Chapter 441 Threats

In the cage was a white dog! And Lucia had seen this dog before!

Recently, while she was resting at home, she once took Timothy and Janet out to the night market, where they saw a stall selling cats and dogs. Back then, Timothy took a fancy to this dog and insisted on buying it, but Lucia refused in the end.

They wouldn't stay in Austos City for long. If they kept the dog, she was afraid they wouldn't be able to take it with them, so after thinking about it, she didn't agree with Timothy.

Unexpectedly, she saw the dog here!

"Does the dog look familiar, Ms. Mitchell?"

The man in the mask's voice was like a magic spell. With a cold tone, it sounded weird and unpleasant. Lucia frowned and looked at him in confusion, without replying

The man in the mask wasn't worried. He got up unhurriedly, walked to the cage, lowered his eyes to stare at the dog, and sneered. "It's okay if you don't recognize it. I'll help you remember it slowly."

With that, he glanced at a man next to him. The man immediately stepped forward, opened the cage, and directly put a wire around the white dog's neck.

Lucia was startled. She subconsciously opened her mouth and asked, "What are you doing?"

No sooner had she finished speaking than the man tightened the wire around the white dog's neck. It seemed that the dog sensed the danger. It started moaning with its two front paws against the cage....

The man in the mask said in a bizarre voice, "Ms. Mitchell, this dog is just like a five-year-old kid."

Lucia's body tightened. She suddenly thought of something and abruptly stared at him with wide eyes and astonishment, "What do you mean?"

"Sometimes, it's quite easy to kill a five-year-old kid, actually."

his man started to strangle the white dog with the wire. The dog clawed
