Chapter 572 Lucia Was Responsible for Garnett.

After sending the message, the stone on Lucia's heart disappeared. She quickly packed Garnett's little luggage, and then left the hospital with the three little cuties.

After getting into the car, before driving, Lucia glanced at the phone screen, and there was no message. She didn't know if August didn't see it or didn't want to reply it. Lucia hesitated for a while, and finally decided to throw the phone aside and drive away.

Unexpectedly, as soon as she put down the phone, the screen suddenly lit up, and the familiar ringtone rang. Lucia immediately picked up the phone again and looked at the screen. The words "Paul" flashed on the screen. Lucia paused, and then pressed the answer button. Paul's voice came, "Hello? Lucia, where are you? As soon as I come back, the house is deserted, and I'm lonely." He said with a half-smile. He suddenly said half-jokingly, "You have to come back soon, and I'm scared at home alone."

Lucia smiled, and her eyes fell on Garnett in the car. She took a deep breath, thinking that she had informed Paul about this, wondering if she would make him angry.

Thinking of this, she heard Paul's chuckle from the other end of the phone again, "Lucia, when you come back, I have some good news for You"

"Good news?" Lucia smiled and couldn't help raising the corners of her lips, "Coincidentally, I also have good news for you. Paul said with a smile, "Okay, I'm rather curious about your good news."

Lucia smiled and said softly, "Okay, let's not talk about it for now. I will talk about it when we meet. I am about to drive" After hanging up the phone, she started the car and looked at the three little guys in the back seat, "Okay, sit carefully. Let's go home."

Forty minutes later, the car arrived at West Bridge, Lucia parked the car carefully at the gate, opened the door and got out of the car. She led the three little guys into the house.
