

Chapter 30 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

It stayed quiet for a few minutes. When I looked up Aries and Zeus were both pissed off.

“Where did they cut you at and how bad was it?” Aries asked me. “It was really really bad. They cut my face and my chest from my neck down to the top of my pubic bone” I whispered. “Its why I never where anything that shows my stomach off. I always wear a hoodie or something that goes up to my neck. Im working on getting it covered with a tattoo. My Pappa Chris is doing it for me.”

“Does Dom or Marcello know what happened to you? Or how badly that it was?” Zeus asked me.

I shook my head no. “No, if they know its not from me. I hadn’t had the chance to tell them yet. I mean they picked me up all of last week and took me to school. And then Marcello would come pick me up and take me home. But I didn’t want to tell them what I went through as a kid right before they were due to leave for two weeks. Especially with what Albert tried to pull last weekend.”

“Albert’s the one responsible for your face and ankle right?” Aries asked me.

“Yeah, I went to go to the bathroom during our family dinner with Dom’s family. When I came our I seen Marcello standing close by, but at the time I didn’t know who he was. I was getting ready to walk back to the private room when I heard a commotion at the front of the restaurant. I went to see what was going on. And Albert and Loretta were both there arguing with our hostess. I told her that I would deal with it. He was running his mouth to me and got pissed when I said that he wasn’t my dad. That I had two really great dads. That’s when he hit me. I hurt my ankle as I was going down. When I got back up though, he got kicked in the balls and knocked out from one punch.”

“He’s going to get a lot worse when I get done with him. Him and his little whores. And they had the nerve to try shit tonight as well. Not on my watch” Aries said.

“They were at the house with Loretta last Sunday. Anthony got put in jail Saturday night and she was trying to make Nonna have me drop the charges. I was trying to wait on Nicco to get down stairs and Uncle Zain to pull in the driveway. He was only a couple minutes away. But she hit Nonna and I was on her ass instantly. I hit her once and put her across the kitchen. They kids were all with her but couldn’t do anything to me because Nicco came downstairs and Uncle Zain and Dom came through the door.”

“Yeah, Dom told us about that. Those bitches thought that they could use tonight to try to pay you back I bet. They probably figured that no one would be around to help you” Zeus said.

“They thought wrong then didn’t they. Don’t worry we’ll go over everyone’s schedules tonight and make sure that there is at least two brothers at the college with the girls this week. How many days do you guys have to go?” Ripper asked us.

Buffy said “I only have to go Monday and Wednesday this week. And then I’m officially done.”

“Yeah, I have to go Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and then I’m done” Alley said.

I said, “I have to go Monday through Thursday this week. I only have test on Tuesday and Thursday. But I have to finish up my painting for art on Monday and Wednesday. I also have to get my paintings that are dry and bring home on Monday.”

“We can bring one of the SUV’s to take you girls to school. We should have plenty of room in it for your paintings” Dexter said.

“Im not busy this week so I’ll got with River and shadow her. Ill call this Deen in the morning and let him know what’s going on. I know that there are kids at the school that has security guards that follow them around so it shouldn’t be a problem. Your one of my daughters now, my sons have claimed you. So you are family and we protect family” Legal said.

I must have made a face when he said sons because he clarified for me. “By sons I mean Aries, Zeus, Dom and Marcello. They may not all be my boys by blood but they are in a relationship with my son so they are my boys now to. Since you are in a relationship with them all now you are my daughter as well. And I will protect you with my life. The same way that I would protect my blood daughters” he said.

I had tears going down my face when I whispered “Thank you, that means more that you know to me.”

Aries picked me up and sat down in my seat with me in his lap. He kissed me on the forehead and was rubbing my back.

I felt another hand and realized that Zeus was behind us and was rubbing my back also.

The guys sat and talked for a little while longer and finished drinking their beers. When they were done with them we said good night to everyone and headed out to the truck.

Before we left Aries stepped off to the side to talk to his dad for a minute. While Zeus and I went to the truck. Zeus helped me get into the truck and then put my scooter into the back.

Once he got into the truck he wrapped his arms around me and held me tight to him. “None of those fucking people will ever get a chance to hurt you again. I promise you” Zeus said.

“I know that none of you guys would let them get close to me again. I trust you all so much. Which is crazy because I haven’t known you for very long.”

“Were all ment to be together baby that’s why. Your sould recognizes ours as being your sould mates. I was happy and content with the guys but felt like something was missing. Then we met you and it was like that last piece of the puzzle was finally in place. Your ours and we are yours. We will all protect you and so will our family’s.”

“I know you will. And I know what you mean. I met Dom and Marcello and still felt like something was missing. And then Marcello spent the day hanging out at my house with me. We got stuff ready for a family movie night and then went to my room to talk. He told me about all of you and I couldn’t wait to meet you. The night that we had our first video call I was excited and nervous for it. It made me feel good though that I got to provide you guys with a meal that night.”

“It was an awesome meal as well to baby. Your a really good cook. I cant wait to see what else you can make. Us guys are gonna have to work out more or by the time we’re old we’ll all be fat” Zeus joked.

Aries had opened the door in time to hear Zeus say that they were going to be old and fat. “What the hells that about? Im never going to be old or fat” Aries said.

“We were talking and got to taking about Rivers cooking. I said that with how good she cooks we’re going to have to work out more or we’ll end up being old and fat after years of good food.”

“Ain’t that the truth, your food is amazing babe. Now lets go home and watch a movie.”

Aries started up his truck and backed up. He drove around the back of the club house and about a hundred feet behind it there was another gate.

The prospect that was manning the gate opened it up and we drove through. We passed a lot of beautiful houses until we got to the end of the road.

I was in love with their house the instant that I seen it. “This is our place, I hope you like it” Aries said. “I love it, its beautiful” I said.

It was a two story house, and was white with blue shutters and blue flower boxes under the windows. It had wrap around porches on both floors.

I could also see a set of rocking chairs on the front porch. As well as a swing. It was my dream house.

We pulled into the driveway, up to the garage that was off to the side. It had a walkway that connected the house and garage together. To keep you from getting wet.

The guys got out of the truck and Zeus grabbed my bag and scooter. I grabbed my purse and my cup, and scooted to the driver's side door where Aries was waiting for me.

He lifted me up to carry me to the house since they didn't have a ramp. He carried me up to the door and sat me down in a rocking chair for a minute.

While he was unlocking the doors a car pulled up into the driveway. Zeus came up onto the porch and sat my scooter and bags down. Then walked back down to the driveway.

The prospect that got the list of stuff from me was back with our movie snacks. He got the bags out and handed them to Zane and even grabbed some to help bring in.

"Hold on for a minute baby and let us get this stuff in and then I'll carry you in" Aries said.

"Ok." I sat on the porch enjoying the evening air while the guys carried everything inside. It was such a nice evening out tonight.

When the guys got everything in the house the prospect came back out to leave. "Good evening mam" he said. "Have a good night and thank you" I said. "Your welcome and I'll try."

Once he was gone Aries came out and picked me back up. "Come on baby let's get you inside."

When he carried me in the house I was in love instantly. I could see myself living here for the rest of my life. The house was so beautiful inside.

When you walk inside, you walk into the living room. It's all open concept. The living room is across the front of the house with the kitchen in the back.

The kitchen is my dream kitchen. It's got a huge island with double ovens in the wall and another oven in the stove. It looked like they had every cooking gadget that you could get in there.

What got me choked up the most though was what was sitting on the counter full. The guys had gotten a slushy machine and it was clean full of orange cream sickle slushy.

"You guys that's so sweet. You know that you didn't have to do that right?" I asked them.

"Where not the only ones that did it babe. Dom's got one for him and Marcello's place as well. We wanted you to have your favorite drink all the time. And now that we know why you like it so much I'm really glade that we did it" Aries said.

"Thank you it means a lot that you guys all did this for me."

Chapter 31 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

“And if you look to the right there is a door that leads out that side as well. That’s where you come in from the garage. Its to make it easier when its nasty out or when we’re bringing groceries and stuff home” Zeus said.

“I love the way that its set up. This house is do beautiful, I love it. I love the big back yard also. There’s plenty of space for kids to run around in. My favorite spot has to be the kitchen though” I said.

“Come on there’s more to see. We have the upstairs and the basement to see as well. Don’t worry though, the basement is light and airy, with a lot of space” Aries said.

He headed back into the living room so that we could head upstairs. When you first come into the living room from the front door, there is a set of steps off to the left.

We went up the steps to the second floor. The house was huge and there was five decent sized bedrooms upstairs. Plus the master bed room. The master bed room was huge though.

Between four of the bedrooms there was a bathroom. So that there was two bedrooms to a bathroom. The last bedroom had a small bathroom in it.

The master bedroom had a huge bathroom with it. The bedroom itself was huge. There was a huge bed in the center of the room. And a big assed tv on the wall across from it.

The closet was a huge walk in with a ton of room. There was dressers towards the back with a circular dresser in the middle of the room. On each side when you first walk in there was closet rods on both sides of the closet and most of the one side was full of mens clothes.

The other side was empty. On the bottom on the left side where the mens clothes are was a regular shoe stand. The left side had what looked like a rotating shoe stand that would fit a ton of shoes.

There was also a big mirror on the right side in the front of the closet. “The left side is our side. There are also clothes of Dom’s and Marcello’s in here as well. And we also have clothes at their house. Its so that we don’t have to take clothes back and forth when we stay with each other. The right side of the closet was always meant to be for the woman that we settled down with and married. There are a couple of dressers in the back as well as the round one in the middle that are for you” Aries said.

“So essentially its your side of the closet. You are our soul mate and the one that we want to be with for ever. So that side is yours and any clothes that you want to leave here your more than welcome to” Zeus said.

“Wow thank you guys I love it. But I don’t think I even own that many clothes. I wouldn’t ever fill it up. Especially not the shoes, I don’t own that many. Maybe like ten pair if that and most of them are ballet flats” I said.

“Don’t worry baby between us and Dom and Marcello plus our moms and sisters. You’ll have it full in no time at all I’m sure” Aries said.

“Yeah our moms and sisters are always shopping and buying shit. Hell we never have to go shopping for our own clothes because our moms are always buying new clothes for us” Zeus said with a laugh.

“Yes they are. Now come on I want to show you the bathroom. I think that you’ll love it. Especially the bathroom. I think that you’ll love the bathtub” Aries said as he walked out of the closet with me.

We walked through the bedroom and into the bathroom. It was so beautiful. It was decorated in like a beach theme.

The wall paper at the top of the bathroom walls had seashells on it. It was painted a light blue color, and the ceiling was painted to look like the sky with clouds.

The soap dispensers and stuff like that all were a light blue with seashells on them. It was very beautiful. But one thing that stood out to me was the blank wall that had nothing on it.

I could see a mural of a lighthouse on the beach painted there. It would be beautiful. There was a huge standalone shower in the left corner and a huge garden tub that would fit a few people in it beside it.

It had one way windows around it so you could see out but no one could see in. You came in the door on the left side and the double sinks was on the right of the door.

There was another door in the right hand corner that had the commode in it. On the right hand wall was a vanity with a seat. It was pretty big with lots of space to put stuff in it.

Beside it was a shelf that had towels and stuff on it. It was a very beautiful room and i couldn’t wait to try out the tub.

“Its so beautiful I love how its decorated. But this left wall needs work. Its just so blank and it needs a mural on it” I said.

“Yeah we were trying to figure out what to do but wasn’t sure how to decorate or what to put there to make it look less blank. What do you have in mind baby?” Aries asked me.

“I think a lighthouse on the ocean would look really pretty there. I love lighthouses and I can picture the perfect one that would work there. I think that that it would look good with the way I have it in mind. I could draw it out and show you what would look good” I said.

“You don’t have to do that. This will be your home now to babe. Whatever you think will look good will be good with us. Now come on I wanna get started on movie night. Its late and I’m ready to curl up with my favorite girl and guy and rest and watch a movie” Zeus said.

We agreed with him and Aries took me back out and sat me on the bed. Him and Zeus ran downstairs to get my scooter and bags so that I could change clothes.

Zeus came back in the bedroom carrying my scooter. And Aries was right behind him with my bags. Zeus sat the scooter down beside me and Aries took my bags into the closet.

“That soft tote bag could’ve been left down stairs. It has my personal snack storage in it. I didn’t want to leave it at the house. I want sure how long I’d be gone and some of it would go bad” I said.

“Ok babe I’ll bring it back downstairs when we go to get snacks. Lets get changed and then we’ll get snacks and then curl up and watch the movie” Aries said.

“Where do you want to watch the movie at baby? In here or on the couch?” Zeus asked me.

“In here is fine. Its a big bed and I doubt that I’m awake for much longer. Its been a long day and you add everything that’s happened today to it. It makes for a very long day.”

“Ok, that works for us lets get changed then and then I’ll run down and grab the snacks” Zeus said.

I got up and used the scooter to get into the closet. Aries had sat my bags onto the round dresser in the middle.

I sat the smaller one to the side because it was my bathroom stuff. I opened up my bigger suitcase and dug out a pair of shorts and a spaghetti strapped shirt out of it.

The guys both grabbed clothes and went to the bathroom to change. So I changed into my clothes in the closet.

I took my shoes off and put on the rack. Then I sat on the scooter to put my shorts on. Once I got them to my knees I stood up and pulled them the rest of the way up.

I then took my dress and bra off and put my spaghetti strapped shirt on. When I was done I put my dress in the hamper that was in the room.

I grabbed my bag and wheeled out of the closet. The bathroom door was open so I wheeled in there to brush my hair out and use the bathroom.

When I was done I went through my bag and laid my toothbrush and toothpaste on the counter with the guys'. Then I got my face wash out and washed the makeup off of my face.

Then I put my bag on the vanity and wheeled out to the bedroom. When I got into the room I looked up and stopped in my track.

Holy crap batman, my jaw hit the ground. If I thought that my men were sexy in clothes. Boy you should see them in nothing but grey sweatpants, damn.

Talk about sexy as fuck. They way that they hung low on their hips and they both had that sexy v thingy. Oh it just made me want to lick them right there.

That v thing on a man is sexy as hell. You could tell that they were both packing very well in those pants. And they both had muscles on top of muscles. I was one lucky girl.

When I finally looked back up and into their eyes, they were both checking me out. They were looking down and when they got to my chest they stopped.

You could see the instant that they seen some of my scars. They were instantly pissed off. They sat the snacks and drinks down and then walked over to me.

Aries took his finger and ran it down my chest. I was biting on my lip and looking down when I felt one finger on my chin and the other on my lip. Aries tilted my head up and Zeus took my lip out from between my teeth.

"Wow baby, what they did to you makes me so fucking pissed off. I could go after the whole damn family because of it" Aries growled.

"I could as well, it pisses me off to see those scars on you. I didn't realize that you had one on your face as well" Zeus said.

"That's because I always wear makeup to cover it up. The only time that I don't is if I'm going to be at home. I don't like people to see it. The one on my chest I can cover up with a tattoo but I'm not doing that to my face its gross" I said while scrunching up my nose.

"I agree with you there. The tattoo on your chest looks like it will look good once its done. I cant wait to see it finished. Now lets get in bed and watch a movie and eat snacks. I even brought the ice cream up" Zeus said.

So that's what we did. I wheeled over to the bed and then crawled up on it. I got into the middle of the bed and the guys got on each side of me.

Aries was on my right and Zeus was on my left. Aries reached down and took my boot off for me. And Zeus laid an ice pack that was wrapped in a towel on it for me.

We then settled down in bed and ate ice cream and our snacks and watched The Longest Yard. They guys even brought me up a cup of orange cream sickle slushy.

Chapter 35 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

When Aries finished talking to his dad, we went to his office. Zeus was still in the common room talking to the young guys at the table about something. We got into Aries' office, and he got me settled on his couch with my school bags. I got my books out and started studying, and he went to his desk to work on paperwork. I had to ask him for the internet password so that I could get online.

I was studying for my bookkeeping classes when I heard Zeus enter his office. I wasn't paying attention because my nose was stuck in my laptop, my notebook of notes, and my school book. Zeus came in and kissed me on the forehead and then went back to his office. I had an important lecture about the test on my laptop, so I got my headphones out of my purse and put them in.

"Hey Sexyman, I'm putting my headphones in to listen to a lecture. So if one of you needs my attention and can't get it, that's why" I said. "OK, baby." I had a nice set of Bluetooth headphones. They were orange camo earbuds. They had soft heads that went into your ear and were more comfortable to wear. I loved them.

I put my headphones in and got the lecture started. I took notes in class when the lecture was happening. So I followed along with my notes and jotted down more notes as I went. Things that I thought would be on the test next week. I wasn't looking forward to the tests. It wasn't the tests themselves, it was the fact that I had two on Tuesday and two on Thursday.

The lecture was an hour and a half long, and I kept pausing to take down more notes. I would even stop to get a drink from my slushy occasionally. The next time that I stopped the lecture to jot down notes, I went to reach for my cup but realized that it was empty. I just frowned at it and sat it back down. I then went back to my lecture.

I hadn't been watching it for long when I felt a tap on my shoulder. I stopped the lecture and pulled out my headphones. When I looked up, Zeus was standing above me. "Hey baby, I refilled your cup for you. I seen you go to take a drink and frown at it. So I figured that it was empty." "Thank you Stud. I didn't want to stop yet to go refill it, so I figured that I'd just wait. I've got about a half hour left of this lecture and was taking more notes about it. I want to pass this class. So thank you so much for filling my cup up" I said. "You're welcome baby, anything that you need, just yell, and I'll get it for you," he said.

Zeus went back to his office to get back to work. I took a drink of my slushy and then, put my headphones back in and went back to my lecture. I kept taking notes as I watched the lecture, and soon I was finished. I looked up and saw a few of the guys in the office talking with Aries. So I turned on Shinedown and went on to study the next subject.

I took out my notes for accounting and pulled up a practice test on it. I went through my notes a few times and then did the practice test. I managed to pass it with a hundred percent. As I finished the test and got my score, I saw that the professor had posted another practice test, so I did that one as well. And I managed to get another hundred percent on it.

I decided to take a break and use the bathroom. Luckily for me, Aries had on in his bathroom. I set my laptop on the coffee table and put my books and notebook on there as well. I took my headphones out and put them back in their little holder. I sat them on top of my laptop on the keyboard.

When I went to get up, Aries said “Do you need something baby? I can get you anything that you need or Zeus can.” “I’m good at the moment, I just need to use the bathroom,” I said. “Let me help you so you don’t have to use your scooter. We had to move it into Zeus’ office so that the guys could come in here. Here, I’ll carry you in there” he said as he picked me up.

Aries carried me into the bathroom and stood me beside the toilet. He then left the room and shut the door. Once he was gone, I did my business and then washed my hands. After my hands were dry, I hopped over to the door. When I opened it, he was standing right outside of it. “All done baby?” he asked me. “Yep,” I said.

He picked me up and walked back over to the couch and sat me down. After he kissed me on the forehead, he asked me “Do you need anything else baby?” “No, I’m good for, right now, but thank you.” “OK, it’s family day today, and we’re having a cookout tonight, but the moms are ordering pizza and sides for lunch. They’ve been busy working on shit for dinner and don’t want to cook for lunch too. Is there anything that you can’t eat or are allergic to?” he asked me.

“No, I can eat just about anything. I have no food allergies” I replied. “OK, baby, I’ll let you know when it’s time for lunch then.” “OK, thank you Sexyman.” Aries kissed me on the forehead and then went back to his desk. I grabbed my laptop and books and went back to studying. I put my headphones in and put my music on so that I didn’t hear what they were talking about. It also helped me to be able to study better.

I had two subjects down and one more to go. So I grabbed my books for my business class and got to studying them. I reread through my notes and looked back over the chapters that I had put a sticky tab on. We had a site online for the classes that we were in so that the professors could post stuff there as well. I was already logged onto the site where I did the practice test for my accounting class.

So I backed out of that class and went into the business class. The professor had a couple of different practice tests for us to do. So, after I was done going through my notes and books, I did both tests. I passed both of them with a hundred percent on each test. Doing this was not required, but was extra help. I wasn't sure because the professor didn't say for sure. But I think that we get extra credit for doing them. With the way that he advised us to do them. That it would help in the long run, makes me think that it'll be a bonus.

I don't know about anyone else, but I'm all about the bonus points. Even if I am rocking an A in class. It still doesn't hurt, and it looked better on us. So, anytime I think I can get the bonus points, I do the assignments. Not only that, but it gives me more practice and helps me to learn the work better.

When I was done studying for that class, I went to the last class that I needed to study for. I put my books for business class away and got out the ones for food safety and culinary fundamentals. I got out my notes and went to the class page online. I had a few different pre-tests and practice tests to do online. But I decided to study first and then do those.

I went through all of my notes and the pages in my books that I had marked with a sticky note. I switched my music over to Five Finger Death Punch and kept up with my studying. I reached over and got my cup and got a drink of my slushy. When I thought that I had my notes and all the information down, I set my books to the side and then got busy doing the pre-tests and practice tests.

It took a while to do and when I was finally done, I stretched and my back popped. I went into the other classes just to double-check that I didn't have any other work to do for them. I had everything done for them all. My art teacher reminded us to make sure that our paintings were done by Thursday, or Friday at the latest. She also reminded us that the ones who hadn't done the sketches needed to do them and turn them in by Tuesday. I had already done mine and turned it in, but I decided to do another one.

Not to turn in for work but to give it to her as a present. She was a lovely lady and she and her husband came to the dinner occasionally to eat. The last time that they were there I snuck a picture of them. They always sit side by side and I decided to take a picture of them together for her. So I put all of my books and notebooks back into my book bag and zipped it up.

I had about an hour until lunchtime, so I got my sketchpad and drawing pencils out of my laptop bag. I had a copy of the picture that I took of them in my sketchpad, so I laid it beside me. I wanted to make sure that I could see it well. I sat my laptop beside me on the coffee table so that I could still listen to music.

I didn't realize that while I was busy studying, guys just kept coming and going from the guys' offices. Before I started drawing, I looked up to take a drink of my slushy and saw Aries and Zeus talking with their dads. I sat my cup back down and started to draw my picture. I had the basic outline done and was going back over it when Zeus lifted my leg and sat down with me.

I looked up at him, but he was looking at his dads and Aries and his dads talking. So I went back to working on my picture. I was starting to shade in with my different colors when I felt my earbud being removed from my ear. I looked up at Zeus, and he had it in his hand. “Damn baby, you’ve been busy. You’ve barely looked up and haven’t talked at all other than to go to the bathroom. How much more do you have to do, baby” he asked me.

“I’m done now, I have been for a while. I did all the pre-tests for the test that I have to take this week and passed them all. Now I’m just working on a picture that I want to give to my art teacher. She and her husband come to the dinner occasionally to eat. I got a picture of them the last time that they were there. I wanted to do a picture of them together to give to her.”

Chapter 32 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

Aries, Zeus and I started off eating the ice cream while we were watching The Longest Yard. I loved this movie. Adam Sandlers movies are the best, he’s so funny.

The ice cream that I had the Prospect pick up was Eddy’s brownie flavor. Its my favorite and I wasn’t sure what kind that the guys liked. But they seem to like this.

We didn’t worry about bowls. We ate it right out of the container. When it was gone we just snuggled on the bed until Zeus decided that he had to have chips. And the guys both shared a bag.

Between dinner and the ice cream I was full. We watched all of The Longest Yard and when it went off the guys decided on another movie.

We ended up watching Top Gun. They both were getting into the movie and I was falling asleep. So I snuggled down in between them and closed my eyes.

I listened to them laugh and talk as I fell asleep. It was probably the best way that I had ever went to sleep before. The only thing that was missing was my other guys.

I slept really good and the only time that I woke up was to go to the bathroom. That was hard to do, let me tell ya.

I was on my back with Aries on my right, sleeping on his side. He had his arm across my stomach and was his hand was resting on Zeus’ back.

Zeus was sleeping on his stomach with his arm across my stomach and his hand on Aries’ ass. He’s got his head on my boob using it as a pillow.

I had my left arm wrapped around his back and my right arm was on his back. Aries had his left arm under my head. We were all pretty much tangled up together.

The guys' legs were all tangled in my mind but they were mind full of my right ankle even in their sleep. It still had a pillow underneath it to prop it up.

My scooter was on the right side of the bed so I eased the guys' arms off of me. And then eased out from under Zeus head.

I don't know how I managed to do it. But I was able to get out from under them and crawl over Aries to the side of the bed. And I did it all without hurting my ankle or waking them up.

I got up really carefully and wheeled into the bathroom. After I did my business and washed my hands I turned the light off and opened the door to head back to bed.

When I wheeled back out to the bed I grabbed my phone to check the time. It was three in the morning and I had texts from Dom and Marcello.

I read through them real quick and they weren't important so I figured that I'd wait until morning to text them back. I was too tired to do it now.

When I looked at the guys, Aries had taken my spot in bed and was cuddling with Zeus. It was so cute that I snuck a picture of them.

Since I couldn't get back into my spot I just got on the end and curled up against Aries' side and went back to sleep.

The next time I woke up it was morning and I could hear the guys talking and kissing. "How did we end up cuddled up together? Not that I don't mind, you know that I love to snuggle with you. But when we went to sleep our girl was in-between us. Now she's on the other side of you" Zeus said.

"Mmm, I have no clue. When I woke up she was over there. She may have tried to get up during the night and then wasn't able to get back in between us. We're so used to sleeping together or with Dom and Marcello that we automatically gravitate to each other. Gotta say though I loved having her in between us last night. It was almost perfect. If our other men would've been here it would be perfect" Aries said.

"I agree with you there. When Dom gets back we gotta sit down and talk. He needs to get his head out of his ass and talk to his family. I'm not hiding our relationship anymore. Especially not now that we have River. I'm not going to have her thinking that we're ashamed of her when we're not. She's ours and I'll let the world know it" Zeus said.

"I agree with that, no more hiding. And if he can't come clean to them then he's gotta figure shit out. Because I'm not doing it anymore. I'm ready for a family. I know River said no kids until she graduates. And I agree with that. But I won't hide our relationship that long. We have to wait on kids but not marriage. So he's either with us or not."

They talked for awhile longer about stuff that they had to do today and I dozed on and off. When I finally woke up they were not in bed anymore.

I could hear the shower running and moaning. And Zeus yelling to fuck him harder. I could only picture what was happening in there.

And I wanted to join in so badly. I was wet just thinking about it. But I was so nervous. I was afraid for them to see all of my scars.

With my shirt all that they could see was from my neck down to the top of my shirt. Right above my boobs. But these were two of the four men that I wanted to be with. They had to see sometime right. Might as well be now.

I didn't want to go all the way, not yet. Not without the rest of my guys here. But I could sit on the shower seat and give Zeus a blow job while Aries fucked him.

I took a deep breath and sat up on the bed. I left my boot off and took off my shirt and wiggled out of my shorts and panties. I laid them on the end of the bed and then stood up and used the scooter to get to the door.

The door was cracked so I could hear them. Aries said "She's got you worked up just like she does me doesn't she? I bet you want to fuck that tight pussy just like I do. Damn I cant wait to have one of us fucking her ass and pussy while another is fucking her mouth. And to have one of you being fucking while in her pussy as well. Damn it gets me harder just thinking about it."

"Yes she does, I want in that pussy so bad. I want to fuck her while your fucking me. I want Dom in her ass and Marcello in her mouth. Damn it Aries fuck me harder!" Zeus exclaimed.

"I bet you would cum right now wouldn't you if her warm wet mouth was around your dick sucking you off" Aries growled.

"If you don't stop talking like that they I will cum" Zeus whimpered. I decided to take pity on him and help him out.

The way that they were standing when I looked in the bathroom they were facing the back wall. Zeus had his hands and head on the wall. They were close to the shower seat but wasn't bent over it. So I could sneak in and join in.

As quietly as I could, I wheeled over to the shower. The end with the seat is open with no door. So I got as close as I could to the seat, and hoped in easily.

I didn't have to hop far and I sat down and slid over close to the guys. They didn't now that I was even there. Aries had his head back and eyes closed. And Zeus had his head down and closed.

He was really close to me so I reach out and wrapped first my hand and then my mouth around his dick. It was a little hard to do with the way they were standing but I managed it.

As soon as my hand and mouth wrapped around him, Zeus jerked and shouted. "Oh fuck baby, that mouth feels so good. Damn it, I'm not going to last."

I removed my mouth and looked up at him. I was still working my hand on him when I said "Oh yes you will."

Both of them had hooded eyes. And they both looked at me like I was their next meal. "Are you sure about this baby? You don't have to do this. That's why were in here. We didn't want to pressure you. We didn't think that you would be ready yet" Aries asked me so sweetly.

"Im sure, I wanna do this. I don't want to go all the way, not yet. Not tell your all here with me. But this i want to do. Now turn please so I can reach your dick, please" I said.

Aries pulled out long enough for the guys to turn towards me and then he was thrusting back in hard. Zeus moaned a low moan and then he did it louder when I licked up his dick from balls to tip.

I then took him all the way in my mouth. They were both huge, they had to be at least ten inches. It was gonna hurt the first few times I had two of them in me. Especially if Dom and Marcello are equally endowed.

While I was using my left hand on Zeus I was using my right hand on myself. As I was deep throating him I had my hand between my fold.

Id go back and forth between putting my fingers in my pussy to rubbing my clit. When Zeus figured out what I was doing, he bent over some and spread my legs some more.

He started using his fingers and working them in and out of me. We were all a panting mess and it felt so good. I could tell that both guys were ready to let go and I was as well.

Zeus had taken over on getting my orgasm from me. So I used my hand and slid it between both guys and started to rub Aries' balls. He started pounding harder with that.

"Get ready my loves because I'm not going to last long" he growled. "Im not either" Zeus moaned.

All it took was a couple more pumps and both guys came with a shout. I was so close and when Aries pulled out of Zeus, Zeus dropped down in front of me.

He put my right leg over his should and then licked up my clit and started sucking on it. His fingers went back to working in and out of me.

I threw my head back and was moaning. I reach down and grabbed his head and was holding him to me. I felt my left leg go over another shoulder and didn't realize who's it was until a few minutes later.

I felt more finger enter me and then back out a few times. Then they made there way down. The next thing I know I have a finger in my ass and Im screaming out my orgasm.

Chapter 33 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

When we finally caught our breath, the guys helped me to stand up and wash off. Aries held me while Zeus washed and rinsed my hair and then conditioned it.

Then Zeus held me while Aries put soap on a scrubby and washed my body. He traced my scar on my face with his finger. And then traced the scar on my chest when he went to wash it. He looked up at Zeus and his face had a look that would kill on it. When I looked at Zeus' it was the same way. When they were done they got me rinsed off and then sat me back on the bench.

They hurried up and washed their hair and bodies and then rinsed off. When they were done, they got out of the shower and got towels.

After Aries dried off and then wrapped a town around his hips he grabbed another towel. He stepped back into the shower and helped me stand up and then wrapped a towel around me.

Then he picked me up and carried me out to the counter. Where him and Zeus proceeded to dry me off. Once I was dry they brought my scooter over to me. The whole time that we were together, our sexy time in the shower and them washing and drying me off they were very careful with my ankle.

We all went to the closet to get dressed for the day. The guys had business at the club house so I put my bra and panties on. Then dug through my bag and got out a pair of shorts and a spaghetti strapped shirt and a crop top hoodie out. And a ballet flat.

I got dressed in everything except the hoodie. Then wheeled back into the bedroom. I laid my hoodie on the bed and sat down to put my boot back on and my ballet flat. Then went to the bathroom to brush my teeth.

I also had to brush my hair and put it up and put makeup and deodorant on. I sprayed some perfume on then I was done.

I wheeled out to the bedroom and the guys were waiting me on. While I was doing my makeup they had both came in to brush their teeth and hair and put cologne on.

I grabbed my phone and put it in my pocket and grabbed my hoodie. Zeus picked me up and Aries grabbed my scooter and we headed down stairs.

When we got down stairs Zeus sat me down at the island and Aries sat my scooter down beside of me. After Zeus sat me down he went to the refrigerator to get food out.

“Im not a five star chef or anything, but I can fix fried potatoes, bacon and eggs. Does that sound good for breakfast?” he asked us.

“Yep, you make that and ill fix the coffee and toast. How do you drink your coffee baby?” Aries asked me.

“That sounds wonderful for breakfast. I maybe working on being a chef but I’m not picky. I like my food. And I like my coffee with cinnamon toast creamer in it. But regular will be fine” I said while smiling at my guys.

“We happen to have your creamer. Dom mentioned that he seen you make a cup of coffee and that this is what you used so we got some. I think that they did as well. We wanted to be prepared just in case” Aries said while winking at me.

While they were working on breakfast I checked my texts from Dom and Marcello.

Dom- Hey Amore, I know that your probably in bed already. But I wanted to let you know that I miss you so much. We need to try to facetime tonight. Aries told me about the rest of your date. Im proud of you for sticking up for yourself. Don’t let anyone put their hands on you, ever. I know that the guys will protect you but I hate that we weren’t there to protect you as well. Ill try to text you tomorrow and then video chat you tomorrow night. Things have been really crazy over here. I miss you so much Amore.

Me- I miss you to Bellissimo so much. I cant wait until you guys are back. Yeah last night was something else. The guys and the club pretty much found out about my scars and what happened with Anthony and Loretta. I wanted to tell you all together but I was asked a question. And I had to tell my story to explain things. I don’t want to tell you over the phone. Id rather wait until your back. Please don’t be mad. But its not something that needs told over the phone. Text me and let me know If your able to video call me tonight. If you cant its fine. I miss you so much.

As I was texting Dom back Aries sat a cup of coffee down beside me and kissed me on the forehead. “Whatcha doin baby?” he asked me.

“Texting Dom, Marcello and my Nonna all back. I seen that I had texts from them all when I got up to go pee this morning. But it was to early for me to text them back. I was still sleepy so I laid back down” I said.

“So that’s why you got up. I wondered how I ended up in the middle of the bed. Breakfast wont be much longer.”

“Yeah I had a hell of a time getting up because of the way you both had me wrapped up. And Zeus was using my boobs for his pillow. When I finally got up and made it to the bathroom I came back to the both of you cuddling. I couldn’t get in-between you so I just got on the end” I said with a laugh.

The guys were laughing and talking as they went back to making breakfast. I went back to texting the guys.

Marcello- Amore, I miss you so damn much. With the way things are going here, I really wish I would’ve just stayed home with you. Especially after hearing how your date went, during and after. Bitches are lucky that I wasn’t there. Im going to video call you tonight no matter what. I know Dom said that he’d try but I need to see that beautiful face and smile. Text me when you get up beautiful, I miss you.

Me- My Bello, I miss you so much and wish you were here as well. But you gotta be with our man to protect him. I cant wait to video with you tonight. I miss your face as well. Last night was still a good date, drama withstanding. We got back to the guys’ house and cuddled and watched a movie. It was a good evening. I miss you Bello, make sure to video call me so I can see that sexy smile.

Nonna- Hey Amorina, I just wanted to let you know that we made it here. We just landed, were going to your Nonno’s parents place to rest for awhile. Ill text you later and check in, I hope that your ok. Stay away from Loretta while were gone. If she knows that we left shes liable to start something with you. Stick close to the guys and the club, when your not in school. I wish I could’ve just brought you with us. Be careful and I miss you.

Me- I miss you as well, Nonna. Tell Molto Nonno and Molto Nonna that I love and miss them. Don’t worry, I’ll stay far away from them all. The girls tried to get close last night when I was on my date. But they weren’t able to get into the restaurant because its one of Dom’s. He actually fired one of his managers and his hostess because of how I was treated. That and the fact that the hostess was letting the twins in after he told them that no one in that family was allowed back in. The guys are protecting me and one of Aries’ dads Legal, said that he would go with me to school this week as a body guard. Ill be fine, don’t worry. I wish I would’ve been able to go to. But I have school and this gives me a chance to get to know the guys better. I love you all and be careful.

When I was done texting everyone back I put my phone down and just watched my guys. It was nice to sit here and watch the way that they were together.

When they were done fixing breakfast they plated it up. Aries topped up my coffee cup and Zeus brought me a plate of food.

We ate in silence for a few minutes before anyone spoke. “We have some business to take care of today at the club house. Your welcome to come with us. Our moms will most likely be down there as well. And if you need to study you can sit in my office and do it. If you don’t think I’ll bother you. I have some calls to make” Aries said.

“I do have studying to do today. I want to make sure that I’ll pass my tests this week. And you won’t bother me. I usually put my headphones on and listen to music while I study. It helps me.”

“Ok when we’re all done we’ll load up and head over there” Aries said.

“I left your bags on the couch last night. I wasn’t sure where you would want to study at” Zeus told me.

As we finished up eating and drinking coffee Aries said “By the way baby, I was so pissed that I didn’t get to tell you. Your tattoo is going to look badass when it’s done. I like the way that it looks already. Who did you say is doing it?”

“Do you guys know Christian? He’s Dom’s cousin” I asked them. When they nodded I explained who they were to me. “When I told Chris that I wanted a tattoo. He said that he’d do it for me so that he knew it was done right. I’m an art major so I drew what I wanted up and he started putting it on me. He’s supposed to work on it more next weekend. He had an expo this weekend” I explained to them.

“It looks good babe, I like it. I’ll like it even better when it’s done and you’re not covering up and hiding anymore. You don’t have to do that around any of us, ya know for either of your scars. No one in the club would ever judge you. Most of the guys have tattoos to cover up scars of some kind. Most of them are from being in the military” Zeus told me.

“I’ll remember that, but it’s hard to be brave enough to show them. When I try I usually have my sister’s and their evil words in my head. It’s always the same thing. Them telling me that I’m ugly now and that no one will ever want me over them again.”

Chapter 34 – Their Beautiful Strong Queen

“I’ll remember that, I promise. And I’m not promising anything but I’ll try to take my hoodie off today. I don’t know if I will, but I’ll try” I said.

“No pressure, and please don’t think that we’re trying to pressure you. We want you to be comfortable. And to know that no matter what, the club house is a safe place for you. None of the brothers or sister will judge you. And if any of the club whores try to just let me know and I’ll deal with it. You’re our queen and will be treated as such” Zeus said.

“Now enough of the heavy. I’ll clean up here so we can get ready to head to the clubhouse. Zeus do you wanna go get Rivers cup so we can fill it up before we leave?” Aries asked him.

“Yep, I sure will. And just so that you know baby. We bought a bigger slushy machine for the club house. There’s one in the kitchen that’s for everyone. It’s got like four flavors I think. And we also got a single one that is for your flavor only. And no ones allowed to touch it” Zeus yelled as he ran up the stairs laughing.

I just shook my head and laughed at him. “He’s like a big kid. And you guys didn’t have to do that you know. I can drink other stuff. I don’t have to have slushy’s all the time.”

“I know that but we wanted to do it. And our moms wanted to do it. I asked my mom about them in front of Zeus’ mom. So I had to explain why I wanted one of them. Once she heard that it was for a woman that we were seeing she was all in on it. She ordered the one for here and also ordered the ones for the club house. Said it was a good idea and it gave the little kids something else besides pop to drink. We keep juice stalked but the littles see the bigger kids with pop and want it instead.”

“Yeah, to much pop isn’t good for the littles. When I have kids there not going to be allowed to have it until there a teenager. That’s what Nonna did with me” I said.

“I agree with that. So we’ll have to get another slushy machine when the kids are older so that their not trying to drink all of your orange cream sickles slushy” Aries said while laughing.

I just rolled my eye at him and laughed as well. I started to stand up to help him with the dishes. But he told me “Sit your beautiful ass back down, I’ve got this.”

So that’s what I did. I sat there and watched him clean up the kitchen. He put the dishes in the dish washer and then kicked it on. Then he got a scrubber and cleaned the stove and the counters off. He even whipped off the table and rinsed out the coffee pot and the basket.

By the time that he was done Zeus was back down here. He washed up my cup and rinsed it out and dried it off. Then he filled it up with my slushy.

When everyone was ready I got up and wheeled to the door. I had hung my purse up on a hook by the door when we came in last night. So I grabbed it and Zeus grabbed my book bag and laptop bag off of the couch.

Aries helped me out to the truck while Zeus locked the house back up. Once we were loaded up Aries drove down to the club house. It only took a couple of minutes.

It wouldn’t take long to walk down there. When I wasn’t using a knee scooter anyways.

When we pulled in the front and stopped Aries had me wait for a minute. “I forgot to give this to you” he said as he reach into his pants pocket.

He pulled out a keyring that had an orange camo crown on it and said queen. It also had a couple of keys on it. He handed them to me.

“These keys are to not only our house here. But the one that we share with Dom and Marcello as well. There’s also a key for the club house doors. Will have to scan your palm so that your in the system. At the gate you just have to scan your palm if a prospects not there. At the door for the house and the club house you have to put your key in. And then when you turn the knob you have to have your whole hand wrapped around it to scan it. It has biometrics in the door handles. Our resident hacker over there came up with it. So that if someones not apart of the club then they cant get in if all that they have is a key. It wont work alone. And it wont with it the hand used isn’t still attached” Aries said.

“Meaning that if someone tried to use a dead body to get it it wouldn’t work, right?” I asked them.

“That’s right, it will only work with people that’s alive. So I’ll put you in the system before you get started with your school work. You can sit in either of our offices. They’re side by side and they actually connect to each other. They have like big accordion doors that pull back. But their a lot sturdier and sound proof when there shut. And most of the time the doors are open. I think that they’re shut right now but whatever couch you want to sit on to study is fine. Mines a lot my comfortable than his is though” Zeus said with a wink.

“Whatever you bozo, and we can open them back up so that we can both work. And she can study and we can still spend time together. Now lets get inside” Aries said.

The guys both got out of the truck and I slid over to the passenger side. Zeus grabbed my bag and held onto my cup until I got out of the truck.

Aries got my scooter out of the truck and then lifted me down. After I was settled on my scooter I put my purse over my shoulder and took my cup from Zeus.

When we got inside the club there was a decent amount of people in there. But it wasn’t loud like you’d figure that it would be. It was pretty quiet for being morning.

It looked like most of the guys were nursing hang overs. Some of them were drinking coffee and eating breakfast. While others had a coffee cup but had their heads down.

It was mostly the younger guys that were nursing hangers I noticed. Zeus walked up to a table of younger guys. Well they were older than me but younger than my men. And yelled really loudly above them.

“GOOD MORNING, YOU FUCKING PANSY’S. GET YOUR ASSES UP. IF YOU CANT RUN WITH THE BIG DOGS THEN YOU NEED TO KEEP YOUR ASSES ON THE PORCH.”

Just about everyone that was in the room started laughing their asses off when the guys all jumped and fell off of their chairs. If was funny as hell I was laughing so hard. That I had to hold on to Aries.

He had his arm around me and bent down to my ear. "That's our brothers that Zeus just yelled at. You'll get to meet them now."

"I cant wait" I said with a laugh. We started making our way over there when Ivy came out of the kitchen. She started for Zeus until she seen me.

She made a u-turn for me and yelled over her shoulder at Zeus. "You leave your brothers alone mister. I remember a time when that was you. And I have picture proof. Oh pictures that reminds me that I have a bunch of pictures to show you River, of a little Zeus. Good morning sweet girl. How are you feeling this morning?" she asked me as she gave me a big hug.

"Good morning Ivy, im good this morning. And I cant wait to see those picture" I said with a laugh.

"No, no pictures and mom I wasn't ever little Zeus. I've always been a big boy" Zeus yelled out.

"Yes pictures, I want to see picture of you and Aries when you were little boys" I said with a laugh.

"I've got you covered babygirl. I've got a couple of photo albums of pictures that are of Aries" Sunny yelled as she came out of the kitchen. She came over and hugged me as well.

"Awesome I cant wait to see them" I said at the same time that Aries groaned. "Don't worry babe, Nonna's got a ton of photo albums of me. But the one album no one ever sees" I said.

"Why the hell not if you get to see the embarrassing pictures of us. Then we should get to see the embarrassing ones of you" Zeus said as he walked back up to us.

"Yeah, you wont find those in there. That album is from when Nonna first got custody of me. From the time that shit happened when I was five up until I was all healed up months later. I think that there is also other pictures in it to. Ones that the nanny had taken over the years. Nonna put them all in an album and locked it up. Just in case she ever needed them again against that family. Its her proof of my abuse" I whispered.

"Yeah we might not want to see those. I may end up killing that whole family if I did see them" Aries growled.

"I couldn't agree more with you there son. That family is on my shit list and better hope like hell that I never see them out anywhere. Good morning my favorite daughter in law" Ripper said as he walked up and hugged me.

He was followed by Legal, Dexter and Maverick. Each one of them gave me a big hug. "What the hell are we chopped liver" Zeus joked.

“Yeah, really, we all come through the door and the only one that any of you say good morning to is River. She gets all the love and we get ignored. I feel replaced” Aries joked while winking at me.

“That’s because we like her better than we like you losers” Bacardi yelled. Aries just flipped her off. And she laughed at him.

“Are you guys hungry there’s a ton of food this morning? All of the old ladies came down and made breakfast” Sunny said.

“No ma we’re good. Zeus made breakfast this morning at home. So we ate before coming down here” Aries told her.

“Zeus made breakfast huh. And what were you doing while he was slaving over your stove?” Ivy asked him.

“I was making coffee and toast” He told her. “I offered to fix breakfast but they wouldn’t let me. So I sat and watched the show” I said while laughing.

“That’s how you do it” Sunny laughed. “What do you guys have planned for today?” Ripper asked us.

“I gotta catch up on some work in the office and Zeus does as well. So River’s going to sit in the office with us and study for her tests this week. Why do you have shit you need us to do?” Aries asked his dad.
