Chapter 529 Reaching an Agreement

The two of them stared at each other silently. The surroundings were so quiet that the chirps of the insects in the grass could be heard. Neither of them spoke.

August took a deep breath, suddenly looked away, and said softly, "You are not one of Bishop's people, so he won't let you go."

Lucia was puzzled, so she asked, "What do you mean?"

A glimmer of light flashed across August's eyes, but he said in a very calm voice, "They've long bound us together. Do you remember what Ethan has done to you?"

Lucia was slightly startled and then nodded.

"I am going against them now, so you must take my side. Even if you don't choose me, they will still use you as a hostage to threaten me. And 1..." August paused, and his Adam's apple slid up and down. Then, he said lightly, "I won't let them.

hurt you."

Hearing this, Lucia was a little surprised. After she thought carefully about what he had said just now in her mind, she suddenly realized something and then tensed up.

Bishop and Ethan always bound her and August together and used her as a hostage to threaten him. And they had taken advantage of her to find him this time. They had been making use of her against him from the very beginning. She felt as if there were an invisible line between her and August, binding and pulling them. Just now, Lucia had a flash of inspiration and suddenly figured it out.

The invisible line between her and August was the kids. If Bishop and Ethan had not known Timothy and Janet were August's blood, they would not have used her against him again and again. After she thought about it carefully, she was sure they knew it. Realizing this, she had a lingering fear, so she raised her eyes to look at August. Seeing that his
