

Submit 524

Chapter 524 Are She With Him?

Lucia clenched her fists and the joy in her heart instantly disappeared. She took a deep breath and asked coldly, "Why did you take me here?"

It was really beyond her expectation that he had tied her up in such a violent way. The man didn't move. He looked at her with coldness in his eyes and said, "I want to ask you something."

He had to find out if these things had anything to do with her or not! If it was really because of her, he would never forgive her. With a cold look in her eyes, Lucia asked, "What is it?"

Did he kidnap her from the mall just to ask her a question? Before she could figure it out, the man said in a low voice,

"Did you go to Evergreen Mountain Temple yesterday?"

Hearing him mention the Evergreen Mountain Temple, Lucia opened her mouth in astonishment, unable to speak for a moment. How did he know that? Lucia frowned and stared at August warily. "How... How did you know?" "You don't need to know that. Answer my question."

Seeing this aggressive manner, Lucia bit her lip. For a moment, she said nothing to him. Finally, she slowly said, "Yes." August's face darkened. "How did you find that place?"

Lucia took a deep breath and hesitated for a few seconds. At first, she had guessed that there were clues in the mountain because of Mr. Denko's words, but after searching around, she thought the message might be wrong. Taking a deep in the mountain, so I'll bring someone to look for it." Hearing her Later, Joshua arrived and said that Bishop had brought his men here. The timing was so perfect, it was really suspicious. August continued, "How did you know I was could she know that he was there? Looking at the expression on her face, August's eyes cold. "Since things have come to this point, there is no need to lie to me."

I tell? I went to the temple, but there."

glint flashed in August's eyes, and he asked in a light face. How dare she still say that heart. He frowned as if why did she come to such a temple in the any sense. She was lying, she was definitely he felt cold in his heart. He clenched his fists slightly and took a deep breath. "After you left Evergreen Mountain Temple yesterday, Bishop's men went to cover my tracks, and he was stabbed three times the killing was so close to her. A person who just had a conversation with her a few days ago suddenly disappeared like that. This was really indescribable. After a long while, she slowly came to her could weren't for you, August wouldn't have found legs grew soft,

It

the kind face of Mr. Makoto, a sharp pain flashed in her heart as she shook her head. "It's not me..."

low voice, "Did you

Lucia

with him to kill Mr. Makoto? This was all a misunderstanding! Seeing her trying her best to deny it, August's heart became colder. He clenched the armrest of the wheelchair. He clenched it so hard that his knuckles turned slightly white, but he couldn't say a word. He couldn't figure out what had happened if she refused to admit