Chapter 447 She's the One Who Made a Fool of Herself

"H... how could I?"

When he faced Jeanne's questioning and scrutiny, a cold sweat broke out on Director Brook's forehead. Before he could say anything, Jeanne suddenly stepped forward and asked with a smile, "Director Brook, I saw you with Lucia just now. What did she say to you?"

Director Brook smiled apologetically, "Nothing, and she just say something about work."

"Really?" With a coldness sweeping across the bottom of her eyes, Jeanne glanced at the things in Director

Brook's hand.

She raised her chin slightly and asked in a cold voice, "Then what are those in your hand?" Director Brook took a deep breath and subconsciously hid them behind him, "Nothing"

His behavior made Jeanne more curious, so, Jeanne stepped forward and reached out to grab the things he was holding.

Director Brook subconsciously dodged, frowning slightly, "Ms. Kelly, sorry, this is some documents from work, and cannot be seen by others."

Instantly, Jeanne's face became somber, "Others? What do you mean by others? Don't you know my relationship with August?"

She was furious when she saw Director Brook defending Lucia, and with a burst of anger, she reached for it again.

Director Brook dodged, but his hand was still hit and the black velvet box fell out of his hand to the ground. By the time he reacted, Jeanne had already bent down and picked the box up.

Holding the box, Jeanne smiled crookedly with glee.

She just wanted to see what was inside!

The next second, when she opened the box and saw the star and tear sapphire necklace inside, she froze violently.

With her body stiffened, she felt a coldness instantly creep up her back. How... how could it be this necklace! Director Brook next to her still didn't know what was going on, and seeing her like this, he frowned and said,

"Ms. Kelly, this is others' thing..."
