Chapter 567 Lucia Owed Darnell a Help

When Lucia heard this, she was so excited that she almost jumped, "Really?"

As soon as Darnell turned his head, he saw the woman's shining eyes full of expectation, and his lips rise, "Of course, it's true." "Great!" Lucia got excited, subconsciously stretched out her hand to grab his arm, "Thank you!"

The man's eyes stayed on Lucia's face for a moment, and then fell on her hands. Lucia seemingly realized she did something wrong She lowered her head, saw her hand, and quickly withdrew her hand, and smiled apologetically at Darnell.

Darnell smiled, "If you really want to thank me, why don't you do me a favor."

"What?"

"I haven't figured it out yet, and you owe me first, and I'll tell you when I think it over." He winked at Lucia as he spoke, and then walked over there to ask his colleague for further updates.

Lucia sat there, looking at the man's serious profile from a distance, and raised the corners of her lips. Darnell really surprised her. After the busy day, they had helped seven children find family information through information searches. As long as the police could contact their relatives, they could return to their families.

The rest of the dozen children were temporarily placed in the best orphanage in Austos City. The orphanage promised to give them the best care, and once there were families which were willing to adopt them, the orphanage would go through the formalities. When the sky slowly darkened, more than 20 children had already found a temporary home. Lucia planned to leave after communicating with the dean of the orphanage.

She followed behind Darnell. Before she could walk out of the yard, she turned her head and saw a row of children standing at the door of
