Chapter 502 Grandma Knows All

Hearing this, Lucia's nose twitched. The tears welled up, and she couldn't speak a word.

She managed to calm down before she said, "Grandma..."

Olivia patted her hand and said seriously, "Besides, I can see that there are still feelings between you, and..." She paused and her bloodshot eyes looked fixedly at Lucia, "I know your two children are..."

Without waiting for Olivia finish, Lucia's eyes were widened. She suddenly tensed up, her heart beating wildly and her blood boiling. 'Does she already know the true origins of Timothy and Janet? Thought Lucia.

"Grandma..."

Seeing her shocked expression, Olivia spoke without haste, "From the first time I saw those two kids, I already had a rough guess in my mind. After that I had someone reliable to make some investigation, and I didn't expect that they were your children! Although they are nominally named Thomas, I knew that they were definitely you and August's children! Because that little one looked exactly like August when he was a child!"

Lucia's throat tightened and she couldn't say anything. It turned out that as early as after Olivia met Timothy and Janet by chance at the entrance of the planetarium, she already knew about their birth, but she unexpectedly kept quiet about it.

"I'm not sure what exactly happened between you and August before. There may be a misunderstanding, or there may really be a problem, but I totally respect your choice. Though I heartily prefer you two to be together, I will not force you to do anything."

Hearing Olivia's words, Lucia's heart was filled with mixed feelings. She looked at Olivia with teary eyes, gritted her teeth and said, "Grandma, I will look into this and try my best to find out any clue."

solemnly, saying in a serious voice, "No matter what, he is the biological father of the two children. Even if they don't know anything about this, you don't want them to grow up without a father, right?" Lucia's mind flashed back to the scene when August took Timothy and Janet to play together, and her heart was somehow touched a little.
