

Submit 489

Chapter 489 A Shareholder of the Lion Group Drowned

Martin saw that everyone had their own ideas, chuckled a few times, and said, "I admit that I have some opinions on August because of some of my personal affairs. So, I want a better person to lead the Lion Group. Whoever I support, only represents my own views. I will not stop you, but as long as we have the same vision and the same opinion, we are good friends!" As he said, he picked up the wine glass, got up and toasted everyone, and drank it all in one gulp.

Everyone laughed, and the atmosphere at the scene gradually eased up a lot. Only the stubborn shareholder, Karl, who had been angry with Martin after seeing Martin's purpose, he didn't have any good looks anymore. Soon, the party came to an end, and everyone left. Karl couldn't wait to get up and was about to leave, but before he walked a few steps, Martin chased after him, "Karl, I have something to tell you."

Karl snorted coldly, "I have nothing to say to you. August is the only President I'm optimistic about. Bishop, hmph! What the hell is he? As he spoke, he rolled eyes on Martin. He turned to look at his subordinates, and reprimanded him in a cold voice. From now on, you must push away such indecent occasions! What the hell!"

What he said was obviously intended for Martin. Martin stood at the same place, and his face turned cold. Merlin leaned over from the side, and said indignantly, "This stubborn old man! It is said that the one who worked with Ehot before was notoriously difficult to deal with. I didn't expect him to be so loyal!"

Martin's face remained unchanged, and he was still looking at the direction Karl was leaving. Seeing that Martin didn't speak, Merlin asked, "Dad, they are not willing now, and if we ask them to give up shares in the future, they will definitely be even more unwilling. Otherwise, we will directly report the names of those who are not willing to Bishop and let him deal with it?"

Hearing this, Martin snorted coldly, glanced at him, and said coldly, "If you leave everything to Bishop, then what does he want us to do? Don't forget how much he spent on our family!"

Merlin frowned, "Then... what should we do? Karl Shaw is an old guy with a stubborn temper. The shares he holds in his hand are not small among the shareholders! When he creates a disturbance in front of the shareholders, what will our plan's result be?"

Martin was silent, and hesitated for a long time. A gloomy light suddenly flashed in the bottom of his eyes, "Since he is stubborn, let's make him unable to be stubborn!"

August pushed the Kelly family to a dead end, and Bishop helped them. They must seize this opportunity, to develop with all their strength, to gain a firm foothold in the business circle of Austos City! Such an opportunity was only once. If they failed to grasp it, the Kelly Group might not be able to stand up! Martin made up his mind, the Lion Group, accidentally drowned by the Austos River while doing morning exercises. When he was found, he had no vital signs and died at the age of 65. The police intervened in slightly. and some of the black coffee in the cup spilled out. Burton, who had just arrived at the door, was also shocked. Soon, he thought of something, and said with a serious face, in his hand, and his expression was a that after the body was examined in the police station, it was cremated by the picked up his suit jacket and walked out, 'Ok. let's go there.' This happened so suddenly that even he was surprised. The most urgent thing now was to appease Karl's family first. Karl used to be Eliot's capable subordinate. and he had from crying. and his daughter and son were far away, and they hadn't had enough time to come over after hearing the news. August went out this morning...he was also in good health, and why did he suddenly drown? He has been exercising by the side of Auslos his hand, crying miserably that something. and asked. 'Aunt Shaw. was drinking. he complained to me as usual when he came back from drinking, and then he went that he complained loyal to you and the Lion Group. I don't believe this is an accident. You must investigate it for me. It IS impossible for him to die so suddenly!' Aunt Shaw held August's hand and said non-stop until her children arrived later. She was so excited that it believe that the cause of Karl dying just like that. He was always in good health and he was used to doing morning exercises by Austos River. If it was judged to be an accident, it was very unconvincing. It would be more