

Submit 565

Chapter 565 Doing Everything On Her Own

Lucia picked up the bowl of shrimp and grits on the table, took a sip, and got a light creamy taste. It was indeed the taste she liked, exactly what August had done indeed made her feel warm. But when she thought of what happened today, she was disappointed. She abandoned in Sunshine Plant, but she didn't expect that he would definitely help with those. Lucia sighed softly, took her porridge, and then looked on her swollen ankle. She picked up her phone and started searching all those children. Even if she could not help them find their relatives, she should at the welfare houses in Austos City. She wanted at least pick the best welfare house for them. Only then could she rest assured.

The next morning, Lucia woke up and had breakfast with Garnett. Then she planned to leave and go directly to Sunshine Plant. Just as she reached the door, August suddenly appeared from the flower garden nearby. He looked her up and down, only to see her fully dressed. It seemed that she was going out. She wore a loose white half skirt, which covered the wound on her leg. Except for the way she walked, everything else seemed to be as usual.

August raised his eyebrows slightly and asked, "Are you going out?"

Lucia deliberately did not make her words clear and calmly said, "I'm ready to go." Saying that, she took a step to go. Then she suddenly thought of something and stepped back, turning to look at him and saying, "By the way, I'm wearing the clothes from the closet. I will transfer the money to you then."

August smiled and looked at her, "You don't have to, since we are familiar with each other. Right?"

Lucia said in a serious manner, "No, we are not familiar with each other. I have to pay you."

words. As she was about to walk away,

She hesitated for a second before moment. Then she turned back to him and walked out with quicker steps on coffee. While looking at August, he said, "She's quite persistent, doing everything tell her that you're already planning to help these kids?" August said word for word. "From the beginning, the reason why I refused to help them is that I was afraid that if I agreed to to his normal look. His tightly pursed lips finally moved and he whispered, "What a silly woman! He originally wanted to help children suffer. But mentioned his ideas and actions to her. He did not expect this silly woman to help others with legs. The recent treatment effect is good. When your leg is well, she will not be able to do." Joshua winked at well known, private, domestic and foreign ones under just a for det up lai pie se stad dialed Zane buv Zale asked to larip

you say you said due tly. "Just du as with this matter. But he did not expect ber to be Chunti bald ati hamur later, just as she reached the door, she was greeted by Zane, who greeted her warmly.

the bag in her hand and said softly, "Thank you for your hard work. This is the breakfast I bring for you. Take