Chapter 536 He Refused to Give up All His Shares for Her

There were about 20 people led by Bishop, and they stood in a row densely, far more than the people under August. Bishop approached. When he saw August sitting in the wheelchair, a smile suddenly appeared on his face. He stepped forward, looked at August, and said with a sneer, "Long time no see, August."

August's face was gloomy, and he remained unmoved by Bishop's hypocritical smile.

When Bishop glanced at Lucia beside August, his smile became stronger. He looked at her and greeted her, "Ms. Mitchell, we meet again. Why are you staying with my elder brother this time? Where is your husband Mr. Thomas?" Bishop was vicious and he was best at poking people in the soft spot. Lucia frowned in disgust and did not answer. Seeing that no one was paying attention to him, Bishop touched his nose, and said in a sarcastic tone, "What? You called me over, but none of you spoke. What do you mean?"

At this moment, the wind blew over, and accompanied by a faint female voice, "Bishop..."

Bishop froze, and he followed the voice almost subconsciously. When he saw a few people on the reef, his face immediately darkened. Wasn't the woman with messy hair in the middle Mandy?

His heart tightened quickly. Soon the strangeness on his face quickly dissipated, and his face returned to normal, but his smile completely disappeared.

He turned to look at August and said, "What? Are you threatening me?"

August finally said without haste, "It's just an eye for an eye."

"I don't know if you still remember that incident five years ago."

Bishop didn't have much patience anymore, and he frowned, "Which incident?"

August said, "The time Lucia was kidnapped and taken to the lighthouse."
