Chapter 484 She Committed Suicide

After Lucia got out of the apartment A cool breeze outside instantly cleared her head

August was more inscrutable today than he was five years ago Sometimes Lucia didn't know if she should believe his words or not, but this time, she grew up

She didn't know which side August was on and whether he would give the evidence to the police All in all, she couldn't count on August She had to do it herself before she went abroad if she wanted to see Jeanne go to jail

Lucia gritted her teeth and put all the impulsion behind her. A cold breeze calmed her down and brought her to her senses

Even if she couldn't get direct proof that Jeanne hit someone, Lucia was going to teach her a lesson She was no longer the one who could be hurt by others at will.

With only three days left to take Paula out of the country for treatment, Lucia was at the hospital to keep Paula safe Lucia heard lot of gossip about Jeanne when she was in the hospital all morning

Coincidentally, Jeanne was hospitalized at the Central Hospital and was in the same inpatient wing as them

In recent days, the news about August and Jeanne's divorce had been spreading, followed by Jeanne's accident and being rushed to the hospital by ambulance, everyone naturally associated with the divorce

People's eagerness and sensitivity to gossip are beyond imagination, and there were a lot of netizens who were speculating about it, but there wasn't a definite answer yet All the media were speculating, but the Kelly family was very secretive. nothing definite news had come out

After lunch, Lucia sat in the hospital lounge area and flipped over the magazine on the bookshelf Then she heard that someone next to her was talking about that

There were two nurses sitting and whispering in the corner

* just met Sally who works on the tenth floor when I was having lunch She told me that Jeanne planned to slash her wrists. but she was found and rushed to the hospital before she die I guess she did that probably because of the divorce"

"Really? Is that true?"

it's true. The news was spreading all over the tenth floor. Think about that, the day before yesterday was her and August's third anniversary, and she even sent out a tweet on Twitter! The next day August

That's too sudden!"

"Yeah, that's weird..."

Lucia was shocked and
