

The Strongest War God Chapter 884 - 885

The Strongest War God Chapter 884-Braydon Neal Sits on the Throne Alone!

This situation would result in the status of the father's bloodline being a collateral branch, and the status of the son's bloodline being a direct branch!

A weak father, a strong son!

Those with a powerful bloodline would suppress all their brothers.

Braydon Neal was a ruthless person. He had suppressed the 36 ancestors with his own strength in the Spirit Awakening Ceremony!

There was something sealed in each statue!

They were all the original owners of the statues. They were all coffins.

If the statues were to break, the original thing inside would be revealed.

Braydon's Red Lotus Scarlet Eyes slowly moved toward a green seven-meter-tall human-shaped statue.

This was the statue of the sixth ancestor of the Jansky family in Lenver!

Braydon stepped on the Lenver Pond and slowly walked over.

Every time Braydon got closer, a crack would appear on the statue.

"Braydon, stop! Don't disrespect our ancestor!" Sheridan Jansky shouted angrily.

"He wants to destroy the ancestor statue. Stop him!" Brixton Jansky from Caddison was shocked, as if he had seen through Braydon's intentions.

For a thousand years, no one in the Jansky family dared to disrespect the statues of their ancestors.

Braydon, this freak, not only suppressed the 36 ancestral statues by himself, but he also wanted to destroy them.

Sheridan and the others immediately stepped into the Lenver Pond, wanting to stop Braydon.

When they stepped into the Lenver Pond.

Sheridan felt as if he had been struck by lightning. His face was pale, and he spat out blood. He instantly retreated from the Lenver Pond.

Not only him, but Dallas Jansky and the others from Jover also stepped into the Lenver Pond. Their vitality was all agitated and showed signs of reversal.

Originally, their vitality flowed according to their blood flow.

However, when they stepped into the Lenver Pond, their vitality seemed to be flowing backward. Even their heartbeat was strangely consistent, with Braydon's heartbeat as the center.

This was the complete suppression of the bloodline!

It affected the people of the same family from the inside out.

The natural suppression was the natural king of the Jansky family.

Those who overstepped their boundaries would not be able to escape death!

Sheridan and the others were all eminent pinnacles, and their vitality was extremely strong. If their vitality were agitated, they would also be in danger of going berserk.

Braydon didn't pay any attention to them. He walked to the statue with his hands behind his back.

The huge seven-meter-tall statue was already covered in cracks. The largest crack spread from the statue's forehead to its neck, through its chest, and all the way to its abdomen.

The entire statue split open from the middle!

Following the largest crack, one could vaguely see a faint green light emitting from the statue.

When the bronze light appeared.

The expressions of Sheridan and the others all changed.

The greatest secret of the Jansky family was hidden in the statues of the ancestors.

They must not reappear in the human world!

Sheridan gritted his teeth and shouted, "Braydon, stop right now!" "Why?" Braydon's red lotus eyes looked inside the statue. When he saw the green light, his eyes became clear again.

Braydon did not go completely berserk!

He used the Spirit Awakening Ceremony to destroy the statues. He wanted to use the things inside the statues to help him cultivate!

This was something that the Sovereign Lord teacher had mentioned more than once.

In the next second, Braydon gently brushed past the green statue.

When his fingers touched the statue.

Bang!

The entire statue shattered into pieces.

Everyone was shocked!

On the ground, Martial Emperor Yanagi's eyes lit up as he said softly, "Second Brother's information is indeed correct. The bronze throne is hidden in Lenver!" After the statue shattered, an item was revealed.

It was a huge bronze artifact!

The ancient bronze artifact was a chair.

The chair was covered with mysterious runes and was two meters tall. There were pictures of birds, beasts, fish, and insects carved on it.

This chair was known as the throne!

It had been lost for thousands of years!

There were too many legends about it Who would have thought that something that had been lost for a thousand years would be sealed in a statue in Lenver Pond?

That was the statue of the sixth ancestor of the Jansky family in Lenver.

If Braydon hadn't taken the opportunity to break the statue, the bronze throne would never have reappeared.

A man in green sat on the bronze throne.

The statue of the sixth ancestor was built according to him!

This green-robed man was the sixth ancestor of the Jansky family.

The founder of the Lenver lineage!

His corpse was indeed hidden in the statue!

The corpse was frozen using Kylo Mystic Ice.

Sheridan knelt on both knees and said sincerely, "Sheridan Jansky, descendant of the Jansky family of Lenver, greets Sixth Ancestor!" "Sixth Ancestor!" Dallas and the others all bowed in respect.

The 36 ancestors of the Jansky family were all the greatest figures in the past thousand years.

They were respected!

Sixth Ancestor's body and the bronze throne had reappeared!

Braydon didn't care about the frozen corpse. What he wanted was the bronze throne.

The bronze throne was an important weapon of the country!

It was as important as the heavenly sword in the capital.

Moreover, there was more than one bronze throne.

However, it had all been lost in the long river of history.

Some were destroyed, and some were lost.

Now, a bronze throne had appeared.

Braydon stepped forward, causing Sheridan to be furious. "Braydon, what are you doing?" "Don't disrespect Sixth Ancestor's body!" Harford Jansky and the others were shocked and furious.

Braydon said indifferently, "The bronze throne doesn't belong to the Jansky family. It is one of the twelve thrones of Hansworth. It's a great sin for the Jansky family to let it remain hidden for a thousand years!" After he finished speaking.

Under everyone's watchful eyes.

Braydon raised his hand and lifted the Kylo Mystic Ice on the bronze throne.

The remains of the sixth ancestor were inside.

"How dare you!" Sheridan was furious.

“How dare you!” Dallas and the others were so angry that they almost peed their pants.

Braydon, this descendant, was too arrogant and unruly. He actually dared to be disrespectful to his ancestor.

Braydon held the Kylo Mystic Ice in his hand, turned around and threw it at Sheridan, and then landed on the bronze throne.

This bronze throne could help Braydon awaken his spirit.

The 36 statues of the ancestors were unable to help Braydon awaken his spirit.

He could only rely on the ancestral statues!

“Although it’s a little disrespectful, the bronze throne is extremely important. It’s the national treasure of Hansworth. Why should it be occupied by a dead person for such a long time?”

The bronze throne had already appeared.

It should be used by others!

In the next moment.

When Braydon sat on the bronze throne, the power in his body became even more violent. He was like a tyrant overlooking the world.

Braydon’s eyes were red like a rainbow, and his power shook the Lenver Pond.

Bang!

The remaining 35 statues exploded in an instant.

After the statues shattered, the things and people inside the statue were revealed.

The black chairs were made entirely of dark iron and looked like bronze thrones.

There was a figure sitting on each of the 35 chairs.

They were the true owners of the statues!

Without exception, they were all frozen!

Frozen corpses would not rot for thousands of years!

There were 36 chairs floating in the Lenver Pond. It was obvious that the bronze throne was the leader!

Braydon sat on the bronze throne, his might still lingering!

Beneath the bronze throne was a spirit spring.

The bronze throne absorbed all the spiritual spring water and transferred it into the body of the person sitting on the throne.

The bronze throne could help a martial artist's cultivation speed increase by three times!

The Strongest War God Chapter 885-Chains Entangling, Imprisoning the Northern King!

What was a threefold increase in cultivation speed?

A year of cultivation would be equivalent to three years of cultivation.

If one were to cultivate for a hundred years, others would need three hundred years to catch up!

Not to mention that this treasure would be of even greater help to a peerless prodigy like Braydon Neal.

Braydon's cultivation speed was already far beyond his peers.

With the help of the bronze throne, Braydon could cultivate three wisps of purple Qi in one night.

Three wisps of purple Qi was 300 Na of vitality.

That was 30,000 pounds of force!

With the help of the bronze throne and the Great Void of Kylo Art, Braydon only needed a month to cultivate 9,000 Na of vitality.

A month of bitter cultivation was equivalent to a hundred years of hard work by Martial Emperor Yanagi and the others!

At this moment, Braydon finally understood why all the teachers wanted him to come to the Lenver Pond.

They obviously knew that the bronze throne was hidden in the Lenver Pond!

They had specially asked Braydon to come and get it!

To the Jansky family, Braydon was not an outsider.

A person with two nine-petal Fiery Lotus Marks suppressed all generations of ancestors. Who in the Jansky family dared to call Braydon an outsider?

The Neal family had two prodigies, one was a Garrison Marquis, and he had the bearing of the first ancestor!

The other one was obviously a little abnormal. He had probably already surpassed the first ancestor.

At this moment, Braydon was sitting on the bronze throne alone. The spring under the Lenver Pond was suppressed by the bronze throne, and the power within was being absorbed by the throne to feed Braydon.

Braydon's body erupted for the second time!

His bloodline power erupted once again, and it was even more terrifying than before!

A terrifying pressure swept across the Lenver Pond. The 35 black iron thrones all sank to the bottom of the lake. They did not dare to float higher than the bronze throne.

King Braydon had suppressed everyone.

Braydon's vitality once again went berserk, as if his potential was endless.

Sheridan Jansky and the others were shocked and in disbelief.

Just how powerful was Braydon's bloodline potential?

Beneath the Lenver Pond, the power of the spirit spring was being absorbed by the bronze throne.

The power absorbed by the bronze throne surged into Braydon's body. The bloodline hidden in the deepest part of his body was constantly being awakened.

The huge force was about to make Braydon's body burst open.

He sat alone on the bronze throne.

Something else then happened.

A green chain extended out from under the bronze throne.

The chain was only as thick as a thumb, and it was covered in mottled rust. It slowly wrapped around Braydon's body and bound him to the bronze throne.

This scene shocked many people.

Skylar Neal, who was above ground, said angrily, "What is that thing?" As soon as he finished speaking.

The 35 black iron thrones around him slowly extended black chains. They were all as thick as a thumb, and they were like roots and tentacles that gently wrapped around Braydon's body.

36 chains coiled around Braydon, forming a black spiderweb on the surface of Lenver Pond.

In the next second, everyone began to rejoice.

Braydon's power began to rage from within.

The power of his bloodline was already at the limit of his physical body.

If he did not release it, he would definitely hurt himself!

Braydon sat on the bronze throne. His limbs were bound by black iron chains, and he could not move. His waist was bound by green chains three times.

Braydon suddenly stood up. His aura was like a true dragon as he roared toward the sky.

The bloodline potential in his body surged out of his Tianling point.

Vitality surged out, and there was even bloodline power.

It turned into a red pillar of light and shot into the sky.

The red pillar of light was a thousand meters tall!

The thousand-meter-long pillar of light was like a giant pillar that reached the sky. In an instant, millions of people in Lenver could see it clearly. They were extremely shocked.

Braydon was completely enraged.

His eyes lost their clarity. His red lotus eyes were filled with a clear killing intent as he pulled the chains on his body.

The iron chains rattled.

In just an instant, Braydon's blood filled the Lenver Pond.

The entire Lenver Pond was red.

It was all Braydon's bloodline power.

This was only the initial release of Braydon's bloodline power.

Any pinnacle martial artist could sense the terrifying power hidden in Braydon's thin body.

The Spirit Awakening Ceremony had exceeded the knowledge of all the Jansky family members.

Blood appearing in the Lenver Pond was the appearance of the first-generation ancestor.

However, what if the Lenver Pond was filled with blood?

Braydon stood on the bronze throne, and his body was like a savage beast. He charged left and right, losing his usual calmness. His eyes were bloodshot, and he had lost all rationality.

Every time he charged forward, the chains that bound him would straighten!

Braydon had not completely lost his mind. He said hoarsely, "There is nothing that can trap me in this mortal world. You want to imprison me with just a few chains? What a joke!" "The bloodline in your body is too strong. The reason why the chains of the bronze throne are imprisoning you is because they are worried that you will lose control." Sheridan stood in the distance and said in a low voice.

If Braydon were to lose control, who could suppress him?

Although Sheridan and the others were extremely powerful, Braydon's bloodline potential had already been completely unleashed, suppressing all the disciples of the Jansky family.

They couldn't even get within a hundred meters of Braydon, so how could they even talk about subduing the out-of-control Braydon?

Therefore, when they saw Braydon being chained up, they heaved a sigh of relief.

However, they all knew that the purpose of the Spirit Awakening Ceremony was to release all the bloodline power hidden in Braydon's body. Now, the chains were on him, suppressing Braydon.

How could he fully unleash his potential like this?

At this moment, the Northern King Sword was still in Braydon's hands!

Braydon slowly raised the Northern King Sword with his left hand, and his eyes were filled with murderous intent.

The moment he held the hilt of the sword with both hands, an extremely overbearing aura slowly condensed in the sword.

The overpowering sword power quietly filled the entire place.

"Overpowering sword?" Dallas Jansky of Jover was shocked. "What are you doing!"
"The true overpowering sword has seven styles. Each style is better than the last."
Braydon had learned the true power of the overpowering sword from Trevor Jansky on Mount Woolas.

The overpowering sword passed down from the Neal family was modified by their ancestor, Beckett Neal.

Beckett and the others didn't have the bloodline of the Jansky family, so they couldn't use the real overpowering sword.

However, it was different in Braydon's generation!

Braydon raised his Northern King Sword.

Seven styles of overpowering sword: first style!

The sword was raised, shocking everyone.

Swoosh!

Braydon held his sword with both hands and swung it down.

The Northern King Sword could destroy anything in the world!

Furthermore, Braydon had cultivated the Heaven-Splitting forbidden technique!

Heaven-Splitting was the strongest of the ten forbidden techniques.

With the combination of the forbidden technique, Heaven-Splitting, and the real overpowering sword, a red sword light that was ten feet long extended out of the Northern King Sword.

The sword light swept past the black chains in front of him.

Crack... The eight black chains were broken.

One slash stunning everyone!

Sheridan and the others did not expect that the black chains would be cut by Braydon with a single slash.

“He broke all the chains. What if he loses control?” Chandler Jansky of Dilford said with an ugly expression.

“The chains won’t affect his Spirit Awakening Ceremony!” Brixton Jansky of Caddison said.

Clara Jansky of Juniper frowned coldly and said, “The 36 chains are suppressing him. Suppression is the greatest taboo in the Spirit Awakening Ceremony.. With his personality, he will definitely cut these chains!
