

Submit 546

Chapter 546 Bark The Wrong Tree

The fact that August was injured shocked Zane. He widened his eyes and asked in a surprised tone, "The man just now hurt Mr. Adams?"

Lucia nodded.

"How possible?" Zane couldn't believe it. He said indignantly, "With Mr. Adams's skills, he shouldn't be injured in such a short time even if he couldn't stand."

Hearing this, Lucia looked down with a sinking heart.

August's wounds meant two things. First, he must be trying to protect her, which hindered his movements. Second, he didn't want to hurt Jeff.

Zane's voice sounded again and brought her back to reality. "We have the murderer's weapon. We can call the police" Zane squatted down and carefully took out the dagger that August kicked under the bed.

It seemed that he didn't want to destroy the fingerprints on it, he deliberately picked it up with his clothes.

Lucia felt so depressed at the sight of the dagger. She said, "Put that away. We'll see whether we need to call the police after August gets dressed."

had a feeling that August didn't want to involve the police in this at all. Otherwise, he Zane and he put the dagger away. He then nimbly bed in a confused state had made her exhausted. She looked at the gray sky in her thoughts.

like this. She had to find a way to night was a high-end beauty shop that the elevator, she saw a glass that could reflect a small adhesive bandage on really asked his men to hurt her. Did which, she looked

dressed

Jeanne and then winked at sounded, "Oh! I wondered who had been sullen. As she looked at the woman, she