

Ivy followed it up with "Oh it is so beautiful and the color. I cant wait for grandbabies they will look so beautiful. I can just see it now, little boys and girls that are a mixture of you five but with your beautiful hair. I cant wait. You do look really beautiful tonight. Did you have fun on your date?"

"Yeah the first part was bad but it got way better. We were headed for their house to watch a movie before the guy at the gate told Aries that his dad wanted him. Im going to be staying with them for a few days while my family's out of town. So we decided to do a movie at home so that we could be comfy" I said.

As I was explaining what happened on the first part of our date and why I was staying with the guys. Some skanky looking hooker came up towards where we were standing and sneered at me and shouted "Who the fuck are you and why the hell are you with my men you home wrecking whore"

Chapter 28 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

After this bitch walked up to me running her mouth, I looked at Ivy, and Sunny. Then I looked behind me and around me. The guys had went over to their dads once their moms had their hands on me.

Then they disappeared into a room off of the main room. So they were missing the spectacle that this bitch was making of herself.

"Go the fuck away Beckie, actually just fucking leave. Everyone here knows that your nothing but a cum guzzling gutter slut. And you are not now nor have you ever been with my boy or Zeus. They wouldn't touch you with a ten foot pole" Sunny said.

"Right our boys are smart boys. None of them would touch you. They all have taste in their woman. And besides that they don't want to catch any of the nasty fucking diseases that you have. Our boys have a real old lady so back the fuck up and get to stepping, now bitch" Ivy said.

This bitch looks at me and sneers and gets ready to open her mouth. But I beat her to it. "Don't let the boot or the knee scooter fool you bitch. I can fight and I will. So you best do what my mother is laws said to and get the fuck out of here. Im an mma fighter and I'm not afraid to take you on. I am afraid of what I could catch from touching your nasty ass though so please go away. And stop going around saying that MY men are yours. Im not a home wrecker nor am I a whore. So fuck off bitch I'm not in the mood" I said and then wheeled over to a table with my mother in laws with me.

Sunny and Ivy were both laughing as we got to their table. When we sat down at the table there was four other girls sitting there. I didn't recognize them. But Sunny and Ivy soon introduced me to them.

"My lovely River, this is my daughters and Ivy's daughters. My girls are Keeley or Alley Cat is what shes called in the club. Because when shes pissed she brings out the claws. And this is Wynter otherwise known as Bacardi. Because when shes here her tongue is always in a bottle of it. She's always got at least one in her hand and doesn't share it" Sunny said with a laugh.

"Ain't that the truth Sunny. River these are my girls Mora or Buffy to the club. Because when she was a kid she was obsessed with the tv show" Ivy said and everyone else yelled out "Still is."

I was laughing so hard at that. Ivy just shook her head and continued on. "This is my other daughter Zara and shes called Gypsy in the club. Its because shes always dressed like one and she never stays still. She spends most of her free time out in the woods roaming around."

"Its nice to meet you girls and I cant wait to get to know you" I said. "Oh its nice to meet you as well. We heard what you said to skanky assed bitch over there. She's got some nerve to try and claim our brothers. None of our brothers would ever touch her. Not even with some other guys dick. That bitch is nasty" Alley Cat said.

"I agree with that Alley, shes just getting pissed because none of the club brothers will touch her. Late last night she was even trying to get one of the prospects to sleep with her. jokes on her, I herd her telling one of the other girls that she wants to get pregnant by a club brother. She's trying to baby trap one of them. So I recorded her and then showed dad. That's probably why they wanted Aries to stop by here" Bacardi said.

As we were talking the guys came back out from where they were at. Zeus came over to me and stood behind me with his hands on my shoulders.

He bent down and I looked up at him. He kissed me on the forehead and then said "Not much longer and we'll head home baby. Aries has a problem to deal with."

"He sure does, you both do actually. That slut bag over there thought that she could run her mouth to your old lady. Called her a home wrecking whore and said that River was with her men. Sunny and I as well as River told her off" Ivy said.

"I'll go let Aries know what happened. He's taking care of the bitch tonight and she wont be back. Did any of you get video of her running her mouth to River."

“I did, I just sent it to your phone Bubba,” Buffy said. He nodded his thanks to her, took his phone out of his pocket as he kissed me on the forehead and then walked off.

We watched him walk over to where Aries and all of their dad were standing under a big tv. There was another guy with them.

Zeus was telling them what happened and then showed them the video that Buffy had took. When he was done Aries looked over at me and I smiled at him.

He looked relieved that I was ok. He mouthed “Are you ok?” to me and I nodded back to him and yes “Yes.”

He let out a breath and then looked towards where she was sitting with some other girls. And he was really pissed off. You could see it in his face.

As we were watching then Sunny said “They are getting their tech guy to set the videos up to the big TV I bet. This bitch will be gone soon, at last.”

The girls all agreed with her. We sat and talked and got to know each other better. They were all amazed that I would be staying at Aries and Zeus’ house for awhile. Apparently no girls except for family have ever stayed there.

That made me feel really good. I explained why I would be staying there and that I wasn’t sure for how long. But I would be gone through the day for most of the week.

They all asked me about college and what I was going to classes for. I guess Buffy and Alley both go to school there as well.

They have exams this week as well and with what I’m going through with the stocker they figured that their brothers would have us just go together.

As we were talking we heard Aries say “Hey listen the fuck up. We have an issue tonight and I want it taken care of. The doors have a trusted brother in front of them to keep someone from trying to run. I got a couple of videos for you all to watch. Usually this would be a brother matter but it involves the sisters and the whores as well. The sisters need to know what shit the whores are trying to pull. Techie play the videos please.”

The tech guy who I learned is named Techie pushed play on her laptop and the first video started to play.

You could see a group of club whores all gathered around a pick nick table outside whispering. Bacardi leaned forward and said “That’s not the video that I gave dad. That’s from the cameras out back.”

We could see them all laughing and talking. They sat there for a few minutes. Before the lead bitch Beckie said “Hey, I have an idea to finally land a brother and be an old lady. Im sick of sucking all of these guys dicks for nothing. The next brother that I get to sleep with me, I'm going to make sure that he gets me pregnant. I've already stopped with my birth control. All I gotta do is make sure that they are drunk enough and don't use a condom. Then easy peasy, I'll be pregnant and have an old man. My life will be so much easier. And then the snobby bitchy old ladies will stop looking down their noses at me and thinking that they're better than me when they're not."

Another girl said "And just who do you plan on trying this on? Who do you think will fall for this and get you pregnant?"

"That's easy I'm going to do what I have to, to get Aries and Zeus into my bed. Even if I have to slip them both pills to get them there. Then I will be the queen bee around here. And hopefully they forget about that fat fucking crippled bitch that they brought here last night. I mean what the hell were they thinking. She's short, fat and not even pretty at all. I'll do what I can to make that bitch disappear as well. No one but me will have them."

"Girl there is no way in hell that's ever going to work and if you think that it is then you are crazy as fuck. They don't take unopened drinks from anyone ever. So that wouldn't work. And they don't take girls back to their house. You're dreaming if you ever think that it would work. We got a good thing going here. Don't fuck it up for the rest of us. They give us a roof over our heads and give us a paycheck for working around here. I'm able to go to college during the day to get my degree. Is this what my life will always be. No it won't but for now it is and I love it. So don't fuck it up for us please. Now I'm leaving before I get caught with you, you crazy bitch."

And with that she stood up and walked off. Beckie sat there fuming and ranting as the other girls agreed with the first one and left as well.

When they were all gone Beckie screamed out loud and then got up and left. The video stopped and then the next one started.

It started with showing her coming up behind me as I was hugging Sunny and Ivy. And showed her running her mouth to me and Sunny, Ivy and I all telling her off.

When the videos were both done every member of the club was pissed off. It was like you could feel the madness in here.

Looking around everyone had a dirty look on their faces and they were all looking right at her. She was trying to figure a way to get out of the club house. But there were brothers in front of doors and windows both.

They weren't going to give her a chance of getting out at all. When Aries finally spoke you could feel the fury coming off of him.

"I have someone packing up your things and then you will be escorted off of the property and then dropped two towns over. You are not to step foot back in this town ever. I have already let our people all know. My lawyer also knows and has a copy of these videos. If you ever fucking come back here you will have a lawsuit on your hands for the plans of attempted rape against Zeus and I. Because that's what that was. You were planning on drugging us and rapping us. That doesn't fly with us. Ink is also going to cover up your tattoo before you leave so make sure that your wrist is uncovered, now. And by the way the only and I mean ONLY woman who will ever carry our kids will be that beautiful, sexy, and amazing woman who is sitting with our moms and sister. She is our old lady and the only woman worthy of that title. You don't talk about her, look at her or threaten her EVER again. You got me."

Chapter 29 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

This bitch has the audacity to start screaming at the top of her lungs. Shes screaming that they cant kick her out. And that the video was faked.

She then looked right at me and screamed that it was my fault. She then took off running in my direction. She was evading all of the guys as the tried to catch her.

I stood up and turned towards her. When she got close to me, she got ready to swing at me. I drew my right hand back and hit her one time.

If it wouldn't have been for the brother that was behind her she would've bounced off the floor. I shook out my hand and sat back down.

When I stood up real fast I put pressure on my foot and it hurt like a bitch. So I didn't want to stay standing for to long. But I kept an eye on her though.

A couple of the guys got ahold of her and took her over to the couches and laid her down. And then a guy covered in tattoos was walking over there with a metal box. I'm guessing that he was the tattoo guy.

Aries and Zeus was by my side within seconds. And they were both pissed at the bitch. "Are you ok baby? How is your hand and your foot?" Zeus asked me.

His mom was laughing so hard that she couldn't catch her breathe but managed to get out "Shes awesome. Did you see the punch? One hit wonder over here. She hit that whore one time and put her out. Ohh I love it."

She was gasping by the time that she finished talking. The guys were just shaking their heads at her. I giggled at her and then said "Im fine guys, I promise. My ankle kinda hurts from standing up so fast but I'm ok. My hand is a little sore but I'm fine. I wasn't going to let that bitch come up to me and hit me, fuck that."

“Ok baby, let us finish dealing with her and get her gone then well go home. We’ll finish the rest of the night just relaxing. Make a list of movie snacks that you like and I’ll have a prospect run out and pick shit up for us, ok?” Aries told me.

I nodded yes and they went to finish up. I made a list of stuff for the prospect to get and when the guy came over to me I gave him the list. He read over it to make sure what I wanted and then left.

I tried to give him the money for it but he said that Zeus took care of it already. After he left the girls and I watched as the guy called Ink tattooed over Beckie’s club tat on her wrist.

She woke up when he started and was having a cow over it. The guys were holding her down and she kept screaming at them. Bacardi got pissed and said “Fuck this shit, I’ll make her stop.”

She got up and disappeared into the kitchen. When she came back out she went over to where they were at and put a bunch of paper towels in Beckie’s mouth and covered it with duck tape.

We all were laughing so hard at her when she grabbed a pillow and put it on her then sat down on top of her to keep her from moving.

With her help and the help of the brothers Ink was finally able to get it covered up. All he did was black it out. He wasn’t worried about covering up and making it pretty.

When he was about done a couple of prospects came out of the back carrying a couple of boxes and bags. A third one came out and had a box and walked up to Aries with it.

You could see them whispering about something. And whatever it was it wasn’t good. “That doesn’t look good at all” I said to the girls.

“No it doesn’t” Sunny said. The more shit that the prospect was showing Aries the madder he was getting. I was getting really worried because his face was really red.

“He needs to calm the hell down. The last thing that anyone needs is to have him have a heart attack. He has you and those three guys to worry about” Sunny said.

His dads must have agreed as well as Zeus and his dads. Because he had them all around him trying to calm him down. They managed to get him to walk into the other room.

The prospect with the box followed them after Zeus motioned for him to. They were in there for about fifteen minutes. You could hear screaming and yelling.

It finally got quiet and we got worried. After about fifteen minutes most of the guys came out of the room. I was worried until a few minutes later when Aries and Zeus came out.

They both looked over to me and then it was like they breathed a sigh of relief. They walked over to where the prospects where and told them to load her shit up.

Ice finished up her wrist and put meds on it and wrapped it. He told her how to take care of it. When he was done the guys kept ahold of her until Bacardi was off of her and back at the table with us.

Once she was safely back with us did they let her up. By then the guys had all lined up infront of us and hasn't moved. When she stood up everyone started laughing.

We didn't know what they were laughing at, we couldn't really see anything now. The guys moved a little bit and we could see what was so funny.

She already had a black eye and her nose was broke. The guy that Sunny said was Doc went over and reset if and told her to stuff her paper towels up her nose and she'd be fine.

The guys finally escorted her out of the building and Aries and Zeus followed her. They were out there for about ten minutes when they finally came back in.

When they came in they came straight over to me. They both bent down and kissed me on the forehead when I looked up at them.

"Are you ok Sexy man? You look like you could use a drink to cool down" I said.

"Im fine I just got pissed off over what the prospect found. You all don't need to know what it was either, its club business," he said as he looked at his mom and sisters.

"Ok, but you still need to calm down some. We're not going far when we leave here. So drink a beer and calm down some. The last thing that we need is you having a heart attack on us. Im gimpy enough for all of us" I said.

"Fine we'll drink one beer and then we'll head to the house to finish out our date. Do you want a beer or something else?" Aries asked me.

"No beer for me, but a Dr Pepper if you have it. If not a Coke or somethings fine. Just no Pepsi or Mt Dew, I don't drink it ever."

"Ok baby, we have Dr Pepper and if we're out then I have some in the fridge in our room here. I stocked some in there so we'd have it when you stayed here with us. I want you to be comfortable."

The girls all sitting with us went "Awww, how cute." At the same time. I was laughing at them and Zeus was giving them all dirty looks.

"That's really sweet babe, thank you. I don't drink it as much as I drink orange cream sickle slushes but I drink it a lot" i said.

“Your going to turn into an orange cream sickle slushy” Zane joked. “Ill be right back.”

As he walked away Zara asked me “What did he mean by that?” “In my Nonna’s house we have a theater in the basement. When I first came to live with her when I was five she had bought me an orange cream sickle slushy one day. We were heading back from a check up to make sure that I was healing up ok. I wanted the orange one because orange had become my favorite color. With the first taste of it I had fallen in love with it. When we got home my Nonno was there. When he asked me if I liked it, I told him how much I love it. That it was so good and one of the best things that I had ever had. At that time I hadn’t tried a lot. Hell I was use to only drinking water and living on peanut butter and jelly sandwiches only. So he went and bought a slushy machine that makes three flavors at once. You can also switch each one off to use them separately. He always made sure that the orange one was full so I could always have it. After he passed away Nonna and Nicco kept up with it. Its almost always running because I drink it a lot” I said.

“If you don’t mind me asking, why did you go live with your Nonna? And why were you only aloud to have PB and j and water?” Ivy asked me.

By now Aries and Zeus were both standing behind me and all of there dads were here as well. Some other brothers were standing close to.

Zeus handed my a bottle of Dr Pepper and I opened it an took a drink of it. I took a deep breath and got ready to tell them my story.

“When I was younger I lived with my bio parents Anthony and Loretta Montgomery. By the time I came along they already had five kids. I was the sixth. Loretta got pregnant at sixteen and seventeen, eighteen, and nineteen. She was twenty-four when she got pregnant with me. From the begining she blamed me for ruining her body. If anyone ruined her body it was the three boys and the set of twin demon bitches that she gave birth to before me. But she always blamed me. Always said how I was an ugly baby and that the twins were perfect that’s why she named us the way that she did. The girls got named Fantasia and Immaculate because they were so perfect she said. She named me Ursula because she said that I was the ugliest baby that she had ever seen. I wasn’t, I was a beautiful little baby. The nanny that I had from the time I was born would take pictures of me and hid them so that she could give them to me one day. The day that Nonna took me out of there she gave them to her. I was abused in that house, badly. Hell my bedroom was in the cold dark basement. The night the Nonna and Uncle Zain took me out of there, I was hurt badly. There had been a party and I had to attend to keep up appearances. There was one creepy guy who kept looking at me and telling my bio parents how pretty I was. It pissed the girls off badly. It just gave me the creeps. When I went to go downstairs my nanny got called away for a minute. I was showed down the stairs. When I got to the bottom I was attacked before I could move, not that I could. One of the girls held me down with the other cut me bad, twice. When the nanny found me she tried to get them to take me to the hospital. But they wouldn’t so she called Nonna. She told her what happened and she took me out of there. I had to have a lot of surgeries. But Nonna showed up with Uncle Zain and Aunt Bella and the cops and took me out of there. Nonna and Nonno adopted me and I’ve been with them, well with Nonna, since then” I said.

When I got done talking you could hear a pin drop in the room. No one was talking or making noise.

Chapter 30 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

It stayed quiet for a few minutes. When I looked up Aries and Zeus were both pissed off.

“Where did they cut you at and how bad was it?” Aries asked me. “It was really really bad. They cut my face and my chest from my neck down to the top of my pubic bone” I whispered. “Its why I never where anything that shows my stomach off. I always wear a hoodie or something that goes up to my neck. Im working on getting it covered with a tattoo. My Pappa Chris is doing it for me.”

“Does Dom or Marcello know what happened to you? Or how badly that it was?” Zeus asked me.

I shook my head no. “No, if they know its not from me. I hadn’t had the chance to tell them yet. I mean they picked me up all of last week and took me to school. And then Marcello would come pick me up and take me home. But I didn’t want to tell them what I went through as a kid right before they were due to leave for two weeks. Especially with what Albert tried to pull last weekend.”

“Albert’s the one responsible for your face and ankle right?” Aries asked me.

“Yeah, I went to go to the bathroom during our family dinner with Dom’s family. When I came our I seen Marcello standing close by, but at the time I didn’t know who he was. I was getting ready to walk back to the private room when I heard a commotion at the front of the restaurant. I went to see what was going on. And Albert and Loretta were both there arguing with our hostess. I told her that I would deal with it. He was running his mouth to me and got pissed when I said that he wasn’t my dad. That I had two really great dads. That’s when he hit me. I hurt my ankle as I was going down. When I got back up though, he got kicked in the balls and knocked out from one punch.”

“He’s going to get a lot worse when I get done with him. Him and his little whores. And they had the nerve to try shit tonight as well. Not on my watch” Aries said.

“They were at the house with Loretta last Sunday. Anthony got put in jail Saturday night and she was trying to make Nonna have me drop the charges. I was trying to wait on Nicco to get down stairs and Uncle Zain to pull in the driveway. He was only a couple minutes away. But she hit Nonna and I was on her ass instantly. I hit her once and put her across the kitchen. They kids were all with her but couldn’t do anything to me because Nicco came downstairs and Uncle Zain and Dom came through the door.”

“Yeah, Dom told us about that. Those bitches thought that they could use tonight to try to pay you back I bet. They probably figured that no one would be around to help you” Zeus said.

“They thought wrong then didn’t they. Don’t worry we’ll go over everyone’s schedules tonight and make sure that there is at least two brothers at the college with the girls this week. How many days do you guys have to go?” Ripper asked us.

Buffy said “I only have to go Monday and Wednesday this week. And then I’m officially done.”

“Yeah, I have to go Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and then I’m done” Alley said.

I said, “I have to go Monday through Thursday this week. I only have test on Tuesday and Thursday. But I have to finish up my painting for art on Monday and Wednesday. I also have to get my paintings that are dry and bring home on Monday.”

“We can bring one of the SUV’s to take you girls to school. We should have plenty of room in it for your paintings” Dexter said.

“Im not busy this week so I’ll got with River and shadow her. Ill call this Deen in the morning and let him know what’s going on. I know that there are kids at the school that has security guards that follow them around so it shouldn’t be a problem. Your one of my daughters now, my sons have claimed you. So you are family and we protect family” Legal said.

I must have made a face when he said sons because he clarified for me. “By sons I mean Aries, Zeus, Dom and Marcello. They may not all be my boys by blood but they are in a relationship with my son so they are my boys now to. Since you are in a relationship with them all now you are my daughter as well. And I will protect you with my life. The same way that I would protect my blood daughters” he said.

I had tears going down my face when I whispered “Thank you, that means more that you know to me.”

Aries picked me up and sat down in my seat with me in his lap. He kissed me on the forehead and was rubbing my back.

I felt another hand and realized that Zeus was behind us and was rubbing my back also.

The guys sat and talked for a little while longer and finished drinking their beers. When they were done with them we said good night to everyone and headed out to the truck.

Before we left Aries stepped off to the side to talk to his dad for a minute. While Zeus and I went to the truck. Zeus helped me get into the truck and then put my scooter into the back.

Once he got into the truck he wrapped his arms around me and held me tight to him. “None of those fucking people will ever get a chance to hurt you again. I promise you” Zeus said.

“I know that none of you guys would let them get close to me again. I trust you all so much. Which is crazy because I haven’t known you for very long.”

“Were all ment to be together baby that’s why. Your sould recognizes ours as being your sould mates. I was happy and content with the guys but felt like something was missing. Then we met you and it was like that last piece of the puzzle was finally in place. Your ours and we are yours. We will all protect you and so will our family’s.”

“I know you will. And I know what you mean. I met Dom and Marcello and still felt like something was missing. And then Marcello spent the day hanging out at my house with me. We got stuff ready for a family movie night and then went to my room to talk. He told me about all of you and I couldn’t wait to meet you. The night that we had our first video call I was excited and nervous for it. It made me feel good though that I got to provide you guys with a meal that night.”

“It was an awesome meal as well to baby. Your a really good cook. I cant wait to see what else you can make. Us guys are gonna have to work out more or by the time we’re old we’ll all be fat” Zeus joked.

Aries had opened the door in time to hear Zeus say that they were going to be old and fat. “What the hells that about? Im never going to be old or fat” Aries said.

“We were talking and got to taking about Rivers cooking. I said that with how good she cooks we’re going to have to work out more or we’ll end up being old and fat after years of good food.”

“Ain’t that the truth, your food is amazing babe. Now lets go home and watch a movie.”

Aries started up his truck and backed up. He drove around the back of the club house and about a hundred feet behind it there was another gate.

The prospect that was manning the gate opened it up and we drove through. We passed a lot of beautiful houses until we got to the end of the road.

I was in love with their house the instant that I seen it. “This is our place, I hope you like it” Aries said. “I love it, its beautiful” I said.

It was a two story house, and was white with blue shutters and blue flower boxes under the windows. It had wrap around porches on both floors.

I could also see a set of rocking chairs on the front porch. As well as a swing. It was my dream house.

We pulled into the driveway, up to the garage that was off to the side. It had a walkway that connected the house and garage together. To keep you from getting wet.

The guys got out of the truck and Zeus grabbed my bag and scooter. I grabbed my purse and my cup, and scooted to the drivers side door where Aries was waiting for me.

He lifted me up to carry me to the house since they didn't have a ramp. He carried me up to the door and sat me down in a rocking chair for a minute.

While he was unlocking the doors a car pulled up into the driveway. Zeus came up onto the porch and sat my scooter and bags down. Then walked back down to the driveway.

The prospect that got the list of stuff from me was back with our movie snacks. He got the bags out and handed them to Zane and even grabbed some to help bring in.

"Hold on for a minute baby and let us get this stuff in and then I'll carry you in" Aries said.

"Ok." I sat on the porch enjoying the evening air while the guys carried everything inside. It was such a nice evening out tonight.

When the guys got everything in the house the prospect came back out to leave. "Good evening mam" he said. "Have a good night and thank you" I said. "Your welcome and I'll try."

Once he was gone Aries came out and picked me back up. "Come on baby lets get you inside."

When he carried me in the house I was in love instantly. I could see myself living here for the rest of my life. The house was so beautiful inside.

When you walk inside, you walk into the living room. Its all open concept. The living room is across the front of the house with the kitchen in the back.

The kitchen is my dream kitchen. Its got a huge island with double ovens in the wall and another oven in the stove. It looked like they had every cooking gadget that you could get in there.

What got me choked up the most though was what was sitting on the counter full. The guys had gotten a slushy machine and it was clean full of orange cream sickle slushy.

"You guys that's so sweet. You know that you didn't have to do that right?" I asked them.

"Where not the only ones that did it babe. Dom's got one for him and Marcello's place as well. We wanted you to have your favorite drink all the time. And now that we know why you like it so much I'm really glade that we did it" Aries said.

“Thank you it means a lot that you guys all did this for me.”
