Chapter 505 Get an Informer around Grandma

She got the backup of the surveillance video and then walked out of the central control room, intending to leave the hospital. She was confused all the way. All she could think of was something about how to find August.

Now even if August was in Austos City, finding him was like looking for a needle in a haystack. It was time-consuming and difficult. If she tried hard to find him, she must start with as many clues as possible, so as to save time and be efficient.

As she walked and thought, she didn't notice the situation around her. When she just came out of the outpatient building and was about to walk through the small garden in the hospital to the entrance, she suddenly saw a familiar figure. Her eyes were locked on that person beforehand, and soon she was sure that it was an acquaintance of hers-Jeanne!

Jeanne over there was looking around vigilantly. Suddenly she seemed to sense something, and turned her head towards Lucia's side to look over. Coincidentally, the two of them stared at each other. When their eyes met, they both were slightly stunned.

Actually, they hadn't seen each other for quite some time, but they didn't expect to meet unexpectedly here today.

Lucia withdrew her gaze and was about to walk towards the door as if nothing had happened, pretending not to see anything. But who knew that Jeanne's expression changed and she took a step straight towards her. Sensing her approach, Lucia frowned slightly and looked in that direction. When Jeanne came closer, Lucia was a little surprised to see the woman walking towards her.

It was just a month or so since they had seen each other last time. But now Jeanne was much more haggard and thinner than before. She didn't wear makeup, and dark circles were evident on her pale face. Her cheeks were slightly sunken on both sides, and it was obvious that she had lost a lot of weight.

"Lucia!" Jeanne called out to her in a not-so-friendly tone.

Lucia was slightly stunned, looking at Jeanne as she walked towards her in a furious manner, then she stood still and stared at her with cold eyes.
