

Strongest 646

Chapter 647-Sadie Dudley Entering the Capital!

“Dale, don’t waste your breath on him. I can see that this kid’s lung capacity is shockingly large. He’s definitely a martial artist. Let’s cripple him and dump him at the dark division’s imperial prison!” Another young man said coldly.

“Is the food in the imperial prison of the dark division delicious?” asked Luke Yates curiously.

The eagle-nosed youth was speechless.

After a moment of speechlessness.

The young man, Dale Keene, said angrily, “Where did this idiot come from?”

How dare you come to the southern gate of the capital and behave atrociously? Don’t you know what kind of place this is?!” “As a martial artist, you dare to behave atrociously. Do you really think that no one in the capital can do anything to you?”

Finn Keene said coldly.

In the capital city, genius martial artists were everywhere.

Moreover, the final venue for the national martial arts examination was in the capital.

Luke’s performance at the southern gate had attracted the attention of outsiders, but no one dared to approach.

That was because a ten-mile radius around the capital's southern gate was being guarded by capital garrison and was under martial law.

At each street corner, there were capital garrison troops stationed, faintly releasing killing intent.

Any martial artist who saw this lineup understood that something had happened. The capital garrison had sealed off this area.

If you saw something you shouldn't see, the capital garrison would kill you on the spot.

Then you would have no chance to even regret it.

Finn and the other two came from nowhere and went straight to the southern gate.

Luke tilted his head and said seriously, "I don't know if I'm behaving atrociously or not, but I know that no one in the capital can control me!" He told the truth in all seriousness.

Dale laughed coldly. "In the capital, the children of the various powerful families and aristocratic families are gathered together. Madmen are everywhere, but no one dares to say that no one in the capital can control him. You are the only one." "Kid, you've offended us three brothers today!" "If you want to blame someone, blame yourself. You're way too arrogant!" Finn said angrily.

As the two of them spoke, they were filled with arrogance. It was as if as locals of the capital, they had a natural disdain for outsiders like the little fool.

"So, the three of you are here to fight me?" Luke asked after realizing what was going on.

"Are you a fool?" Finn's words angered the little fool.

Luke was a little angry and said seriously, "Don't call me stupid. My brother even praises me for being quick-witted sometimes!" "You're an idiot egg!" However, Finn didn't even try to hide his mockery.

A breeze blew past.

Behind Finn, a young man in white appeared. He had on a ghost mask and said indifferently, "I didn't hear what you said just now!" The ghost-faced youth was Eggy, Skylar Neal!

He had been reflecting on his mistakes at the foot of the wall, but he heard someone call him an idiot egg.

Eggy appeared in a flash.

Finn turned around in shock and said angrily, 'Who are you? Who are you trying to scare with a mask on?' Skylar stood with his hands behind his back. His eyes glanced over slightly as wind blew under his feet, sweeping across the ground.

This was the release of force!

Swoosh!

The force swept through Finn like a huge force, directly sending him flying onto the city wall.

Dale, one of the two companions who came with him, said in horror, "Force release, king battle technique. You are a king?!" "How noisy!" Skylar raised his left hand and gathered his strength outside his palm. It turned into an invisible sword light that swept across Dale.

The invisible sword light pierced through Dale's shoulder and nailed him to the ancient city wall.

Eggy was decisive, ruthless, and full of killing intent, just like his brother, Braydon Neal.

Skylar carried Little Fool and turned to leave, saying, "Clean them up and don't let any outsiders in!" "Yes, sir!" The capital garrison immediately took Finn and the other two away.

Dale was severely injured. He stared at Skylar's back and said hoarsely, "Manifestation of force, a pinnacle combat technique!" "Shut up!" The youth who dragged Dale away slapped Dale's head, knocking him unconscious.

Outsiders might not understand Eggy, but how could the capital garrison not understand him?

He was a dangerous person in the Northern Army, second only to the commander, Braydon.

Luke was held by Skylar by the back of his head. He was floating in the air and sitting cross-legged. He swayed his body leisurely as if he was playing on a swing.

Little Fool loved to play. It was best to have someone to play with him.

No one played with him, so he played by himself!

Just like at the southern gate of the capital city, when no one was playing with Little Fool, he played the bagpipe and tormented the entire capital city.

Skylar threw the little fool onto the stone steps of the pavilion and said softly, "Sadie, it's almost noon!" After saying that, Dominic Lowe's expression changed.

Don't forget that Sadie Dudley's purpose for coming down the mountain was for the capital decree incident last night.

This matter was far from over!

Earlier, Hawkins Landow said that he would give Sadie an explanation before noon.

It was already noon.

Where was the explanation from the capital?

Sadie's phoenix eyes did not waver. She gently raised her small feet and slowly walked toward the southern gate of the capital. Her cold back and black hair fell like a waterfall on her shoulders.

Dominic stared at her back, turned around, and said hoarsely, "Northern King!" "Sadie came down from Mount Bliz, so you should know the consequences." Braydon stood in the pavilion with his hands behind his back, his back facing Dominic.

This sentence was equivalent to telling Dominic that Braydon would no longer stop Sadie from doing what she wanted to do.

It was obvious who was more important between Dominic and Sadie.

In Braydon's heart, Dominic could not compare to Sadie who had taken care of him since he was young.

Braydon had no intention of stopping Sadie from entering the capital.

Westley Hader and the others all knew that once Sadie entered the capital, all the pinnacles would die.

Sadie was as cold as an immortal. With every step she took, she was a little closer to the southern gate of the capital.

Tobey Lapras and the others sneakily turned around. None of the six little cowards dared to stop Sadie.

This girl in white was less than ten meters away from the capital's southern gate!

In the next second, she was less than seven meters away!

When Sadie walked to the southern gate of the capital, she was just about to enter the capital.

A figure arrived. It was the pale-faced old imperial preceptor Hawkins.

Sadie had shattered his door to the pinnacle with one palm, and he was heavily injured, but he was still moving around.

It was an invisible display of a martial artist's powerful physique!

Sadie stopped and looked at him with her clear eyes.

Hawkins withstood the immense pressure and bowed, saying, "The person who faked the capital decree last night has been found. As long as you don't enter the capital, I'll hand him over to you!" Bang!

Sadie's slender figure gave off a powerful aura.

A cold and otherworldly girl's aura, like a fairy from afar!

Up close, it was like a heavenly might that had landed on Hawkins's shoulders, instantly making him kneel on both knees.

Not only did the floor crack, but Hawkins's knees were also faintly red. His legs had probably been crippled.

Sadie's cherry lips opened slightly, and her voice was like the sound of nature..

She looked at him coldly and asked indifferently, "Are you threatening me?"

Chapter 648-The World's Pinnacles are All Slaves Hawkins Landow's body trembled, and he said hoarsely, "I wouldn't dare!" Under everyone's watchful eyes.

Sadie Dudley moved elegantly, her toes gently touching the red carpet in front of her.

She had entered the capital!

It was obvious that Hawkins was still planning to brush off the Northern Army's people!

Hawkins even said that as long as Sadie Dudley did not enter the capital, he would hand over the person who passed on the fake capital decree to her.

Was this a negotiation or a coercion?

Hawkins had done something extremely stupid.

Sadie waited until noon, but there was no explanation, so she entered the capital.

Today, all the pinnacle experts in the capital would die!

The moment this girl in a white dress stepped into the capital.

All corners of the capital were filled with pinnacles!

From the moment Sadie Dudley arrived outside the southern gate of the capital, all the important figures who were cultivating in seclusion in the capital were alarmed!

The big shots naturally referred to the pinnacle martial artists. In the current era, pinnacles did not show themselves, and kings were the revered one.

All because of Kylo ban!

Sadie was one of the enforcers of the ban.

Accompanied by a long sigh, a voice said, "Landon Kirk welcomes miss to the capital!" "Steven Sattler welcomes miss to the capital!" "Theron Gray welcomes miss to the capital!" "Johnny Simpson welcomes miss to the capital!" Old voices came from all directions in the capital.

At this time, those who dared to speak were all pinnacle martial artists without exception.

The way these pinnacle old antiques addressed her was something to ponder upon.

Sadie's white cloth boots lightly stepped on the soft red carpet, ignoring the greetings of these pinnacle martial artists.

"Do you want to kill yourself, or should I help you?" she asked softly. Just one sentence was directed at all the pinnacle martial artists.

What did pinnacle martial artists represent?

They were figures who stood at the pinnacle of martial arts.

All pinnacles had great power, and their status was extremely high! Unfortunately, in her eyes, there was no difference between a pinnacle and king Today, Sadie Dudley wanted to force all the pinnacle martial artists to death.

An old man in a white suit slowly walked toward the southern gate. He was the first old man to speak after Sadie arrived in the capital.

His name was Landon Kirk!

Just the surname 'Kirk' was probably related to the Kirk powerful family.

Landon looked like a sixty-year-old man with white hair and a youthful face, but his actual age was probably double that.

He was blocking the path ahead!

Sadie stood there quietly, her cold eyes not looking at Landon.

It was not enough for him, one of the pinnacle experts in the capital, to appear!

Landon slowly bent over and bowed. “We’ve been cultivating in seclusion in the capital for a hundred years. I don’t know what we’ve done wrong, but we’ve caused the young miss to personally come here!” “Who went to the yin-yang headquarters seven years ago?” Sadie’s soft voice was like the sound of nature, able to calm the hearts of others.

However, everyone knew how terrifying this girl in white was.

Landon explained, “We have followed Kylo’s ban and have never left the capital for a hundred years. We have hidden ourselves from the world and cultivated in peace.” Landon’s words clearly stated that he would never admit that he had been to the yin-yang headquarters.

Was Landon lying, or was Frediano Jadanza lying?

Seven years ago, Frediano had been saved in the yin-yang headquarters. The four great entities’ powerhouses had joined forces to oppress Frediano.

If it wasn’t for Braydon Neal killing his way into Lowell’s yin-yang headquarters last night, Sadie probably wouldn’t have known about this.

The four great entities believed that they had executed this flawlessly!

However, there was no such thing as an impenetrable wall in this world.

The Frediano from seven years ago was still too young and did not understand how terrifying Sadie was.

If the top figures of the four entities really dared to go to the northern desert, they would have killed their way there and killed all the young Qilin sons of the Northern Army!

However, would the four entities dare to do that?

They would be asking to die if they brazenly attacked the young master of Kyo!

Who said that Braydon didn't have a guardian when he was young?

Sadie was Braydon's guardian!

Not only did she take care of Braydon, but she was also Braydon's guardian in secret.

The girl in white only lived for the youth in white.

As for her identity as the guardian of the Northern Army, she was more like the guardian of Braydon Neal.

Also, why did the various great pinnacles of the capital address Sadie as Miss?

This matter had to be traced back to a hundred years ago!

A hundred years ago, the hundred countries of the world were like a pack of wolves. While Hansworth's power was weak, major events happened to the people and the martial arts world, causing chaos in the world.

Hundreds of countries crossed the border to invade Hansworth like a pack of wolves.

In that era, demons ran rampant.

There were also peerless geniuses who had appeared out of nowhere to protect Hansworth.

A hundred years ago, the most terrifying figure was born.

No one dared to forget those words.

This extremely domineering sentence made all the pinnacle experts tremble in fear.

The six words of that sentence were, "The world's pinnacles are all slaves!" One could imagine how arrogant these words were.

One sentence offended all the pinnacle martial artists in the world.

He had even offended the pinnacles of the hundred countries outside the borders.

It was equivalent to humiliating everyone!

Seeing the world's pinnacle martial artists as slaves? This person was either a madman or a fool.

If it was a normal person, he would definitely be someone who was ferocious and brave.

And that person was Donovan Dudley.

He was also Sadie's father!

Back then, Donovan Dudley had almost achieved this step. Almost all the pinnacle martial artists in the world were slaves to him.

He used the pinnacle martial arts path to help pseudo-pinnacles break through the last step.

He wielded his sword to kill as he stood tall in the world. He was an invincible legend.

A single person could suppress the four entities!

Old antiques like Landon became pinnacles in the riot a hundred years ago.

Therefore, they must have seen Donovan's style of doing things.

How could Landon and the others dare to disrespect Sadie in the capital?

That was why in her eyes, there was no difference between a pinnacle and a king!

Kylo's ban suppressed the world's pinnacles and prevented them from appearing in the world.

It was not without reason!

At this moment.

Landon and the others were clearly refusing to admit that they had been to the yin-yang headquarters.

Pinnacles were dignified figures! Yet here they were, refusing to admit to something they had done.

But thinking about it carefully, it made sense.

At this moment, who would dare to admit that they were at the yin-yang headquarters seven years ago!

If they dared to admit it, they would die!

Sadie could cripple Hawkins Landow with a single palm, and she could kill all the pinnacle martial artists in the capital with a single thought.

Seven years ago, the pinnacles of the four great entities appeared and secretly bullied Frediano.

This matter would not be left unsettled!

Since the various pinnacles did not admit that they had been to the yin-yang headquarters.

Then... Everyone was guilty!

Kill them all!

Sadie took a step forward and raised her left arm. Her sleeves rolled down, revealing a part of her arm. Her fair left hand landed gently.

Landon's face changed. He hadn't expected the white-robed girl to attack him just like that.

He felt a great sense of danger!

"What did I do wrong, Miss? For you to take it upon yourself to make a move!" Landon raised his hand in anger. "Not kneeling when you see me. That's what you've done wrong!" Sadie's delicate hand gently landed..

Chapter 649-The Two Fools of the Northern Territory Landon Kirk took the attack head-on.

Boom!

Their palms met. With just one palm, Landon's right arm was severed, and blood splattered across the capital.

One had to know that the most terrifying thing about pinnacle martial artists was their physique!

Their physique was so strong that it could shake mountains!

They could live for 500 years!

And now, Sadie had crippled Landon with one palm.

In the next moment, Sadie walked past him. She stepped on the red carpet and sucked in a black spear from afar.

The spear was incomparably sharp. It instantly pierced through Landon's abdomen and body, nailing him to the ancient city wall.

The spear pierced the pinnacle.

Blood splattered on the ancient city wall.

The spear pierced through Landon's pinnacle door.

Sadie had crippled him!

He was a pinnacle martial artist!

A pinnacle couldn't be humiliated or provoked.

Yet, Sadie regarded him as an ant!

It wasn't that the pinnacle was weak, but that this girl from Mount Bliz was way too terrifying.

Her hair was like a black waterfall. She was not physically strong, but her strength was extremely terrifying!

One had to know how strong the physical fitness of the most ordinary pinnacle martial artist was.

The basic speed of a pinnacle martial artist could reach 150 meters per second!

This was the minimum standard.

As for how strong he was?

The most obvious difference between pinnacles and kings was strength.

A king could release force and use the primordial chaos force to amplify his strength by 18 times. The explosive power of a punch was shocking.

Pinnacle martial artists were the exact opposite.

This kind of martial artist's body was different from ordinary people's body.

They refined the force into their bodies and turned the amplified power into their own physical strength.

This was the difference between a pinnacle and a king!

The power of an ordinary punch from a pinnacle was over 10,000 pounds!

Could an ordinary person imagine that the human body could possess such terrifying strength?

A single palm strike could split a stone!

This was the charm of ancient martial arts.

If an ordinary person did not understand ancient martial arts, they would not be able to practice martial arts in their lifetime.

Therefore, martial artists and ordinary people were people from two different worlds.

An ordinary pinnacle had a strength of 10,000 pounds.

However, there were some who were far more powerful than that.

Take Manuel Sharp as an example. That old rat could punch out a force of 50,000 pounds.

When forced into a corner, his fist strength reached 70,000 pounds!

What did that mean?

It meant that one punch could kill a whole bunch of kings.

A king's basic strength was 500 pounds, so what if it was amplified 18 times?

In front of a pinnacle, it was simply not enough!

If you were to attack a veteran pinnacle like Manuel with all your might, the final result would probably be you getting injured instead!

There was a huge difference in strength between pinnacle martial artists.

However, there was one undeniable characteristic, and that was that they were extremely powerful.

Their speed and strength were above kings.

How could a pinnacle martial artist who could live for five hundred years be that simple!

Right now, Sadie, who had entered the capital alone, wanted to cripple all the pinnacle martial artists.

She was doing this because Braydon Neal had suffered last night.

Sadie, who had a quiet personality, had the quiet gentleness of a girl and a peerless beauty.

Outside the capital's southern gate, in a pavilion.

Braydon sat quietly and sipped tea alone. He glanced at the pale Dominic Lowe and gently sipped his bitter tea. "Duke Lowe, aren't you going to the capital to take a look?" "No one can stop the young miss of Kylo from entering the capital!" Dominic's voice was low, and his eyes revealed despair.

Today was the day the pinnacle martial artists in the capital would die!

That girl had a cold and indifferent nature, and all the pinnacles were fleeing from her!

Dominic sat on the ground and wailed, "The Hansworth martial arts lineage is going to be broken today!" An old man sitting on the ground, right at Braydon's feet, wailing.

Who could take this!

Luke Yates immediately perked up. He took out a violin from God knows where and stuffed it into Tobey Lapras's hands. He picked up the bagpipe and started playing. "Tobey, quickly play the violin!" With the support of force, Little Fool played the bagpipe, which was really earth-shattering.

In addition to Dominic's wailing, those who did not know would really think that someone's father had died. He was crying so sadly!

Tobey sat in the pavilion with the violin in his hand. Since he had nothing to do, he started playing it gently.

An unpleasant sound sounded.

Tobey forcefully played the violin, creating a terrible sound.

Dominic, who was wailing, stared at Tobey and the little fool who was playing the bagpipe with his mouth agape.

The combination of bagpipe and violin could form a music class!

Little Fool stuck out its butt, shook his head, and kept playing the bagpipe.

Tobey was also excited, playing the violin with all his might.

The two sounded interweaved together, as if someone was going to a funeral.

Frediano Jadanza was stunned when he saw this scene.

Braydon shook his head gently, his eyes revealing his love for his younger brother. He didn't stop them from playing.

The two of them had liked to play together since they were young.

They had not been together for many years since they were all grown up.

Now that they were together, the two simple-minded people were not easy to deal with. If they were to mess around, the people around them would not be able to live peacefully.

“Duke Lowe, why aren’t you crying?” Braydon asked with a faint smile.

Dominic really could not cry anymore. The grief that had been brewing for a long time was ruined by the little fool’s bagpipe song.

Previously, Dominic knelt down on the ground.

Duke Lowe’s kneeling had resulted in Braydon stopping Sadie from entering the capital.

Now, Dominic was sitting on the ground and crying. He wanted to use this sad cry to get Braydon to stop Sadie once more.

Unfortunately, Dominic did not consider one important thing.

He had no idea what the relationship between Braydon and Sadie was!

Don’t forget, since Braydon was young, Sadie was the one who had been by his side for the longest time!

Braydon clasped his hands behind his back and said softly, “Duke Lowe, you should enter the capital to take a look. If Sadie is injured, all corners of the capital will be covered in cold swords!” His calm words were as calm as water, but there was a murderous intent that soared to the sky.

Cold swords all over the capital.

What did it mean?

Dominic's entire body trembled slightly, and he was filled with complaints deep down!

He wanted Braydon to help him, but now, the young king was obviously not buying it!

The white-robed youth only had eyes for the white-robed girl.

If the girl was injured, it would be the day cold swords hung in the sky above the capital.

At that time, it would surely be terrifying to say the least!

Dominic turned around and hurried into the capital, realizing that the situation was getting worse.

Braydon held the warm jade teacup in his left hand and said softly, "Duke Lowe, take care. Although I swore last night that I would never set foot in the capital again, this is the land of Hansworth!

"The central axis of the capital hasn't changed in hundreds of years, right?"

"Why don't we change it today?" Braydon held the teacup in his left hand and lightly sipped the bitter tea. He smiled faintly.

The murderous intent in his words was not being concealed at all.

The central axis of a city was the core of the entire city.

What did the change in the central axis mean?

It meant that the entire city had to move!

The city was dead and could not be moved.

If they wanted to move it, they could only raze some places and then build new buildings..

Chapter 650-Durham Family Buildings and residential areas would change places.

This meant that the entire city had to be moved.

The central axis would also change!

“You can’t do this!” Dominic Lowe said hoarsely.

“Then, let’s try it!” Braydon Neal stood with his hands behind his back in front of the capital’s southern gate.

The six little cowards stood quietly behind him, their bodies emitting killing intent. Frediano Jadanza and little fool were also beside them.

Braydon would never set foot in the capital again.

However, if Sadie Dudley was caught in a crisis in the capital... Braydon would definitely make a move and push back the central axis of the capital by a hundred miles!

However, Braydon was worrying too much!

Who could hurt her?!

In the capital, the capital garrison had cleared out the entire southern territory. The surrounding empty streets were so empty that not even a person could be seen.

Sadie was walking quietly. Landon Kirk had had his pinnacle door destroyed as he was nailed on the ancient city wall.

Suddenly, an old man in his sixties and another old man appeared.

“Steven Sattler greets the young miss!” When the pinnacle came forward, he first bowed, then knelt on both knees, welcoming her with great courtesy.

Don't forget Landon's fate!

How would he be immediately crippled if he did not kneel upon seeing her.

Landon, whose pinnacle door had been crippled, had wasted a hundred years of hard work. It would be better to kill him instead of suffering so much pain. Another old man knelt down and said, “Theron Gray greets the young miss!” Sadie's father, Donovan Dudley, the first disciple of Kylo, once suppressed an era and said that all pinnacle martial artists were slaves!

From the way Steven and the others addressed Sadie, it could be vaguely seen.

Back then, this group of old things had probably really been kept as slaves by Donovan!

Donovan was really strong!

In terms of seniority, Braydon would have to call him Eldest Senior Brother.

There were far more ruthless people in Kylo than outsiders could imagine.

None of Braydon's seniors were good people.

To be precise, none of them were kind people.

They were all extremely vicious people!

The Kylo Ruins had people who truly avoided the world and didn't care about worldly affairs. They were the top forces among those who cultivated in seclusion.

In the past hundred years, only Braydon, Jonah Shaw, and a few others from the Kylo lineage had appeared.

They were all young masters of Kylo!

To know how strong Kylo was, one just had to look at these few young masters!

Moreover, Braydon was young and held a high position.

"Seven years ago, did you go to the yin-yang headquarters?" Sadie asked softly.

"Absolutely not!" Steven did not dare to admit it.

At this point, even if he had been there, he had to deny it!

If he admitted it, he would definitely die!

Sadie raised her jade-like hands, wanting to cripple the two people's pinnacle door.

Steven finally understood.

The pinnacles who went to the yin-yang headquarters seven years ago were dead for sure.

Those who didn't go would definitely have their pinnacle doors crippled!

Just as Sadie was about to attack.

A terrifying aura swept over like the might of the heavens. The wind on the street howled as a black figure arrived from afar. Each step was 200 meters far, and he held a black spear in his hand.

The black spear swept over like a flood dragon, forming an extremely powerful spear aura that instantly arrived.

The ten-mile-long red carpet was crushed by the sharp spear intent!

The spearhead arrived in the blink of an eye, and the cold light that it spat out pierced toward Sadie's swan-like neck.

That one strike was meant to kill!

"Formation-breaking Spear?" Steven retreated in shock. "Overlord Formation-breaking Spear. His weapon!" Theron's eyes revealed a hint of horror.

Whose weapon was this?

Outside the capital's southern gate, the eyes of those little cowards revealed shock and anger.

Jonah took a step forward and entered through the southern gate of the capital.

He said angrily, "Kinsley Durham, where did you get the Overlord Formation-breaking Spear?" "Where is my teacher?" The white robed gray wolf, Hendrix Bailey, had a furious look in his eyes.

The Overlord Formation-breaking Spear was Finley Yanagi's weapon!

Finley Yanagi was their teacher.

After Finley Yanagi went missing, the Northern Army never stopped looking for him.

Braydon stood outside the city gate with his hands behind his back. The dust-free cloth on his body fluttered in the wind. Thousands of forces were released from his body, slowly forming the Qilin force. The awe-inspiring cloud treading Qilin roared at the capital.

The Qilin was roaring in the capital!

This was the Northern King's fury!

The appearance of the Overlord Formation-breaking Spear made Braydon really angry.

Shadow appeared last night, and the Formation-breaking Spear appeared today.

Then, where was Finley Yanagi?

Braydon clasped his hands behind his back and formed the Qilin form. The terrifying killing intent on his thin body filled half of the capital.

It was the shocking killing intent formed by millions of corpses. "Capture him and pry open his mouth!" Braydon said coldly.

"Yes, sir!" Jonah and the others obeyed. The little fool howled and wanted to rush up to Kinsley, but Braydon lifted his hand and held him by the back of his head, not letting him cause trouble. The little fool trashed around wildly and struggled to rush up to fight!

Little did he know that Kinsley was not to be trifled with!

Just from his name, it could be seen that Kinsley came from the Durham family.

The Durham family was extremely dangerous.

At the same time, Kinsley was ranked ninth on the pinnacle ranking!

Even Taran Reynolds at his peak was ranked behind him.

Kinsley held the Overlord Formation-breaking Spear and pointed it at Sadie.

He said coldly, "Miss Kylo, this farce should end here!" The spearhead was extremely sharp. It stopped a meter away from Sadie. The spearhead seemed to have encountered resistance and was unable to advance.

Kinsley looked like a young man. He had long white hair at his temples. The vicissitudes of life in his eyes showed that he was definitely not younger than Steven and the other old men.

A hundred years ago, he was ranked ninth on the pinnacle ranking and was known as the number one pinnacle in northwestern Joronto.

He was extremely powerful!

Sadie's delicate body emitted a ruthless power that sealed everything in the surroundings.

With absolute crushing strength, she suppressed the Formation-breaking Spear, and it was unable to get close.

Kinsley took a step forward and the veins on his arms bulged. He shouted coldly, "Break!" The spearhead advanced by three inches!

Steven and the others revealed solemn expressions.

In the capital, Kinsley was an existence that they could not afford to offend.

Pinnacle martial artists were divided into strong and weak.

And Kinsley was the strongest among the pinnacle martial artists.

Vicious people who could be ranked on the pinnacle ranking were all extremely fierce.

Kinsley was no exception. He held the Overlord Formation-breaking Spear and released a sharp aura as if he wanted to break the sky. His body was like a longbow and the spear in his hand was like a sharp arrow. He wanted to take Sadie's life.

The power of the attack, as well as the faint ripples it emanated, caused Theron and the others to feel a bone-piercing killing intent.

Kinsley's body had an extremely powerful explosive power.

He had refined his force into his body. The explosive power of his punch was definitely not weaker than Manuel Sharp's.

Or rather, far above his!

More importantly, the Overlord Formation -Breaking Spear was not an ordinary item.

It was Finley Yanagi's weapon from back then!

Its quality was not inferior to the Northern King sword!