

Submit 562

Chapter 562 What To Do With These Children?

Lucia was uneasy in her mind and made a decision immediately. She got up and walked towards the outside, saying, "I'm going to go there to take a look!"

Just then, the number caller at the entrance of the hospital treatment room suddenly called, "Lucia number twelve, please go to treatment room number three "

Lucia frowned, not knowing what to say. At this time, Zane had already walked over quickly and blocked her, saying, "Lucia, I think it's better to treat your wound first. The wound on your body is serious and it can't wait!"

Lucia clenched her fist and her heart agitated. The wound on her leg couldn't wait, but neither could Garnett! If something terrible happened, how could she explain it to Jeff and Evergreen Meditation Yard? Not to mention, she already felt very guilty about Mr.

Makoto's death. If anything happened to Garnett, she would feel even more ashamed and guilty!

When Zane saw that she didn't say anything, he said, "Lucia, how are you going to look for someone if you don't take care of your wound?

And if Mr. Adams finds out, he will not approve."

Looking at his very firm expression, Lucia swallowed her saliva and couldn't say a word. She knew that even if she ran there in a hurry, August wouldn't allow her to leave. She had to bite the bullet, looked down at the wound on her leg that had been bandaged casually and calmed down.

She got the bandage done as fast as she could, had Zane pay the fee, and then instructed the driver to hurry back. When she arrived at the front of the dilapidated cement factory, Lucia saw several cars parked in front of it through the window before she got out of the car. She saw Kylan standing outside the car, talking to the other men.

Suddenly, a large hand came up next to her and grabbed her wrist, pulling her back. Lucia turned her head to meet August's deep eyes. She frowned in displeasure and asked, "What are you doing?"

to get off with your leg wound. I'll ask Kylan walk on my own." Lucia sounded stubborn and insisted on pulling her hand out of the man's hand, pushing the door up to her,

He is still in a serious voice, "He should be taken away by the men who escaped. We've words, Lucia breathed a sigh of relief in her heart. In this situation, no news this point, Kylan continued, "But there are quite a few children in Sunshine Plant. They are all inside now, and we haven't figured out what to do with deep breath and asked, "Can you be are either orphans or lost with their parents, of all ages. I've just taken someone in to get a rough count, here's the list." Kylan said and looking at the names of more than twenty children on it, and felt only a nickname. There was also a rough tally of ages, as young as four and as old as thirteen. It was quite a a deep breath and asked, "Did Mr.

head and said,

lower lip slightly. Two seconds later, she lifted her foot toward the cement plant and said, hurriedly followed, barely able to keep up with cement was usually produced. There were a few machines inside and piles of group of small children gathered in a corner of the factory, next to various scattered broken tables and benches. Some of them were squatting and some were sitting.

when she met the children's eyes with fear. She took a few tentative steps closer to them and asked softly, "Have you seen him?" It was Garnett's picture that was displayed on the screen

Just then, a tall, thin boy said, "He was taken away bad would happen. She already had a rough guess