Chapter 468 Waiting for the fish to bite the bait

Lucia didn't expect that Jeanne would take the initiative to mention this matter. Instantly, her expression was cold

She snorted "Ms. Kelly was quite well-informed. It seems that you are always concerned about it"

Jeanne raised her lips and gloated. "You bet. I was curious when I heard that you said Paula was unable to get there at the ribbon-cutting ceremony. So I have sent our men to check it. I didn't expect that she was in such a situation which made me feel so surprised"

Looking at Jeanne's complacent expression, Lucia felt furious. She took a deep breath and asked, "What is the situation?" Jeanne giggled. "What is the situation? You should know better than I do. In my opinion, it's nice for her to be this She always speaks too much, and she is more adorable than before when she is lying in the bed quietly"

At that moment, Lucia felt as if there was a bomb exploding next to her ears. She didn't expect that Jeanne dared to say these in front of her!

Lucia gritted her teeth and walked to Jeanne. "Jeanne Kelly, do you think that you will be fine after Hallie Bruns takes the fall for you?"

Jeanne's face turned pale. She denied it after a few seconds "What are you talking about?"

"You probably don't know yet, I have the evidence and it can make you go to jail"

Jeanne's face was pale so much. She continued to deny it. "Lucia, what's wrong with your head?"

Lucia snorted and held back her anger. "Jeanne Wait and see!"

Jeanne's words made Lucia furious. She couldn't stand her complacency, her insolence!

Lucia gritted her teeth. Looking at Jeanne's pale face, she threw the shirt she had picked out just now in her arms and walked away.

Anyhow, she had to figure out this matter She couldn't take it anymore!

Lucia walked to the counter and took the clothes that were packed up Then she left
