Chapter 496 The change in the Adams family

A few days have passed since they arrived at Bram's hospital. Since the day they arrived at the hospital, Bram had led his experts to set up the medical team and quickly formulated the recovery plan

Because the recovery process was professional and confidential, Lucia and Paul almost had no chance to meet Paula. They stayed in a five-star hotel near the hospital. In addition to going to the hospital to see doctors, they spent most of their time wandering around the city.

Speaking of which, this should be the most leisurely period for Lucia in the past two years. She walked with Timothy and Janet through the streets and alleys of the town, visited the church, ate delicious food, and even played at the harbor several times. Occasionally, Lucia would go out with Paul and Mandy to see the night view, and the bar, listen to music and drink wine at night.

However, she didn't know that in her leisurely time, the Lion group in Austos had changed a lot. The chief executive of the Lion group has disappeared without a trace for three days. Ever since the unexpected death of Dustin, a shareholder and executive of the company, the shareholders and high-level executives of the company all want to get some benefits from that.

In addition, the father and son of the Kelly Group had mobilized and showed the will of cooperation to them again and again. Everyone had complicated feelings and felt hesitant to join Martin's plan.

There were different versions of Dustin's accidental death, most of which were about the incident not being an accident but a murder, but most of the information was just a few rumors, no concrete evidence, and just something people talked about in private.

However, as more and more people talked about this matter, the credibility of this rumor has slowly grown.

As for the shareholders who had attended Martin's drinking party with Dustin, they had their own guesses. That day, Dustin contradicted Martin, and the very next day, something bad happened to him. People couldn't help but think that there was some connection to that. Hence, they were a little nervous about meeting the Kelly family. Even if they were just putting on a show, they would smile obsequiously and avoid falling out with the Kelly family.

the Lion group's shareholders and senior executives, added the fact that August had disappeared for no reason for a few days, the balance of power within the group was slowly tilting to the company and held an emergency meeting as a shareholder. Soon, he received the most votes and officially took over the company as the identity of the second-in-line feudings between rich and powerful families, and they were even happy to talk about it. But this time, August had suddenly disappeared,
