

Submit 553

Chapter 553 Find Them Right Now

Lucia Mitchell's heart skipped a beat, having a guilty conscience. She took a deep breath, and hurriedly took the phone to call back. Recently, she has been so busy that she did not go home for several days. The children were left to mom and dad to take care of. To be honest, she felt guilty.

Mom and dad were getting older and they have reached the stage of enjoying their old age and feeling comfortable. Yet they still undertook the pressure of life for her without complaint. Life was so hard for them. She experienced mixed feelings. Her original guilt deepened. She bit her lips as feeling dazed. Mom picked up at this time.

A smile emerged on her face and she called out with a soft smile, "Mom!"

"You remember that you have a mother?" Mrs. Mitchell's tsundere voice cut through, "You haven't showed many days. Do you want to abandon your parents, or your kids?"

up for so

Hearing her complaint, Lucia's smile widened and said softly, "How come? It's just... I've been busy these days." "Busy? What are you busy with?" Mrs. Mitchell snorted coldly, "If you really don't want to come back, I can't force you. Now my daughter is independent."

Lucia helplessly chuckled and said softly, "Mom, I just have a little affairs to cope with over here. I can't leave here right now, so Someone suddenly knocked on the door as she talked to Mrs. Mitchell. Then the door was pushed open. A woman dressed as a nurse poked her head round the door, "Have you got enough rest? Is it convenient for you to dress wound later?" When she asked this question, the voice naturally penetrated into the phone. The other end was silent for a moment, and quickly sounded, "Lucia? What's wrong with you? Are you hurt?" Mrs. Mitchell's voice sounded anxiously.

casually made an excuse, "It's not a careless. You get hurt continuously. You should..." After a "Mom, don't worry. It wasn't serious. It would take a few days, I'll go home after these two days." She said so many words to comfort Mrs. Mitchell, finally persuaded the other end to believe her words. She then hung up phone and took a deep breath. Then she paused for a moment, and secretly sighed in relief. At this time, her greatest fear was to let her parents worried and was more afraid of dad's physical condition. If these two heard something unpleasant and got if she stayed there a little longer, she would be able to be discharged from the hospital soon. She thought that after being discharged from the hospital. Then Lucia went straight back to with laughter again, as if everything had gone back to no stress over those days.

to August Adams. She promised to be with him, and the day after she was discharged from the hospital, Zane contacted standing under a banyan tree not far away. She recognized him days August had not contacted her at all. Suddenly he sent Zane over to closer, Zane smiled at her and said warmly, "Lucia, I haven't seen you
"It's just carelessly, "For me, it's like many laughed out, "Stop for me to come over. He asked me to her thoughts showed on her face. Zane smiled and continued, "President Adams has desired to contact you for such a long time. Yet he could not find time, so he let me come here to protect you in advance instead." Lucia's heart warmed up and she nodded, "I'm clear." Recently, there must be much stuff to cope with. August is as busy as a bee, and how can he find time to meet her? She felt that she could understand August.

breath and asked, "What's the situation at the company?"

situation is getting worse. Many staff in the company have been replaced.