Chapter 806: Suspected, Strictly Examined

The Northern Army's unusual movements attracted the attention of the whole world.

The Delta Empire was naturally the most shocked and furious. The Northern Army had come out in full force, and the ten legions had collectively gone south. The steel flood had rushed directly to Hollow Pass.

The Northern Army went south to support Hollow Pass.

To the Delta Empire, they were clearly targeting them!

This was the Northern Army, the leader of the seven elites of Hansworth!

The Northern Army had never been defeated since its establishment.

Wherever the cold sword pointed, it looked disdainful!

How could the Delta Empire not be shocked!

In just one day, the Delta Empire suffered heavy losses.

At this moment, in Morsby's palace.

All the officials of the Delta Empire were gathered here.

A dignified middle-aged man sat on the throne made of pure gold in the hall. He was about 50 years old and had mottled white hair at his temples. He was dignified. Wherever his gaze landed, everyone lowered their heads.

This was the big shot who was in charge of the Delta Empire.

His name was Ian Fick.

Ian suddenly stood up; somewhat angry. His eyes sharply looked at the left side of the hall, asking Jaziel Sherman standing beside him in a dignified manner, "Jaziel, who killed the hundred pinnacles at the Broken Blade Cliff?"

"They all died at the hands of the Northern King, Braydon Neal. His strength has surpassed the hundred countries' evaluation!"

Jaziel said slowly, neither servile nor overbearing.

In the hall, there was a white-skinned old man, one of the elders of the Delta Empire. His name was Lex Sasun.

“Sir Ian, Jaziel is lying!”

“Hmm?”

Ian’s gaze turned cold as he stared at Lex.

To be honest, everyone present was suspicious of Jaziel.

During the battle at the Broken Blade Cliff during the day, the hundred pinnacles had lost their lives in the wilderness.

Only Jaziel and Korbyn Jessen were safe and sound!

Korbyn, the son-in-law of the Iota Empire, openly went against the other fifteen countries at the roundtable meeting, saying that he would not join the plan to kill Braydon.

All of the pinnacles of the Iota Empire did not make a move. Korbyn did not participate, so he could survive. This was still acceptable.

But what about Jaziel?

Why was he able to escape from King Braydon's blade? Why didn't Braydon kill him?

Even if Braydon let him live, why didn't the old Daoist Giannis Zazueta kill him?

An explanation was needed!

If Jaziel did not give an explanation, he would probably be subjected to the highest level of secret investigation by the Delta Empire tonight. In the hall, everyone from the Delta Empire stared coldly at Jaziel.

Everyone was suspicious of Jaziel.

Jaziel stood in the hall, dressed in black, exuding a cold and murderous aura. He glanced at Lex and said calmly, "In your eyes, I was wrong not to die in battle during the day, right?"

"Then, please tell me why Braydon gave you a way out!"

Lex questioned Jaziel in court.

He had to give an explanation!

Even Ian, the ruler of the Delta Empire, who was sitting at the head of the table, didn't say anything.

Obviously, he also wanted to hear Jaziel's explanation.

After all, among the hundred pinnacles, only Jaziel and Korbyn survived.

Korbyn was a pinnacle of the Iota Empire, and he had already returned home.

If Ian and the others wanted to know everything, they had to find out through Jaziel's explanation.

"Jaziel, we need to give an explanation to the various countries regarding the battle that happened. The death of a hundred pinnacles is an unbearable pain for all parties."

From the beginning of the roundtable meeting, the 16 countries around the world were paying attention to it and had even sent a hundred pinnacles to kill Braydon.

But what was the final result?

The pinnacles had all died in battle, and King Braydon retreated unharmed.

There must be a big problem here!

And the problem was very serious.

Or rather, the contents of the roundtable meeting had been leaked!

All the countries demanded an explanation from the Delta Empire.

Jaziel did not panic at all.

The commander of the Ghost Blade Elite of the Northern Army began to speak without a shift in his demeanor.

Jaziel said calmly, "At the roundtable meeting, I proposed to ambush and kill

King Braydon Neal here at Odin Castle. However, Jerry Alcott of the Alpha

Empire stopped me with all his might. He wanted to kill Braydon Neal at the Broken Blade Cliff, saying that this was the only way for Braydon to reach the Delta Empire!”

“Why didn’t you stop them? There’s a hermit in the Broken Blade Cliff.”

Lex felt that Jaziel was lying.

In other words, Lex did not believe what Jaziel said.

“Continue!” Ian said calmly.

“Of course, I know that there’s a hidden and terrifying martial artist at the Broken Blade Cliff. Jerry Alcott and the Zeta Empire’s Sharma Dylan said that they would kill Braydon Neal outside the Broken Blade Cliff and would not disturb the martial artist inside!”

Jaziel calmly looked at Ian, who was sitting at the head of the table.

In any case, only Jaziel and Korbyn survived the battle during the day.

One of them was the Northern Army No. 2 hidden agent.

One of them was the Northern Army No. 6 hidden agent!

Korbyn, the No. 6 hidden agent, was hiding in the Iota Empire. He was also the son-in-law of the Iota Empire. He had joined the cabinet and was in charge of the Iota Empire's Ministry of War. When he returned to the Iota Empire, he was not investigated.

On the contrary.

Korbyn had made a contribution!

In the battle of hundred pinnacles surrounding Braydon, the pinnacles of all parties had all died!

However, Korbyn had openly refused to participate in this kind of siege.

At the very least, more than five pinnacles of the Iota Empire were spared from death in this fierce battle.

Therefore, Korbyn had done a great job!

The Iota Empire didn't make things difficult for Korbyn. They only asked him to tell them all the details of the war before they made it into a top-secret document and sent it to the other empires.

In the Iota Empire, Korbyn was still free and unfettered, eating and drinking well. No one suspected that he was a hidden agent from the Northern Army!

Most importantly, Korbyn had been in the Iota Empire for nearly ten years.

He had made many allies in the Iota Empire, and they were all core higher-ups.

Korbyn was not alone!

Originally, the hidden agent that the Northern Army had planted in the Iota Empire was the No. 5 hidden agent!

The identity of the No. 5 hidden agent was special. That was why Luther Carden had suggested to transfer Korbyn from the Northern Army.

In simple terms, the Iota Empire had two core hidden agents from the Northern Army.

They were the No. 5 hidden agent and No. 6 hidden agent, Korbyn.

Korbyn was active on the surface.

The No. 5 hidden agent was hidden in the darkness.

This information was top secret in the Northern Army.

Other than Commander Braydon and Second Master Luther, no one else knew.

At this moment, Jaziel was faced with a difficult problem.

He had to dispel Ian's doubts, or he would be in big trouble!

Ian sat at the head of the table and slowly closed his eyes. He asked, "You besieged Braydon Neal, but a hundred pinnacles were killed. Was it Giannis Zazueta who killed everyone?" "No, it was Braydon. He killed the 100 pinnacles!"

Jaziel revealed shocking news.

Everyone in the Morsby Palace was shocked by this news.

Regarding the battle during the day, the Delta Empire only had Jaziel as an eyewitness and insider.

Instantly.

Lex's old face was filled with anger as he said, "What nonsense!"
