

Submit 510

Chapter 510 Scaring Ethan Off

Lucia didn't expect Ethan to start the fight straight away without saying more. As she watched the people around her mingle with the enemies, her heart was beating fast.

Numbers on both sides were about the same, and they were evenly matched. During this period, Lucia was protected by them and nothing happened to her. Suddenly, several people came out of the Buddhist hall and joined in the melee.

Ethan still stood on the steps, looking at them leisurely, as if watching a show.

As Ethan's men increased in number, Kylan and his men felt a bit strained at this point. Even though they had gone through various training, the enemies were all desperate and ruthless, and could not be underestimated. One person began to face two or three enemies. They were under increasing pressure, and some could not hold on.

Suddenly, one of Ethan's men saw that Lucia was alone and approached her directly, grabbed her and pulled her aside. Lucia screamed and tried to break away from him. But the man was so strong that she failed.

Zane immediately got away from the other two enemies and ran over and kicked the man in the abdomen, knocking him to the ground. "Are you okay, Lucia?"

Lucia signaled that she was fine, but her face had turned pale. She took a deep breath and noticed that some people were bleeding. She felt her heart twisted at once.

Gritting her teeth, she raised her eyes to Ethan and whispered to Zane, "Zane, shield me!"

Zane understood and was by her side to protect her from anyone.

took out her phone, gritted her teeth, tapped the screen twice, raised it to Ethan, and spoke in a loud voice, "Ethan, tell your men to stop. Once I broadcast live, all of could. At her words, Ethan narrowed his eyes but did not stop.

much the police want to catch you. Aren't you hiding here because you're afraid of being found? As long as I broadcast live, countless people will be able to see you online at the same time. A vicious thug hiding for years frowned. He stared at Lucia warily, as if he was considering the truth of her words. Suddenly, he face would appear on the Internet. If so, the police were sure that he was in Austos City, they would certainly be all out to catch him. Since appear everywhere in this city because he was protected by Bishop. As long as he didn't appear blatantly, he wasn't afraid of anything. But he never thought that this woman would know what he was afraid of and would expose him in this way! It was too

If he was targeted by the police, it would not be easy to hide and escape. Moreover, he still had a batch of goods in his hand, which was even more difficult to deal with. If he was caught. by the police, Bishop would the pros and cons in his brain, gritted his teeth and looked at Lucia, saying in a cold voice, "You send a next to her became panicked. After all, they were outlaws, and criminals, and were naturally somewhat looked at his men over there and said in a cold voice, immediately backed up the steps alertly and out to Ethan and said in a loud voice, "Why are you escaping? Last time we met, you were much calmer than "Last time we met? What do again, I will make you regret what you did his head and led a group of men moving quickly to withdraw. Soon, the sound of several cars starting to leave

Just now, Ethan had so many men in the fight. If they had really fought with the at her and said, "Lucia, did you really