

Submit 497

Chapter 497 The News Of His Death

Paul had spent a lot of time accompanying them after he returned. Paula's condition was also slowly improving. In less than a month, she slowly regained consciousness. She got a short period of waking up, but as she was too weak, she fell asleep again.

Bram explained the situation to them. According to his words, since the patient had been in a coma for a long time, all her bodily functions and organs were dormant and could not be fully recovered in a short period. However, it was huge progress for Paula to wake up, and Paula would wake up longer the next time.

In the afternoon, Lucia finished lunch and rested on the swing in the hospital's back garden. She finally managed to log on to her chatting app. When she opened it, a few messages popped up.

She didn't have time to read carefully. She found Elisa's avatar and saw that she had sent nearly a hundred messages to her and felt a little guilty. In the past month, because she had lost her mobile phone, she did not have the right to log in with her new mobile phone abroad. In addition, she had been busy taking care of Paula, so she didn't contact Bill and Elisa.

Now, she finally succeeded in logging into her account. When she saw the message from Elisa, she felt guilty.

She sent a video invitation to Elisa. Soon, the phone was connected, and Elisa's surprised face appeared on the screen. "Lucia!" Elisa was surprised and happy. She quickly asked, "Are you okay? Why is there no news from you? Your dad and I are worried about you. We thought something had happened to you..."

Lucia was moved and wanted to laugh. She raised the corner of her mouth and did not know where to start. Suddenly, she had the urge to cry. She took a deep breath and said, "I'm fine. Don't worry. I lost my mobile phone when I was on the plane, and then bought a new one abroad. I haven't had time to contact you..."

When Elisa heard this, tears welled up in her eyes. She scolded, "You kid, how can you not contact us... Do you know how worried your dad and I are?"

phone screen. He sat behind Elisa, frowned at Elisa, and said, "I told you that she was fine. She was with Mr. Thomas. What could happen to just worried! You know that the members of the Adams family went missing and died and Before she finished speaking, she suddenly realized something and quickly stopped talking. She looked at Bill next to her in horror. Bill's face also darkened, as if he was blaming her for had gasped and tried to ask in a calm voice, "Mom, what face was a little pale. She moved her lips and wanted to say something, but she couldn't make up her mind about that. In the been good at lying. Lucia had lived with her for more than 20 years. How could she not see nothing about what had happened in the past wanted to hang up. Lucia gritted her teeth and asked, "Did something happen to the Adams family? Just tell me, mom!"

shook his head helplessly and said to Elisa, "Forget this, Elisa looked hesitant. She paused for a moment and then said, "In the month that you were not in Austos, a huge change happened in the Adams family. August disappeared, and then Bishop was in charge of

she had just heard. Her face turned pale, and all the strength in August's corpse...

Soon, she subconsciously shook her head and denied, "No, I as August suddenly die?