

Submit 532

Chapter 532 How Could It Be Her?

Luella didn't take his question seriously, casually sat down beside him, and said, "Whatever. Just give me a glass of wine"

Hearing this, August instantly showed a gloomy look on his handsome face, wondering whether she was pretending not to understand his meaning

Seeing neither him nor Joshua respond, Lancia stretched out her hand in frustration, picked up a clean glass, and poured herself a glass of wine.

Suddenly, a pair of big hands reached out and grabbed her wrist. Lucia was startled. When she turned her head to look over, she met August's dark eyes.

August moved his lips and said word by word, "You are a woman, so you should not drink alcohol!"

This was what August's precious question meant, but unexpectedly, she had not taken his hint.

Lucia took a deep breath. After seeing Olivia so sad in the bedroom just now, she felt depressed. She suddenly thought of her parents and children, so she inexplicably felt uncomfortable.

This was what real family members were like. They loved, cared about, and felt worried about each other. Just now, she had seen Olivia who was old having an acupuncture treatment in the bedroom, so she could barely control her emotions.

When she saw them drinking downstairs, she somehow wanted to drink too.

Lucia lowered her eyes, glanced at their wine glasses, and said, "You are drinking! Why can't I?"

August said coldly, "Because you're different from us."

His tone was so domineering that Joshua sitting across from him couldn't bear it any longer. He suppressed his smile and said, "August, you sounded as if you were disciplining your wife. Stop flirting in front of me. You hurt my eyes!" While speaking, he intentionally glanced at August's hand that was still holding Lucia's. Lucia and August also realized it, so they quickly retracted their hands after exchanging glances.

a bottle of juice, and put it on the table. And then, he looked up at ran in the door. When he saw August, he immediately said, he was about to continue, he suddenly noticed Joshua's weird expression, so he immediately stopped talking and looked frowned and said coldly, tongue. Fortunately, we noticed it in time and stopped her.

heard this, his face

listened to the report, she unconsciously not she know this matter had anything to do with her stood up and said, he left with the seconds of silence, she looked up at August and asked, "Who is that woman and then said in a deep voice, "She should be Bishop's woman. She went to the hospital together with my grandma today. I think she should know something important, so I captured picked up his phone from the table, opened a photo, and showed it to Lucia, saying, and her mind went blank. And then, she reached out to take the phone over and looked at

could it

her strange reaction, August asked with a her lips slightly, and replied,

Friend?

trace of vigilance flashed across his eyes.

turned her head slightly and looked at thinking for a moment, August opened his tightly friends. This matter looked fishy. Maybe what Bishop valued