

Submit 543

Chapter 543 I'm Giving the USB Drive to You

She was August's grandma. When she knew Timothy and Janet's true identity, she wanted to tell him at first, but then because of some circumstances and Lucia's request for her to keep it a secret, she could only keep the secret with difficulty.

In the past few days, she had been trying to reconcile August and Lucia, so that she would not have to keep the secret uncomfortably, but also to allow the two little ones to come home, which was the result she most liked to see.

But they hadn't made much progress in their relationship in the past few days. She was more anxious than they were, but she couldn't show it too obviously, so she had to keep it a secret every day.

When August heard his grandma's words for no reason, he didn't understand what she meant. So, he took a deep breath and asked, "Grandma, have you been in shock?"

Olivia frowned and grunted coldly, unwilling to talk to him. Then, she turned to Lucia on the bed, with mixed thoughts. From the beginning, she only wanted Lucia to be the Adams family's granddaughter-in-law.

In any case, even at the cost of her life, she must get the two of them together before she died.

Suddenly, something came to her mind. Afterward, she thought seriously for a moment and felt that it was feasible, so she looked at August and said, "August, I'm a little tired. You keep watch here, and I'll go back first."

August thought he had heard wrong when he heard Olivia's tone of voice was much calmer. Just now when he tried to persuade her, she refused to listen, but now she suddenly changed her mind.

No matter what, as long as Olivia was willing to compromise, everything would be fine.

With a softer tone, August said, half-coaxing, half-persuading, "Then you go back to rest first. When she wakes up, I'll call you."

Olivia nodded, "Okay, then I'll do as you say, but you have to promise me that you'll keep a good watch over her and not make any more mistakes!"

August nodded his head assuringly and smiled comfortingly at Olivia, "I know."

He first asked Burton to drive Olivia away, and then called Zane and the others to let them come over.

look at Lucia, who was still not yet awake, August turned off the sound and then drove his wheelchair to the the woman on the bed moved slightly. With as her vision cleared and all of her senses became much clearer, she heard the sound of pressed-down talking coming from the

by the sound of a wheelchair turning. Immediately after, slightly tilted his head and wanted to look toward him, but when she moved, she pulled the injury this, August also frowned. He drove the wheelchair to the bed and stopped, whispering, "Don't move around. If deep breath, "But...

taken to the hospital, she had been lying in this position on the bed and had not changed until now. She felt as if her body limbs had been nailed to the bed board, stiff and heard the words, a trace of emotion flashed in for more than a month to recover from the disease, moment, Lucia was also thought of something and said in Zane was already waiting there, you go to the orthopedic department over there to find a nurse to borrow August's instructions, Zane did what he was told, even though he to the ward, just in time to see Lucia reaching for the glass of away, she reached out her wanted to get closer quickly but could only of them was wounded, and the other was disabled, but they became closer when they were staying together. Coming to the head of the bed, he reached out and picked up the glass of water for a moment. After her dark eyes locked with his, she softly, "Thank hadn't let Jeanne in today, there wouldn't have been so many things of that, I want to slightly startled and looked towards him in surprise, moving

his pocket and handed it