

Submit 518

Chapter 518 August Was Found!

Lucia had some feelings slightly, and she looked down at the silent little monk, bowed slightly, and said softly, 'Okay. take me to another place for a stroll. The little monk nodded obediently, and walked in front to lead the way Lucia followed behind. raised her eyes and looked around, feeling a little nervous for no reason

Walking around the small meditation yard, the little monk gradually became more cheerful. Lucia talked happily with him. She planned to go back to the room where Zane and Kylan were. Her eyes touched a side door next to her, and she paused

This side door seemed to lead to another small courtyard. She couldn't see anything from the outside like this, but just now the little monk, Garnett, took her around and introduced every place in detail. but he didn't take her to that small yard. This was a bit suspicious.

Lucia took a deep breath, suddenly stretched out her hand to grab Garnett who was about to leave, and said softly, "You haven't finished visiting with me yet, and why did you just leave?"

Garnett suddenly took a step back, distanced himself from her, clasped his hands together. His cheeks were pink, and said in a childish voice, 'A man and a woman can't touch each other.'

Lucia was stunned for a moment, and then burst out laughing. She looked down at the little guy amusedly and couldn't help asking. 'Did your abbot teach you this?' For such a young monk, he should know a man and a woman couldn't touch each other. The more Lucia thought about it, the more annoyed she felt. and finally she couldn't stop laughing

Garnett's cheeks became even redder, and he didn't know whether to advance or retreat for a moment, so he could only stand there blankly, and his grape-like black eyes dare not look at Lucia again.

Seeing that Garnett hadn't spoken for a long time, Lucia could only hide her smile and said softly, *Okay, I won't tease you anymore. Forget it, and let's go."

Hearing this, Garnett raised his head and said softly, *Don't tell the abbot about this..."

1

Lucia quickly agreed, and said, "Okay, I won't say anything." After finishing speaking. she followed Garnett on the road that had just rained, and struggled forward the road. The side yard was also forgotten by her and came out of the room. Looking at the scene outside where it had just rained, he felt inexplicably happy because the air was so clear. Just now. he seemed to hear a of the room, looked at August, and asked voice, "Just now...I seem to have heard Lucia's voice." Hearing this, Burton was slightly startled, side for so many years, he has long seen that Lucia could answer, August asked

He really didn't hear Lucias

August's eyes dimmed a bit. Joshua originally had laid last with big strides. There were and Burton stunned, and then became tense unconsciously. Something bad must have happened because Uroshii was so nervous' Joshua was seen striding forward, and shouted in a cold voice, 'Bishop. the bastard, has brought someone here! He must his whole body stiffened for a moment, and his mind went blank for a moment. The first thing he thought of was not himself, but the people in the monastery

This door led directly to the outside of the courtyard At and frowned. 'What about Mr Makoto

the bedroom quickly, packed up August's important things in a mess. and hurriedly caught up with August Hearing what August said, he be fine!' Joshua said a few words in a hurry, and immediately rushed to the front wheelchair at all, so down directly, picked up August from the wheelchair. and then turned his head to tell Burton, "Get rid of the wheelchair quickly, and

'Ok!"

that people couldn't see it,