Chapter 523 He's alive

Paul's heart jerked. He glanced back at the female clerk in astonishment and asked in a deep voice, "What did you say?" The female clerk was so scared that her face turned pale. She stammered, "Just... Just now, two men suddenly came in and showed us their police badges, saying that they would arrest someone. We didn't dare to stop them, and then they took the lady away..."

Paul's ears rumbled loudly as anger surged up in his heart. He strode out of the store and looked around. But there was no trace of Lucia. It seemed that she had been taken away! Paul suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart. After thinking it over, he locked his suspicions on two people: Bishop and August. Only the two of them dared to take her away like that! Paul gritted his teeth in fury. He took out his mobile phone and called Archie directly, "Someone took Lucia away! Check who did it!"

After that, he hung up the phone and immediately dialed another number. It rang several times before someone answered. On the other end of the line came Bishop's lazy voice. "What's up, Mr. Thomas?"

Paul's heart was filled with anger, and his voice was anxious. He asked coldly, "Did you take Lucia away?"

The person on the other end of the phone paused for a moment, and then Bishop chuckled, "President Thomas, I don't need to lie to you. I still remember what I promised you before."

Paul lowered his voice and asked coldly, "She was suddenly taken away ten minutes ago. Are you sure you have nothing to do with that?"

"Of course," Bishop said slowly, "What can I get by taking her away?"

Paul took a deep breath and asked, "What about August? Have you caught him?"
